

Israel: The Satanic deception of the modern church

Introduction

Heresies have plagued the church since the very beginning. It has been the arduous task of church leaders, from the apostles onwards, to combat the rise of false doctrine in order to protect the Lord's people.

However, there has been a determined project, since the mid-19th century, to not only foist a theological error and a form of wrong Biblical interpretation on the church but to capture the church to give political allegiance to a secular power in the belief that this power is a part of the plan of God. Coupled with this allegiance is a belief that has occult overtones; that is, if you support this secular power you will be blessed by God and if you confront this secular power you will be cursed by God. That this superstitious magical claim could be adopted by supposed Biblical Christians is a mystery.

I am talking about Israel and the claim that Israel must be supported by Christians at all costs; even above the claims of your own country upon your responsible loyalty.

This demand for believers to support the State of Israel is based upon multiple false claims. It is based upon perverted and corrupted, twisted Biblical texts; a false theological system; a false understanding of history and ignorance of the truth about the actions of Israel from the beginning. Every aspect of this claim is wrong; none of it is true. It is the biggest deception to dominate the church in 2,000 years.

The worst aspect of this set of errors is the Satanic, brutal, genocidal wickedness that is perpetrated against Gentile people (including Christian people) that is supported by Western (especially American) Christians. Old people, women and children are routinely tortured, raped, brutalised and butchered while gullible 'Christians' cheer the perpetrators on. This is truly a Satanic sick joke. It represents some of the worst excesses of Satanic wickedness in the world today – supported by churches. Israel is the most inhumane, racist, apartheid, iniquitous state in the globe – and churches support it.

But the joke worsens. The faction most responsible for these crimes against humanity have no connection to historic Israelites, do not follow the Mosaic Law and have no claim to the land of Israel whatsoever. The churches have been fooled by a deep delusion.

Since I have covered most of the topics I will not mention in this paper in great depth many times, I will try to outline my argument as briefly as possible and refer to previous analyses for further information.

Rebuttal of claims that Christians must support Jews and Israel

I have fully analysed and rebutted the arguments for Christian Zionism / Messianic Christianity many times, notably in my book 'The Veil of Moses', therefore I do not need to revisit this at length. All the apologetics for Christian Zionism are false, theologically, Biblically and historically. Here I will simply refer to some key claims and show why they are erroneous.

The Abrahamic Covenant

Applies to all nations as the promise of the Gospel

I will make you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed. Gen 12:2-3

All the families of the Earth would be blessed by this covenant with God. This is the Gospel of grace to all men.

'And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.' Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying: 'As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and your descendants after you. Gen 17:2-7

The Abrahamic Covenant is not solely to Jews that sprang from Abraham's loins but the whole world: 'and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed'; 'I have made you a father of many nations'; 'I will make nations of you'.

From the beginning, the promise of God to Abraham involved blessing to all nations. This is the blessing of the Gospel of faith in Christ, 'And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, "In you all the nations shall be blessed"', (Gal 3:8).

It is false to affirm that the Abrahamic Covenant centres on making the Jews a special people to God, elevated above all other ethnic groups on Earth.

The point about Abraham is not that he was a Jew, he was a Mesopotamian or Chaldean (Acts 7:2; Neh 9:7), but that he was the father of the faithful; the example or model of all that would later believe in Christ and leave their world to follow him in obedience to God's command. The Abrahamic Covenant predates the Mosaic Law and the origin of Israel as a nation by 430 years (Gal 3:17).

Why did God choose Israel in the OT then?

God chose Israel as the least of all nations (Deut 7:7) knowing that she would be a stiff-necked, lying, rebellious people (Exod 32:9; Isa 30:1, 9), in order to demonstrate his mercy to a sinful mankind. Israel was meant to be a missionary to the world (Ps 98:2-3; Isa 11:10, 42:6, 49:6, 60:3) to testify of God's grace and mercy. She utterly failed in this becoming elitist, claiming to be the only people of God, and fell into idolatry, iniquity and occultism; finally incurring God's judgment.

Throughout Israel's history, only the remnant that trusted and obeyed God were saved (Isa 1:9, 10:21-22, 28:5, 37:31-32); the majority were rejected and cursed (e.g. Heb 3:10-11, 15-19, 4:6). Israel failed to be God's son and this pointed to the need for the Messiah, the true Son of God; the one that fulfilled all the promises (Matt 3:17; 2 Cor 1:20).

A chief problem of Christian Zionism is that it deflects attention away from Christ and on to a fleshly nation that suffered God's judgment.

False claim: Christians must bless Israel to be blessed

I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you. Gen 12:3

This is a false interpretation. The focus of Christians is not Israel but the Lord Jesus Christ. We have every spiritual blessing in Jesus, not in some earthly nation (Eph 1:3).

The kingdom was removed from the Jews (Matt 21:43) for their disobedience and rejection of the Messiah. God's blessing was always conditional on obedience, which is why the prophets continually denounced the Jews for their iniquity and idolatry resulting in God's judgment. Israel today is not in God's blessing.

Modern Jews have no connection to OT Israelites and are outside of the Covenant (see later).

In any case, the promise here is to Abraham not to Jews as a race. God promised to safeguard Abraham.

False claim: Abraham is the root of the Jews; thus the covenant is Jewish

The focus of the Abrahamic covenant is the fulfilment in Christ and the promise of the Abrahamic covenant is the basis of the Gospel: 'foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, "In you all the nations shall be blessed",' Gal 3:8.

The basic feature of singling out Abraham is that he is the father of those with faith (the root) not that he is the father of fleshly Jews (Rm 4:9, 12, 13; Gal 3:7, 8, 9, 14). In fact, Paul emphasises that he had faith before he was a Jew (before he was circumcised; Rm 4:12). 'Those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,' (speaking to Gentiles; Rm 4:16).

The promises to Abraham's descendants have to be explained in Biblical terms – which Paul explains are the people in Christ, who is the genuine Seed of Abraham. Remember Paul is saying the final words of Christ from heaven to the church. Any confusion in this subject must be resolved by the final words of Christ, not obscure, debated prophecies in the OT in an early period of progressive revelation.

The spiritual essence of the Abrahamic covenant can be seen in the attitude of Abraham himself, which was far from earthly. Abraham looked to a city that had foundations, to a heavenly fulfilment (Heb 11:10, 16); he did not look to an earthly fulfilment in any way. This was why he was happy to let Lot have the best land in the valley when Lot had not been promised anything by God at all, neither was Lot called out of Ur.

The fulfilment of the Abrahamic covenant has nothing to do with a fleshly people incorporating Israel in this world. The Seed is not Jewish people who can trace their ancestry back to Abraham (which, in fact, 90% of modern Jews cannot do at all according to the Jewish Encyclopaedia); no, the Seed is Christ and only Christ (Gal 3:16). Paul expressly states that it is not 'seeds as of many' in the plural (i.e. Jews), but 'the Seed', i.e. Christ.

Thus all the theological statements about covenant and salvation in the rest of the OT have to be understood in the light of the fact that the inheritor is Christ and not humans. All the promises are fulfilled in Christ (2 Cor 1:20); the law is fulfilled in Christ (Matt 5:17) and he is the end of it (Rm 10:4). Thus entrance to the covenant is by faith in Christ and nothing else: 'those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham,' (Gal 3:9, see also: 3:22, 24, 26, 5:5, etc.) because this places believers in Christ through the baptism of the Spirit (1 Cor 12:13). Jews in the OT who had faith in God's future deliverer were included in Christ (the remnant); all else were lost. Physical features (gender, race, ethnicity, merit, status) have absolutely nothing to do with it. Paul specifically states that circumcision (Jewishness) has no place in this: 'For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but faith working through love' (Gal 5:6).

Unless one can overturn Paul's clear statement that the fulfilment of the Abrahamic covenant is not to many (Jews) but only to one (Christ) then nothing else in the Christian Zionist system has any validity. There is no ethnic application to the Covenant. The Covenant promises are for those in Christ who share the faith of Abraham (a gift to the elect not something inherently human).¹

So Jews are not God's people any more. The Lord himself categorically stated that the kingdom was taken away from the Jews and given to the church (which includes Gentiles and believing Jews).

Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it. Matt 21:43

It is clear that the New Covenant is nothing but the Gospel of salvation in Christ, inherent in the Abrahamic Covenant, with all the Jewish traits removed from it. The priesthood of Christ is even Melchizedek, a Gentile. There is no Mosaic Law, no Jewish High priest, no Jewish offerings, no Jewish festal days, the Sabbath is now Sunday² – it is not Jewish; it is universal.³

² Acts 20:7, 'Now on the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread'.

³ Isa 55:1 'Ho! Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters'. Rev 22:17, 'And the Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely'.

This principle of universality (the Gospel for all) is why the NT was written in common (Koine) Greek (the lingua franca) and not Hebrew. In fact, most of the NT is directed to Gentile people (Romans, Ephesians, Galatians, Colossians, Corinthians, Thessalonians, Philippians, Acts, Titus, Philemon etc). Revelation was written for the church of all ages. The Gospels were to all people (Matthew to Jews, Mark to all, Luke to Gentiles, John a spiritual exposition which condemns the Jews). John's letters were written to Gentiles, principally Ephesians. Hebrews was written primarily for Jews. James' letter was written to the Jews in the Dispersion. Peter's letters were written to all, especially the Jews in the Diaspora.

Even in the OT, the doctrine of the remnant means that the promise of the New Covenant was not with the entire, ethnic Jewish nation but only with the remnant, the elect, those with faith like Abraham. The promises of God are based on faith not nationality. The new covenant is not Jewish; it is the culmination of the Abrahamic Covenant.

The essential problem

I explain, in this paper, that the vast majority (over 90%) of modern Jews are not Semitic and have no connection to Abraham whatsoever. There was never any ethnic basis to God's covenant, but if there were, Jews would be outside of it.

OT Israelites / Hebrews were destroyed according to Jesus' prophecy (see later). The entire line ('house') was left desolate. They were ground into powder. Regarding those called 'Jews' today we have the following:

- The majority Ashkenazi – not Semitic but Russian / European.
- The Sephardim: Semitic but Idumean (Edomites) thus no lineage from Jacob but part of a cursed race from Esau (see later). Not part of the Covenant.
- Multiple ethnic peoples that became Judaistic proselytes e.g. Yemeni Jews, Somalian Jews, Eritrean Jews etc. No connection to Abraham.

Claiming the benefits of the Abrahamic Covenant is impossible for modern Jews. They have no connection to it (and no claim to Palestine).

Pray for Jerusalem

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: 'May they prosper who love you'. Ps 122:6

Christian Zionists use this verse to demand that Christians support the fleshly State of Israel. There is so much wrong with this that it beggars belief. I will briefly explain.

- The Psalmist (David) is referring to the situation of his time not to events today which are completely different. In his time the kingdom of God was represented on Earth by Israel under the Abrahamic, Mosaic and Davidic Covenant. The Ark was still in the Holy of Holies. God's testimony was centred on Mount Zion. All that has changed.
- Were Christians still supposed to pray for the peace of Jerusalem when it was occupied by the Babylonians, Achaemenids (Persians), Greeks, Syrians, Romans, multiple Islamic dynasties or Crusader armies? Gentile nations have occupied Jerusalem far longer than Jews.
- Jerusalem today is controlled by Ashkenazi Jews who have no connection to Abraham or David. They do not qualify for inclusion in God's blessing. Their Talmudic policy is anti God's law.
- After the termination of the Old Covenant, with the appearance of the Messiah and the implementation of the New Covenant, Jerusalem ceased to be the dwelling place of God. The focus of God's presence is now in Jesus (Col 2:9) not a city or a temple (Acts 17:24). The kingdom is heavenly not earthly. Jerusalem now signifies worldliness; it has no spiritual value. There is a holy Jerusalem (New Jerusalem), the heavenly city, representing the church – the elect in Christ (Gal 4:26; Heb 12:22; Rev 3:12, 21:2, 10). Then there is the earthly Jerusalem which represents bondage (Gal 4:25).

Christians do not have to pray for the peace of earthly Jerusalem. They pray for the blessing of the church in Christ.

In summary

- Jerusalem signifies bondage not blessing. 'Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children' (Gal 4:25).
- The kingdom was removed from Jews and given to Gentiles. 'Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it' (Matt 21:43).
- The historic OT Israelite race was destroyed by God's judgment. 'And whoever falls on this stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder' (Matt 21:44). 'O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! ... See! Your house is left to you desolate [uninhabited, a wilderness]' (Lk 13:34-35).
- Even Jews before 70AD were enemies of the Gospel. 'Concerning the gospel they are enemies' (Rm 11:28). They were under God's wrath and opposed to all men. 'The Judeans, who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God and are contrary [an adversary, opposed to, hostile to, an opponent] to all men, forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, so as always to fill up the measure of their sins; but wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.' (1 Thess 2:14-16).
- The end-time Jews are a synagogue (assembly) of Satan that has no connection to OT Israelites. 'I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan' (Rev 2:9). 'Indeed I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie -- indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you' (Rev 3:9).
- Modern Judaism is Satanic.

Interim conclusion

Jesus himself strongly affirmed that the Jews (the OT Hebrews) would be ground to powder and the house of Israel left desolate for rejecting and murdering their own Messiah ('the stone that was rejected'). The apostles repeatedly reaffirmed this; e.g. 'you denied the Holy One and the Just, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses' (Acts 3:14-15).

Jesus also prophesied that the Judaic worship system would also be destroyed and thoroughly ruined, unable to be restored.

I explain more about this later.

Finally, Jesus stated that after the Jews were destroyed as a people, there would arise another people claiming to be Jews but were not the historic Hebrews. In fact these were an assembly of Satanists.

This is sufficient for our purposes here. For more detailed exposition on the errors of Messianic Christianity please refer to my papers (see bibliography).

The problem foisted upon the church

The cause of the problem: Dispensationalism

We cannot fully analyse all the variations of Dispensational theology or its interpretations here but I have done that elsewhere (see bibliography). I will explain the basics in very simple terms.

The history of Dispensational Premillennialism

Contrary to popular belief, Dispensationalism did not originate with John Darby; in fact he plagiarised the work of others.

The roots of Dispensational ideas originated with the Jesuits Cardinal Ribera [1537-1591],⁴ Robert Bellarmine [1542-1621]⁵ and Manuel Lacunza [1731-1801]. These ideas influenced the heretic Edward Irving and the prophetic group that surrounded him. Thus a new prophetic doctrine, or interpretation of Scripture, began to emerge around 1820 –1830 and there is no reference to these teachings in previous church history from any evangelical group.⁶ Dispensationalism has no historic provenance whatsoever. [Historic Premillennialism goes back to the early church fathers but this is different to Dispensationalism.]⁷ A number of independent expositors also began to dabble in proto-Dispensational ideas. S.R Maitland began to teach a future rise of Antichrist and a 3½ year great tribulation in 1826. His follower, James Todd, also wrote extensively on the subject. William Burgh converted to this ‘futurist’ view of Revelation and wrote systematically upon it in 1835.

The doctrine developed further in the scandalous Catholic Apostolic Church that Irving founded. The Irvingite church journal (The Morning Watch) carried an article in September 1830 that posited a two-phased coming of Christ. Some of the ideas derived from occultism, especially the idea of a secret rapture, which came from a deluded, teenage, sick, deranged girl called Margaret Macdonald in 1830. Macdonald was a young believer (converted for one year) who was in a long-term illness at the time, prone to hallucinations and with a background in occult things. The teaching came to her in a vision. SP Tregelles condemned this as originating from a false spirit.⁸

⁴ Ribera wrote a commentary on Revelation from a futuristic viewpoint to divert from the idea of a papal Antichrist.

⁵ Bellarmine also sought to divert the idea of Antichrist away from the pope in his interpretation of Daniel’s vision.

⁶ Such as a pretribulation coming of Christ or a secret rapture.

⁷ Historic Premillennialism is the teaching that Christ will return after the tribulation (Post-tribulationism) and establish a 1000 year reign on the earth (millennium) before the final battle with Satan (Armageddon), which issues in final judgment and a new earth. Virtually all premillennialists hold to a seven-year period of tribulation.

⁸ Tregelles, The Hope of Christ’s Second Coming, p34-37.

After the doctrine solidified it was taken up by John Darby and the early brethren – despite being contrary to the Calvinism that was held by the brethren at the first. Some of the main Brethren leaders condemned it, such as Tregelles, BW Newton and George Muller. Other leaders and theologians condemned it such as CH Spurgeon and RL Dabney. Robert Baxter, former member of the Catholic Apostolic Church, wrote against it. However, Jewish bankers, seeing an opportunity to support Zionism, invested in promoting Dispensationalism by any means possible. Thus they sponsored Darby's tours of America preaching it. Then they paid for CI Scofield (a charlatan and a criminal) to heavily promote the ideas in his famous Study Bible, which they arranged to be published. The popularity of Dispensationalism was arranged by Jewish money-lenders.

The tenets of Dispensationalism

- The separation of Israel from the church. The focus upon Israel as God's people and God's prior purpose. The church becomes a mere stop-gap.
- A strict literal interpretation of scripture. This leads to many errors contradicted by the NT.
- The division of history into several dispensations where God deals differently with his people which all end in failure.
- A two-phased coming of Christ. This idea is thought to originate with Manuel Lacunza.⁹
- A 1,000 year golden age where Christ reigns on earth over sinners through Jews on a material throne in Jerusalem. There is not a shred of evidence for this in apostolic doctrine.
- A secret rapture of true believers to escape a great tribulation at the end. Again, no Biblical evidence for this.
- A futurist view of Revelation.

Key errors

- Two people of God, whose primary purpose is with Israel; the church is a temporary stop-gap.
- Thus there are two kingdoms, the most important being an earthly, Jewish kingdom.
- Different groups teach: two, three or up to seven judgments, three resurrections, two returns of the Lord and even two forms of salvation.
- Some teach three types of church.
- All teach a wrong view of law (antinomianism). The law is only applicable to ancient Israel. OT saints were saved by works instead of faith.

The chief error is the separation of the church from God's promises thus denying huge portions of the NT. This results from a failure to see Jesus as the Seed of Abraham and the fulfilment of the covenant with God, coupled with the failure to see the church as in Christ, and thus a recipient of this covenant.

Dispensationalists teach that the covenantal promises pertain only to ethnic Jews and will be fulfilled literally in a future millennium on the earth. Thus all God's blessings are focused on fleshly, material things (such as an earthly, Jewish political kingdom) rather than spiritual blessings in Christ.

⁹ Manuel Lacunza, The Coming of the Messiah in Glory and Majesty, was translated by Irving in 1827.

It repeatedly fails to see the significance of the typology of the OT, even when Jesus and the apostles interpreted the types and prophecies for us.

It is impossible to hold these ideas in the face of Matt 21:43, 'Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it.' Dispensationalism focuses on the shadows in the law and not Christ himself, failing to see that 'all is new' (2 Cor 5:17).

Main groups

Popular theologians / writers supporting variants of Dispensationalism include: Charles Ryrie, JN Darby, John Walvoord, Lewis Sperry Chafer, Arno Gaebelein, J. Dwight Pentecost, Hal Lindsey, William Kelly, Zane Hodges, J Barton Payne, Dwight Pentecost, EW Bullinger, WE Blackstone and Ernest Pickering.

- There are many variants, the most common being the classical form based upon the Scofield Bible following John Darby's ideas. This teaches a 'secret rapture' when Christ comes secretly to rescue living saints; the earth then experiences a 7-year tribulation before Christ returns again in glory. The Second Coming is, therefore, in two phases. This view is called Pre-Tribulationalism.
- Post-Tribulationalism: Jesus returns after the tribulation. (As in historic Premillennialism), the Second Coming is after the great tribulation, saints do not escape it. Does not use the word 'rapture'.
- Mid-Tribulationalism: Jesus returns during the tribulation. The church goes through the less severe part of the tribulation (first 3¹/₂ years) and is then raptured.
- The partial rapture view is that there will be a series of raptures; as believers are ready, they are raptured away (originated with Brethren leader Robert Govett, continued by: G.H. Pember, G.H. Lang and Witness Lee).
- Imminent Post-Tribulationism - the Second Coming is after the tribulation, but it can be at any moment since the tribulation is already occurring (e.g. J. Barton Payne).
- The Lordship controversy. Some groups teach that Christians do not have to submit to Christ as Lord. As well as following a weakened, Arminian, easy believism, modern Dispensationalists like Zane Hodges and Charles Ryrie established a Gospel message which maintains that a convert does not need to accept Christ as Lord in his repentance. In fact Hodges believes that repentance is not part of the Gospel at all.
- Classical Dispensationalism - (Scofield, Chafer), Israel is on the earth, the church is in heaven and the two never meet in the new world. There are two ways of salvation: works in the OT and faith in the NT. Chafer holds to two covenants. This view dominated 1900-1950's.
- Hyper Dispensationalism - Instead of finding the usual Dispensational origin of the church in Acts 2, these see it in Acts 13.
- Ultra Dispensationalism - The church begins in Acts 28 (as EW Bullinger, hence sometimes called 'Bullingerism'). Therefore, only a few of Paul's letters apply to the church, the rest of the NT is Jewish.
- Neo Dispensationalism - (Ryrie, Walvoord, Dwight Pentecost). Israel and the church will be together after the millennium; there is only one way to salvation in both testaments (faith); there is only one new covenant. Dallas seminary promotes this view.
- Progressive Dispensationalism - In recent years some have realised that even some of the Neo Dispensational views are untenable and have sought to further ameliorate its teaching (e.g: Robert Saucy, Craig Blaising, Darrell Bock).

Dispensationalism is a rogue, novel and unbiblical way of interpreting the Bible, especially Biblical prophecy. The fundamental problem is the separation of the church and Israel with priority given to fleshly Israel. This is what attracted Jewish interests seeing an opportunity to get Christians to support Zionism. These claim that the state of Israel today is the fulfilment of Biblical prophecy and the centre of God's purposes on Earth.

Sadly, the majority of American churches fully support Dispensationalism. It is even considered a test of orthodoxy.

The problem: confusing modern Israel and Jews with historic OT Israelites

As a result of errors generated by Dispensational theology, which focuses upon Jews as God's prior people and that the kingdom of God is Jewish, large parts of the church have come to focus their attention upon Israel and give support for a criminal, genocidal rogue state.

Believing the lie that in order to please God Christians must support Israel, the churches have ended up supporting war crimes and even cheering on Israel killing fellow Christians by the thousand, as well as committing atrocities against hundreds of thousands of non-believers. This is nothing else but a Satanic deception. The Devil has made the church give full support to an evil, Luciferian rogue state.

There is no doubt about it. The State of Israel is one of the most wicked entities in the world today. It is filled with satanic principles emanating from Talmudism (the official basis of Israeli law). Its key buildings are based upon occult designs.¹⁰ Its leadership is corrupt and iniquitous. It conducts genocide against Palestinians and has done since before 1948. The state is based upon an apartheid system, which is visibly enacted every day; including torture and murder of children. Its religion is one of the most satanic and blasphemous in the world (see later).

For believers to support Israel is the result of a deep delusion.

The root cause of Jewish wickedness

Rabbinic Judaism is Pharisaic

After the Roman destruction of Jerusalem, and the temple specifically, the Jews in the Diaspora could not practice their religion. The hand of God made sure that Judaism was destroyed and cancelled. A portent of this was the severing of the temple curtain at the crucifixion of Jesus (Matt 27:51).

The Pharisees, in their main centre in Babylon, were forced to develop a new religion completely severed from OT Judaism. This was rabbinic Judaism, initially centred upon the oral law long held by the Pharisees in opposition to the Mosaic Law. This oral law was gradually written down in 'sacred' texts and collated into a single unit of many volumes by about 550AD called the Babylonian Talmud (see next).

Thus the whole foundation of rabbinic Judaism (which spawned all the offshoots of factional Judaism) was the Pharisees – the enemies of Jesus. Let me remind you what the Bible says about the Pharisees.

¹⁰ E.g. the Supreme Court building in Jerusalem. The obelisk in the Rothschild garden. Occult ley lines in capital buildings.

You know neither Me nor My Father. Jn 8:19

You ... will die in your sin. ... you will die in your sins. Jn 8:21, 24

Jesus said to them, 'If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I proceeded forth and came from God; nor have I come of Myself, but He sent Me'. Jn 8:42

Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word. Jn 8:43

You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it. Jn 8:44

He who is of God hears God's words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God. Jn 8:47

It is My Father who honours Me, of whom you say that He is your God. Yet you have not known Him, but I know Him. Jn 8:54-55

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. Matt 23:27

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for you neither go in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel land and sea to win one proselyte, and when he is won, you make him twice as much a son of hell as yourselves. Woe to you, blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obliged to perform it.' Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that sanctifies the gold? And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is obliged to perform it.' Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift? Therefore he who swears by the altar, swears by it and by all things on it. He who swears by the temple, swears by it and by Him who dwells in it. And he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by Him who sits on it. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone. Blind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel! Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of extortion and self-indulgence. Blind Pharisee, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish, that the outside of them may be clean also. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous, and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.' Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers' guilt. Serpents, brood of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation of hell. Matt 23:13-33

These are the characteristics of the rabbis of modern Judaism; the descendants of the Pharisees. According to the words of Jesus, rabbis are serpents, vipers, blind guides, hypocrites, murderers, whitewashed tombs (unclean), destined to be condemned to hell. Rabbis are not your friends but are agents of the Devil. If you are a follower of Christ you should resist the claims of rabbis. Those supposed 'Christians' that support Israel and follow rabbinic doctrines are so deceived that they cannot be saved at all.

majority of modern Jews (not for Torah Jews)²⁵ is the compilation of teachings of the Pharisees compressed into the Babylonian Talmud. This is why it blasphemously attacks Jesus and libels his mother.

Many Pharisees remained in Babylon after the Babylonian exile and it became a centre for rabbinic doctrine. There the rabbis imbibed all the principles of Babylonian mysticism and occultism based upon idolatry as they integrated into Babylonian society.

During the Second Temple period (roughly from Herod the Great to 70AD) there were several types of Judaism, rabbinic Judaism being but one form.²⁶ At the time of Jesus, the priestly party, the Sadducees, had the upper hand, but after the destruction of the temple in 70AD, the Sadducees passed from history (some adopting Pharisaism) and the Pharisees dominated rabbinic Judaism for a hundred years until a rabbinic consensus prevailed, with a strong Pharisaic influence. Over centuries rabbinic sayings were collated into the Babylonian Talmud.

The Jewish religion as it is today traces its descent, without a break, through all the centuries, from the Pharisees. Their leading ideas and methods found expression in a literature of enormous extent, of which a very great deal is still in existence. The Talmud is the largest and most important single piece of that literature. ... and the study of it is essential for any real understanding of Pharisaism.²⁷

With the destruction of the Temple (70AD) the Sadducees [the priestly sect] disappeared altogether, leaving the regulation of all Jewish affairs in the hands of the Pharisees. Henceforth, Jewish life was regulated by the Pharisees; the whole history of Judaism was reconstructed from the Pharisaic point of view, and a new aspect was given to the Sanhedrin of the past. A new chain of tradition supplanted the older priestly tradition (Abot 1:1). Pharisaism shaped the character of Judaism and the life and thought of the Jew for all the future.²⁸

Pharisaism became Talmudism ... the spirit of the ancient Pharisee survives unaltered.²⁹

The Talmud is divided into two parts: the Mishna is the original collection of rabbinical decisions, laws and traditions compiled in 200AD; the Gemara is a commentary on this to help explain the contradictions between the rabbis. There are two versions of the Gemara: one completed in Palestine (Jerusalem) in c.400AD, the other in Babylon 100 years later in rabbinic schools situated away from Roman persecution and interference. The Babylonian version was more subtle, comprehensive and authoritative.³⁰ The raison d'être of the

³⁰ After the Mishnah was compiled, various works sought to reconcile scripture with rabbinic teachings. These included Midrash, Tosefta as well as the Talmud; but the Talmud triumphed.

Talmud was that the Torah was known to the rabbis orally, not just in writing, thus oral argument produced rabbinic writings which were authoritative explanations of the Torah.

Modern Judaism is, therefore, dominated by the very legalistic traditions of the Pharisees that Jesus condemned. Judaism is the culmination of ideas arising from the sect which most opposed the Lord. After the destruction of the temple in 70 AD, it was the Pharisees who reconstructed Judaism, 'Pharisaism shaped the character of Judaism and the life and thought of the Jew for all the future.... The study of [the Talmud] is essential for any real understanding of Pharisaism'.³¹ Modern Judaism is largely Pharisaism, however, some rabbinic literature dates back before the Pharisees held sway.³²

The Talmud is the most wicked sacred text in the world. Even the Qur'an calls Jesus 'the Word of God' and honours him as a prophet subsidiary to Muhammad. The Talmud blasphemes Jesus in the most wicked ways:

- It states that he is in Hell continually drowning in boiling excrement.³³
- Additionally, Jesus was conceived illegitimately during menstruation.³⁴
- Jesus is called a fool.³⁵
- Jesus is said to be a magician / sorcerer.³⁶
- Jesus is said to be a bloody and deceitful man.³⁷
- Mary was an adulterous prostitute.³⁸ In other words, Jesus was illegitimate.

No true Christian can give any credence to Talmudic statements or support those that follow them.

Regarding Christians, the Talmud affirms:

- Christians are described as murderers, idolaters,³⁹ or dung⁴⁰ and accused of bestiality⁴¹.
- Christians were only created to serve Jews day and night and belong to Jews.⁴²
- Christians are worse than dogs.⁴³
- Incest is considered a 'light' sin compared to accepting Christianity.⁴⁴
- Jews must avoid Christians, even if they are wounded and need a doctor, or even to learn from a teacher.⁴⁵
- Jews are to injure Christians in every way possible, even killing them.⁴⁶ Jews who do good to Christians will not be resurrected.⁴⁷ Jews can steal from Christians.⁴⁸

The Talmud endorses all sorts of wickedness against Gentiles, who are referred to as dogs and cattle; a distinctly sub-human species of animal. Permitted crimes against Goyim⁵² include: violence, murder, theft, lying, perjury, rape, adultery, paedophilia, burglary, inhumanity (e.g. refusing to help a dying person) and ritual murder. The Talmud endorses gross acts of wickedness against Gentiles and especially Christians.

Note: Rabbis repeatedly talk about fornication.⁵⁴ The swaying of Orthodox Jews against the Wailing Wall (which is actually Roman, a part of the Praetorian Guard building) represents sexual union. By simulating sex with the wall (considered as holy), the Jew is thus celebrating the divine sexual union of the Son and Daughter.⁵⁵ *'The duty of pious Jews is to restore through their prayers and religious acts the perfect divine unity, in the form of sexual union, between the male and female deities.'*⁵⁶ Note that the Star of David is an occult, pagan symbol delineating sexual union.

BESTIALITY

The Kabbalah

Like the Talmud, the Kabbalah is claimed, by rabbis, to have originated in the oral traditions of the elders that were part of the secret teaching given to Moses at Sinai. Thus these two streams, the Talmud and the Kabbala together form the fundamental basis of Judaism. In actual fact, much of Kabbalistic ideas emanated from Babylonia after the exile.

It is a series of treatises on mysticism, magic, numerology and demonology that developed after the 2nd century AD and especially after 900. It describes all sorts of fables, myths, legendary cosmogony, spells, charms, fetishes and rituals necessary to rectify God's imperfect creation.

⁵⁴ Talmud: 'Anyone who does not copulate it is as if he had spilled blood.' [Yebamoth 63b.] Talmud: 'It is affirmed that Rabbi Eleazar had sex with every whore in the world.' [Abodah Zarah 17a.]

⁵⁵ The Kabbalah states that the universe is ruled by several deities emanated by a First Cause. There is a male god called 'Wisdom' or 'Father' and a female goddess called 'Knowledge' or 'Mother'. From these a pair of younger gods were born: Son, also called by many other names such as 'Small Face' or 'The Holy Blessed One'; and Daughter, also called 'Lady' (or 'Matronit'), 'Shekinah' or 'Queen'. These two younger gods should be united, but their union is prevented by Satan. The creation of the Jewish people was undertaken in order to mend the break caused. [See Israel Shahak, 'Jewish Religion', chapter three.]

⁵⁶ Shahak, 'Jewish Religion', chapter three.

This is an important Jewish theological theme, rectifying the creation because it is not perfect. It requires the intervention and ability of redemption by the Jewish person – also removing the evil caused by the existence of Gentiles. This is detailed in the Sefer Yetzirah ('Book of Creation') and the famous Zohar ('Book of Splendour'; five volumes).

Many try to pass off the Kabbala as just Jewish mysticism, an offshoot of Judaism developed by those with an interest in mysticism and gematria (numerology) ⁵⁷ due to its clear occult content. But it cannot be so easily dismissed. If the Kabbala is equally part of the oral tradition of the Pharisees accepted by the rabbinic schools, then it cannot be separated from Judaism proper. Not only does the Kabbala influence all Judaism, at the end of the 19th century 50% of Jews were hard Kabbalists. Hasidic Jews afford the Zohar (the chief book of the Kabbala) equal status with the Talmud and some parts were used liturgically.

In fact, rabbis down the centuries have been proficient in the magic of the Kabbala and esteemed for their abilities in fortune-telling. Jewish authorities affirm that the Kabbala is a vital part of Orthodox Judaism as it was in classical Judaism.

Aspects of Kabbalism are very Gnostic and pagan. The traditions of Jewish mysticism also developed from Egyptian Hermetism, which influenced alchemy. Rabbinic concepts of Jews being equal or better than God arose from Hellenistic Egypt where Gnostic and Hermetic ideas were developing, such as in the Poimandres Hermetic writings.

The Kabbala is Judaism plus Hermetism, Gnosticism, Neo-Platonism, Alchemy, some Zoroastrianism and occultism; in other words, forms of Satanism.

Kabbalists claimed that their tradition had originally been given to Moses at Sinai ... The influence of Kabbalah on exoteric Judaism was widespread, presenting Jews with a powerful set of mystical symbols ... influencing Halakha and giving magical practices respectability.⁵⁸

Scholarly researchers have made clear the centrality of Kabbalah to the whole of Jewish religious consciousness.⁵⁹

For the three-hundred-year period roughly from 1500 to 1800 the Kabbalah was widely considered to be the true Jewish theology ... Through the Diaspora, the number of folk customs whose origins were kabbalistic was enormous.⁶⁰

Most Jews do not like to admit it, but our god is Lucifer ... and we are his chosen people. Lucifer is very much alive'. ... You and we have a different god.⁶¹

This penetration of kabbalistic customs and belief, which left no corner of Jewish life untouched, is especially well-documented in ... Isaiah

Sabbatean-Frankism

Sabbateanism derives from Sephardic Rabbi Sabbatai Zevi [1626-1676] who was born in Turkey. He was a Kabbalist who claimed to be the messiah aged 22. Despite being initially rejected and banished he began to attract a following in Constantinople and Salonika. He travelled widely to Alexandria, Athens, Jerusalem, Cairo, Gaza, Aleppo and finally Constantinople where some wealthy Jews supported him.

He married a prostitute and began to teach licentiousness. As well as licentiousness, Zevi removed much of Judaism's ritualism saying it wasn't necessary in the messianic age. The influential Nathan of Gaza began to support him and he was publicly declared to be the messiah. A messianic movement developed far and wide, extending to the Netherlands with Zevi gaining a million followers.

He was imprisoned in Constantinople by the Ottomans for sedition. To avoid execution he converted to Islam saying that God had made him an Ishmaelite. 300 of his followers who also converted were called the Donmeh ('converts'). He was twice banished where he died in isolation in present day Montenegro. The Donmeh movement continued in Turkey, fragmenting into three sects.

Essentially Sabbateanism is Satanism, being summarised as 'praised be he who permits the forbidden'; in other words Satanism's 'do what thou wilt'. Sin is a virtue and obeying the Torah is a sin. Doing good only slows down the appearance of the messiah, who will come when chaos reigns. The Kabbalah is a reversal of the Torah.

His followers formed the Sabbatean division of Judaism, which many in the global elite belong to. The teachings of practising evil appealed to many in positions of power.

Frankism

Sabbateanism was revitalised by Zevi's follower Jacob Frank [1726-1791] who continued the movement, claimed to be the embodiment of Zevi and this later spawned the Illuminati, being called 'Sabbatean-Frankism'. Modern Sabbateans believe that the full messianic age will only come when evil fills the world and so devotees are encouraged to practice as much evil as possible to hasten this Jewish millennium - corporate Jewry ruling the world.

⁶² Gershom Scholem, 'Kabbalah', p194-195.

It is important to understand Rabbi Zevi and Sabbateanism since so many Jews in positions power and influence today are followers of his wicked theology. For example, Sigmund Freud was a Sabbatean Kabbalistic Jew who used his fabricated psychoanalysis method to make money, calling his patients ‘suckers’.

Summary of Talmudic ideology

Symptom	Expression of the Talmud
Basic premise: Elitism.	Jews are the children of God and no one else. They are the inheritors of the Earth. Gentiles are sub-human creatures destined to be slaves of Jews. Christians are the worst Gentiles. They are followers of a demonic, apostate magician, now rotting in Hell.
Hatred of Gentiles. This is expressed as: acceptance of: lying, perjury, incest, rape, paedophilia, violence, murder, theft, inhumanity, adultery and bestiality. It is righteous to kill Gentiles.	The Talmud as the fundamental of ethics.
Hatred of Christianity.	Seen as the prime enemy of Talmudism.
Apartheid. Gentiles viewed as less than human, able to be taken advantage of.	The Talmud as the basis of racist Israeli law opposed to non-Jews.
Eugenics.	Talmudic principles applied to population control.
Zionism.	The Talmud as the basis of political strategies regarding the Middle East and the establishment of Greater Israel (from the Euphrates to the Mediterranean).
Marxism (including Cultural Marxism).	The expression of the Talmud regarding the strategy to take over all nations to be ruled by Jews.
The Soviet Union.	The Talmudic prototype totalitarian Jewish state; the model for global despotism (the New World Order / the Great Reset).
The Kabbalah.	Talmudism expressed as numerology, mysticism and occultism.
Rabbinic law and doctrine.	The exposition of the Talmud.
Freemasonry.	Talmudic principles applied to Gentiles (Judaism for Gentiles); used as a means of control over Gentiles.
Sabbatean-Frankism.	The Talmud applied to licentiousness to bring about the messianic kingdom where Jews rule the world, each Jew having 2,800 Gentile slaves.

Conclusion

Modern Judaism, based fully upon the teaching of the enemies of Jesus, is not only wicked and blasphemous, it is Satanic. It is certainly the most wicked form of religion outside of debauched Crowleyan Magic.⁶³

Everything emanating from Talmudism (rabbinic teaching, modern Judaism, Messianic Christianity, Israeli politics etc.) is Satanic and grossly iniquitous. No genuine Christian can go anywhere near such perversity.

⁶³ The practices of the sorcerer Aleister Crowley and his Thelema sex magic religion.

There is no such thing as Judeo-Christian religion as the bedrock of Western society. Our civilisation is fully Christian with no Talmudic Judaistic influences whatsoever.

Caveat

The fact that Jews following the Talmud will commit acts of wickedness against Gentiles, because they are commanded to, does not mean that all Jews are evil. Many modern Jews are atheistic, secular, liberal and irreligious. One must distinguish between Talmudic Jews and non-Talmudic Jews.

Talmudic Jews will support Zionism, a fruit of the Talmud. Yet many modern Jews fight against Zionism because they can see its effects in Palestine. Torah Jews and Karaites actively work against Zionism (which they see as a blasphemy) and the Talmud. These are the closest to OT Israelites (even if not ethnically) because they follow Mosaic Law.

Thus a Christian can befriend and work with a secular Jew, an atheist Jew, a Torah Jew, and a liberal Jew. Talmudic Jews will not come near a Christian unless it is to deceive and control.

So, we cannot denounce all Jews because there are so many types and many do not follow the Talmud. We must, however, condemn Talmudic Jews for following blasphemous laws intent on our harm.

Jewish ethnicity

Jewishness is not ethnic; it is religious; there is not a race of Jews. There was a race of people called Jews until 70AD. These were the Israelites of the OT who were people descended from Abraham through Isaac and Jacob. This did not include Ishmaelites descended from Abraham but not Isaac; these became the Arabs. It did not include the Edomites descended from Abraham but not Jacob; they came from Esau who was cursed (Isa 34:5-6; Jer 49:7-11; Ezek 25:13, 35:1ff; Heb 12:16-17).

The Israelites continued as a covenant people of God inheriting the Abrahamic promises as long as they obeyed the conditions – which included obedience to God’s laws later codified in the Mosaic Law. After continual disobedience and especially idolatry the ten tribes (Israel, Samaria, the Northern Kingdom) were judged, and sent into exile in Assyria (721 BC) where they mixed with foreigners and disappeared from history as separate, pure tribes. Some Israelites that escaped into Judea, the Southern Kingdom, continued until they too eventually disappeared as a pure line.

The remnant of God’s OT people continued in Judah becoming known as Jews rather than Hebrews or Israelites, until they too succumbed to worse idolatry than Israel and were also sent into exile in Babylon in 586 BC. Many remained in Babylon (notably Pharisaic rabbis) but about 50,000 returned to Jerusalem after the edict of Cyrus the Great. These continued under the Greek Empire, the Seleucid Empire (Syrian), then under the Hasmoneans (Maccabees), then the Romans.

The sins of the Jews continued finding a full expression in the religious leaders. The Sadducees didn’t even believe in the resurrection. The legalistic Pharisees followed their oral law, which they falsely claimed came from Sinai, and broke the Mosaic Law.

The Lord Jesus condemned all these religious leaders for their hypocrisy and disobedience to God's commandments. He openly stated that they followed their father the Devil (Jn 8:44). The religious Jewish leaders were Satanic, pure and simple. They had even killed God's prophets (Matt 23:31; Lk 11:47; Acts 7:52).

The Jews then committed the greatest sin by rejecting their own promised Messiah (Acts 4:11) and murdering him. Yes; the NT specifically states that the Jews murdered Jesus using the Romans as proxies (Acts 2:23, 4:10, 5:30, 7:52, 10:39, 13:28). This great sin was followed by a severe divine condemnation, which came to fruition in the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in 70AD. Jesus warned that the nation would suffer these things:

- Jerusalem would be destroyed, 'they will not leave in you one stone upon another' (Lk 19:41-44).
- The temple would be destroyed; all its stones broken down (Matt 24:2; Mk 13:2).⁶⁴
- The Jews as a people would be ground into powder (destroyed; Lk 20:18-19).
- The Jewish line would be destroyed (Matt 23:37-38; Lk 13:35).
- The kingdom of God would be given to Gentiles (Matt 21:43-45).
- 'The blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation' (Lk 11:50).

The great judgment of God upon Jews was because they rejected and killed the Son of God sent to save them (Lk 19:44).

The Judaeans, who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God and are contrary to all men, forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, so as always to fill up the measure of their sins; but wrath has come upon them to the uttermost. 1 Thess 2:14-16

Josephus records that the suffering experienced in the siege of Jerusalem was the most extreme in history. Mothers even boiled up and ate their own children. The trust that the Jews placed in their impregnable walls was ill-placed and Titus broke them down. In divine irony the Romans crucified so many people that the hills of Judea were denuded of trees. So great was God's anger against Jews.

Judaea was scourged of Jews who were either killed or enslaved and disappeared amongst the nations. Some escaped to join the Diaspora.

Jews (including many proselytes) from various places later gathered back in Judaea and fought in the revolt against the Romans e.g. at Bar Kokhba, until they too were completely eliminated. Thus was Jesus' prophecy fulfilled.

Judaea, empty of Jews was settled by others; most notably Idumeans (Edomites; Idumaea is the Roman name). These were assimilated into Judaism because they had become proselytes some time before. The Idumean proselytes eventually became the Sephardim. The modern Jewish community formally accepts this:

- The Jewish Encyclopaedia, 'Edom is in modern Jewry', 1925 edition, Vol 5, p41. Encyclopaedia Judaica,
- 'The Edomites became a section of the Jewish people', Art. 'Edom', (1971), Vol 6, p378.
- The Jewish Encyclopaedia, 'They [Edomites] were then incorporated with the Jewish nation', (1904) Vol 5, p41.
- The New Standard Jewish Encyclopaedia, 'From then on they [Edomites] constituted a part of the Jewish people, Herod being one of their descendants', (1977), p589.
- Flavius Josephus, The Antiquities of the Jews, 'They [Edomites] were hereafter no other than Jews', Book XIII, chapter IX, verse 1, p279.

After the Fall of Jerusalem the main centre of Judaism became the mixed population based in Babylon. Jews in Palestine under Roman rule were fundamentally Idumaeans or mixed stock. Repeated DNA tests on modern Jews who thought that they had a pure bloodline continually demonstrate mixed blood, typically rooted in European and Azerbaijani stock.

So the original Israelites were ground into powder and destroyed as Jesus prophesied. Jews as a race, an ethnic group, no longer existed. These Israelites were replaced by other races that adopted the Jewish faith, initially being centred on the Torah (Five Books of Moses). The initial main group in Judah were the Idumeans. However, the Sephardim today form a minority within Jewry.

The main section of Jewry today is the Ashkenazi (Russian Jews). These have no connection either to Abraham, the OT Israelite race or to the land of Palestine. There is debate as to their origin today due to muddying of the waters by certain Jewish apologists. For 100 years it was agreed, even amongst rabbis, that the origin was the Khazarian Empire in the Ukrainian, south Russian area. The Khazars converted en masse to Judaism around the 8th century until conquered and dispersed by Russia for their wickedness. I have fully covered this, with rabbinic sources in my papers: 'History of Palestine', 'The Pharisees' and 'Depths of Deception'.

Many Jews admit that they are a mixed race. The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith in America concludes that Jews are part of a 'general admixture' of races.⁶⁵

But for a minuscule remnant, contemporary 'Jews' are mostly mamzerim, of mixed race. A large segment of so-called Israeli Jews today are North African Sephardic people who are genetically indistinguishable from their Arab neighbours, while the overwhelming majority of 'Jews' in America are actually descendants of converts from the Khazar tribe of Eastern Europe.⁶⁶

Thus Jews comprise of many ethnic groups that have adopted Judaism as their faith. They are not Israelites like those in the OT. They have no connection to Abraham (apart from the Sephardim who belong to a cursed line).

⁶⁵ Anti-Defamation League, Fireside Discussion Groups, leaflet number 7, 'Three Questions Jews Must Answer'.

⁶⁶ Hoffman, 'Judaism's strange gods', p110. He cites: Kevin Alan Brook, 'The Jews of Khazaria' (1999) and Paul Wexler, 'The Ashkenazic Jews: a Slavo-Turkic people', (1993) and Arthur Koestler, 'The Thirteenth Tribe: The Khazar Empire and its heritage', (1976). But there are many others, including books by rabbis and Jewish historians and geneticists.

So those modern Dispensational Christians who support Jews and Israel in the belief that they are supporting OT Israelites are deluded. The majority descend from a Turkic-Mongol race of serpent and phallus worshippers who converted to Judaism for practical survival. Their Jewish faith is also nothing to do with Mosaic Law but the perversions of Babylonian occultism enshrined in the Talmud.

Messianic Christians have been deceived to supporting a completely satanic system.

Summary

- The Pharisees were sons of the Devil – satanic in character and doctrine (Jn 8:44).
- The Pharisees led the Jewish opposition to Jesus and were guilty of his murder; though the blood was on all the people (Matt 27:25).
- The centre of Pharisaic learning after 70AD was in Babylon where the Pharisees had built a foothold since 586 BC. It was here that they absorbed many occult and idolatrous doctrines.
- Torah Judaism cannot function without a temple, a Levitical / Aaronic priesthood, the vestments of glory and beauty, the Ark of the Covenant, a sanctified place to offer blood sacrifices, plus the vessels and altars of the temple. Needing to reconstruct Judaism after the judgment of God destroyed the temple, removed the holy vessels and killed all the priests, Pharisaic rabbis built a new system based upon rabbinic writings collated in the Talmud (Pharisaic oral law) and established synagogues as the centres of religion. Post-70 AD Judaism bears no comparison to OT Israelite religion; they are two different systems.
- Thus modern Judaism is Satanic, stemming from the teaching and practices of the Pharisees, the enemies of Jesus and the progeny of the Devil.

Anti-Semitism

Since Jewishness is not racial, condemning Jewish ideology or action cannot be racist. Jews are made up of many ethnic groups with the unifying feature being the religion of Judaism – but even that is fragmented into multiple factions.

The majority of Jews in the world today are not Semitic but emanate from the region of the Ukraine and southern Russia. Criticising Ashkenazi Jews, therefore, cannot be called anti-Semitism.

When the media criticises Palestinians as anti-Semitic for protesting against Israeli violence they are guilty of stupidity. Palestinian Arabs are Semitic but the ruling Israeli party and the majority of Israel's inhabitants are not Semitic.

Benjamin Netanyahu is a typical example. He is an ardent Zionist and Talmudist who focuses much on Palestine being God's gift to Jews like him. Indeed, he is working to gain Greater Israel occupying the land promised to King David from the Euphrates to the Mediterranean ('from the river to the sea').

Yet Netanyahu has not a shred of a claim to Palestine. He is an Ashkenazi Jew that derives from a Polish heritage (however he claims that a DNA test shows that he is Sephardic, which would give him a connection to Palestine). His father, Benzion Mileikowsky was born in Warsaw. His paternal grandfather, Nathan Mileikowsky, was a rabbi born in Krev in the Russian Empire (now Belarus). He has no heritage from Abraham or Isaac or Jacob or any other Israelite via his paternal line.

His mother, Tzila Segal, was born in the Ottoman Empire located in Petah Tikva near modern day Tel Aviv. However she settled in Minnesota following a period in Lithuania and studying law in London. Her father was Binyamin Simon Halevi whose parents were Myer Hirsh Halevi, born in Lithuania and Rasha Gitel Segaliovich, born in Lithuania.

So Benjamin Netanyahu is Polish-Lithuanian-Russian in origin; typical Ashkenazi. He is East European. He perhaps has more claim to the Balts (Baltic tribes) or the Polans (West Slavs). He certainly has no connection to Abraham. The great champion of modern Jews intent on creating Greater Israel, claiming it as God's gift, has more connection to the Baltic region.

The charge of anti-Semitism is an old trick of Jews (which many Jews have admitted) to use a buzzword in order to immediately condemn opponents and cast them in an evil light. Sadly, it is a trick that has gained legal power in some countries and the charge alone will land you in jail.

The fact that merely criticising a single group of people (a minority) can land you in prison demonstrates who is really in power. Jews control Western governments.

Noahide Law

The seven Noahide laws derive from the Talmud (not Noah) and are:

- Prohibition of Idolatry: No worship of false gods.
- Prohibition of Murder.
- Prohibition of Theft: Stealing and Kidnapping are sins.
- Prohibition of Sexual immorality. This includes adultery, incest, bestiality and homosexuality.
- Prohibition of Blasphemy.
- Dietary Law: Do not consume any flesh torn from an animal that is still alive.
- Requirement to have just Laws: Establish a system of laws, courts, and police that is honest and effective.

Note that the Talmud contradicts these laws in many places.

Some Jewish factions actively promote the Noahide Laws: the Chabad-Lubavitch movement (note Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson launched the global Noahide Campaign), affiliates of Dor Daim, students of Maimonides and groups calling themselves the B'nei Noah ('children of Noah').

The problem is the various interpretations of these basic laws by rabbis, which are often contradictory. Rabbis (such as Maimonides, Rabbi David ben Solomon ibn Abi Zimra [Radbaz], Rabbi Nissim ben Reuben Gerondi and Rabbi Saadia Gaon) also added extra laws. The sixteenth century work Asarah Maamarot by Rabbi Menahem Azariah of Fano (Rema mi-Fano) enumerates thirty commandments, listing the latter twenty-three as extensions of the original seven. Rabbi Aaron Lichtenstein counts 66 instructions.

Under the halakhah (Halacha; Jewish law), if a non-Jew is to be accepted to live in Israel, then he must keep the Noahide Laws, and a number of additional laws and regulations as well. This person is called a Ger Toshav, a 'Sojourning Alien'. Punishment for violating one of the Noahide Laws includes the death penalty (Talmud, tractate Sanhedrin 57a),

Despite claims otherwise, this legal system has nothing to do with the Biblical Noah, or the Noahic Covenant with nature, but the assertions of the Talmud to provide a counterfeit legal jurisprudence, based on identifying idolatry, in Gentile societies.

Maimonides writes that regions ruled by Jews can only allow people to stay or pass through if they submit to this abbreviated set of Talmudic laws.

We are forbidden to let an idolater among us; even a temporary resident or itinerant trader shall not be allowed to pass through our land unless he accepts the seven Noahide precepts.⁶⁷

Under Noahide Law worship of Jesus is forbidden under the penalty of death because Jews class this as idolatry. All Gentiles only have the status of resident alien, not citizen, even in their own lands (cf. the situation for Palestinians in Israel) and must pay a tax and be in servitude. Gentiles refusing this arrangement must be waged war upon.⁶⁸

There have been repeated attempts by rabbis in America to give these laws formal legal authority; indeed, such a bill is again underway. They were recognised by the US Congress in the preamble to the bill that established Education Day in honour of the 90th birthday of Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson, the leader of the Chabad-Lubavitch movement. This preamble conflates the Noahide Laws with the historical tradition of ethical values and principles which are the basis of civilised society and which established US bedrock principles. In March 2007, Chabad-Lubavitch gathered ambassadors from six different countries to declare their support of the universal teachings of Noahide Laws; comprising Poland, Latvia, Mexico, Panama, Ghana, and Japan.

Observations

- The basis of Noahidism is the Talmud and rabbinic speculation. This is a shaky foundation since various rabbis had different opinions on what constituted Noahide law. Rabbis cannot even agree as to how many laws there are.
- If the Talmud is false, then Noahidism is false. The Babylonian Talmud is clearly false.
- The laws demand the death penalty as a sanction.
- Residential status, even in your own country, is determined by obedience to these laws (if enacted).
- Christianity is forbidden by these laws.

Crimes against Gentiles throughout history

Jews were expelled from European nations over 100 times, including from Britain. Some nations expelled them several times over centuries. Jewish apologists say that this was due to anti-Semitism but that makes no sense. Why would multiple nations do this many times if there were no reason?

In fact there were many reasons; we can list a few without going into deep explanations.

⁶⁷ Maimonides, Mishnah Torah, 'Idolatry', 10, 6.

⁶⁸ Mordecai Nisan, 'Kivunim', World Zionist Organisation, August 1984, p151-156.

- Jews collected themselves into enclaves and ghettos, removed from normal society. They refused to mix and integrate, causing suspicion.
- Jews became moneylenders and were condemned for usury. By exorbitant interest rates they became wealthy on the back of poor people who had no cash for taxes. This led to hatred of local Jews.
- Jews were antisocial in the community. Their isolation led to bad attitudes towards other locals who were Gentiles. This is the result of the Talmud.
- Following the Talmud, Jews were guilty of lying, perjury, evil business practice, theft and so on.
- Jews were accused of ritual killing of Gentile children, especially on feast days such as the Passover. This is denied today by apologists but even Jewish historians have affirmed it to be true.⁶⁹ There were many occasions when a Jew was accused on murder and tried by a court. Overall there have been at least 122 ritual trials, 39 in the 19th century. One body was that of St Hugh in Lincoln in 1255, found in a well. A Jew named Copinns was executed by King Henry III for the crime. Another victim was St Simon of Trent in 1472; the perpetrators were executed on the wheel and their synagogue burned.⁷⁰ Jewish texts do speak of the value of blood in certain rituals. One Catholic priest (Father James E Bulger) has claimed that 6 million children have been killed by Jews since the time of Jesus.⁷¹ Martin Luther complained that Jews kidnapped Gentile children and murdered Gentiles and Christians in his tract, 'The Jews and their lies'.

Kabbala: There is a commandment pertaining to the killing of strangers, who are like beasts. This killing has to be done in the lawful method. Those who do not ascribe themselves to the Jewish religious law must be offered up as sacrifices to the High God.

Thikunne Zohar, Berdiwetsch ed. 88b.

Human blood is used in Talmudic black magic rituals.

Jewish Encyclopaedia, art. 'Popes'.

Talmud: Mishna: He who gives of his seed to Molech incurs no punishment. ... Gemara: The Mishna teaches idolatry and giving to Molech. R. Abin said: Our Mishna is in accordance with the view that Molech worship is not idolatry.

Sanhedrin 64a. Footnote 21 adds: 'Giving one's seed to Molech is not idolatry.'

Jews [are] addicted to magical practices ... one knows the position that blood always occupies in the operation of sorcery. In Chaldean magic it had very great importance ... Now it is very probably, even certain, that Jewish magicians must have sacrificed children.⁷²

Jewish law is quite specific that the victim at Passover must be a white child under seven years of age, who must be bled white, crowned with thorns, tortured, beaten, stabbed, and finally given the last blow by being wounded in the side, the dagger prescribed to be in the hands of a rabbi, in a complete re-enactment of the crucifixion of Christ.⁷³

There is a fairly strong likelihood that these seemingly impossible beliefs [blood ritual] were actually true. ... It appears that a considerable number of Ashkenazi Jews traditionally regarded Christian blood as having powerful magical properties.⁷⁴

For reasons such as these, Jews were continually expelled from nations.

The war crimes of Israel forces since the British Mandate

Multiple rabbis have conditioned army troops and officers to kill non-Jews. E.g. Rabbi Moshe Neriya commanded Jews to, 'shoot Arabs left and right without thinking and without hesitating'.⁷⁵

- 1981. Israeli warplanes destroyed an Iraqi civilian nuclear reactor.
- 6 June 1982. Israel invades Lebanon. Many towns and villages were destroyed creating many refugees. Eight initial air raids killed 1,000 people. In July jets destroyed part of the densely populated Fakahani district of Beirut. 200 were killed and 800 wounded. 40% were small children. The invasion of Beirut lasted 80 days destroying much of the city. Massacres occurred at Sabra and Shatila refugee camps. 2,500 plus Palestinian women, children and elderly people were killed.

- 1989 Israeli F-16s bomb targets in Lebanon killing 15 school children in Damour.
- 14 April 1989. Israeli border guards attack unarmed village of Nahalin. 8 killed and over 50 injured.
- 27 February 1994, a bomb placed in the Maronite Catholic Church in Junieh, Lebanon killed ten Catholics and wounded 60 others. The Lebanese Prime Minister Rafik al-Hariri and others stated that Mossad was the guilty party
- Israeli Army officer Baruch Goldstein killed 40 people while they knelt in prayer in a mosque in Hebron on 25 February 1994 (Purim). The 25 Palestinians who protested the massacre were immediately shot to death by Israeli troops under the orders of Ehud Barak.

Since 1948 Israel destroyed 530 Palestinian villages, killing many thousands and forcing 750,00 to flee their homes (ethnic cleansing). Palestinians call this 'The Nakba' (catastrophe). 78% of historic Palestine was captured by Israel. The remaining 22% was divided into the occupied West Bank and the besieged Gaza Strip.

Some Israeli Operations against the Palestinians

- Operation Protective Edge (2014): The IDF killed 2,251 people in the Gaza Strip including 299 women and 551 children.
- Operation Pillar of Defence in November 2012; the IDF killed 167 Palestinians.
- Operation Cast Lead (2008) over 1,400 were killed, mostly civilians including 400 children.

This is just a short list, which could be extended much further. Atrocities continue to this day. While I was researching this a few years ago Israeli soldiers killed many peacefully protesting Palestinian civilians by a fence, including a pregnant woman and a person in a wheelchair.

The only way to explain these atrocities (which the 'moral' western nations do nothing about but rather gives Israel the military means to carry them out), is by understanding the religious system of Judaism. The Talmud, Kabbala and Halakha (Jewish law) demand that Jews kill as many Gentiles as possible, of all ages and moral qualities, in order to bring about the messianic age. Thus Israelis have no qualms about killing Palestinian women and children; indeed they rejoice over it. After one massacre a journalist interviewed a female Israel soldier who proudly brandished her commando knife that was full of blood.

Jews are conditioned from birth to see themselves as superior and all others as beasts to be killed. The actions of the Israeli State are not surprising.

The criminal brutality and war crimes of the IDF: the violent, militarised expression of the Talmud

The Israel Defence Force (IDF) is the most brutal, inhumane military unit that causes more war atrocities than any other force.

I have explained this to some degree in other papers, such as 'History of Palestine', but here an available source is the speech recently given to the Oxford Union Debating Society by Palestinian activist Susan Abulhawa.⁷⁶ She showed that Israel's ethnic cleansing programme is not a response to occasional Palestinian terrorism but a continual programme of land-grabbing that is a cornerstone of the plan for a Greater Israel. Here are some stories of Israeli violence in Gaza.

- The IDF booby-traps cans of food to maim starving children. She saw a little boy whose hands and part of his face had been blown off by opening such.
- The IDF left poisoned food for people in Shujaiyya
- In the 1980s and 90s the IDF left booby-trapped toys in southern Lebanon that exploded when kids picked them up.
- There is a daily sniping of children.
- There is continual bombing of entire neighbourhoods burying whole families alive under tons of concrete.

⁷⁶ The Unz Review, Mike Whitney, 4 December 2024.

- The IDF blows up hospitals and schools by the dozen.
- Food and medicine supply trucks are blocked.
- After forcing civilians into safe zones, these areas were then bombed.
- Israel cut off food, medicine and energy supplies.
- The IDF lured civilians to food trucks only to open fire on them.
- Food deliveries were allowed in to a shelter which filled with people but then the IDF set fire to the whole shelter and truck.
- An IDF soldier bragged about shooting 42 Gazan kneecaps in one day.
- Another bragged on CNN that he had run over hundreds of Palestinians with his tank.
- The IDF systematically raped hundreds of doctors, nurses, patients and captives with hot metal rods, jagged sticks, electrified rods and fire extinguishers, sometimes causing death. One example is Dr Adnan al Bursh.
- Palestinian women have been forced to give birth in filthy conditions, have C-sections or amputations without anaesthesia.

What is galling about Israel is that they perform these diabolical (literally) acts yet complain to the world (by controlling all the media and politicians) that they are the victims.

The IDF are so stupid that they celebrate their inhumanity by posting videos on TikTok; such as killing an entire family in an apartment and then dancing around the room in celebration. Or women were killed and then IDF soldiers posed on video in their lingerie. Or a soldier boasted about killing children in Gaza to put an end to Palestinian bloodlines. The IDF has long had a policy of shooting children in the groin or ovaries to ensure sterilisation if not death.

I have seen film of a group of IDF soldiers breaking the arms of a teenage boy with concrete blocks. The inhumanity knows no bounds because they are dominated by Talmudic doctrines that the victims are not human beings.

Israel lost its humanity ... Totally lost its humanity. ... That's the first and most dramatic change ... after the 7th October ... We can do whatever we want ... and nobody will tell us how far we can go. We can go as far as we want.

Consortium News, Chris Hedges Report, Interview with Gideon Levy.

Israel is now so inhumane that it sanctions empathy for Palestinian victims of its holocaust.⁷⁷ Express empathy for Palestinian children and you can lose your job.

Despite Jewish-controlled Western media's denial, Amnesty International has concluded that Israel is committing genocide in Gaza.⁷⁸ The truth is that this genocide has been ongoing since 1948.

Recent atrocities

- Israeli troops pulling out of Lebanon used specialist heavy construction vehicles to plough up the roads to cause unnecessary suffering to the local inhabitants.

⁷⁷ Consortium News, Chris Hedges Report, Interview with Gideon Levy.

⁷⁸ Amnesty International, 'You feel like you are subhuman', 4 December 2024.

- Israel, on top of deploying hundreds of illegal air strikes on Syria, after supporting proscribed terrorists to oust Assad, exploded a small tactical nuclear bomb in Syrian territory in Tartus. Satellite images show a part of a mountain destroyed and disappearing into the sky. Trees disappeared for about a kilometre.
- Israel deployed incendiary carpet bombing sorties in Yemen.
- Israeli military and civilian officials publicly called for massacres in Gaza, ‘what is important is to beat the hell out of them ... we won’t let them rebuild ... anything that makes a move, what moves dies and is attacked and annihilated’, (Israeli Finance Minister). This includes babies. ‘IDF soldiers; don’t come back home until you burn all Gaza, and don’t even leave a baby alive. I take your responsibility for everything you do there, feel free to massacre them, alive if possible please.’ IDF commandeer Moshe Yifrah.⁷⁹
- Recent bombing in Northern Gaza could be heard in Tel Aviv.
- Remote-controlled tanks are taking explosive packages, deploying them outside hospitals and then exploding them remotely. There are now no hospitals left in Gaza; dozens have been destroyed that were filled with critically injured patients.
- Israel firebombed a press vehicle, clearly identified, and killed five journalists sleeping inside.
- Civilians are being captured, tied up in stress positions, tortured and kept in cages.
- The IDF went into the West Bank a few days ago and randomly shot innocent civilians.
- Unarmed civilians in Gaza are shot while trying to rescue people crushed under fallen masonry. One film shows a young man looking for survivors amidst the streets filled with rubble of fallen buildings. A shot rings out and he falls down groaning. He starts praying to God on the floor and another shot hits him; he groans further. As he starts praying again another shot hits him from the IDF sniper. He stops praying but groans until he dies.

Kids with their heads torn off, with open abdomens, with mutilated limbs with burns ... with amputations. These are beyond description. ... Smell the hair that has been charcoaled and feel the wounds. ... It is a day of shame for the western governments. ... It is collective punishment of the whole [population], it is ethnic cleansing ... and it is of course genocide. These three crimes are perpetrated day after day as we are watching.

Dr Mads Gilbert.

Miscellaneous Zionist atrocities

Crushing civilians

Recently a terrorist drove a car through a German market killing several and maiming dozens, including many children. The perpetrator was described as a Saudi Arabian Islamist but in fact was a Saudi Arabian Zionist who hates Islam. His actions were caused by anger against Gert Wilders. The mindset of Talmudic inspired Zionists justifies killing innocent civilians just to make a political point. As soon as the media (owned by Jews) could not blame Islamic extremism any longer it suddenly dropped out of the news.

Brutality towards an infant

A soldier gave a testimony. ‘A new commander came to us. We went out with him on the first patrol in the morning. He stops. There’s not a soul. In the streets, just a little four-year old boy playing in the sand in his yard. The commander suddenly starts running, grabs the boy, and breaks

The support of Israel by the Western powers

Note that Jews comprise less than 2% of Western populations but hold many positions of power.

America

American politics is completely controlled by Jewish interests and Israel. In fact, Jews, though only representing about 2% of the population, control most positions of power in banking, corporatocracy, Big Pharma, entertainment and the media as well as politics.

For decades the White House has been dominated by Jewish Neocons, especially in the area of foreign policy. Names like Donald Rumsfeld, Richard Perle, Bill Kristol and Paul Wolfowitz readily come to mind. The insane, unnecessary and illegal wars (e.g. Iraq, strikes on Libya, strikes on Yemen, strikes on Somalia, insurgency in Syria, threats to Iran etc.) were the result of the plan for a Greater Israel (the Yinon Plan) championed by Netanyahu. At huge costs to the US, America wasted lives and manpower to serve Israel not America.

Benjamin Netanyahu received more standing ovations after a speech in Congress than any American president. This is despite being hated in Israel and wanted for fraud and conspiracy.

Chabad, a radical Jewish lobbying group, controls most of the people in Congress. Other Jewish factions (e.g. B'nai B'rith, ADL) also have great influence over US politics. Mossad is closely connected to the CIA.

Congressmen are required to swear an oath to Israel above all others but do not swear an oath to America. Any Congressman opposing Israel is swiftly removed from office by various means; such as closing down all donations and finance. Note that Trump has filled his future staff positions ready for January 2025 with Zionists. He has also given full commitment to serving Israel in geopolitics.

America funds Israel to the tune of billions of dollars a year.

The Mob

Organised US crime was historically dominated by Jews with a franchise granted to Sicilians. Powerful mobsters included Bugsy Siegel and Dutch Schultz but the main crime boss was Meyer Lansky (Murder Incorporated) for many years.

Pornography

Jews have controlled this since the days of pornographic comic strips 100 years ago and most pornographic enterprises are owned by Jews.⁸⁰ It is now a global enterprise intended to degrade western mores and corrupt genetic lines. Note that Pornhub is owned by a rabbi; the first Gay dating website was started by an elderly Jewish couple.

⁸⁰ E.g. Adam Glasser, Gary Kremen, Al Goldstein, Sean Rad, Greg Lansky, Reuben Sturman.

Christian Zionism

Based upon Dispensational heresies that have plagued the church of over 100 years, this has been used to corrupt Christianity for several decades. It turns Christians from following and obeying Christ to supporting Israel, despite its overt wickedness.

Britain

The UK is also largely controlled by Jewish interests; especially the City of London (which has its own private representative in the House of Commons – the ‘Remembrancer’). For over 100 years many Cabinet ministers and even Prime Ministers have been Jews. Winston Churchill was half-Jewish⁸¹ and was bought and paid for by Jewish capital which wanted war with Germany against the wishes of the British people. The strategist behind New Labour was Peter Mandelson. Benjamin Disraeli was a Jewish PM [1868-1881]. Jewish Cabinet ministers include: Michael Howard, Malcolm Rifkind, Tom Tugendhat, Ed Vaizey, Grant Shapps, David Miliband, George Osborne, Oliver Letwin, Margaret Hodge, Edwina Currie etc. Party Leaders include: Herbert Samuel (Liberal), Michael Howard (Conservative), Ed Miliband (Labour), Hundreds of MPs have been Jews and scores have been peers.

Tony Blair took Britain into an illegal war in Iraq to serve Jewish interests (the Yinon Plan); there was never any threat to British interests. People opposed to this were assassinated (David Kelly, Robin Cooke).

Jewish interests have had a major influence in the British media for decades. Currently there is an anti-Israel fad in the BBC and Left-wing interests, but this is exceptional. The Press is dominated by Jewish control or pro-Jewish loyalty and has been for 100 years or more. For example Robert Maxwell owned the Mirror Group from 1984 which included many newspapers.

The British Secret Services work in tandem with Mossad.

The Rothschilds have controlled the Bank of England for 200 years.

Social Media

Most platforms are controlled by Jews, such as Mark Zuckerberg or Jeff Bezos. Wikipedia is largely edited in Tel Aviv.

[As of 2023] News access is controlled by a few companies, mostly owned by Jews: Facebook (Meta, Jew-owned) 33%;⁸² BBC 28%; YouTube 21% (Alphabet, Jew-owned); Google (Alphabet, Jew-owned) 20%; Twitter (X) 20%; Instagram (Meta, Jew-owned) 15%; Whatsapp (Meta, Jew-owned) 15%; Daily Mail (DMG) 11%; Guardian 11%; Google News (Alphabet, Jew-owned) 11%; Sky News (Comcast, Jew-owned) 10%; Apple News 9%.

Hollywood

Hollywood has long ceased to be a purveyor of quality, well-written entertainment, often based upon literature classics, moral fables or Bible stories. It is now a change agent for social degradation following wicked political agendas that are opposed to truth. Hollywood was always dominated by Jewish interests, originally based upon making money, with ⁸¹ Jewish under the Israeli law of return.

⁸² % of UK population.

Disney holding out under Gentile control. After Walt Disney's death this too was taken over by Jews so that virtually all Hollywood is under Jewish control. In this period of consolidating Jewish control, Hollywood became notorious for debauchery, corruption, fraud, and a cess-pit of sexual abuse. There are also multiple allegations by whistleblowers of paedophilia.

Corporations

Most business in the world are controlled by a handful of huge corporations or hedge-funds such as BlackRock, State Street and Vanguard. These are controlled by Jews such as Larry Fink (BlackRock). Six Jewish corporations control 96% of the world's media.⁸³ Jewish corporations control Big Pharma.⁸⁴

Central Banks

All central banks are mostly controlled by Jewish shareholders. This includes the Federal Reserve, which is not federal at all. It was originally dominated by the Rothschilds (Ashkenazi Jews), Morgans, Warburgs (Ashkenazi Jews) and Rockefellers (Sephardic Jews). Its recent chairmen have been Jews such as Janet Yellen, Ben Bernanke and Alan Greenspan.

The central bank of central banks is the Bank for International Settlements, which is controlled by Jews such as the Rothschilds.

The point

Jews represent a very tiny fraction of global society yet they control or exert influence over almost all positions of power in most Western institutions. This has been a deliberate and patient rise to hegemony over centuries according to plans laid out long ago. The goal is world domination, which they believe is now within their grasp.

The support of Israel by the church

The Western churches are overwhelmingly supportive of Israel due to the influence of Dispensationalism. This is particularly true in America where the church lobby is very powerful.

Over decades, Jewish banking potentates gradually spread corrupt ideas into Christian theology on the platform of Dispensationalism.⁸⁵ The fundamental principle of Dispensationalism is a dichotomy amongst God's people; the prime focus of God is Jews; the church is a temporary strategy until Israel is fully restored. The kingdom of God is Jewish. Thus were spawned Christian Zionism, Messianic Christianity, the Jewish Root Movement and several other schismatic ideas. All these served to garner support for Jews in general (with no consideration about what 'Jew' meant)⁸⁶ and for the State of Israel especially, which is overtly anti-Christian and racist.⁸⁷

⁸⁴ E.g. Pfizer head Albert Bourla, Chief scientist Moderna Tal Zaks.

⁸⁵ For example Jewish bankers sponsored John Darby's tours of America and also CI Scofield's corrupt Study Bible (a key Dispensational vehicle).

⁸⁶ The majority of Jews are Ashkenazi (Russian Jews) that are not Semites and have no claim on the Abrahamic Covenant. The minority Sephardim emanate from the Idumeans, who were Edomites descending from Esau and were thus under God's curse. There are Jews from many ethnic cultures: Yemeni, Somalian, Christians were led to pledge support for Israel even when it was committing acts of genocide against Palestinian Christians (a third of Palestinians that had lived there for 2,000 years) and Arab Muslims.

This was the ultimate satanic deception. Christians supported a secular, occult, idolatrous satanic state (based on the Talmud) that was killing fellow Christians.

In addition Christians began to ignore God's commandments, reiterated in the New Covenant; drifted from following Christ and instead began practising festivals like the Passover, or the Feast of Tabernacles (now abrogated); adopting Jewish names; changing the name of God (G-d)⁸⁸ and Jesus (Yeshua); and even getting circumcised (which is forbidden). Israel had truly become an idol perverting Christianity. Messianic Christians became idolaters.

Many claimed that the NT was written originally in Hebrew and later translated into Greek. Scholars have proved this to be blatantly untrue. The lingua franca at the time of writing was Greek, following the Greek Empire. The OT translation most used by Jews at that time was also the Greek Septuagint (LXX), which is quoted often in the NT. The earliest manuscripts of the NT are all in Greek with some versions in Syriac (Aramaic), Gothic and Coptic appearing later. Even NT books written for Jews (e.g. Hebrews, Matthew) were originally written in Greek because Diaspora Jews and proselytes read Greek but not ancient Hebrew (Koine Greek being used in trade and commercial documents).

Statements made in writings by Jewish Root Movement apologists have been filled with lies, fabrications, exaggerations and fraudulent claims. One uses a so-called Midrash hermeneutic to make bold but unbiblical claims. People are attracted to the novelty who are too lazy to check his statements against the Bible, which would quickly prove them to be false. This writer also makes repeated false historical statements, even supporting historical heretics like Caspar Schwenckfeld.

One reason for false views of history by Zionists is their opposition to the Reformers. Protestants, and especially consistent Calvinists, are opposed to the false claims of Messianic Christians and clearly demonstrate the sin of the Jews in rejecting the Messiah. Accurate exegesis and careful dogmatic statements by Calvinists cut through the superficial heresies of modern Messianic Christians and Dispensationalism. To see the sort of nonsense spouted by Christian Zionists see my paper, 'Was the Reformation Good News?'

So, millions of Christians support Israel as a result of believing the errors of Dispensationalism and multiple lies and heresies spouted by Messianic Christian apologists such as John Hagee, Mike Huckabee, Allen Jackson, Carlos Duran, Paul Lanier, Carlos Ortiz, Jacob Prasch, Jerry Falwell, Pat Robertson and Tim LaHaye.

German, British, American, Ukrainian etc. Judaism is not ethnic but religious. However, there are many religious factions within Judaism: liberal, Orthodox, Talmudic, Torah Jew, Karaite (Torah), Druze, Sabbatean, etc.

⁸⁷ Israel is dominated by Ashkenazi Jews, like Netanyahu, who declared that the legal basis of Israel is the Talmud. Thus the basic ideology of Israel is the teaching of Jesus' enemies.

⁸⁸ This is based upon a Jewish superstition that God's name (which is Yahweh by the way) cannot be written down in case one should tread on it.

The support of Israel by alternative media channels

While there are many alternative commentators that support the Palestinian victims and report faithfully on Israeli genocide,⁸⁹ there are many otherwise good news sources that have an irrational blind spot when it comes to Israel. This is very disturbing.

I will mention only two that I am very familiar with.

The first is The Daily Sceptic founded by Toby Young. I continue to read this channel which has many good reports, such as on climate alarmism, UK politics or Covid vaccine damage, but also some very biased articles (e.g. on the Ukraine conflict) and too many prolix papers full of pseudo-academic waffle on obscure subjects. Most alarming is the total support for Israel in its 'defence' against Gaza terrorists.

Many articles have been produced denying that there is genocide going on. How this is possible when there are not only hundreds of clear reports from witnesses but also video footage and even videos posted by IDF troops demonstrating their own war crimes of which they are most proud. Israel has blown up more than 38 hospitals, many schools, hundreds of residential tower blocks, medical centres, and killed hundreds of thousands still lying under tons of rubble (which Daily Sceptic ignores in its statistics). The IDF routinely entices civilians to a few food trucks allowed in only to straf starve civilians with machine gun fire. It also bombs markets, refugee centres and medical camps full of children. The Daily Sceptic ignores the withholding of food, water, energy and resources making Gaza an open air prison (yes that is what it is) by preventing people escaping. It ignores public statements by officials that they intend to kill or remove all Palestinians from land they falsely claim is theirs. It ignores the torture and imprisonment of hundreds of innocent civilian Palestinian hostages. It ignores the bestial killing of men, women and children in gruesome ways. All the time proclaiming that Israel is the victim here.

There are few reasons for this. One is ignorance (but how is that possible since there is so much open evidence). Another is that the Daily Sceptic is a shill for Israel, bought and paid for; I don't want to believe that. The other reason is some sort of cognisant dissonance (yet the editors fight against this on many other subjects).

Another sad example is Alison Pearson and the Planet Normal podcast. I followed this for years and it was a superb alternative voice during the Covid crisis. Sadly it started going awry in its reporting about Ukraine, sometimes spouting the very opposite of the truth by trusting establishment spokesmen. But then it completely supported Israel in the current genocide. Since Alison is married to a Jew I suppose this is to be expected; but I am deeply disappointed that this subject is not treated with the editorial rigour she applies to other subjects.

Biting the hand that feeds them

Israel is only focused on its own interests. To fulfil its plans it routinely betrays its own allies and attacks those that fund it. The classic example of this is the ruthless attack on the USS Liberty. This was a false flag operation planned to blame Egypt.

⁸⁹ Such as UK Column with good reports from Vanessa Beeley who has lived in Gaza, or Max Igan who has also spent time in Gaza and has close friends there.

The USS Liberty was a US intelligence gathering vessel sailing in international waters. On 8 June 1967, during the Six-Day War, Israel used unmarked fighter-bombers to attack the reconnaissance ship along with three torpedo boats, which fired six torpedoes. Unmarked jets are a violation of the Geneva Convention.

The attack lasted 75 minutes and included machine gun / cannon fire, missiles and napalm bombs. Miraculously, the ship was not sunk, but it did have a large gaping hole in the side. When life rafts were launched, they were immediately shot up by machine gun fire from the aircraft. The intent was clearly to leave no survivors. An Israeli helicopter gun ship waited nearby expecting the Liberty to sink; this was presumed to be to machine gun any survivors in the water. With no survivors the Israelis could easily blame Egyptian Arabs.

Thirty-four American sailors were killed and 172 wounded in the attack.

Israel claimed that it was a case of mistaken identity. To say that this is implausible is an understatement; it is risible. US intelligence claimed that it was a deliberate attack ordered by General Moshe Dyan. This was confirmed by former Secretary of State Dean Rusk and former Joint Chief of Staff Admiral Thomas Moorer.⁹⁰

The US government covered this up and refused military aid when requested during the attack. Indeed, it clearly hoped that the Liberty would gradually sink and destroy the evidence but miraculously the Liberty made it to port. This shows the level of Jewish control over American governance from the president down.

The sacrifice of Jews

As well as betraying Gentile allies that support Israel, Jews have also betrayed their own people in order to achieve some strategy. The classic example of this is the sacrifice of Jews in WWII in order to build up the Holocaust propaganda, which was necessary to gain a homeland in Palestine. Thus Zionists planned for the sacrifice of thousands of German Jews and prevented their escape. This was called, 'The Final Solution' by Zionists long before it was applied to Hitler.

Germany facilitated Jewish emigration to Palestine

Eichmann was in charge of liaising with Jewish groups and arranging the transfer of Jews to Palestine in the 'Transfer Agreement' that dated back to 1933.

There was an affiliation between the Gestapo and the militant Haganah in Palestine. The Haganah commander, Feivel Polkes, signed a compact with Eichmann in Berlin to pressurise Jews to emigrate to Palestine. The Zionists wanted to drive Jews out of comfortable lives in Germany and Europe, where they had been assimilated, to gather in Palestine – a situation of poverty and no infrastructure that was not appetising; so force was necessary.

Between 1933 and 1940 about 40% of Germany's Jews emigrated to Palestine with all their wealth and goods.

⁹⁰ See Edward Hendrie; 'Bloody Zion', Great Mountain Pub., (2012), chapter 9. USS Liberty Veterans Association Log, 'The spy ship left out in the cold', James M Scott. Chuck Baldwin's Blog, 'The lost veterans that almost nobody remembers'. Phillip F Nelson, 'Remember the Liberty' (book).

After the war prevented further co-operation with Palestinian Zionists, Hitler proposed a Jewish homeland in Madagascar in 1940. The plan was to establish a Jewish homeland in a beautiful country and resettle a million Jews a year under German protection. This is not so unusual since certain Jews had proposed a homeland in Madagascar since 1880. However, Zionists opposed this vigorously. In November 1940 Zionists sank the ship Patria carrying 1,800 Jewish refugees headed for Mauritius; the Haganah (Palestinian Jewish terrorists led by Ben Gurion) carried this out.

This plan had to be scrapped after Britain invaded the island in 1942 taking control away from Vichy France. The current Arab-Israeli problems could have been avoided if this plan had been allowed to continue.

It is a lie that Hitler's 'Final solution' was the extermination of all Jews in Europe. Eventually Hitler sought the repatriation of Jews to Palestine but not genocide.

The incontrovertible evidence is that Hitler ordered on 30 November 1941 that there was to be 'no liquidation of the Jews'.⁹¹

Why would so much energy have been wasted in arranging emigration of Jews if the plan all along was to simply kill them all?

Zionists planned Jewish suffering

Theodor Herzl first proposed a 'Final Solution' of Jewish suffering.

The 'Final Solution' was a term coined by Theodor Herzl, founder of Zionism, which he said was the solution to the Jewish question in which, 'Anti-Semites will become our surest friends and anti-Semitic countries our allies'. He went on to say, 'It is essential that the sufferings of the Jews become worse ... this will assist in realisation of our plans [for a Jewish Palestinian state] ... I shall induce anti-Semites to liquidate Jewish wealth ... they will strengthen the persecution and oppression of Jews'.⁹²

As far back as Herzl, who died in 1904 before the Balfour Declaration, the Zionist plan was to oppress Jews to force them out of Europe and into Palestine. The Zionists maltreat common Jews in order to foster plans for a national Israel. Even the sinking of the Patria was considered as a necessary sacrifice for the whole Jewish nation by an Israeli former Prime Minister.⁹³ What other nation or religion treats its citizens like this?

Conclusion

The great weapon of the Devil is deception. Jesus and the apostles constantly warned us about the dangers of deception; indeed such warnings fill the pages of the NT. Yet so few modern Christians pay much attention to the hazards of deceit.

A large part of the church has fallen for a deception foisted upon them over decades by Jewish bankers in order to support a Satanic and criminal nation that kills Christians as well as Muslims and atheists.

What is the reason for the continual wars of America and meddling in the Middle East? These nations (Iraq, Iran, Libya, Syria, Yemen and Lebanon) have posed no threat to American citizens yet trillions has been spent on illegal incursions, insurgencies, coups, regime change, wars and violence. The reason is that they are part of the Israeli plan for Balkanising surrounding nations and annexing their land to form the Greater Israel dominating the Middle East. The wars of America are caused by Israel, which dominates US foreign policy no matter whether the government is Democrat or Republican.

Part of the reason these policies are unopposed is that the Christian lobby is fully supportive of these illegal wars which benefit Israel. The Jewish plan to deceive the church has worked.
