

Money and power for satanic destruction

This is a simple overview of what is going on in the world today, what the basis of it is and how this plan is being worked out through powerful men in controlling the world. Many aspects of this have been worked out in more detail in papers such as, the 'Depths of deception' or 'Expressions of the satanic purpose', but here I want to give a concise global overview of events and their causes.

Introductory principles

None of these principles are denied by sound Bible scholars and, indeed, most believers.

The devil hates God and all the things of God

The devil hates God's attributes and is the reverse of those attributes. Thus the devil is a liar when God is the truth;¹ the devil is the 'evil one' while God is holy;² the devil brings death whereas God brings life;³ and so on.

The devil hates the offspring of God

Thus Satan makes war on the saints and is our perpetual enemy.⁴ He is the enemy of the faith, the accuser of the brethren, and the roaring lion seeking someone to devour.⁵

The devil is consumed with hatred for believers because they are the true sons of God in Christ and have been given authority to judge angels,⁶ which is what Satan is. For the created spirit being, Satan, who aspired to rule heaven and rebelled against God, to be placed under men formed from dust, is for him the most monstrous of insults.

Driven mad by his rage, Satan actually thinks that he has a chance of winning against God and so pursues his strategy against God's children on earth with ferocity.

The devil will consume and destroy everything in order to achieve his goal

Since he is insane, he will stop at nothing to try to overthrow all that God has created. He needs the world in order to have a habitation, having been thrown out of heaven long ago.⁷ He needs men in order to express himself since he is an immaterial spirit. Indeed, he wants to usurp man, made in the image of God, and turn mankind into the image of himself.

So, with these provisos (he needs the world and he needs men) he is prepared to ruin anything necessary to achieve these goals of sovereignty over man's creations, of the natural world and mankind.

This means that he cares little about destroying most of the natural world or even most of mankind. If he can end up with an impoverished world inhabited by a few million people who are all submitted to him and the church is fully destroyed, he will be happy. That is his goal, a world fully submitted to him and not God with all traces of the church destroyed. If this results in the deaths of billions of people and the destruction of much of the world's habitat, he cares nothing at all.

The devil has been restricted for centuries

Satan's aims are so evil and destructive that God restrained him from going too far for centuries.⁸ He tried to establish his world order through a variety of world empires (really regional empires) from time to time. Examples would be the Assyrian Empire, the Persian Empire, the Greek Empire and the Roman Empire (which are highlighted by Scripture). There were also many smaller empires in the last 5,000 years: various empire dynasties in China, Mongolia, Egypt, the Near East,⁹ Babylonia, Eastern Europe, Africa, the Americas and so on. Shaka Zulu had a bigger empire in Zululand in the 19th century than Alexander the Great.

Every time the influence of Satan became too great in these empires, God put the brakes on and they suddenly faded away, either by war or internal decay. Each time Satan had to start again and by being restrained was unable to create a world empire under his sovereignty.

At the end the restraint is loosed

In the timing and sovereignty of God, there comes a time when the restraint on Satan is withdrawn and he is allowed to gather his global totalitarian empire under the proxy of a man, or a system of men.¹⁰

When this occurs, the rage of Satan is intense since he knows that his time is short.¹¹ He knows this because he understands the Scriptures even though he seeks to overthrow them.¹²

The divine purpose of this loosening

Satan thinks that his time has come, but in reality God is allowing the sinfulness of man to reach its peak under the control of the being that started man's sinful decline in the first place. Mankind comes to the fulness of its sin, Satan comes to the fulness of his rebellion, and then God will bring the harvest of judgment and reap all sinners for condemnation.

The purpose of God is then fulfilled by gathering the elect from all corners of the earth and from all time periods to settle them back on a restored and renewed earth where heaven and earth meet in harmony.¹³ God will then dwell with men through Christ for eternity.¹⁴

Satan, and all his human followers who ignored the truth of the Gospel, are sentenced to the Lake of Fire, which is an eternal hell full of condemnation and torment.¹⁵

The satanic working in the time of loosening

As a spirit being, Satan has to work through men to change things on the earth; thus Satan has always had agents that work for him to achieve his goals. While Satan can lead all types of men through temptation and lusts, there are always those who give themselves over to serve Satan in a fuller capacity. Some of these are servants in a religious sense, Satanists and devil worshippers (through one system or another);¹⁶ but many others are fully paid up servants of Satan who are not religious at all. These are politicians and commercial controllers who serve Satan through their machinations, but are less worshippers of Satan than seekers after power and money. Those with vast money and power in the world today are most often those who are serving the purposes of Satan.

Thus the Bible gives us many descriptions of the time at the end when certain characterises reign in society.

Key events in this time of loosening

Without long discussion, I will simply list items.

- The gathering of humanity into a single, global world empire under Satan.
- The control of this empire is under the man of sin, the man of lawlessness.¹⁷ We can debate whether this is a single individual (the Antichrist) or mankind as a corporate entity (man considered as the temple of God indwelt by Satan).
- There is a secular rule of this empire under a despotic system of control and also a religious arm presided over by a false prophet.¹⁸
- The empire will provide stability after a time of upheaval¹⁹ followed by unrestrained hedonism, affluence, greed and wickedness. It is a time of great commercial activity.²⁰
- In the early part of the loosening, the church finally succeeds in preaching the Gospel to all mankind. Every part of the world has a Gospel witness in some form.²¹
- Yet, at the same time, the church is plagued by a massive injection of deception and many fall away. As the devil rises in his expression in the world, the church apostatises on an unprecedented level.²²
- Also during the early part of this loosening, ungodliness in society in general reaches a climax.²³ Moral factors long considered as fundamental ethical issues are overturned in a formal way by governments.
- The true church is then ruthlessly persecuted while a formal false church is sponsored by the world government.²⁴ Over time, the false church is coerced into worshipping Satan through deception.²⁵

When is this loosening?

Now many think that the period of development towards a global government is rapid and that its control lasts for only a few years, some say seven others say 3¹/₂, but there is no scriptural warrant for his. Indeed, the Dispensational form of this is recent, having only existed since around 1830 onwards and this has become the majority Protestant view through the activity of Satan by human proxies.²⁶

Scripture does not affirm this rapidity at all; in fact, it emphasises that the principles of the Antichrist were already existent in the time of the apostles. I have made the case that the time of loosening is seen from when its fruits are evidenced in the world, and a good case can be made that this occurred in the mid-19th century.²⁷ It was after this that technology accelerated rapidly, world wars began, global developments were initiated and the church began to be savagely attacked by Liberalism, Modernism, Secularism, Humanism and a multitude of false teachings, followed by massive sectarianism and a falling away.

I personally have no doubt that we have been in the time of loosening, and its massive degeneration of society and the church, for over a hundred years.

The upshot

If this is true, then we should have been seeing all sorts of confirmation of the satanising of the church and the world for decades. I maintain that we are seeing exactly this, and it gets worse every day.

The reason for the apostasy in the church, the decline of Christian principles in western society, the legalisation of sin, the corruption of ethics, the breakdown of institutions like marriage, the evil global manipulation of commerce, politics and the media, is all due to the increasing influence of Satan during his period of loosening.

Christians need to understand this and study the Biblical teaching on this subject so that they can be prepared for the future. This is only the beginning.

In the rest of this paper I am going to itemise some of the manifestations of this growing iniquity in the world. The purpose of this is to make you aware of what is really going on around you so that you can keep yourself free of sin and corruption.

I will not say much about the apostasy of the church, which is a big part of this story, since I have done that recently in many other papers. I believe that my readers will already understand this.²⁸

The servants of Satan today

Satanists

Satan can only actively work through men who either deliberately serve his aims or serve him out of selfish ambition. [He passively works through people that serve him in ignorance.]

The elite figures that really run society comprise both forms. Many at the very top are out-and-out Satan worshippers. Some are pure Satanists who are steeped in Black Magic and ²⁶ See 'Depths of Deception' for details. Elite bankers and corporate interests funded the rise of Dispensationalism for strategic elite purposes (one being to foist an acceptance of modern Jews as being the people of God when most are not even Semitic).

²⁷ See my paper: 'Are we in the end time tribulation?'

²⁸ For new readers, see my papers: 'The Charismatic Movt. is a failure'; 'Current background theology', 'Current theological problems explained simply', 'Evaluation of modern church problems', 'When churches become pagan'.

occultism, while many others are Luciferians; often working behind the scenes within another religion. For example many controlling figures within Roman Catholicism (the pope is merely a figurehead) are Luciferians posing as 'Christian' Catholics. Luciferianism is also the fundamental basis of many Jewish religious forms.²⁹

The levels of intensity of elite Satanism vary. Freemasons (who dominate the British establishment) ignorantly submit to rites developed by past Satanists, such as Albert Pike. Most at the lower levels do not even know this and some claim to be Christians. Some follow Satan in ignorance claiming that they are motivated by good, such as Wiccans, spiritualists, mediums or white magicians. Some leaders have just followed their intense ambitions for power, money and control but in doing so have greatly supported the satanic agenda. Yet others are actively involved in Satan worship, satanic rituals and even child sacrifice. There is a great deal of testimony and evidence that elite paedophilia (which is rampant and hidden by governments) sometimes includes ritual murder. In addition there are various churches of Satan and followers of Black Magic.

Therefore, one aspect of the service of Satan today comes in the form of Satanists of various sorts.

The rich 0.1%

The trend of banking, financial institutions and western government policy in recent decades has been to make the rich vastly richer, to make the poor significantly poorer and to make the middle class have less influence, less power and less wealth. Multiple statistics prove that the top 1% of society in America and Britain have become much richer while the top 0.1% have become immensely wealthy.

Example: Britain

The 'Trickle-Down Effect' has been proved to be a fat lie and reducing taxes for the rich actually results in a trickle-up effect. Take British government policy since the Tories gained power in 2010. Taxes for the rich were reduced; tax loopholes for global companies were left to stand (so that huge rich firms pay effectively a smaller tax percentage than a working man); virtually interest-free credit was made available for banks and entrepreneurs to speculate, mainly with property; while the middle class and the working poor were subjected to extreme austerity measures and those on benefits had their income reduced.

What was the result? The near collapse of Britain's infrastructure and the doubling of the national debt. The NHS is at breaking point due to starvation of cash by the government since 2010. Borough councils have been so savagely cut that multiple council services have been axed. Social care is falling apart; the death rate has risen; suicide numbers are through the roof; mental health services are at rock bottom; facilities for the aged have fallen apart; care homes have closed while even libraries and road crossing patrols have vanished. Rents are through the roof and young people have no chance of buying a house for the first time ever. Students start their working lives with up to £40,000 in debts. We could go on.

While the country is approaching ruin the signs of wealth are everywhere. The rich are buying up property all over London where Londoners are leaving in a vast Exodus, unable to afford housing. Former council housing estates are being bulldozed so that expensive apartment blocks can be built for the rich. All over London houses are being renovated with massive basement excavations to enable the rich to have indoor swimming pools, gyms, saunas and recreation rooms. Some areas have been semi-permanent building sites as a result for years, causing local mayhem. Chelsea and Mayfair are riddled with expensive supercars sporting their power up and down residential streets, roaring and spoiling the air. Global corporations publish huge profits while at the same time paying hardly any tax. Again, we could go on.

The signs of wealth are limited to the tiny minority at the top of society and these signs are flaunted in the face of the very poor and the struggling majority of society.

This change of widening the wealth gap and reducing social mobility has been a deliberate plan of the elite, which I will discuss shortly in the section on feudalism. It is a specific plan of the devil that forms part of his overall strategy that leads to world domination. He wants the rich 0.1% to be beholden to him while he wants the vast majority crushed and unable to resist social changes. Well, what does God's word say:

Woe to you who are rich. Lk 6:24

But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition. The love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. 1 Tim 6:9-10

Do not the rich oppress you. Jm 2:6

Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you! Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have heaped up treasure in the last days. Jm 5:1-3

Seekers of power

Countless politicians in league with the satanic plans are paid up members of one or another secret society that is Luciferian at root, but in reality these men are not dominated by worship of Satan but on gaining personal power and money. It is the pursuit of power and money that dominates most politicians. Some historians have written books showing that world history is the working of men in pursuit of money and power.³⁰ Once greedy people have gained all the money they could ever want, the next step to satisfy their self-centred lust is to centre upon gaining power and control which at root is a desire to be god-like.

The Luciferian people at the heart of the core elite are actually focused upon the idea of self-divinity. Their corrupt arrogance and lust for power is so severe that they think they can become gods, or at least do the work of god.

An example

An example of this is Bill Gates; perhaps at first he was just an unscrupulous nerd³¹ pursuing technical goals. As he gained a fast-rising commercial enterprise that took over the world (Microsoft Inc.) he became fabulously rich and is now the supposedly richest man in America worth scores of billions.³² In typical elite fashion Gates poses as a humanitarian for the outside world, making mission statements regarding ethical goals of his charity foundations, with much publicity regarding his donations. In fact his donations amount to about 5% of his wealth (so not even noticeable to his fortune). Yet his huge investments in elite corporations that severely damage the environment and human health demonstrate where his heart really lies.³³ Furthermore his grants to media corporations (such as ABC, the BBC, the Guardian, the Telegraph, and many others) seem like bribes to gain good publicity.

³⁰ See William D Cohan, 'Money and Power'; or Philippe Gigantes, 'Power and Greed' for example.

³¹ Not in a derisive sense here, it equates to geek or anorak fixated on one task, such as computing.

³² In fact there are elite figures in the US that are even richer but they do not publish their wealth or flaunt it; they hide it through multiple companies and banking systems. For example the Rothschild and Rockefeller families are worth more than Gates.

This is the truth about Gate's investments:

Bill Gate's foundation ethics	Bill Gate's funding and investment programmes
To improve nutrition standards and provide better foods for women and children.	Coca Cola ($2.2bn), MacDonalds, Pepsico, Burger King, Yum (KFC), Pizza Hut.
Provide better foods from more efficient farming.	Monsanto.
Free market enterprise.	Walmart (which is destroying small family businesses in the US).
Policies to combat climate change.	Exon Mobil, BP, Esso, ArchCoal. ConocoPhillips, Devon.

The morals behind Gate's funding are truly worthy of the elite. Gates believes in radically lowering the population of the world and is funding methods of population control.³⁴ His methods have included an illegal vaccination programme in India where children were tested with illegal vaccines and 47,500 ended up paralysed.³⁵ He has publicly stated that birth controls (inc. abortion) and health enterprises (vaccinations) could lower the world population by 10-15%; i.e. a removal of 1 billion people.³⁶

Gates' father, William H Gates Sr., was the former head of the eugenics group 'Planned Parenthood'. The founder of this group was Margaret Sanger, who was the most extreme racist and eugenics fanatic. Just one of her quotes is that she wanted to exterminate the entire Negro population. Gates' father funded abortions and Bill Gates has stated that he looked up to his father as his inspiration; thus his affirmation that population control is his chief priority, which he likens to being god-like. Referring to his work atheist Gates once said, 'I have no use for money. This is God's work'.³⁷

Elite figures

In general the main figures comprising the elite are those at the top of the crucial industries that have global significance:

- Central banks (e.g. the Federal Reserve, Bundesbank or the Bank of England).
- Large independent banks (the big banks too big to fail; e.g. Goldman Sachs or JP Morgan Chase).
- Top financial institutions (e.g. Wall Street, the City of London).
- Central media organisations.
- The military research and defence corporations.
- International commercial cabals.

- Intercontinental financial structures (e.g. the World Bank, the ECB, the IMF).
- The pharmaceutical industry.
- The chemical industries (e.g. Bayer)
- Agro business (e.g. Monsanto).
- Top politicians.
- Top political aids and advisors (such as Henry Kissinger).
- Leading thinkers.

And so on. In reality there are many links between all these centres. Most of the global businesses are owned by a very few people at the head of umbrella corporations.

The chief motivation of such leaders is not the welfare of ordinary people but the aims of the elite. In reality, they work together for the goals of the elite.

Example: Barak Obama

Gullible liberal people who only look at the superficial mainstream media portray Obama as a democratic, liberal, intelligent, peaceful, good person in the footsteps of JF Kennedy. In fact, Obama is probably the worst president in US history and a very evil man. This is exactly how satanic manipulation works; publish a media spin on how great a president is when he is really pursuing a satanic agenda full tilt.

When presidential hopeful Donald Trump avers that Obama is a terrible president with an appalling history, he is completely correct. However, the media never stops vilifying Trump,³⁸ because he is a maverick outside the control of the Washington establishment, while lauding Obama. The elite even ensured that Obama was given a Nobel peace prize in 2009, despite being a vicious warmonger, to help seal the false picture fed to the voters.

On every measure Obama is a complete failure, a liar, a war criminal and guilty of eroding the liberties of Americans. He has presided over an appalling decline in the US economy that is threatening to completely collapse at any minute. His Obama-care program (as predicted) has worsened the medical provision of citizens and doubled the cost of health insurance for the middle class. He has pursued despotic civil programmes against US citizens just as much as GW Bush. He failed to fulfil his pre-election promises, such as closing down Guantanamo or not taking America into any unnecessary military incursions. He has engaged in multiple pre-emptive wars, coups, rebellions and actively destabilised entire countries.³⁹ He has sold unbelievable amounts of weapons to all sorts of rogue states and has armed jihadi Islamists, including IS. He has persecuted truth-tellers and whistleblowers. He has conducted illegal assassinations in sovereign foreign territory (e.g. Osama bin Laden) and increased the use of Predator drones that have killed hundreds of innocent civilians in Afghanistan, Yemen, Syria and other places; sometimes killing several generations of one family at a wedding. He extraordinarily intervened in the British debate regarding leaving the EU advocating that we remain in, and added a threat if we didn't.

But lets us just look at some undeniable facts.

³⁸ Recently independent media source 'We Are Change' filmed and monitored a Trump rally at Anaheim, California. There were hordes of media people present as well as a large-scale police presence, including horse-mounted officers. There were a small number of anti-Trump protestors that caused trouble including throwing stones, bottles, and violent abuse. The media reported this as Trump followers causing trouble and attacking Trump protesters.

³⁹ E.g. Libya, Ukraine, Syria.

- Obama has conducted wars longer than any US president in history,⁴⁰ despite taking office pledging to end the wars created by GW Bush.
- Obama has facilitated more arms to foreign governments than any other US government since WWII. This includes arm sales to corrupt and unstable nations.⁴¹ These sales have fuelled, for example, the instability in the Middle East. This has exceeded the amount sold by GW Bush by over $30 billion. One recipient has been Saudi Arabia with an appalling human rights record and a key financier for proxy wars in the Middle East and Wahabi⁴² terrorism. In 2010 Obama authorised $90.4 bn arms sales to Saudi Arabia.
- Obama has authorised more targeted overseas assassinations than any other president. These attacks have routinely killed innocent men, women and children, including US citizens. The most common form of this is by the use of Predator drones.⁴³ Obama authorises murder on a weekly basis in foreign countries like Afghanistan, Yemen, Somalia and Pakistan. One report states that at least 551 innocent civilians have been killed in these attacks; some journalists aver that the figure is much higher.
- Obama has waged war on truth-tellers.⁴⁴ Obama has jailed more whistleblowers than all previous presidents combined. This is despite his speeches championing the cause of transparency in government and admiring whistleblowers. Obama does this by using the Espionage Act to press criminal charges against whistleblowers on the basis of National Security.⁴⁵

The point of this example is to show that the picture of this president in the west is one of a moral, peaceful, intelligent, decent, democratic president when in fact he is a very wicked man pursuing a devilish strategy that has done incredible harm. This is exactly how the devil works out his plans in human history; evil is masqueraded as good.

Elite instruments in general

The satanic strategy has been to steadily turn the world upside down; to ruin the ethics and principles of Christian morals in society and replace them with people in power focused upon greed, money, power, who conduct their business in criminal ways. Thus all the top echelons of power in the world are run by what Greg Hunter calls, 'the criminal crony class',⁴⁶ others would just call them corrupt, wicked people.

In this system real criminals are given power and rewarded by mega financial institutions and corrupt thieves in government. Their purpose is to enrich the top 1% (or less) of society and let the rest of the population slowly suffer. This is essentially a return to the sort of feudalism that prevailed in the Middle Ages; the top 1% of society is fabulously rich while the rest of the nation are serfs who are merely fodder for the rich.

That this is clearly true is proved by all the statistics of the distribution of wealth over the last few decades which demonstrate the increasing wealth of the top 1% and the fabulous wealth of the top 0.1% with the increasing poverty of everyone else. The people at the bottom just die (note the massive increase in the UK death rate under the last two governments and the huge increase in suicides).

This was clearly demonstrated in the last budget by George Osborne who blatantly gave tax advantages to the mega rich whilst depriving the poor and disabled (again). This caused DWP Secretary Iain Duncan Smith (himself no saint in damaging the poor and sick) to resign from the Cabinet condemning Osborne giving help only to those people who vote Tory whilst savagely increasing the suffering of the poor. He also revealed that for years the Chancellor had continually put pressure on the DWP to reduce spending, which led to savage austerity measures (which are actually counter productive and worsen GDP – which is why Osborne doubled the National Debt in four years).

It simply has to be accepted that the people in power (with possibly a very few exceptions) are crooks who are out to feather their own nests financially and strategically. This is very obvious in American politics, which is terribly corrupt, but it is also the case everywhere. For most people the expenses scandal in Westminster comes to mind, but that is the thin end of the wedge.

One example is that the current Tory government is slowly dismantling the NHS and bringing it deliberately to destruction, while at the same time selling off large pieces of the NHS to firms which have Tory MPs on their boards. The same MPs that vote for selling off parts of the NHS are those who profit from these sales. In practice A&E wards, maternity units and whole hospitals are closing and the land sold; specialist units and structural aspects of the NHS are also being sold off, while Tory MPs get rich on the sales (including the Health Secretary). Yet most people are oblivious to this.

Governments are thoroughly corrupt and are dancing to the tune played by the global elite.

Example: The bankers

According to all the professional, qualified, independent economic commentators the people at the head of the big banks are crooks; pure and simple. This has led to the generic term 'banksters', referring to them being banking gangsters. Evaluating this story would comprise several books; all I can do is highlight some features.

The big banks have been caught in the following crimes, amongst many others:

- Rigging the Libor⁴⁷ rate.
- Rigging the gold rate.
- Rigging the silver rate.
- Rigging the Forex⁴⁸ rate.
- Rigging the derivatives market.
- Stealing people's money and outright fraud.
- Selling worthless securities.
- Corrupt ethics.
- Abuse of selling PPIs.
- Massively leveraging assets.
- Insider trading.
- Ignoring finance regulations and laws.

⁴⁷ The London Inter-bank offered rate; the basic rate of interest used in lending between banks on the London interbank market.

⁴⁸ Foreign Exchange.

Despite all this (and far, far more that never gets near a court) not one major banker guilty of crime has gone to prison. Banks just get fined amounts that may seem a lot but are trivial in their scheme of profits. If a poor person steals a few pounds worth of food to alleviate his starvation, he will be prosecuted and possibly sent to prison. Bankers steal billions and get away Scott-free.

These are just a few of the fines that have been levied against JP Morgan Chase:

Victim	Fine	Ref.
Armed services members.	$35 million.	2011 Annual Report, p297-8.
Armed services veterans.	$659 million.	2013 Annual Report, p194, 331.
Credit card holders.	$1.2 billion.	2012 Annual Report, p318-9.
Homeowners.	$1.96 billion.	2013 Annual Report, p193.
Madoff victims.	$3.054 billion.	2013 Annual Report, p328-9.
LIBOR victims.	$109 million.	2013 Annual Report, pp328.
Mortgage-backed securities.	$4.5 billion.	2013 Annual Report, p79, 193.
Pension fund investors.	$150 million.	Bloomberg News, 'JP Morgan Chase settles after pension suit for $150 million'.
Great Britain regulators.	$48.6 million.	2013 Annual Report, p328.

Overall JP Morgan Chase has paid out $28,902,150,000 in fines and settlements in recent years. This terrible record alone proves that it is a perennial corrupt and criminal organisation. However, it is not alone; all the major banks are corrupt. Remember that it was bankers that brought about the last crash in 2008. No major banker went to jail (except in Iceland) and poor people were subjected to austerity measures to supposedly fix the problem (in fact it worsened the problem). It will be bankers that will precipitate the next economic crash, which will come soon and will be the worst in history.

The aims of the elite

The overriding objective of the elite is a totalitarian world empire under their control. Everything else is subservient to this program, which has been in planning for centuries.

The reason why this is their chief aim is that it is also the chief plan of Satan. As servants of the devil, the elite seek to complete this objective and rule the world. Make no mistake, the satanic elite will stop at nothing to rule the world and remake it in their sick image.

The subsidiary plans of the elite are methods to accomplish their world empire. For example:

- Wars, particularly world wars.
- World depopulation (they want the final population to be 500 million, i.e. the removal of 6 billion people).
- Control of the global economy, through central banks and stock market manipulation.
- Focusing wealth in the top 1% of humanity.
- Weather control (chemtrails, DARPA).
- Control of all news media.
- Control of politicians.
- Control of all forms of entertainment.
- Control of education.

- Control of healthcare systems.
- Control of food resources (farming, breeding, fertilisers, pesticides and herbicides, fishing, processing, production, distribution etc.).
- Control and distribution of legal and illicit drugs.
- Control of public mores.
- Transhumanism.⁴⁹

These methods are frequently referred to quite openly by elite spokesmen and the basis of them is even inscribed in granite on the Georgia Guidestones near Atlanta USA. For details on all these with multiple sources see my paper, 'The Depths of Deception'.

Centres of the elite

To control all these things the elite group themselves in certain organisations and secret societies. Some powerful elite figures will be on the board of several of these groups. Each group is focused on a specific programme and will often direct the policy of national presidents and prime ministers.

Below is a very simplified list. Beneath the main groups there are hundreds of subsidiary think tanks and administrative units that work out elite plans.

Openly known groups

- Council on Foreign Relations. [Hillary Clinton was quoted as Secretary of State saying that the CFR tells the State Dept. what to do.]
- The Bilderberger Group.
- The Trilateral Commission.
- Royal Institute of International Affairs.

Subsidiary arms of known groups

- The Fabian Society.
- Common Purpose
- The Club of Rome.
- NATO.
- The UN.
- Tavistock Institute.
- Ditchley Foundation.
- Rockefeller Foundation.
- National Secret Services (CIA, Mossad, MI5 etc.).

Secret societies

- Zionism.
- Committee of 300.
- The Skull and Bones Society.
- Pilgrim's Society.

⁴⁹ This is part of the elite's desire to be gods. They are working on technology to defeat ageing and increase life spans. Many of the recent films centring on cyborgs are their way of telegraphing this. [Cyborgs are people whose physical abilities are extended beyond normal human limitations by electronic or mechanical elements built into the body. A pacemaker is a simple example of this.]

- Freemasonry.
- The Knights of Malta.
- The Club of the Isles.
- Modern Knights Templar.

For details about these groups and their interconnections, see my paper, 'The Expression of the man of Sin'.

Example: Zionist control of America and Britain

Why would America and Britain engage in wars and military excursions that were opposed to their national interest? It is because the governments involved are not being run for the benefit of national benevolence but for the goals and objectives of radical Zionist Jews. Zionists are a small proportion of Jews in general and many Jews, particularly disenchanted Israeli Jews, are bitterly opposed to Zionism. Being opposed to Zionism is not anti-Semitic but being opposed to the political intrigues of this group of people who want to run the world and who use Jews to serve their interests, and regularly sacrifice them.

The lie of anti-Semitism is a tool whereby Zionists controlling nations can shut down any criticism that may draw attention to their wicked plans. This is nonsense on several levels. Firstly, why focus on Jews that are a tiny proportion of the world's population? Why not other Semites, such as Arabs? Why not other minorities that suffer real persecution, such as Gypsies? Why should Jews alone have laws sanctioning criticism? No other race has this privilege. Secondly, the vast majority of Jews are not even Semitic.⁵⁰ Thus anti-Semitism laws used for Jews is a supreme irony. Thirdly, truth is truth and this should never be censored, no matter whom it offends. The recent furore over Ken Livingstone's comments shows that when the truth is uncomfortable for Zionists the easy way to divert attention is to claim, anti-Semitism and racism even when the target is not a racist at all.

Zionist Jews began to infiltrate British and American governments in the 19th century and pursued a slow, stealth programme to get Zionists to the top positions of responsibility and power over many decades. Today they dominate the politics of western societies. Yet they represent just a tiny fragment of the population; in America this is much less than 2%.⁵¹

Here is a sample of Zionists in America who hold power and use politicians and presidents like puppets.

- From 2008 to 2010 Obama's Chief of Staff was Rahm Emanuel whose father was an Israeli Irgun terrorist. He then became the first Jewish Mayor of Chicago, elected in 2011 and re-elected in 2015. He previously served as the director of the finance committee for Bill Clinton's presidential campaign in 1992, then he joined the Clinton administration as an advisor. He also worked as a banker and was a director for Freddie Mac before becoming a congressman for three terms after 2002 representing Illinois.
- Obama's campaign manager and chief strategist was David Axelrod, becoming a senior presidential advisor after Obama's success.
- Obama's financial sponsor was multi-billionaire elite member George Soros.
- Henry Kissinger was a senior advisor to Obama and many presidents, whom he controlled.

⁵⁰ See 'Depths of Deception'.

⁵¹ About 2% of the US population are Jews but Zionists are only a small proportion of that figure.

- Obama's economic policy makers were Timothy Geithner (former President of the New York Federal Reserve Bank), and Lawrence 'Larry' Summers (former Sec. of the Treasury for Clinton).
- Obama's Director of the Office of Management and Budget was Peter Orszag (former CFR fellow, and board member at Citigroup)
- The chair of the US Federal Reserve was formerly Alan Greenspan (who removed financial regulation) and then Ben Bernanke and now Janet Yellen.
- Controllers of Obama's policy areas include: Cass Sunstein (Administrator of the White House Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs) and many other Zionists.
- Climate change policy is controlled by Carol Browner (former Administrator of the Environmental Protective Agency) and Todd Stern (US Special Envoy for Climate Change).
- The Supreme Court is comprised of nine people; four of whom are Zionists. This fact alone is a complete travesty of democratic representation.

All these are Zionist Jews, representing less than 1% of the US population. Jews account for 50% of US political campaign contributions.⁵²

Israel receives almost $3 billion a year in direct assistance, despite Israel being a wealthy nation on a par with Spain.

The 'War on Terror' was an excuse to initiate multiple strategic actions and draconian laws, such as the Patriot Acts and Homeland Security, which are the precursors to a police state. This phoney war was predicated upon the 9/11-terror attack. Everything surrounding this is filled with Zionists.

- The World Trade Centre lease was purchased immediately before 9/11 by Larry Silverstein and Frank Lowy. It was cheap because necessary asbestos removal and other needed improvements would cost billions in maintenance. The demolition (that was what it was) removed that problem in minutes enabling a new build. New Yorkers are dying in unprecedented numbers from exposure to the carcinogens in the dust. Silverstein also wangled multiple insurance policies and came out fabulously rich.
- Lewis M Eisenberg was the Chairman of the New York Port Authority who facilitated the WTC sale.
- The CIA head that investigated the 9/11 attack was George Tenet.
- The Patriot Acts was co-authored by Michael Chertoff who became the head of Homeland Security.
- The Pentagon was dominated by arch-hawk Paul Wolfowitz (Deputy Sec. of Defence under Bush) and Douglas Feith (Under Sec. of Defence Policy under Bush). The comptroller was Dov Zacheim (former Under Sec. of Defence), who admitted the loss of 2.3 trillion dollars just before the 9/11 attack. The attack on the Pentagon destroyed all the evidence of the accounts which was situated exactly where the supposed plane crashed (no plane was actually involved and this can be proved by physical evidence).
- The Neocons that were behind the Bush administration and the 'War on Terror' were Richard Perle, William Kristol, John Bolton (not a Jew but a Zionist supporter), Donald Rumsfeld, and Dick Cheney.
- The 9/11 Commission Report was written by Philip D Zelikow. The judge who heard the cases of the 9/11 family lawsuits was Alvin Hellerstein. He dismissed some cases and put others on pending and ruled that the City of New York had immunity. He also ruled against relatives removing bits of bodies in the debris in a landfill site to bury them with dignity.

- The man who coined the phrase 'Axis of Evil' is Neocon commentator David Frum, speechwriter for GW Bush.

Zionists control Hollywood, the US media (and have done since they controlled the press in the 1930s), the education system, organised crime, the drug industry (legal and illegal)⁵³ and banking.⁵⁴

Here is a sample of British politicians that have been committed to Zionist programmes:

- Tony Blair; possibly the most committed Zionist pawn of all time, though not a Jew.
- Gordon Brown.
- David Cameron.
- Nick Clegg.
- David Milliband, Zionist Jew.
- Ed Milliband, Zionist Jew.
- Peter Mandelson, Zionist Jew.
- Jack Straw, Zionist Jew.

Here are some heads of the world banking industry.

- The Chair of the Federal Reserve is Janet Yellen. The President of the New York Fed was William Dudley who was a former partner at Goldman Sachs and member of the FSB board (see later).
- Goldman Sachs is a Rothschild organisation chaired by CEO Lloyd Blankfein.
- The World Bank was headed by a Zionist (currently Jim Yong Kim).
- The IMF was headed by Zionist Dominique Strauss-Kahn but now by the Zionist Christine Lagarde.
- The ECB is headed by a Zionist. The first president was Wim Duisenberg; it is currently led by Mario Draghi. In 2009 he was head of the Financial Stability Board (FSB), part of the Bank of International Settlements, that dictates the rules of international central banks. Draghi was a former partner at Goldman Sachs.
- The Governor of the Bank of England is Mark Carney, who worked for Goldman Sachs for 13 years.

I need to stop here. The analysis of Zionist control of the world could easily occupy a whole encyclopaedia.

This example merely illustrates that a secret cabal (Zionists) are a centre of elite power that really controls America and Britain. It is one aspect of elite control; but a major one.

This is but one secret society and elite centre of strategy. There are many such groups of power and money that are controlling the world. For example 'Climate Change' policy is a huge determiner of social policy, government strategy, industrial investment, taxation and education. It is an elite scam based on lies and run by certain groups, such as a section of the UN and key figures in education and media establishments.

Examples of elite plans

There are so many of these that it would require many books to document them all. For more details see 'Depths of Deception'. Remember that the main goal is a global, totalitarian, fascist empire controlled by the elite; all subsidiary plans are dominated by this one overriding objective and dovetail into it.

Re-institution of feudalism

Many are familiar with medieval feudalism. This was the dominant social system in medieval Europe, in which the nobility held lands from the Crown in exchange for military service, and vassals were tenants of the nobles, while the peasants (villeins or serfs) were obliged to live on the lord's land and give him homage, labour, and a share of the produce, notionally in exchange for military protection.

So feudalism is basically a return to a nobility (elite) that owns the land, infrastructure and the utilities while the necessary work to keep society going is done by a peasant working class that has no rights and no ownership. The working classes live a subsistence life, as slaves, while the nobility owns vast riches.

This is similar to an insect population where there is a top level of privileged citizens that is totally supported by the incessant work of a multitude of drones that work themselves to death to serve the queen and her offspring. This is how the elite consider you and me – mere drones or slaves to do their bidding. Some of their writings (especially Jewish-based ones) have stated that the ordinary population is considered as cattle to serve elite plans.

This may seem extreme but it is actually what is being worked out. This is why all the measurements of wealth and goods in society over the last 30 years shows all the wealth, money and property being concentrated upon the very rich top <1% of society. Meanwhile the lower classes have become stuck in poverty while the previously well off middle classes have been so squeezed that they are now burdened with debt and living a quality of life that previously applied to working class people. The wealth is moving up society while the debt burden and poverty is taking over the majority.

Take the example of London, an elite capital and the centre of world money.⁵⁵ Elite billionaires have been buying up all the property and institutions and lower level wealthy people have bought up much of the property to rent out, helped by Tory government initiatives and elite-set virtually zero interest rates. The resultant demand for homes has driven rent prices through the roof so that ordinary people, who have lived all their lives in London and all their social networks are based there, cannot afford rents. The cheapest flats in the poorest areas go for between £1500-2000 a month (simple flats can cost £600,000). This means that even a person on a fairly decent wage of £1500 a month cannot afford to rent a basic flat.

In turn this leads to massive squalor and a rise in homelessness. It is thought that over 300,000 people are homeless in Britain with nothing being done by the government to fix it.⁵⁶ Thus we hear story after story of small houses filled with occupants sharing rooms, and even garages and sheds. Houses with one toilet have been found to house twenty or more people that do little more than doss there and work in poorly paid jobs, sleeping in multiple bunks in one room, or worse.

⁵⁵ The real controllers of the US Fed. are based in London.

⁵⁶ The official figures are hopelessly wrong according to charities. There has been complete lack of investment in social homes and indeed government policies have led to social housing firms reducing their stock. There is a need for a million council homes to be built every year just to keep up with demand, before any further influx of migrants. Government plans are far short of this.

Without further ado, this is an example of elite plans to dominate societies everywhere. It is a focus upon the wealthy and extreme poverty for the rest.

The reinstatement of feudalism by stages is a major aspect of the elite plans to introduce a new world order. As the separation of the rich 1% from the increasingly poor 99% becomes more fixed, it becomes easier for the introduction of a fascist state.

The separation of Syria

As an example of the fulfilment of long-hatched elite plans, take for example the current proposals by John Kerry and the elite to sub-divide Syria into a series of minor states. This is done in the name of peace and for humanitarian reasons (when in fact the prime cause of the Syrian conflict is the US).

Firstly, how would you feel if some foreign politician demanded that England be divided into a series of small states based upon religion?⁵⁷ What right has the US to even consider this?

The separation and subdivision of Syria has been a long term Israeli-Zionist plan for decades; indeed over a hundred years.

Syria is merely a strategy within a greater plan [called the 'Yinon Plan']⁵⁸ for what is called 'Greater Israel', which involves the annexation of Syria, Lebanon, Jordan, half of Iraq, the northern part of Saudi Arabia and part of Egypt (the Kingdom of David, 'from the Brook of Egypt [Nile Valley] to the Euphrates').

This is a policy held by the Netanyahu government, the Likud Party, the Israeli military and Mossad. This policy was advocated early on by Theodore Herzl.⁵⁹ In 1947 Rabbi Fischmann, member of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, testified to the UN Special Committee of Enquiry, 'The Promised Land extends from the river of Egypt up to the Euphrates. It includes parts of Syria and Lebanon'. The Zionist dominated US, and hence NATO, endorses this plan and it explains American foreign policy in recent decades.

To achieve this it must first drive the surrounding countries into smaller, weaker states ('Balkanisation'). Iraq was considered the centrepiece of the Yinon Plan and this is why the Iraq war was so necessary to elite objectives. Thus a false flag and lies were utilised to drive America and Britain into war. Following that, the plan is for Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Egypt and Iran to be divided into smaller states. Thus there is currently pressure to sub-divide Iraq into a Kurdish State, a Sunni State and a Shiite State. Thus the plan speaks of 'the dissolution of all existing Arab states'. This is why the west is supporting IS as part of a Zionist strategy because IS seeks to destroy both Syria and Iraq as nation states. IS is merely the Zionist proxy.

All along the US initiated and dominated civil war in Syria has been the outworking of an old Zionist plan. Not surprising since the US is dominated by Zionist interests and senior politicians while Congress is committed to supporting Israel whatever the cost. It is even ⁵⁷ Actually, it is an EU plan to sub-divide Britain into a number of regions to eliminate Britain's sovereignty and historical position.

⁵⁹ Herzl, 'Complete Diaries', Vol 2, p711.

difficult to become a US politician unless you are a supporter of Israel, so great is the control of US politics by Zionism and has been for a hundred years.

Leaked emails from Hillary Clinton's illegal server showed that the destabilisation of Syria and the fomenting of civil war (intending to lead to its break-up) was done to please Israel. This is common, that America's foreign policy is done against its own interest, and against humanitarian concerns, but for the benefit of Israel. The reason for this is that Zionist Jews hold very many of the major positions in government, commerce, banking and the media and all these have a prior loyalty to Israel and world Jewry rather than the USA (this is part of their Talmudic faith).

Examples of elite methods

Again, there are too many methodologies to document them all; for more details see 'Depths of Deception' and 'The Expression of the Man of Sin'.

- Stimulation of wars, terrorism and conflicts.
- Generation of fear in the populace.
- Chemtrails to control the weather and weaponise it.⁶⁰
- Control and manipulation of the financial markets.
- Control and corruption of the banking system.
- Using false flag operations to achieve certain ends (e.g. 9/11).
- Fill the education system with propaganda to brainwash children to be willing puppets.⁶¹
- Sexualise children and teens through widely available pornography and sexualised education training.
- Weaken society through the proliferation of junk food, corrupted water supplies, and the creation of certain diseases and false cures (e.g. AIDS was created in a laboratory; e.g. many vaccines do far more harm than good and are aimed at reducing certain demographics and populations).
- Bombard society with elite propaganda constantly through education, the media, entertainment and supposed scientific studies.

Example, wars

Please see my forthcoming separate paper 'The progress of world manipulation' which examines the major wars since the time of Louis XVI and which demonstrate the evolution of the purposes of the elite one by one. Some wars were to consolidate power of a growing empire, such as the USA, some were to generate money for the elite controlled military industrial complex, while others were stepping stones to make geo-political changes, such as WWI and WWII. All modern wars are manipulated for an elite purpose, which is a part of the satanic strategy.

⁶⁰ Chemtrails are seen as unnatural criss-cross patterns in the sky, which are created by US military aircraft spraying chemicals into the atmosphere, such as aluminium oxide and barium, to control the weather. This has been going on since 1948, as congressional documents reveal.

⁶¹ It is interesting that observers have noted that young people in the current EU Referendum debate support remaining while most older people want to leave. No one explains that this is due to the massive brainwashing that kids undergo in schools and colleges. The EU spends many billions of pounds on propaganda directed at the young. The poor kids don't know that they have been brainwashed and you can see them rail against crucial, sensible, vote-leave arguments in TV debates, displaying emotion and no rational sense.

Aspects of elite corruption

Paedophilia

I have explained in other papers that paedophilia and child killing is a key component of elite actions. Note that the further OT Israel strayed from Yahweh into idolatry, the more frequent child sacrifice to Molech became.

Some secret societies have rituals that involve homosexuality, such as the sodomy in a coffin that is a requirement of membership to the Skull and Bones society. A leaked email from Colin Powell showed dismay that Tony Blair had balked at this and he advised him to get on board. Whistleblowers have testified that the American military is filled with such rituals in order to get to the top. However, many senior establishment organisations are more rife with child abuse. Since I have explained this elsewhere I will not dwell on it here. It is a common facet of giving over to Satan.

One recent example of policy that leads to child abuse is the recent EU agreement with Turkey over migrants. Syrian refugees are being sent from Greece to Turkey to live in migrant camps. This seems to be laudable – until you realise that these have been turned into centres for raping children, trafficking women as sex slaves and selling human body parts.⁶² One camp identified in this is the Nizip camp in southern Turkey where 30 children under 12 were raped for months with the acquiescence of the authorities. A more wicked abuse of the poor cannot be imagined. This site was recently visited by Angela Merkel and praised. Reports have also been received that Turkish border control officers have been shooting and abusing refugees, prompting Amnesty International to declare that Turkey is not a safe place for asylum seekers, yet it currently has 2.7 million Syrian refugees. The EU clearly cares not a jot and the future acceptance of Turkey (a business partner of IS) into the EU is still on the cards.

State-run or state-accepted paedophilia is nothing new and has existed before during humanitarian crises, such as in Romania under the auspices of the EU. A woman who exposed the EU's involvement in this was threatened with death.⁶³

Years after 9,000 charities and institutions poured money into Romania to help orphans locked up in squalid conditions after the fall of Communism, hundreds of thousands of children still continued to suffer. Millions of pounds of aid vanished or was stolen. Many children ended up on the streets and fell victim to child sex rings.⁶⁴ In fact in the 1990s Romania became the paedophile capital of Europe; rich people travelled from the north to rape kids.⁶⁵ The state did little to help the children and even passed laws making the situation worse, such as lowering the statute of limitations for child abuse.⁶⁶

Romania and Turkey are just two examples of the state abuse of children, which is endemic wherever the elite has power, including Britain. There is a conspiracy between secret courts, Social Services, the police, government and public authorities to unlawfully take happy children from their families and place them into abusive Social Services systems. 25,000 kids a year are taken into care. Thousands of British kids have reported being raped in care homes for years and still nothing is done. Parents have sent documentation to alternative news media reporting official lies, perjury, kidnapping, falsified medical evidence, police threats, false psychiatric assessments, threats to parents of prosecution and so on. Parents that stood up to the system have been sectioned and placed in mental asylums. A similar situation exists in other places such as the US and Australia.

One elite body that seems to be facilitating this is Common Purpose, a hidden fifth monarchy body that is a servant of the EU and the elite but which encompasses most UK state departments and uses brainwashing techniques. It is able to service elite objectives (including child abuse) as it includes leaders in the education system, the police, the judiciary, Social Services, the military, local government and national government. These leaders are more loyal to Common Purpose objectives than to Parliament. See other papers for more on Common Purpose.⁶⁷

The corruption of political leaders

Surely this needs little comment? Perhaps some examples would be appropriate.

Hillary Clinton

Clinton is one of the most vile, corrupt criminals to ever serve in US office. With her husband she has been involved in scandal after scandal going back to Whitewater and beyond. She has been alleged to be involved in fraud, coercion, drug trafficking, murder, child abuse, abuse of office, and the list goes on. Many years ago a Christian documentary film company produced a video listing the Clinton scandals and crimes and sent a copy to every congressman. This achieved nothing at all.

In her political career she has been proven to be a multiple and inveterate liar of the first order. You can find YouTube compilations of news reports showing how she lies whenever it is politically prudent. For example, she first affirmed that she was opposed to Gay marriage then later stated that she had always been a supporter of it when the tide changed.

She controlled the rebellion in Libya, which she affirmed she did to help Israel and caused the destruction of an entire nation, which went from being prosperous and stable to a failed state and a source of Islamic terrorism. She is absolutely guilty for the Benghazi affair, which led to the death of the ambassador. This alone should have led to her impeachment.⁶⁸

Most recently she has been guilty of dereliction of duty, corruption and treason in the establishment of a private computer server in her bathroom which was unprotected and had thousands of state department emails on it. This was hacked by multiple governments and an individual hacker named Guccifer. This alone is treason since top secret documents were held in this private server and she is currently under investigation by the FBI and could go to jail for this alone. Whether she does or not, she is unfit for any public office and an American judge has openly stated this.

Worse, the reason for this private server was that Clinton was selling State Department favours for 'donations' of millions of dollars to The Clinton Foundation. British politicians were sacked for one-off selling of lobby influence for a few grand; Clinton was involved in millions of dollars of favours.

⁶⁷ Such as Depths of Deception and links there.

⁶⁸ In the US this word means the prosecution of a person for political misconduct. It has a wider meaning in English.

This is a most corrupt and wicked woman who should never be in any public office according to a judge. Yet the mainstream media are full of vilification for Trump and say nothing about Clinton's crimes, even though they are a major news story of deep public relevance.

Vocal supporters of Clinton also need to be examined. One is George Clooney, whose suave looks and charm make him an effective ambassador. Yet Clooney is a member of the CFR and not to be trusted. He is fabulously rich with multiple foreign mansions, which seem far more than his acting wages could afford. Furthermore, would you trust a man so vain and greedy as to sell offers for a meal with him for $147,000?

David Cameron

I could have chosen almost any party leader,⁶⁹ such as Tony Blair; but I have exposed him in multiple papers for many years. Cameron is the one in the public eye today and he needs to be exposed for the corrupt, selfish manoeuvrer that he is.

Cameron is another inveterate liar who says whatever is necessary at the time for political expediency. For example, he had always been known as supporting leaving the EU and indeed, his selection by his constituency as MP depended upon this. For years he supported Brexit until the elite needed him to lead to remain campaign. Now he affirms that he is an ardent believer in the EU. This is just one example, of very many, how Cameron just says whatever is necessary at the time. I have outlined a number of his specific lies in other papers.

Despite propounding the doctrine of 'we are all this [economic mess] together' Cameron is loaded. He came from a wealthy family and his wife is even wealthier. The idea that he suffers like poor people is hilarious. His father was recently exposed in leaked documents of massive tax-evasion, which Cameron benefited from, and which he initially tried to cover up by lying. Previously he had condemned Jimmy Carr for pursuing minor legal tax loopholes.

Cameron viciously castigated Sadiq Khan during the London mayoral election campaign, affirming that he was a friend of radical jihadists. Immediately after Khan was elected Cameron typically changed suit and praised him while sharing a platform in an EU referendum rally.

While Cameron was repeatedly promising 'no top-down NHS reforms' in the run up to the 2010 election, he knew that Andrew Lansley had been working on the draft of the Health and Social Care Act for seven years which was the biggest top-down reform in NHS history and was enacted shortly after the Tories won which had the specific purpose of initiating the destruction and privatisation of the NHS.

Recently Cameron was caught affirming that Nigeria was extremely corrupt; typically, after being condemned by the Nigerian government, he afterwards praised Nigeria. However, the allegations of UK corruption on his watch include:

- Overseas bribery by UK companies.
- The laundering of corrupt assets through the City.
- The lax regulation and lack of transparency in British-controlled tax havens.
- Dropping significant proposals to put personal responsibility on bankers for money-laundering failings.

⁶⁹ Perhaps Jeremy Corbin and Tim Farron could be excused thus far.

- A series of petty political scandals regarding lobbying and party funding.
- Breaking the law on the central Tory Party office funding local election campaigns.
- No banker was jailed for the 2008 financial crisis, which brought the country to its knees, or for the corruption that was discovered afterwards.
- Failure to jail Sir Fred Goodwin (ex RBS boss), a culprit in the 2008 financial crisis.
- Allowing HBOS to get away with £50 billion losses.
- Allowing Bob Diamond to avoid jail after his role in fixing the LIBOR rates, which was one of the biggest scandals in UK corporate history causing huge and widespread damage.
- 71 Coalition MPs were found to gain from privatising the NHS (most of them Tories) because they had links to, or were board members of, private health care companies that gained NHS contracts. Under Cameron the selling off of parts of the NHS has taken off like a rocket.
- Cameron has significant links with Rupert Murdoch and ex-Murdoch employees that have been accused of corruption.

The corruption and favours regarding the funding of the Tory Party is immense.

- The Tory Party has very close links with the hedge fund industry. Half of the wealthiest fund managers in the UK have given money to the Tories. Of 59 top asset managers, including people in the 'Rich List', 27 had given a total of £19 million to the Tories before the 2010 election. After the 2010 election a further £10 million was donated. Accusations followed that Cameron built tax policy in the interests of the banking sector, which his government certainly did. In 2011 the Bureau of Investigative Journalism reported that the financial industry accounted for half of all the Tory's donations in 2010.⁷⁰ Osborne cancelled the contract of the tough-talking head of the financial watchdog, Martin Wheatley, who had angered the banking industry with a string of record fines. Osborne then enacted a series of budgets that helped the rich and made cuts to the poor.
- Cameron accepted a £50,000 donation from a senior banker accused of misconduct and being 'grossly incompetent' by the party's own chairman of the Parliamentary Commission on Banking Standards. Wilmot-Sitwell was co-head of UBS Investment Bank whose traders were deeply involved in LIBOR rate fixing which led to a £1.01 bn fine.
- Bankers were discovered to have miss-sold banking products, fixing key interest rates, fixing currency prices and even laundering money for drug barons who murdered thousands of people, such as in Mexico. Cameron did little since many were his friends.
- Cameron received donations from rich Russians. Foreign donations are banned under UK law but he accepted £1.2 million.
- Michael Ashcroft bankrolled the Tories into success. After 2010 Ashcroft was made a peer in the House of Lords. Ashcroft promised to resolve his tax status before becoming Lord Ashcroft, but he failed to do so and Cameron did nothing.
- Individuals and companies that donated to the Tory Party were awarded huge contracts, such as in the NHS. Some donators received contracts worth a thousand times the money that they donated. For example, Circle Health was given £1.36 billion in contracts after investors gave £1.5 million to the Tories. Care UK gave £21,000 to ⁷⁰ In contrast 75% of Labour's donations come from trade unions, which the Tories are trying to stop. After 2010 he proposed new laws to criminalise picketing, permit employers to hire private strike-breaking agencies and choke the flow of funds to the Labour Party – the biggest crackdown in the unions in 30 years.

Andrew Lansley and won £102.6 million in contracts; its chairman (John Nash) was made a lord in return for a donation of £247,250.

- Plans to stop re-hiring executives (e.g. NHS executives) that had already received huge payoffs only appeared after they had been re-hired. Some were re-hired in the months after the Queen's Speech included plans to stop this practice.
- In Transparency International's Global Corruption Barometer 2013, 90% of responders believed that the UK government is run by a few big entities acting in their own interest. They said, 'In some areas of UK society and institutions, corruption is a much greater problem than recognised and there is an inadequate response to its growing threat. Corruption is often met with complacency, and key institutions are refusing to confront the problem. Of particular concern are prisons, political parties and Parliament'.

Without a doubt Cameron is typical of modern political leaders. The chief qualification is to be able to keep a straight face and look smooth, speaking whatever people need to hear at the time. They need to be corrupt and willing to sell their soul to the elite command structure and they are usually greedy for money and power. This greed facilitates their choice as leader. Cameron has been ambitious to be Prime Minister since he was a teenager at Eton where he was called, 'Prime Minister'.

Money and power

The progress of history can be reduced to the grasp for money and power; historians understand this; however, behind that grasp is the work of the devil. Those world leaders that centre upon gaining more and more power and not just pleasing themselves but they are (knowingly or not) following the prior machinations of Satan. All the developments for money and power in this world are merely the cogs in the wheel of the devil's purposes.

You must understand this and not be misled. All the various plans of the elite, whether it is national politics, the control of the media or pushing unnecessary drugs, are merely parts of the plan Satan has for slowly gaining a world empire in his image. He wants to destroy the image of God in man and remake it into the image of himself, full of selfishness and iniquity.

Thus if you support one of these plans you will be tarred with siding with the enemy of God, and no Christian wants this, surely?

I will give you a simple example. It is now common to denigrate Tony Blair and most understand his slimy, self-centred willingness to follow the elite line. However, years ago that was not the case. When I warned believers about the dangers of this man and how he was using multiple lies to achieve wicked ends, let alone take us into an illegal war that had nothing to do with us, I was castigated, time and again.

I argued with so many very foolish 'Christians' who were simply attracted by his winsome smile and who trusted him with no merit. I even had 'Christians' tell me that Blair was a Christian (despite his lies, support of the pope, and submitting to pagan rites with his wife) and affirm that I was sinning by questioning his plans. Long-standing friends were so captivated by his spin that they became ardent supporters of the Iraq War, despite me giving them multiple facts demonstrating how wicked this war was. Even as hundreds of thousands of Iraqi civilians died by our guns they were still supporting Blair and the war. In one case I had to admonish a former colleague who wrote a book supporting the war that was filled with errors.

These folk have all been proved wrong but I have had no apologies. Indeed, I lost some friends along the way. Such 'Christians' supported a devilish policy that was centred in the human pawn Tony Blair, and damaged their faith by doing so. Indeed, I now believe that some of these supposed believers have, through this, proved that they were not believers at all, despite decades of affirming a faith.

This is an example of the danger of supporting a politician as a result of a failure to investigate the truth of a matter, or even the background of the politicians. Even voting for Blair, in my view, was a sin; thus I wrote a paper urging Christians not to vote for him.

Rich elite leaders, whether in politics, industry, banking, pharmaceuticals or whatever, are pawns of the devil, whether knowingly or not, and are advancing his strategies. Exposing the plans of the elite is part of a real spiritual warfare that is undertaken by people with their eyes open.

Wherever you see money and power you are likely to see people engaged, knowingly or ignorantly, in furthering the plans of the enemy. Money and power are at the root of the devil's methods to get men to serve him.

In the past it was common to find rich entrepreneurs committed to the cause of Christ and who gave huge sums of their fortune to missionary activities and charities. These people did not focus on their wealth but on Christ and gave much away. CT Studd gave all his fortune away before he became a missionary.

Sadly this is now rare. I see few or none rich people giving huge amounts of money to Christian causes. It is not impossible for a rich person to be a Christian, but it is rare and difficult.⁷¹ As the world has become more self-centred and hedonistic, most rich and powerful people serve the devil and not Christ.⁷²

The purpose of this paper

As you can see, each aspect of this paper so far, has been covered in more detail in previous papers; this is a mere summary, with some additional information. My purpose, however, here is to make the following points.

The centuries old plans of Satan

I showed you how the Bible explains the age-old war between Satan and God, which is being worked out upon the earth. Satan wants full control of the world and he can only do that by having a world empire led by men under his complete control. Time after time he tried to achieve this but was restricted by God. At the end, however, God loosens this restraint and Satan is allowed to bring about a global, totalitarian government which places him, de facto, in control. The world has become the fulness of sin and is then ready for harvesting into judgment.

Christians are often distracted, and thus ineffective

Many Christians who have written about spiritual warfare have completely missed the point and have led the Lord's people up a wrong alley, distracting them from focusing upon the real warfare.

⁷¹ Matt 19:23-24, "Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Assuredly, I say to you that it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God".

⁷² By 'rich' I do not mean affluent middle class people but the super-wealthy top 1% of society.

It is true that our warfare is not against flesh and blood, we do not fight with people, however, what passes for spiritual warfare today is a joke.

Believers, and especially Charismatics, are fooled into following the teaching of certain men about spiritual warfare, into imagining all sorts of occult nonsense about fighting demons, as if they knew what they were doing. We then have men committing massive evils, such as treating believers with violence and abuse to rid them of demons to solve their psychological problems. This is actually committing the sin of fighting flesh and blood and not demons.

Then we have all sorts of nonsense and idolatry of men and churches taking on supposed demonic control of areas, regions, towns and countries and wasting believer's time in all sorts of antics.⁷³ I won't waste time discussing these here as I have covered this several times before.

Throughout history the devil has frequently tempted zealous people to think that he is over there when in fact he is over here. Churches have constantly focused upon the wrong thing and wasted believers' time and energies. I believe that many of these spiritual warfare distractions are not just leaders with heretical beliefs but are strategies planned and supported by the elite to damage Christians.⁷⁴

What Christians should be doing in spiritual warfare

Primarily, believers should be wise and discerning about what is going on, understand the times, and then pray and intercede as God directs. The main activity in spiritual warfare is the exercise of faith applied in focused prayer.

A Biblical example

In the reign of Ahab the centre of opposition to the plans of the devil to destroy God's witness in Israel was focused in the person of Elijah. There were various elements in the devil's plan: oppressing the poor in the land, introducing idolatry and foreign gods, eradicating the priests of Yahweh, establishing an occult priesthood, removing the law of God from being at the centre of God's people, polluting the temple services, shutting the ears of the people to God's prophets, and so on. The spiritual plans of the enemy were based in actual practical events led by the king (the elite of the time).

The warfare was not some mysterious, superspiritual, mystical load of nonsense, but was centred in practical events that destroyed God's work in society and religion. Elijah did not establish local prayer groups to pray against evil spirits in Jerusalem or Jezreel,⁷⁵ the problem was with idolatry and corruption.

Elijah focused his intercession on the protection of God's people, many of whom had been killed; the destruction of evil forces in the monarchy, and the establishment of God's law. In these Old Covenant times this also included the uses of the military in overthrowing the corrupt government after the death of Ahab in battle, and physically attacking the priests of Baal on Mt Carmel. Such actions are not allowed to us today under the New Covenant.

⁷³ The false doctrines of 'Territorial Spirits', 'Strategic Level Spiritual warfare' leading to 'spiritual mapping' (of supposed local demons), leading to specialised church groups interceding in 'warfare', plus daft actions of occult nonsense (e.g. blowing a ram's horn trumpet to rid an area of demons or corporate shouting and corporate marching round the room).

⁷⁴ I show in 'Depths of Deception' that many people in the Dispensational and Charismatic movements have been sponsored by Zionist elite bankers.

⁷⁵ Jezreel: a town of Issachar, in the fertile valley of Jezreel, where the kings of Israel often resided (1 Kg 18:45, 21:1; 2 Kg 9:30). Elijah met Ahab here, and where Jehu executed the house of Ahab (2 Kg 9:14-37, 10:1-11). It was also the name of a town in Judah (Jos 15:56).

Elijah's intercession was powerful and included the bringing of a drought followed later by the bringing of rain. The power of spiritual warfare was centred in prayer to change local events. The overthrow of Satan's plans required prayer to change human activities and strategies. This is an example to us and one that the apostle James draws attention to (Jm 5:17-18).

A Biblical command

In 1 Timothy Paul is giving instructions to his disciple for the churches. He urges Timothy to, 'wage the good warfare' (1 Tim 1:18). In applying this he first warns about the dangers of blasphemy and then goes on to command prayer for the people in control of society:

Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence. 1 Tim 2:1-2

Note the 'therefore'; in waging the good warfare we first need to pray for the leadership of society; that is going to be where the satanic plans are going to exist.

Now the ideal that Paul seeks is a good king who is following God's order in protecting the people from bad men – punishing criminals and lauding the good. By establishing peace in society the Gospel is more able to travel freely via evangelists. The ideal is a peaceful society filled with godliness and reverence. In history some kings followed this, such as Alfred the Great (which is why he was 'great').

However, in a time of bad rulers we must pray against their evil machinations to harm the Gospel of God. We can pray for the conversion of individuals, but we must pray against bad works. Anything that works against peace or damages the proclamation of the Gospel in society must be prayed against.

I find it absolutely incredible that I have met Christians who used these verses to pray for the benefit of evil rulers that led Britain into an illegal war and overturning God's law. They thanked God for such evil men and castigated me for opposing them. This is how stupid and dull Christians have become.

The thanking of God for rulers is that 'we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence', not for doing the opposite. This is not an automatic support for the policies of those rulers. The Roman Empire of Paul's day had enormous faults and was guilty of great cruelty; indeed it became the main persecutor of Christians in history. However, Paul could thank God for the establishment of the Pax Romana, the provision of beneficial travel communications, security from external warfaring tribes, and the establishment of good order in society under laws. The Romans brought a far greater social stability than had been present under corrupt Jewish leaders around the time of Pompey. Praying for leaders is not endorsement of their policies; we never see Paul praying for an individual emperor's blessing.

So, waging spiritual warfare, in this instance, requires prayers and intercessions regarding national leadership, but done with wisdom and discernment.

What do we do now?

Sources

The matter of first practical importance for the believer in this warfare is getting true and accurate information. This needs effort because the spin in all the establishment news media is packed with lies and misdirection.

It is hard for some to accept how bad this is. For example, it is common for the mainstream news to say that country 'x' has bombed Aleppo (or some other place) when in fact it was county 'y'.⁷⁶ It will say that rogue Shiite nations are funding Syrian terrorists when it is our allies and us.⁷⁷ The scale of lying is unbelievable. Whole wars have been started as a result of a lie spoken by the US president and then widely reported in the mainstream media (e.g. the Gulf of Tonkin incident). In fact, almost all wars in the last century were based upon lies and false flags.

So, you need to dig around to get trustworthy information from people with no vested interest other than the truth. Only time can prove if sources are true or not and you must make your own decisions.⁷⁸

If Satan is furthering his plans through the elite and if he fully controls the mainstream media through the elite (which he does) then why submit to the devil's propaganda. Is this not sin?

One also ought to read books (if you have the time) on key issues or read the articles and blogs of trusted commentators in more detail. I have given sources for a number of vital books on matters concerning the elite and the devil's end-time plans in various papers. Reading a good book on a certain issue will often lead to other good source material in bibliographies and recommendations.

Discuss

It is so easy for an individual to go off on a tangent unless he has a high degree of personal discipline, trained by God. Thus it is safe for individuals to gather their information on a certain matter and then discuss it with trusted brethren to iron out any misleading facets or false information. Wisdom is gained from the discussion of several brethren.

Take any necessary action

Certain topics demand that you take action for your own benefit. For example, if you live in a fluoridated area then drink good bottled water or get a special filter. Once you've learned about GM foods you will want to avoid any like the plague. Once you've learned about the truth regarding the flu vaccine you will want to reject them. When you learn that your bank sponsors terrorists you will want to change your account. Once you understand about the coming global economic collapse you will want to buy some gold / silver as a precaution – you cannot lose anything while the prices are at record lows (though now increasing as the collapse nears). We could go on and on. All this is just a matter of responsibility.

Help the vulnerable

As the elite precipitate crisis after crisis that terribly affects the most vulnerable in society, you will want to help the poor as best as you can, which is a command from God anyway.

⁷⁶ Recently US A-10 Tankbuster aircraft bombed Aleppo and destroyed a hospital but US spokesmen stated that Russian aircraft had done this. Russia Today then broadcast a Russian general showing all the scientific data (radar, satellite images, air surveillance etc.) proving beyond doubt that it was US aircraft. The BBC and other western outlets never reported this but repeated the American lies.

⁷⁷ The US and the UK gave arms, money and equipment to IS for years. NATO allies were fully complicit in aiding IS while Turkey was in partnership with IS to sell stolen Syrian oil.

⁷⁸ However, as a start I will offer some sources that I use that I have proved to be true thus far. Secular sources include: We Are Change (Luke Rudkowski), The Corbett Report (James Corbett), USA Watchdog (Greg Hunter), Boiling Frogs Post (Sibel Edmonds), The Keiser Report (Max Keiser and Stacy Herbert). Religious sources are much more suspect and few are evangelical.

For example, it has recently been disclosed that, after years of the death rate falling, recently there has been a massive upsurge in unnecessary deaths. This can only be explained by the severe cuts and austerity measures that are actually killing people.

There is already good data, from academic sources, explaining that the rise in suicides is directly attributable to austerity measures, sanctions and work capability assessments. When 94-years old sick people are suddenly refused their home care, meals on wheels and support systems due to council cuts, is it any wonder that they die?

It is the weak, sick, poor and vulnerable that are being killed by government policies. Shame on them. They will answer to God. As for you – do good to all.

Pray

This is the most important thing to come out of all this. You are called to pray with wisdom, understanding the times. In general the church has completely failed in its mission to be a witness to the truth and stand as a beacon for God in society. You cannot trust the modern church to do right in this. You must stand as a watchman on the wall and pray.

You may not turn the tide, since God has allotted the devil a time for his plans to succeed, but you can affect your area and your neighbours. You can turn evil into good. You can talk to people and explain what is going and then pray for the opportunity to witness to them with power. You can manifest the peace of God in the face of awful circumstances. But first you must pray.

You need to pray for understanding what to do in your own circumstances. You need to pray for wisdom to assess the truth about what is going on. When you have done this you need to pray as God directs to confront the enemy and seek a spiritual testimony to God in the face of wickedness.

Jesus expects us to shine like stars in this world (Eph 5:8; Phil 2:15) and to be beacons of light on the earth (Matt 5:14-16). Jesus expects us to be the salt of the earth (Matt 5:13); the whole world may be full of corruption but we must stand out from the crowd being full of life.

The sons of God must not be captured like the people in the world and simply fall in line with the demands of the elite, which are the demands of the devil. Christians must be different and stand upon truth. The world may be full of corruption but we must be salt and light.

Conclusion

The world lies in the hands of the evil one⁷⁹ and the means he uses to goad people into following his wicked plans are often based upon money, greed and power. Thus money, greed and a seeking of power has been at the heart of world developments throughout history. Every rampaging empire that burst upon the scene was based upon the desire for the expansion of power and gaining wealth. Every rebellion against a totalitarian regime also degenerated into a new regime that was based upon individuals gaining wealth and the dereliction of authority.⁸⁰

⁷⁹ 1 Jn 5:19 'The whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one'.

⁸⁰ With the exception of the American Colonies revolt, at least at the time, (which was based upon sovereign rights and taxation) and the English Civil War (which was based on religious principles and freedom from

The world around you is full of lies. Everybody is lying to you. Products that are labelled healthy are actually bad for you;⁸¹ drinking water is fluoridated in some areas and just contaminated in others; drugs are prescribed that actually do far more harm than doing nothing;⁸² the media is filled with lies and misrepresentation; education systems are brainwashing children towards evil;⁸³ we could go on and on. Worst of all, your politicians are lying to you over and over again, in general and in detail; honest politicians are few and far between. A Tory MP even admitted, 'we are all totally corrupt'.⁸⁴ Of the current parliamentary bunch I would only slightly trust Jacob Rees-Mogg on the Right and Dennis Skinner on the Left. Sadly even 'Christian' politicians that I used to respect have proved themselves to be untrustworthy or hopelessly brainwashed.⁸⁵

Educate yourself to what is really going on. Don't trust mainstream media but investigate issues. Find alternative spokesmen that you can trust better. Having done all that, pray how you should respond and act. Finally, centre on doing as much good as you can do to local people to glorify Christ.

Do not be the devil's pawn through ignorance.

oppression). However, it can be argued that, in time, both these examples also degenerated into the abuse of power.

⁸¹ For example the products that claim to be fat free and thus healthy are much more dangerous because they are filled with sugar and high fructose corn syrup instead, plus lots of salt.

⁸² Statins are the great example here. They do no good at all to 99.9% of people but do immense damage to multiple body systems and even contribute to heart disease while claiming to combat it.

⁸³ Such as by sex education from the age of four, where pornography, masturbation, homosexuality etc are promoted as normal behaviour from a young age.

⁸⁵ How certain supposedly evangelical MPs can remain in the Lib Dem Party amazes me when it stands for Gay marriage, penalties for people opposed to Gay laws, support for draconian Tory policies while in the Coalition, and increasing involvement in the EU (including the Euro).
