

Bill Gates

An elite underling sociopath

Introduction

It is unusual for me to concentrate on secular individuals, we should leave the dead to bury their own dead (Matt 8:22).¹ However, part of my job is to warn believers of dangers that face them and their children; that is a good work.

In the case of Bill Gates, whom I have been asked to investigate by my readers, believers need to understand the powerful danger he creates that could affect their families – and avoid it.

Eugenics

I have referred to eugenics several times (e.g. see ‘Climate Change, Eugenics, Oil and Tyranny’, q.v.); but here I will simply summarise.

Definition

The definition of eugenics is: the science of improving a population by controlled breeding to increase the occurrence of desirable heritable characteristics. Developed largely by Francis Galton as a method of improving the human race, it fell into disfavour only after the perversion of its doctrines by the Nazis. [Oxford Dict.]

Evolution

Eugenics is founded upon two principles. The first is Evolutionary Theory. This postulates that there is a constant upward development of species to adapt and change to be fitter to deal with the environment. In doing so animals develop from simpler forms to more complex forms. Weaker, inflexible species die out while successful species continue and adapt. This is summarised by the epithet, ‘survival of the fittest’. This ungodly perversion of creation leads directly to theories of eugenics, both in theoretical principle and in historical fact.

Malthusian Theory

The second is Malthusian Theory. In a nutshell, this is the idea that Earth is overpopulated and there is insufficient food and water for everyone, therefore the planet must be culled in some form. Although Malthus² was worried about overpopulation in his time, the world’s peoples have massively proliferated since then and still survive. However, his theories give support to the elite’s plans for war, famine, interventions and epidemics to cull the population.

¹ ‘While it is a good deed to bury the dead, it is a better one to preach Christ’. [Chrysostom] In other words, don’t get involved in worldly matters; follow Jesus.

² Thomas Robert Malthus [1766–1834], an English economist and clergyman. In Essay on Population (1798) he argued that without the practice of ‘moral restraint’ the population tends to increase at a greater rate than its means of subsistence, resulting in the population checks of war, famine, and epidemic.

In fact, God has made the world to be able to easily support all its inhabitants if governments acted altruistically. Due to man's inherent evil nature, the fact is that a tiny proportion of the human race has vast wealth and abundance while over 99% have much less and a smaller proportion have nothing. A sobering fact is that all the people on the Earth could fit on Newfoundland Island; the world is not overcrowded.

Eugenicists take these two theories and develop means to cull the Earth's population of weaker, lesser people, those who are not fit in their estimation to survive. The idea is to breed a strain of people that fit certain characteristics.

Classic eugenicists focused on sterilisation of certain undesirable types but some went farther into eradicating certain peoples. When mass murder became too difficult to sustain, eugenicists developed programmes to get rid of people covertly. One of these was the abortion programme, which has killed millions of babies in the last 60 years. Other means are more overt, such as vaccination programmes that sterilise certain people types or kill targeted people.

Bill Gates is an eugenicist, born into a family of eugenicists.

William H Gates Snr.

The father of Bill Gates is William H Gates Snr. born 1925, who married Mary Maxwell Gates.

William was a prominent lawyer while his mother was on the board of a bank and the United Way of America. Bill's maternal grandfather was J W Maxwell who was the president of a bank. Bill was thus born into money.

William is also a director of a retail corporation and a co-chair of the Pacific Health Summit.

William is a co-chair of the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

However, more important for our purposes is that William Gates is a eugenicist and a former head of Planned Parenthood.

Planned Parenthood

Planned Parenthood was founded by Margaret Sanger, a major eugenicist who once said, 'We want to exterminate the Negro population'. She sought to use eugenics to 'improve' public health and sustain economic viability. Ostensibly, Planned Parenthood was about publicising birth control, but the basis was stopping the reproduction of 'the unfit' (by whose definition?): 'All our emphasis [is] upon stopping ... the reproduction of the unfit'.³ The definition of 'unfit' centred on Black people. Her 'Negro Project' (ostensibly to aid the reproductive health of Black people) was funded by the Rockefeller Foundation.

Instead of giving real health care advice to Black people, this project solely centred on birth control. 79% of Planned Parenthood surgical abortion facilities are located within walking distance of African American and Latino communities. Although African Americans represent only 13% of the US population, they comprise 30% of the nation's abortions. Sanger's plan was a success. For 'reproductive health' read eugenics and birth control. Note Bill Gates: 'the one issue that really grabbed me as urgent were issues related to population ...

³ Margaret Sanger, 'Birth Control and Racial Betterment', (1919).

reproductive health.⁴ Prominent Black commentators rightly condemned the Negro Project as racism.

Planned Parenthood is simply a eugenics programme and William Gates was once the head of it (as Bill Gates admitted⁵ – but you won't find this on his Wikipedia entry).

Bill Gates' background

Contrary to expectation, Bill Gates is neither an academic nor an innovative entrepreneur. He is a conniving opportunist lacking ethical qualities. He failed his education, dropping out of college. He has no qualifications.

Gates comes over as a harmless nerdy geek who promotes himself as a humanitarian. He is constantly introduced by famous lackeys as a generous philanthropist.⁶ But as Satan masquerades as an angel of light, so also Bill Gates is a charlatan pursuing a satanic agenda. Do not be fooled.

Early life

This need not constrain us in this paper. Bill Gates was born into a wealthy family in Seattle. As a teenager he started basic computer programming with school-friends. He dropped out of Harvard in 1975 to start his own company.

Computers

Gates is seen by many as the face of the home computer. Indeed, many people think that he invented it. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Microsoft

Gates co-founded Microsoft with his friend Paul Allen on 1975. Allen came up with the name 'Microsoft', not Gates. This eventually became the world's biggest personal computer software company. Allen was initially cheated in this partnership, beginning with being forced to accept a 64-36% split of the revenue stream in favour of Gates. Allen supplied the ideas but Gates was better at marketing and pragmatics.

When Allen left Microsoft, Gates tried to buy out his shares at the cut price of $5, so Allen kept his shares. Gates had also tried to dilute his equity by offering stock options to other employees, which was a factor in Allen quitting. Allen's memoir portrayed Gates in a bad light, which he claimed was not bitterness but fact, claiming that he was still friends with Gates. The treatment of Allen shows that Gates is an unprincipled business operator.

The Personal Computer

Computers had been around since early forms in WWII. Over time, IBM became the leading manufacturer of large business computers. I remember visiting a mainframe computer in Birmingham University in the 60s; it filled the entire room and ran on punch cards.

After hobby computers emerged in the 70s, that did little but play games, some realised that a fully functioning home computer for domestic use would be in great demand. The first machine to be a genuine home PC was the Apple II computer in 1977. It was the first mass-produced home computer that you didn't have to assemble yourself. As the market grew, IBM realised that it needed to enter this market and outsourced components to quickly develop its own PC. It developed a computer but needed an operating system to run it.

Operating systems

The pioneer of PC operating systems was Gary Kildall, of DRI (Digital Research Inc.), who wrote Control Program for Microcomputers (CP/M) in 1972. This was the first operating system used on many early hobby home US computers. CP/M was a way to write the same software on many different computers. He wrote this for his personal use and wasn't interested in business matters; however, his wife convinced him it was useful and they formed DRI.

IBM then introduced their home desktop PC (personal computer) and approached Gates in 1980 for an operating system but Microsoft didn't have one. Gates pointed IBM to Kildall. Kildall wasn't there when they arrived and IBM met with his wife, who was not impressed by their demands for a non-disclosure agreement and later they demanded big royalties. In frustration IBM left. IBM then approached Gates again, who saw a major business opportunity. He told IBM that Microsoft could make one for them.

Gates didn't even make this operating system. He bought QDOS⁷ for $75,000, which was written by Tim Paterson of Seattle Computer Products. Gates then sold IBM this operating system, which was subsequently developed into MS-DOS⁸. On seeing this operating system Kildall complained that QDOS had been copied from CP/M. Other software engineers have also stated that QDOS was copied from Kildall's code.⁹

The IBM PC was a huge success with the first machine being released in 1981. It sold two million in the first two years. Microsoft became the leading microcomputer operating system company. Gates wrote nothing but merely acted as an entrepreneur. Gates did not tell IBM that his OS was not exclusive to them and began to sell it to IBM's competitors, such as Compaq, which also used the same 'off-the-shelf' parts. This licensing deal has been called the biggest deal in history and it made Gates a billionaire.

DRI attorney Gerry Davis claimed that MS-DOS had been copied from CP/M and infringed Kildall's copyright, threatening to sue. It is not clear why DRI did not actually go to court on this matter. It seems that IBM did a deal with Kildall to offer CP/M or MS-DOS with their machines. The problem was that MS-DOS sold for $40 and CP/M for $240; both worked exactly the same. No one bought CP/M.

The anxiety of seeing your intellectual property being sold everywhere in the world making Gates rich put Kildall into stress. His wife divorced him. He then went into a depression and became an alcoholic.

Computer buffs debate whether MS-DOS was copied or not but nothing can now be proved¹⁰ and Kildall died young (in mysterious circumstances) at 52 in 1994, just before Windows 95 came out. It is said that he died of head injuries in a fistfight in a biker bar. Certainly MS-DOS was influenced by CP/M at least, as well as UNIX. In 2005 a judge

⁷ 'Quick and Dirty Operating System.'

⁸ Gates hired Paterson to modify QDOS into MS-DOS; 'Microsoft Disc Operating System'. This later became 'Windows'.

⁹ E.g. YouTube, New Thinking, 'The man who could have been Bill Gates (Gary Kildall)'.

¹⁰ Bob Zeidman of Zeidman Consulting, analysed both systems and averred that MS-DOS was not copied, but he has close ties to Microsoft.

found that Tim Paterson had copied CP/M's API; there are certainly similarities between the two operating systems.

In any event, Bill Gates had no scientific input into this development, he was just a shrewd businessman. As a result of his OS software, Gates became one of the richest men on Earth. Despite Kildall being one of the most important people in the development of home computers, few people even know his name.

The monopoly Gates gained by an illegal licensing agreement to pay for MS-DOS on every PC, whether or not it was used, made Gates the richest man in the world. Microsoft settled with the US Justice Dept. in 1994, but had by then gained the dominant market share for all operating systems sold.

Microsoft's lawsuits

Gates' corporation has been involved in many scandals and lawsuits for shady practices. In one case of the US government against Microsoft it was stated that Gates had breached antitrust laws by competing unfairly against Netscape Communications by creating a monopolised browser. There have been numerous court rulings against Microsoft.

Microsoft software, used in all PCs other than Apple and Linux, is notoriously vulnerable to viruses. Indeed, its operating system is considered by experts to be poorly constructed. Gates got rich selling an inferior product.

Windows

Gates is famous for developing the Windows operating system that developed from the original MS-DOS. To fans he is responsible for giving the world home computers, even though they existed before with Apple and IBM machines.

However, many millions of people are unhappy with Windows, in all its iterations, because it is poorly developed and very prone to computer viruses. It is claimed that this weakness is actually deliberate.

It is said that it was called 'Windows' because the Five Eyes intelligence services were given multiple windows through which to monitor your data. It also requires constant streams of security updates containing who knows what. Windows was nothing but a DARPA project.¹¹ It is certain that government agencies have been monitoring your computer data (and other devices) for many years (as Edward Snowden disclosed).

His PR

Gates has spent huge sums in his various self-promotion schemes that cover documentaries, press releases, media interviews, films, publicity stunts, articles, seminars, conferences etc. He has done such a good job that many foolish people buy into his promoted persona as a philanthropist, scientist, investor and social commentator.

The hype has been so assiduous that there are people that virtually worship him. He has even appeared in TV sitcoms where characters do worship him and shower him with love. Some articles have been written claiming that Gates has superpowers (because Gates

¹¹ Defence Advanced Research Projects Agency. An aspect of the US Dept. of Defence that developed advanced technologies used by the military claimed he had them).¹² One commentary piece compared Gates' and his elite friends as comparable with Superman and the Justice League, 'the Super-rich friends'.¹³

Summary

Gates is not a creative entrepreneur. His is a shady businessman with an eye for making money. 'Gates owes his fortune not to making technological contribution but to acquiring and enforcing a fabulously lucrative monopoly in computer operating systems.'¹⁴

He was born into money and was able to drop out of college and start a business. His running of this business is riddled with accusations of bad practice, breaking competition laws, stealing other people's ideas, harsh treatment of colleagues and producing tarnished products.

He has no qualifications to enable him to be a spokesman on vital world issues, such as public health care, population control, vaccines, virology, Epidemiology, or education issues. Yet he is boosted on mainstream news as an expert on all these issues.

Gates' eugenics

We will see, throughout this paper, that Gates is concerned in his many projects to achieve eugenic aims.

Gates was originally an open Malthusian.¹⁵ He showed admiration for the Club of Rome's report 'Limits to Growth' (1972) that revived Malthusian philosophy after WWII. However, today Gates is careful to repudiate Malthus in public. Nevertheless, every one of his initiatives features eugenic goals, such as contraception, depopulation and sterilisation. Gates has even blamed global warming on overpopulation and affirmed that zero population growth is achievable.¹⁶ In fact poor people contribute very little to environmental problems; it is the rich that do that.

It has been the Gates foundation that has contributed most to creating a resurgence of overpopulation hysteria. In 1953 it was the Rockefeller Foundation that scaremongered about overpopulation predicting a 'Malthusian crisis' in the developing world and financed experiments in population control. In the 1970s it was Paul Erlich's book, 'The Population Bomb'.

Gates has contributed billions towards contraception and hidden sterilisation in vaccines. He also lobbies Third World governments to spend more on birth control.

The US foundations have consistently supported eugenics research going back to the 1920s. In fact, Rockefeller helped develop the Nazi eugenics programme that supported Nazi racial theories. In every case where an elite cabal has supported eugenics and feared overpopulation, the result has been political, social and economic repression.

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation

Background: US trusts

Cultural Marxism is the silent revolutionary movement to change society by stealth. It has a number of goals, including the destruction of Christianity and the Christian ethos in society. To do this it aims to turn society upside down and destroy all the historic Christian traditions. It then aims to gradually bring in a centralised, globalist, corporatist, collectivist regime, similar to that of the USSR, run by a cabal of the super rich ruling over a depleted world population of serfs.

Central in this strategy has been the American foundation trusts, such as that of Ford, Carnegie and Rockefeller. These all worked tirelessly to undermine aspects of western society: education, medicine, sociology, the arts etc. Thus Rockefeller after 1901 brought in allopathic medicine and destroyed natural medicine and nutritional therapies. After 1908 Rockefeller began the destruction of traditional education by infiltrating its agents in schools and universities (achieved through generous grants), particularly with a view to censoring history and corrupting the humanities. By the late 1970s US colleges were rampant with Marxist professors.

These American neo-liberal foundations have dominated the destructive changes in society for over 100 years and are now in positions of great power. Hidden Marxism now undergirds all the key centres of power and social life in the west. The Gates foundation is the latest of these and the most powerful because it has the most money.

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation is a tax-exempt trust created in 2000 and used by Gates to sponsor pet eugenic schemes to the tune of billions of dollars. It does this in the name of humanitarianism, but its goal is depopulation by any means. It does this through gaining control of various fields: public health, medical research, vaccines, seed patents and so on. There are three trustees: Bill and Melinda Gates and Warren Buffett. Bill Gates Snr. is a co-chair. The foundation is accountable to no one, except Bill Gates, who shapes its policies.

To date the foundation has $46.8 billion on its books and does not pay tax. It dwarfs other foundations (Ford - $10bn; Rockefeller - $3bn; Carnegie $2.7bn). All these tax-exempt foundations are key institutions in advancing the global elite Socialist strategies.

Some of this money was used for intensive public relations programmes to transform Gates from a geek into a world crusading advocate and philanthropist for health and agriculture and now education.

Some of the projects funded by Gates are:

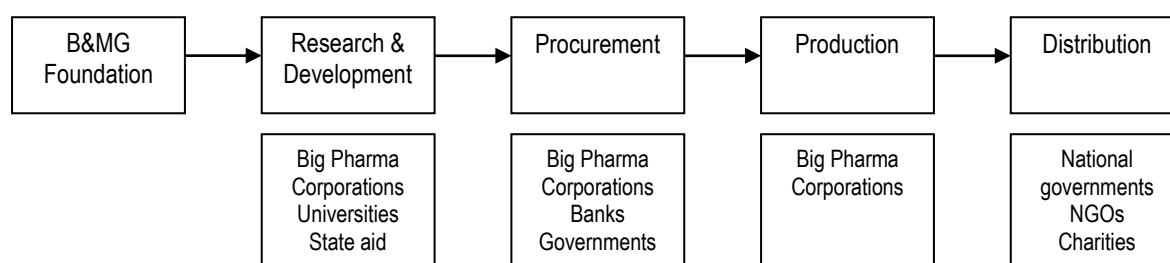

- The WHO.
- Imperial College London.
- The Guardian's Global Development website.
- Our world in data website.
- NPR's global health coverage.

- The BBC's coverage of global health and development issues through BBC Media Action.
- Health coverage on ABC news.
- Newshour with Jim Lehrer.
- GAVI, the vaccine alliance.
- Global fund to fight AIDS.
- Coalition for Epidemic Preparedness.

And many more.

It is a multinational corporation

The foundation's tentacles are in very many pies and its operation does not represent a charity in its function but is more like a multi-national corporation. It fully controls the supply chain (governments, charities and private corporations in its partnered groups) in its projects.

Gates' control in public health matters has become a near monopoly, following the pattern of Microsoft. 'You can't cough, scratch your head or sneeze in health without coming to the Gates Foundation'.¹⁷ Jeff Raikes (former CEO of Gates' Foundation) said, 'We are not replacing the UN. But some people would say we're a new form of multilateral organisation'.¹⁸ This is a new medical corporatocracy.

This is part of the global elite's plans for the future. The Council on Foreign Relations has already espoused the view that state-sponsored health care must disappear to be replaced by a supranational regime of 'new legal frameworks, public-private partnerships, national programmes, innovative financing mechanisms and greater engagement by non-governmental organisations, philanthropic foundations and multinational corporations'.¹⁹

The Gate foundation's involvement in global health and its influence on national governments is very dangerous for these reasons:

- It is vastly endowed with money. This gives it great power.
- Gates is unelected.
- Gates has no medical qualifications, experience or expertise.
- The Gates foundation is unaccountable.
- It has no respect for democracy, national sovereignty or individual dispositions.
- It is closely connected with other centres of power, such as the UN, the WHO and the CIA.
- Gates' projects have already caused massive harm to thousands of people.

The charitable efforts that make money

There are two aspects to the foundation with conflicting interests. The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation distributes money to special interests but the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation Trust manages the endowment assets. It has been observed that often the grants given by the former enhance the value of the latter or are contrary to stated principles. For example, giving millions to Monsanto conflicts with the foundation's claimed interest in helping poor farmers.

In 2019, for example, Gates gave away $35 billion in one year but didn't see his personal net worth drop at all. 60% of his assets are invested in equities earning him money overall. Despite giving away $35 bn his worth was increased by $16 bn. So those people who worship (yes, literally) Bill Gates need to understand that his philanthropy does not actually cost him anything. Every year he gets richer.

Worse still, his supposedly altruistic programmes for the poor actually make him money. Despite claiming to want to help poor Africans and Indians, commentators have averred that Gates seeks to profit from Africa.²⁰ Why should poor farmers be forced into debt to purchase fertilisers underwritten by Gates' foundation? Why not just give money to support poor farmers?

The first guiding principle of the foundation is that it is driven by the interests and passions of the Gates family.²¹

Which we know is eugenics.

Some foundation projects

- Creating the genetically modified perfect cow.
- Spending $1bn to cover the Earth in video surveillance satellites.
- One grant was a project directed by convicted paedophile Jeffrey Epstein.
- Gates wants to dim the sun by spraying millions of tons of dust into the atmosphere to stop global warming.²²

Note that no one elected Gates into public office. Why does he think that he has authority to do things to change the Earth and nature?

Criticisms

Public health officials have been scathing about the Gates' foundation in private. They attack it as 'imperious', 'controlling' and 'contemptuous of advice from experts'. It seeks to divide and conquer the institutions of global health via a stealth monopolisation of communications and advocacy.²³

The foundation has not been interested in strengthening existing health systems but has competed with them and often subverts them, bypassing existing infrastructure and personnel. In fact it often undermines community-based primary care.

²⁰ See criticisms by Global Justice.

The Gates Foundation, for its part, invariably acts to steer resources away from community-based holistic doctoring and toward single-disease crash programmes, controlled by Western NGOs in collaboration with health-related MNCs. Its approach to diarrhoea, which kills upwards of one million infants annually, is a case in point.²⁴

Treatment of diarrhoea is well known and includes proper sanitation, education, clean water, and oral rehydration salts and zinc supplements. Instead Gates promotes vaccine programmes and directs governments away from investing in sanitation infrastructure.

Bill Gates' vaccination programmes

The origin

In 2009 the 'Good Club', a gathering of the world's richest men (plus Oprah Winfrey), met in New York in secret to discuss threats posed by the economic crash. It was led by Bill Gates, Warren Buffet and David Rockefeller and included George Soros. The group identified key issues as overpopulation and infectious disease. They resolved to commit billions on vaccines whatever national governments or charitable organisations thought. Their goals were presented as focused on health programmes and altruism but the main agenda was always depopulation because, at least the leaders, are open eugenicists.

The press discovered the details of this meeting and announced the start of 'philanthrocapitalism'. These rich men saw themselves as world saviours above national governments, able to solve problems with money: 'Philanthrocapitalists are increasingly trying to find ways of harnessing the profit motive to achieve social good'.²⁵ In reality the social good in the mind of these elite people is not the good of the poor, the working class, the old, the sick, the disabled, or the dissenters, it is the goal of a one world government ruled by the rich over a reduced population of serfs.

This was a key spur to Gates' vaccination strategy, who openly stated that immunisation programmes could reduce the world's population.

Gates started sponsoring vaccine and agricultural programmes in Third World Countries. While claiming that these are to promote health, in reality they are depopulation schemes. Gates openly states that this is his goal:

The most interesting thing I learned ... is that, as you improve health in a society, population growth goes down.²⁶

What we found out is that as health improves families choose to have less children.²⁷

The key thing you can do to reduce population growth is actually improving health.²⁸

What Gates does not admit, but the facts demonstrate, is that his vaccines include sterilisation programmes on unsuspecting females. The Rockefeller Foundation has been investigating such methods since 1968.²⁹ In 1972 the Rockefeller Population Council partnered with the WHO to create a task force on vaccines for fertility regulation. In 1995 they developed an anti-hCG vaccine which stops embryos growing to full term. Scandals about this in the Philippines and Kenya led the group to back off; but Gates' foundation stepped in to develop deployment of contraceptives in vaccines.

In 2010 Gate's committed $10 billion to the WHO to reduce global population through new vaccines. A month later Gates told a Ted Talk that new vaccines could reduce world population. What kind of philanthropist has a goal of depopulation through vaccines? Are not vaccines meant to stabilise the population by reducing deaths?

In 2014 a Gates sponsored partner, Microchips Biotech Inc., announced a wireless implant that can be switched by remote control to effect birth control lasting up to 16 years.

Gates influences national health programmes not just by giving money but through a elaborate network of partner organisations, such as the UN's WHO. He organises vast public-private partnerships with programmes designed to make money for profit-seeking corporations. For example, one tropical disease initiative involved: USAID, the World Bank, many national governments, and a consortium of 13 Big Pharma companies. These are called, 'multi-stakeholder initiatives'.

Covid-19

The response to Covid-19 is a good illustration of how Gates is involved at all levels, carrying huge influence over national governments, regarding a global vaccination strategy.

A coronavirus pandemic has been long planned for by Gates to be utilised for his eugenic and social control ends.

For some odd reason, Gates has been appearing often, almost daily, on US television pontificating about Covid-19 as a health care specialist, yet he is no doctor, virologist or epidemiologist and makes statements that are contrary to genuine epidemiologists.

Gates is using the current epidemic to demand mandatory vaccines, made by him of course. 'Until we get almost everybody vaccinated global, we still won't be fully back to normal'.³⁰ This is scientifically utter nonsense, as made plain by epidemiologist Knut Wittkowski.³¹ There is no need for a vaccine once herd immunity has been achieved, as it is every flu season. A Gates global vaccine would allow him to rake in trillions of dollars. That's why he has a patent on coronavirus.

Note how the coronavirus narrative was implicitly connected to Gates in every department.

- The directives from the WHO, which is sponsored heavily by Gates.³² These directives actually led to the outbreak being worse than necessary.³³ Apart from being an elite NGO, the current director-general, Tedros Adhanom Ghedreysus has no medical qualifications and is a disgraced former minister of health in Ethiopia who covered up three cholera outbreaks. Yet he dictated public health policy to national government's. He was also a former board-member of Gates-funded GAVI and Global Fund to Fight AIDS, TB and Malaria ³² Gates is the second-largest donor. Only the USA gives more.

³³ E.g. affirming that there was no evidence for human-to-human transmission.

- The faulty advice from Imperial College and the erroneous modelling³⁴ by Neil Ferguson, was heavily sponsored by Gates. In 2020 thus far alone Gates gave Imperial College $79 million.
- The Washington Institute for Health Metrics and Education corroborated Imperial College's estimate of 2.2 million deaths in the US. This also gets grants from Gates. In 2017 Gates' foundation announced it was giving $279 million to expand its work.
- The face of the White House's lockdown policy has been Anthony Fauci who is also pushing for a vaccine. Fauci has direct ties to Gates. In 2010 he was appointed to the leadership council of the Gates' funded 'Decade of Vaccines' project to implement a global vaccines action plan, which Gates' funded with $10 billion. Gates also funded $100 million to the National Institute of Health, which helped Fauci's National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases research into HIV. [See later.]

Indeed, some people have claimed that the SARS-Covid-2 virus was actually paid for by Gates' research grants. There is no hard evidence for this claim and such evidence would be hard to obtain.

Facts related to Gates, Covid-19 and vaccine programmes

- In October 2019 Gates' foundation co-hosted 'Event 201' which staged an exercise to gauge the economic and societal impact of a global coronavirus pandemic. Too coincidental for words.
- Gates has a patent on coronavirus. One coronavirus strain is patented by the Pirbright Institute, which is partially funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. Patent US 2017/0216427 A1, 3 August 2017. The reason for this is that it can be used to create a vaccine.
- Gates has publicly stated that vaccines are one of the keys to reducing the world's population.³⁵
- Gates is funding a Covid-19 vaccine research programme run by Moderna, which is partnered by Dr Fauci's agency. Gates is also funding other Covid-19 research vaccines, such as one by CEPI.³⁶ CEPI is central to Gates' global vaccination project and links Big Pharma, government agencies, the World Bank, WHO, universities and health charities. In fact, CEPI is funding six Covid-10 vaccines (Curevac, Inovio, Pharmaceuticals, Moderna and others). The UK government has pledged CEPI £250 million towards a vaccine.
- Gates also funds and sponsors GAVI, which is also funded by the UK government. GAVI sponsors the VIMC where Ferguson works on his models. GAVI funds CEPI and is partnered with the WHO, the World Bank, Gates' foundation and UNICEF. The UK government has pledged £330 million a year for five years to GAVI.
- Gates has a programme called 'ID2020' which relates to a digital ID signature being transferred to people through a vaccine to allow total surveillance (see later). Through a global Gates' vaccine, he could a) make trillions of dollars; b) impart his digital tracker; c) damage the host immune system or cause sterility.
- Gates has suggested that social interactions must become privileges, not rights, that are dependent upon having a certificate proving that you have been vaccinated against ³⁴ Analysts have now described the coding as useless and primitive, not fit for purpose. It is 'completely unusable for scientific purposes'. Covid-19. Thus you could not be in a crowd or be employed if you were not vaccinated. What right has Gates to trample over the rights of Britons secured in our constitution?

- The goal of Covid-19 is to get every person on Earth vaccinated with ID2020.
- Virologists affirm that a real vaccine for Covid-19 is not possible because it mutates so fast. In fact the real problem with people suffering from Covid-19 is a suppressed immune system that overreacts and causes damage.
- Gates is also funding facial recognition apps such as research by the firm Onfido which is working on creating 'immunity passports'. This will be part of new background checks on prospective employees before they can work.

Covid-19 is being used as a platform to rollout totalitarian control strategies

Some of the things that the government is currently saying needs to happen to contain the virus after the peak.

- Social distancing to continue indefinitely.
- Contact tracing to be initiated.
- Immunity passports being considered.
- Mandatory vaccinations being considered.
- Biometric surveillance of the workforce.
- Wearing facemasks at work.

Relative facts to the above

- The virus is not a pandemic. Data proves that its effect is similar to a bad flu season.
- The worst symptoms and deaths are found in people that have been vaccinated for flu.³⁷
- Once herd immunity is reached and the cases diminish (the peak in the UK was 8 April; some say 10 March) there is no need for any vaccine.
- Viruses are much smaller than bacteria and this means that social distancing and a lockdown are pointless. Viruses can get through facemasks (which actually depress the immune system);³⁸ viruses can enter the body through mouth, nose, eyeballs, ears and skin. As infected people breathe, viruses are spread throughout the environment; social distancing and screens are utterly pointless.

Thus none of the establishment's restrictions have any medical benefit. The purpose is to effect population control, create fear/submission and rollout mandatory vaccines, run by Bill Gates.

Specific complaints about vaccines

The vaccination programme is actually a eugenic programme that is designed to do various things. These include:

- Cause sterility of certain ethnic types.
- Cause proneness to certain sicknesses and debilitating diseases (e.g Autism, ME).
- Kill certain people types. Remember that Gates' chief ambition is depopulation.
- Cause cancer.
- Inject heavy metals, toxins, pathogen, animal cells, aborted baby cells, and nanobots to render people more susceptible to future epidemics like Covid-19. It is now known that ³⁷ 30% of vaccines impart retroviruses from animals; Covid-19 reacts with these, which worsen symptoms. See Dr Judy Mikovits, bibliography.

³⁸ Through restricting oxygen, re-breathing CO₂ and exacerbating secretions.

people that had flu vaccines were more susceptible to Covid-19 and died in greater numbers than others.³⁹

- For example; the flu vaccine is filled with toxins and carcinogens. These include a derivative of mercury (thimerosal), formaldehyde and aluminium. It does not prevent flu but actually makes one more liable to catch flu and makes its worse.⁴⁰

Gates, a committed eugenicist, is now the crusader in chief of vaccines sponsoring multiple vaccine research labs and corporations as well as the WHO. His sponsored vaccines have caused suffering to untold numbers of poor children. For example:

Tetanus vaccine

In 2014 the Kenyan Catholic Doctors Association as well as the Kenyan Catholic Bishops Conference expressed fears that a UNICEF/WHO (sponsored by Gates) tetanus vaccine was laced with hCG, a contraceptive hormone. It claimed that the WHO had chemically sterilised millions of women. Independent tests confirmed that all the vaccines contained hCG. This was a deliberate plan to sterilise Black women, as they originally openly determined that vaccines would reduce populations.

Similar accusations arose from Tanzania, Nicaragua, Mexico and the Philippines.

Polio vaccines

Gates promised to eradicate Polio with $1.2bn and took control of India's National Advisory Board mandating 50 Polio vaccines to every child before the age of five. Indian doctors blame Gates for a devastating vaccine-strain Polio epidemic that paralysed 496,000 children between 2000 and 2017. In 2017 the Indian government rolled back this programme and kicked Gates out of the country. As a result, Polio rates immediately dropped.

The WHO had to eventually admit that a global Polio explosion was a vaccine-strain; i.e. from Gates' vaccine. Epidemics in Congo, the Philippines and Afghanistan are linked to Gates' vaccine. By 2018, 75% of global cases were from Gates' vaccines.

HPV vaccines

In 2014 Gates funded experimental HPV vaccines developed by GSK and Merck. These were tested on 23,000 young girls in remote Indian provinces. 1200 suffered autoimmune and fertility disorders, seven died.

The Indian government charged Gates' workers with ethical violations and forcing consent and even refusing medical care to injure patients. The case is in the Indian Supreme Court for illegally testing drugs on 30,000 children without legal consent.

Malaria

In 2010 Gates funded a trial of a GSK experimental malaria vaccine which killed 151 African infants and caused serious side-effects, including paralysis, seizure and convulsions to 1,048 children.

Meningitis

In 2002 Gate's workers forcibly vaccinated thousands of African children against meningitis. Up to 500 developed paralysis.

³⁹ See research by Dr Judy Mikovits, Plague of Corruption and recent interviews. The US Army also initiated medical studies on soldiers and found that those that had flu shot suffered worse.

⁴⁰ See my paper 'The Influenza Vaccine'.

Contraceptive

Pfizer's Depo-Provera had alarming side effects, which included: infertility, bleeding, depression, hypertension, infections, hair loss, stomach pain, blurred vision, acne, cramps, rashes, diarrhoea and oedema. The FDA approved it in 1992 whereupon a disparity was found between prescriptions to White or Black women, leading to claims that African American women were being denied the ability to control their own reproduction. This led to a decline of commercial potential in the west. Gates stepped in to increase the profits by distributing the drug worldwide. In 2012 a Gates-sponsored programme announced plans to distribute the drug to millions of South Asian women and women in sub-Saharan Africa by 2016. The potential profit was between $15bn to $36bn. None of these women would accept the drug if they knew the side-effects, which were hidden from them.

DTP

A 2017 study⁴¹ showed that the WHO's DTP vaccine is killing more Africans than the diseases it is supposed to prevent. Vaccinated girls suffered ten times the death rate of unvaccinated girls. Gates refused to accept this.

WHO policy

Critics claim that Gates redirected the WHO's agenda from good projects (clean water supply, hygiene instruction, economic development) to vaccines. In other words, as a result of Gate's direction, policies that saved lives were diminished while vaccines that damage and kill were utilised.

Gates' vaccines are also supported by funded research in connection with Big Pharma that is flawed and deceptive. Dissent is also silenced and compliance coerced.

The elite often use the Hegelian Dialectic (thesis/antithesis/synthesis). The vaccination programme is part of the totalitarian formula: create fear of a disease (problem), create a vaccine for the disease (reaction); embed a tracer in every vaccinated person (solution).

The vaccine problem/reaction/solution scenario is just one of the elites' strategies and it serves to monitor every human being and categorise them according to levels of dissent/threat, or be a kill switch.

Gates is already demanding indemnity against lawsuits before he agrees to distribute Covid-19 vaccines. Why is immunity from prosecution for harmful effects necessary if the vaccine is tested and safe?

Gates' obsession with vaccines seems fuelled by a messianic conviction that he is ordained to save the world with technology and a god-like willingness to experiment with the lives of lesser humans.

Note the fact that Bill Gates refuses to allow his own children to be vaccinated!

Human guinea pigs

A South African newspaper declared, 'We are guinea pigs for the drugmakers'.⁴² This was in response to a number of Gates' funded vaccine trials in Africa. Gates had promised Big Pharma (whose profits were being curtailed by expensive mandatory drug safety trials) that he could effect the trials more cheaply. Thus began many Gates' funded vaccine programmes in Africa and India on poor people.

⁴¹ Morgensen et. al. AI,2017.

⁴² Johannesburg Times, 25 July 2013.

The Big Pharma companies called these a success but ignored the many deaths, and severe side effects, which included paralysis. But worse it later emerged that a host of criminal practices were used, including:

- Forcibly vaccinating children.
- Bullying parents to sign consent forms that they could not read.
- Making false claims about safety.
- Forging signatures.
- There was no follow up or care given to injured children.

In India the government concluded that these Gates'-funded campaigns administered by PATH were indeed clinical trials conducted on behalf of Big Pharma to side-step proper safety trials. It stated that this was a violation of human rights and child abuse.⁴³

Worse still, what Gates had tried to do was create a market for a failing brand. The HPV vaccine (Gardasil by Merck or Cervarix by GSK) had dipped in sales in the west as more people became aware of its dangers and as medics denied that it had any validity anyway. Gates used GAVI to 'shape vaccine markets'. Gates has also tried to boost other failing drugs.

Stopped Trump's vaccine safety commission

Gates openly admitted that he stopped Trump's Planned Vaccine Safety Commission led by Robert Kennedy Jnr. in the early days (March 2017) of his administration. When Trump confronted Gates on the safety of vaccines and was considering a commission, Gates said, 'No, that's a dead end. That would be a bad thing. Don't do that.'⁴⁴

A curious meme

A sarcastic image has appeared on the Internet. It features a photograph of Bill Gates on the right and another man on the left. The move to biometric ID

In 2017 GAVI (funded by Gates), the WHO GAVI (funded by Gates) and the World Bank (funded by Gates) worked with vaccine producers to move from vaccinating every child on Earth to providing every child with a digital biometric ID to store a child's medical history. This led to the ID2020 alliance, a public-private sector partnership (including the Rockefeller Foundation) dedicated to global digital biometric identification.

Gates has spent billions unifying this digital ID project with vaccines. The result was dissolvable microneedles that deliver patterns of near-infrared light emitting microparticles to the skin. Thus vaccinated people can have these particles read by remote devices. This allows Gates to know who is vaccinated, remotely.

The essential ingredient in ID2020

The basic constituents of the digital identification mark in the proposed Gates' Covid-19 vaccine are:

- Quantum Dot microneedles which dissolve. These leave quantum dot tags like a bar code under the skin. They are made from a dissoluble sugar and PVA polymer with a quantum-dot dye and the vaccine.
- A digital identification mark. 'The immunity passport'.
- A human implantable device for buying and selling cryptocurrency with a patent number of #060606.⁵² The patent abstract explains that this is a process whereby a sensor reads data in a person's body, which generates financial activity. The patent is owned by Microsoft.

- An enzyme that allows reading of the data.

Researchers⁵³ have discovered the central ingredient in Gates' vaccines that makes them work. His system is called 'The human implantable quantum Dot microneedle vaccination delivery system'. This contains the unique biochemical agent, near infrared bioluminescence enzyme luciferase'. This makes the quantum Dot contents readable through a mobile device. This enzyme allows implanted data to be read long after the vaccination.

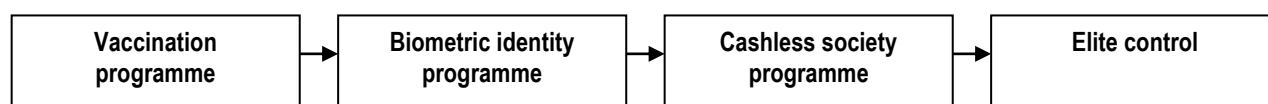

Luciferase is a class of enzymes that were named by Raphael Dubois and include the bioluminescence of fireflies. The name 'Lucifer' means 'light-bringer'. I'm sure this is just a coincidence in its use by Gates.

Gates has stated that the digital certificate provided by the quantum dot system will be necessary to show who has been tested for Covid-19 or who has been vaccinated to prove immunity and be able to socialise.⁵⁴ 'Eventually, what we'll have to have is certificates of who is a recovered person, who is a vaccinated person'.⁵⁵

The World Bank was also working towards an Identification Development Initiative (ID4D) citing goal 16.9 of the UN Agenda 2030, another depopulation eugenic project. This initiative floundered until Gates threw money at it in 2016.

Promoted as enabling financial inclusion (where poor people can access financial institutions with an ID) it is really about social control and financial exclusion of dissidents, as the book of Revelation prophesied 2000 years ago; 'no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark', (Rev 13:17).

In fact Gates' foundation has been involved in the development of a cashless society since 2012 when it founded the 'Better Than Cash Alliance'. Gates' projects on vaccines, ID and cash all fit together to form a digital society where despotic control is easy.

In this dystopian society, government mandated vaccinations, biometric ID and a cashless society, means everyone has their details recorded digitally in government technocratic systems. If someone is considered a dissident, then their functionality is terminated. In this world there is no such thing as privacy.

Lies spouted by Gates to promote a vaccine

Coronavirus presents a huge threat.

If anything kills more than 10 million people in the next few decades, it's most likely to be a highly infectious virus rather than a war. [Spoken in 2015.]

- In normal circumstances, 57 million people die every year. 9 million die of heart disease. Nearly 6 million die of a stroke. Pulmonary diseases kill 3 million. Lower respiratory disease kills over 2 million. TB and RTAs both kill nearly 2 million people. Non-communicable diseases kill 24 million each year. Nobody shuts society down because of this. Currently 400 million people are in lockdown in the US, Canada and UK alone.
- Infectious viruses do not kill more than 10 million people a year (TB is not a virus). They kill about 4 million a year.
- There have been five major plagues that killed many millions in the last 2,000 years. [Black Death in 1350 – 75m; Spanish Flu in 1918 – 50m; AIDS in 1980s – 25m; Plague of Justinian in 541 – 25m; Antonine Plague in 150 – 5m.] The odds are against it right now.

This is a nightmare scenario because human to human transmissible respiratory viruses can grow exponentially.

If we'd kept on going to work ... then that curve would never bend until you had the majority of people infected.

- The virus is not a nightmare scenario. It was never a threat. Lockdown has had zero effect. The effect of the virus in most countries was less than a bad flu season. In the UK and US many deaths were caused by the wrong treatment (ventilators, antivirals) and the statistics were rigged to inflate Covid-19. The infected rate in Hubei, the worst case in China, was 0.115%. The establishment was talking about an 80% infected rate. The UK government lied about data, not China. The progress of many countries is proving to be like Hubei.
- The progress of the virus has been like any other, it did not grow exponentially but began to curve immediately. All the data from all the countries shows the same trend. In fact the peak in the UK was around 10 March before the lockdown. The data (such as from South Korea or Italy) available to Gates at the time of this interview already showed this. None of the virus curves in any nation are exponential. The curve was well established in Italy at 100k per 100m people (0.1%) yet Gates said the curve would not happen until the majority have been infected. He lied by a factor of 500 times.
- The UK Chief Medical Officer, funded by Bill Gates, said on 23 March that 530,000 could die, purely to scare people.

Quarantine is and remains the only valid action in response to this threat. Quarantine is a holding measure until testing and vaccines are available.

We've had to use quarantine which is an old thing back from the days of the plague as our primary tool.

No return to normal until vaccines.

- This meme was then parroted by all the heads of western governments.
- Note the use of the reference to 'plague' to scare people.
- Quarantine of an entire nation has never been required for previous virus epidemics and Covid-19 is no more than this.
- Vaccines are completely unnecessary for viruses that the immune system acts naturally to protect us from.
- What is necessary is boosting the immune system of everyone that has been compromised by medical failures (e.g. Flu shots) and bad diets.
- What is effective is allowing young people to mingle and get the virus and then get immunity. Lockdown hinders this. Quarantine is only necessary for vulnerable people, such as the elderly in care homes – and give them extra care. The UK government did exactly the wrong thing and now thousands are dying in care homes of non-Covid-19 ailments.

- With herd immunity, viruses have nowhere to go and disappear.

And then a massive number seeking hospital care and lots and lots of deaths.

- This led to the agenda to save the NHS from meltdown, which was a massive mistake. Nightingale hospitals were built, which had no one in them. All normal elective procedures were cancelled. Most hospital wards and clinics were empty.⁵⁷ The fear caused huge numbers not to go to hospital when they should have done. Medical professionals everywhere are saying that far more people will die from the lockdown than the virus. We have unnecessarily culled the population of the elderly and sick (which is something Gates actually wants).

If we use that (quarantine) well enough we should ... start to see those numbers level off.

- All virus epidemics level off on their own.
- Experience has shown that the lockdown achieved nothing that would not have occurred anyway.
- Sweden proves that you can keep your economy going with no lockdown and the virus has much the same effect as other nations (in fact better than the UK).

If we continue countrywide and we're testing the right people to understand what's going on which is not the case yet those numbers will start to go down and then we can look at some degree of opening back up.

- The numbers around the world were already starting to go down. The virus was virtually over in China at that time.
- Virologists and epidemiologists already knew what was going on.
- The hard data on the effect of the virus was already available.
- The testing was pointless. It even gave a false positive to a fruit (papaya) and a goat.⁵⁸
- Who gave Gates the authority to make these statements ('then we can look at some degree of opening back up')? He is not elected and has no science or medical qualifications.

Vaccines are the only way to counter the devastating threat to the virus.

Things won't go back to truly normal until we have a vaccine that we've gotten out to basically the entire world.

- The global annual market for a Covid-19 vaccine is in the region of $78 billion (at $10 a shot).
- Vaccines are unnecessary for Covid-19 now it has passed through the population.
- Virologists and microbiologists affirm that a specific vaccine for Sars-Cov-2 is not possible. The Sars-Cov-1 epidemic of 2003 (a similar virus) led to a 17-year search for a vaccine and it has not been possible.
- Any vaccine needs years (up to 15) to be safety tested, and even then they injure people and lead to litigation. A vaccine formulated in weeks (which is what is being proposed) is likely to be highly dangerous.

⁵⁷ ICUs were busy but many were no busier than a normal flu season.

⁵⁸ No testing definitely proves presence of Covid-19; it just shows a definite coronavirus, of which there are many types, including the common cold.

- Gates has applied for indemnity against litigation for vaccine side effects.

The Covid-19 vaccine is going to be pointless and dangerous

For several reasons:

- Once herd immunity is achieved there is no need for a vaccine.
- The immune system is better than any vaccine.
- SARS Covid-1 led to a search for a vaccine for nearly 20 years and it was impossible to make one. Why will it suddenly be possible for a SARS Covid-2 vaccine in a matter of weeks?
- The Influenza vaccine is useless and dangerous. It has been proved to be ineffective and it makes a person more likely to get a more serious bout of flu the following season. The various vaccines also contain highly toxic substances, including carcinogens. Furthermore, Dr Judy Mikovits has proved (at great personal cost) that flu vaccines impart animal retroviruses, which can be triggered by something like Covid-19. Many patients that died from Covid-19 were found to have had a flu shot.
- Gates has already admitted that up to 700,000 people could have serious side-effects of his vaccine, including permanent injury and death.⁵⁹
- Gates also admits that his vaccine won't be much good for elderly people.⁶⁰
- Statisticians consider that half of the American population will refuse the vaccine. If one in two people are unvaccinated, it makes the vaccine pointless anyway.

Quotes

We may indeed be just at the beginning of the new implementation of ID2020 – which includes forced vaccination, population reduction and total digital control of everybody, on the way to One World Order; and global financial hegemony – Full Spectrum Dominance, as the PNAC (Plan⁶¹ for a New American Century) likes to call it.

Peter Koenig⁶²

Bill Gates' climate change programmes

Gates' schemes in this connection are also based upon population control. He explained that achieving zero carbon emissions involved reducing the population.⁶³ He said,

The world today has 6.8 billion people. That's headed up to about 9 billion. Now, if we do a really great job on new vaccines, health care, reproductive health services, we could lower that by, perhaps, 10 or 15%.⁶⁴

People need to be aware that Gates' plan for vaccines is not saving lives but depopulation.

Melinda Gates pledged over $1 billion to Family Planning 2020 whose goal is to get birth control to 120 million more women by 2020. Culture of Life Africa has called this 'the culture of death'.⁶⁵

As already mentioned, Gates wants to dim the sun by spraying millions of tons of dust into the atmosphere to stop global warming.

Despite being a Climate Change activist, he recently purchased a mansion close to the beach on the West Coast at Del Mar (near San Diego). He clearly doesn't believe that the oceans are going to rise.

Bill Gates' agricultural programmes

Monsanto

Monsanto is the evil corporation that uses GM technology to put glyphosate poison into food.

Gates purchased half a million shares in Monsanto in 2010, valued at over $23 million. There are claims that Gates plans to gain control of the world's food supply.

Seeds

Gates' foundation is currently spending billions in the process of establishing a global monopoly on food by promoting GM crops and seeds. The seeds are then patented forcing poor farmers to pay for something that was formerly free.

The impact of GM crops and seeds in India led to crop failures and thousands of farmers committing suicide.

Synthetic meat

This is a programme that Gates believes will make him money, as opposed to many programmes that lose him money. Gates wants to make synthetic meat to get people to stop eating beef and enabling a cull of cattle that contribute to global warming.

Hunger

Gates claims that hunger is rooted in 'population growth, rising incomes, dwindling natural resources and a changing climate'.⁶⁶ This is a false picture. In fact food production has been trending upwards for decades and is at an historic high. The problem with hunger of the poor is the greed and waste of the rich. The problem is not inadequate productivity but unequal distribution.

Food insecurity has been exacerbated in recent years by the massive dispossession of small farmers by Big Aggro (funded by Gates), depriving millions of their livelihoods. In India alone hundreds of thousands of farmers committed suicide after Monsanto got involved with their food production and crops failed. Gates is fully committed to high-tech, high-yield concentrated farming methods. In fact Gates works closely with Monsanto and funds GMO research. He has also sponsored microbanking schemes, which proved to be a debt trap leading to dispossession of rural families.

Far from empowering small farmers (as he claims) Gates envisions the departure of small farmers from their land, ('land mobility').

In order to transition agriculture from the current situation of low investment, low productivity and low returns to a market-oriented, highly productive system, it is essential that supply (productivity) and demand (market access) expand together. ...

⁶⁶ Gates Foundation website, 'Agricultural development strategy'.

This involves market-oriented farmers operating profitable farms that generate enough income to sustain their rise out of poverty. Over time this will require some degree of land mobility and a lower percentage of total employment involved in direct agricultural production.⁶⁷

In other words, Big Aggro concentrated operations and dispossessing small rural farmers. The fate of these farmers is to migrate to big cities where they can only hope to live in slums. It has been estimated that subjecting agriculture to Gates' market principles means 20 million industrial farm corporations producing the global food supply instead of the present 3 billion peasant farmers.⁶⁸ Billions of poor farmers would lose their land and livelihoods, and this process has already started.

Education

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation has developed a new education strategy for the world. This is supposedly to provide better education systems in India and Africa, however, it already finances education programmes in the USA. In fact, education is the chief focus of the foundation's giving in the US.

In America the foundation seeks to privatise public schools and subordinate teacher's unions.

Gates' contrariness

Gates acts as a scientific commentator on medical issues, especially epidemics, in the mainstream media; yet he is not a qualified doctor, virologist or epidemiologist. Yet he dictates the medical actions that governments need to take the world over.

Gates pontificates on medical health issues, especially for the Third World, but he has no medical qualifications.

Gates produces vaccines for use in Third World Countries yet he is no microbiologist.

Gates is involved in all sorts of Big Aggro schemes, including patenting seeds, but he is no agricultural scientist.

Gates has promoted himself as a computer expert but he stole the basic idea of MS-DOS; he did not develop it.

Gates dropped out of college with a failed education, yet he now proposes a global education programme.

Gates wants to force vaccination on the whole world and yet will not vaccinate his own children.

Technocracy

Gates is part of an elite plan to establish a technocracy as a subset of its plan for global domination. Technocracy is 'the government or control of society or industry by an elite of technical experts'. [Oxford Dictionary.] Gates has openly admitted that his prime goal is to 'transform the societies'.⁶⁹

In the current Covid-19 nightmare scenario we have a classic case of totalitarian government policies being dictated by technocrats; medical experts. In fact the truth is that these are not experts at all. Epidemiologists, the world over, are saying that the lockdown is the wrong thing to do and it worsens the epidemic, which has to take a natural course like every other epidemic. Sweden is proof of this. It resisted the lockdown and has dealt with the problem more efficiently – there are fewer cases and deaths than anywhere else.

The so-called experts (who are not epidemiologists),⁷⁰ have caused more deaths, more suffering, and crashed the economy. The tragedies that will emerge as a result of the lockdown are yet to be assessed – but they will be huge. Medics are warning that the deaths from untreated cancer, sepsis, pneumonia, TB and others will be in the tens of thousands or even millions.

With no medical qualifications, Gates is paraded on US media day after day underlining the technocrat position that social distancing is vital, and the lockdown must be obeyed. Epidemiologists that say the opposite are not given any airtime. This is proof of the plan for elite 'experts' to dominate social discourse and government policy.

What is worse is that key people involved in this scam are all going to make money out of it. Gates, Fauci, Matt Hancock and Chris Whitty all have connections to vaccine companies. The technocrats constantly push the desperate need for a vaccine to ensure future safety, which is picked up by the elite media. Yet epidemiologists have said that there is no need for any vaccine once herd immunity is reached (which it has been already). A vaccine does nothing to ensure protection (and one cannot have been properly tested for safety yet).

So something is going to be unleashed on the population that will do them no medical good, but will certainly harm them and will contain a digital ID. The technocrats push a policy that has no substance but the government enacts it. This is rule by technocrats.

It is tragic that Boris Johnson, who had the courage to stand up against the EU, completely capitulated, against his better judgment, to the policy demands of failed experts like Neil Ferguson and Chris Whitty.

The problem with 'experts' is choice. In every situation the science is flexible until hard physical laws are understood, and even then they are open to question. Einstein's theory of relativity (which dominated 20th century science) is now being questioned by new theories for example. Every expert will have a counterpart expert denying the former expert. One chooses which one to accept.

For example, technocrat experts tells us that evolution is a given, when it is a theory alone and one that is disproved by many salient facts. All creationists of several religions deny it.

⁶⁹ CBS 60 Minutes, 'The Gates Foundation: giving away a fortune', 30 September 2010.

⁷⁰ With the exception of Whitty.

When the UK government trusts certain experts (with vested interests), but does not listen to other experts, it is acting in an unwise manner. By all means have a debate but do not trust technocrats whose advice is not tested and corroborated.

The technocracy being foisted upon society in many areas (5G, AI, Climate Change, Internet of Things, Covid-19 etc.) is not a balanced conclusion but a choice to follow certain factions. For example, the reality of the Climate Change debate is that the vast majority of climatologists deny the need to eliminate CO₂ but the fake media avers that the climate alarmists have consensus – they do not. It is always about choice. The media and the elite work together to convince politicians that their experts are to be trusted but others are to be ignored. This is not science.

The current developing technocracy is not scientific; it is a stealth strategy for domination by vested interests.

Conclusion

The Gates family has long been trying to dominate world systems, in technology, medicine, and agriculture to further eugenic missions. The chief goal of the Gates family is depopulation, with particular impact upon Black and Brown people. The friendly face of Gates as a philanthropist is just a PR cover stunt to hide his ulterior eugenic motives.

The postulations of eugenics are satanic; it is a vile philosophy. As an eugenicist, the policies propagated by Gates are also satanic. Make no mistake, Gates is pursuing a demonic strategy.

Gates is unqualified in any of the fields he pontificates upon as a supposed expert. He was not the creative force in Microsoft but the shrewd unprincipled promoter. In fact, there are strong claims that even MS-DOS was copied from someone else.

Gates gives huge amounts to supposed philanthropic works and yet, despite this, his net worth grows every year. His giving costs him nothing.

The real issue with Gates is deception. His public image is of a benefactor, yet the truth is that he has caused untold misery and harm to poor people, mostly Third World children. Literally hundreds of thousands have been injured or even killed yet this is not front-page news. His sponsored vaccination programmes are a disaster, for which he should be in prison. Gates is a health care criminal. Nevertheless, as the front man for elite strategies, he is protected by the media and national governments that are owned by the elite.

People are beginning to see through Gates in this current crisis. One MP in the Italian parliament recently gave a speech demanding that Gates be prosecuted for crimes against humanity. More and more enlightened people understand that Gates is behind many of the global elite's policies. No government has any reason to listen to Gates any more. Those that do should be held accountable at the ballot box.

As for Christians, understand what is going on and protect your children. Do not let them get vaccinated for anything, especially Covid-19. Be warned.
