

My position on Jews

Introduction

I have written many papers on Judaism, Israel, Pharisees, the Talmud, and Jewish history. I have also explained that I am not racist by any measure. Nevertheless, anyone dissenting from the establishment narrative regarding Israel is targeted for claims of anti-Semitism (a ridiculous charge if you understand Jewish history). In this paper I expand on what I think about Jews.

I do not want to be academic in this paper and have fully analysed all the points here in other papers. I want to lay out my general position in simple terms. However, I will give Jewish sources where necessary.

Love for Jews as for any other people

I love and respect all people; I am not opposed to any type of people just because they are that people-type. Thus I love and respect people who identify as Jews.

I currently have Jewish friends and have always had Jewish friends. These Jews have tended to be either Christian Jews or secular, liberal Jews. I have also had friends / acquaintances that were Buddhists, Zen Buddhists, Hindus, Muslims, Sikhs, Roman Catholics, and even occultists. I currently have friends from The Philippines, Poland, Romania, India, Mauritius, South Africa, Ireland, Czech Republic, Hungary, Malta, Lithuania, Nepal, Canada, America, Australia and Thailand. I have friends that are White, Black, Brown, and Olive.

I respect all people because they were originally made in the image of God (Jm 3:9) and I am commanded by God to love everybody (Matt 5:44).

Respect for Jews

I greatly respect very many Jews in many fields of endeavour. Here are just a few.

This list could be greatly extended; so much have Jews contributed to culture.

Some Jews have enriched civilisation

Jews have often been at the forefront of advances in culture in various fields of endeavour. They tend to be intelligent and focused people. Jews that have contributed important matters to society include:

- Albert Einstein: mathematics and physics.
- Charles Frank: scientific instruments.
- Camille Pissarro: painter.
- Marcel Proust: writer.
- James Franck: quantum physics.
- Fritz Lipman: biochemist.
- Isaac Asimov: writer.
- Sergei Eisenstein: film director.
- Mark Rothko: painter.

These all contributed to the foundations of important developments in human advances. For instance, Pissarro was a key pioneer of Impressionism, Eisenstein of movies, Asimov of science fiction, Rothko of late modern art.

Jewishness today is not a race or an ethnic division

Jews come from many nationalities. They may identify as Jews but their passport will say British or some other nationality. Jewishness is a religious marker, just as a British Sikh will identify as a Sikh but is officially English.

Even in Israel there is no consistent ethnic or religious unity. As well as Israeli Jews (Sabras) – which includes multiple factions (Orthodox, Secular, Liberal, Karaite, Talmudic, and atheist), Israel also contains, Druze, Christians, Arab Muslims (of various types) and other factions.

This makes Jewishness complicated. Proselytes from many nations identify as Jewish but are ethnically whatever they were born as. Jews that claim to be descended from a long line of Jews have also been proved to be of very mixed ethnic status. Many Jews assimilated into various nations, adopted their customs to prosper and even changed their names to fit in. This is especially true in America. Despite their religion demanding purity, many Jews intermarried to gain money, power or influence. In Edwardian times, many Jewesses married into the British aristocracy.

Sometimes names were shortened, such as Katzenberg being changed to Katz. Sometimes completely new names were chosen, such as Shelley Winters (formerly Shirley Schrift). When there was animosity towards Jewish immigrants it made sense to adopt a new persona.

It is thus difficult to claim racism against Jews. There may be discrimination or hatred, but not really racism. If you hate Buddhists you are not racist, rather discriminatory or chauvinist.

Biblical Jews

It is important to understand that there is a dichotomy between the Jews identified in the Old Testament, and subsequently their descendants in the New Testament, and modern Jews today.

The origin of the Jews

The Jews began from the loins of Abraham who was called by God out of Ur of the Chaldees. He was a Mesopotamian by culture (Acts 7:2) but a Hebrew and a Semite by descent. The outward line of promise based on God's covenant with Abraham was through Isaac and then Jacob. The line through Ishmael produced the Arabs.

So the simplified Biblical line is Adam – Seth – Noah - Shem – Eber – Abraham – Isaac – Jacob. The beginning of the development of a nation was the 12 children of Jacob, which became the 12 tribes. The nation delivered from Egypt was called Israel at that time, taking the second (resurrection) name of Jacob meaning 'God prevails', or 'let God rule'.

'Jew', specifically, is applied to the people of Judah (2 Kg 16:6 25:25; Jer 32:12, 38:19, 40:11, 41:3). During the exile, and after the restoration, the name was extended to all the Hebrew nation without distinction (Est 3:6,10; Dan 3:8, 12; Ezra 4:12, 5:1,5). Originally this people were called 'Hebrews' (Gen 39:14, 40:15; Exod 2:7, 3:18, 5:3; 1 Sam 4:6,9) but after the Exile this name fell into disuse.

The word 'Hebrew' derives from 'Eber' (meaning 'beyond') who was the third post-duluvian patriarch after Shem (Gen 10:24, 11:14). He is regarded as the founder of the Hebrew race (Gen 10:21; Num 24:24). In Lk 3:35 he is called 'Heber' in the KJV. Abraham was descended from Eber (Lk 3:34-35).

In the NT the word 'Jews' is used regarding nationality; to distinguish them from Gentiles. 'Hebrews' is used to identify their language and culture to distinguish them from Hellenists, i.e., Jews who spoke the Greek language and adopted Greek culture. 'Israelites' is used for their sacred privileges as the chosen people of God.

The word 'Jew' does not appear in all the OT until the book of Esther, a book that does not mention God at all and which is set in the exile away from Israel. The word does not appear in the synoptic Gospels either. There are two mentions in John's Gospel, both by Gentiles.

The word 'Jews' first appears in 2 Kg 25:25 after the Babylonian exile when Gedaliah was governor. This appears in all the Gospels but in John is usually used to describe the opposition to Jesus (Jn 1:19, 2:18, 5:10, 16, 18 etc.).

The term 'Jews' or 'Judeans' needs to be used to describe the OT people of God after the division of the kingdom. Before that 'Israelites' was mostly used but after the division this designation referred to Samaria, the Northern Kingdom that was always in rebellion to God and was finally dispersed amongst the nations after the Assyrian conquest in 721 BC. These ten tribes were effectively lost as a corporate unit to history, though traces of them remained in Judah (e.g. Lk 2:36).

Judah continued until 586 BC when it was conquered by the Babylonians. Although it had the occasional good king, God stated that its idolatry and rebellion surpassed that of the Northern Kingdom (Jer 3:11, 5:28; Ezek 5:6-7, 16:51).

The Jewish tendency to rebel against God

The tendency of Hebrews to rebel against God and commit idolatry was evidenced from the very beginning of the nation with the Golden Calf incident (Exod 32:8). God called the Hebrews: a 'stiff-necked people' (Deut 9:6, 31:27); a 'perverse generation' (Deut 32:20); 'A stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that did not set its heart aright, and whose spirit was not faithful to God' (Ps 78:8); 'obstinate' (Isa 48:4); 'stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit' (Acts 7:51).

From the beginning Moses had warned the people that came out of Egypt that if they obeyed God they would be blessed, but if they disobeyed God they would be cursed fearfully. Thus the Mosaic Covenant was conditional on obedience.

Of Israel's kings only David was a man after God's heart; but even he made some terrible mistakes. All the other kings fell far short, sometimes after making a good start (like Solomon). All Samaria's kings were evil and most of Judah's were too. The great sin was idolatry – worshipping other gods, which was spiritual adultery; but there were many other sins such as oppressing the people, forsaking the offerings, neglecting the temple, making foreign alliances and so on.

The Jews' last chance was after the return from Babylon during the second temple period (which was consecrated in 516 BC). After the establishment of the people and the temple there is silence about the Jews for 400 years in the Bible.

When the Gospel begins we see that the Jews are already set against God. The people (and even some Romans) sought to get right with God and flocked to the ministry of John the Baptist but the religious leaders of the people were still stiff-necked and disobedient. This is chiefly focused in the Pharisees (a legalistic sect within Judaism that had grown up after the return, heavily influenced by Babylonian occultism) and the Sadducees, whose origin is unknown but who also arose in the same period and were affected by Hellenistic influences during the Greek domination.

These leaders immediately set themselves against Jesus who threatened their religious control. Despite the early popularity of Jesus with the people of the land, the religious leaders gathered opposition to their own Messiah and led to the rejection of God's Son, putting him to death. The Romans did not kill Jesus, it was Jews that murdered him (Acts 2:23, 3:15, 4:10, 7:52) and his blood was on their hands (Matt 27:25).

After a long history of rebelling against God, this was the act of the greatest treachery and consequence. The depth of this sin is unimaginable. It explains the awful judgment of God against this people, which was foretold by Jesus. The nation was not only judged temporarily, with perhaps the worst siege in history whereby mothers ate their own children, but the nation was destroyed. The house of Judah was left desolate as Jesus predicted.

Now there were many Jews in the Diaspora around the Mediterranean; Paul is a good example who came from Tarsus in Cilicia. However, many foreign Jews were on pilgrimage and caught up in the Roman War and also died in 70 AD but there were still many Jews in foreign lands. However, most of these were not of the stature of Paul, trained by Gamaliel but became immersed amongst the Gentiles in order to prosper; many intermarried. It is difficult to analyse how pure the Biblical strain of Jews in the Mediterranean was but modern studies and genetic analysis shows that Jews who thought they were pure have blood heavily mixed with European strains.

The prophecy of Jesus must be our main focus here. The Biblical nation of Judah was ground to powder and the house left desolate. [See Appendix One for a summary of this matter.]

The Hebrew nation did not continue in the way that it had been constituted at the time of Moses. Indeed, Judaism was judged and terminated by the destruction of the temple and the death of the priesthood. Pharisees sought to reform a new Judaism based upon their false oral traditions (which Jesus condemned) and started rabbinic Judaism based upon the Babylonian Talmud (which reversed the Torah; see later).

So, the people that identify as Jews today are not the same people that we see in the OT.

God's reason for calling Israel

Israel was called out as a nation by God to be a type (figure) of the Gospel.

Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted. 1 Cor 10:6

Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come. 1 Cor 10:11

Israel had no qualities in herself for being chosen by God and was the least of all peoples when called (Deut 7:7). She symbolised total depravity and total inability. Even the children of Jacob had demonstrated rebellion against God before the tribes existed by attacking God's chosen (Joseph) and plotting to enslave him.

Abraham: calling and faith

Abraham symbolised the calling of the elect from eternity for no reason of their own; unconditional election. Abram was in the world, in the centre of occult idolatry, when he was called out by God sovereignly.

Abraham thus became the great symbol of faith in God,
Faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness. Rm 4:9

Faith which our father Abraham had while still uncircumcised. Rm 4:12

Therefore it is of faith that it might be according to grace, so that the promise might be sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. Rm 4:16

And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, 'In you all the nations shall be blessed.' So then those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham. Gal 3:8-9

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. Heb 11:8

Now faith is the gift of God;

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, Eph 2:8

So Abraham represents the sovereign calling of the elect and also the recipients of faith to believe the Gospel: 'God ... preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand' (Gal 3:8). Abraham's faith was so great that he saw the day of Jesus to come, 'Abraham rejoiced to see My day, and he saw it and was glad', (Jn 8:56).

Abraham also illustrates several other concepts in the Gospel (God's covenant, blessing, fruitfulness, the importance of the altar etc.) but calling and faith are the key issues.

Look to Abraham your father ... For I called him alone, and blessed him and increased him. Isa 51:2

As an aside we can also affirm that Abraham as the father or root is not primarily the father of fleshly Israel (which God destroyed) but the father of the faithful from many nations. He is the root of the faithful.

Therefore it is of faith that it might be according to grace, so that the promise might be sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all (as it is written, 'I have made you a father of many nations') in the presence of Him whom he believed -- God, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did. Rm 4:16-17 [Written to Gentiles.]

That is, those who are the children of the flesh [fleshly Israel], these are not the children of God; but the children of the promise [all believers] are counted as the seed. Rm 9:8

My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. Gen 17:4

Moses: the giving of the law

After the creation of the state of Israel at the Exodus under Moses, there is immediately the giving of the law. Moses represents the Law of God: 'For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ' (Jn 1:17); 'Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law' (Heb 9:19).

The law is the revelation of the will of God for human behaviour. It is what should form the foundation for the kingdom of God, which Israel typified in the OT.

The lesson of the law in action in the OT is that no man can fully obey it; no one can be perfect and no man can save himself. It points to the need for a deliverer, a Saviour, to transform those seeking God.

What purpose then does the law serve? It was added because of transgressions, till the Seed [Christ] should come to whom the promise was made; and it was appointed through angels by the hand of a mediator. Gal 3:19

Therefore the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. Gal 3:24

OT Israelites who were saved were not saved by obedience to the law but by faith in the coming deliverer / prophet. They tried to obey the law but were aware of their shortcomings, which they atoned for by the offering of a bloody sacrifice; as demanded by the law. The offering does not save but rather the faith in God's provision of a future sacrifice, represented by the offering, saves.

Israel: total depravity

Now Israel is usually depicted as the bride of God, the son of God, the people of God, the vine of God etc. These things are all true. Israel was blessed beyond all people. Israel even experienced many miracles of God which inspired awe in the Canaanite nations and yet which Israel spurned.

At every step of Israel's history she rebelled against God and adopted idolatry or sought to follow heathen nations. The list of failings would be very long but it included at the beginning: the immediate idolatry of the Golden Calf (copying heathens) after the Exodus. The constant murmuring and complaining during the wilderness wanderings, wanting the fish, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic of Egypt (Num 11:5). The castigation of Moses despite his representing God. Presenting false fire, and so on. One must ask, 'how can the people that saw the parting of the Red Sea and the destruction of the Egyptian army immediately go back to paganism and sin'?

Israel is a picture of those who did not see the spiritual truth of God's calling of Abraham, God's provision of the law and God's blessing but rather became proud in the flesh. Instead of being humbled by God's provisions, they became proud that they were a special people above all others. To them, being chosen by God raised them above every other nation. This hubris is today clearly manifest in the Pharisaic teachings of the Talmud.

Despite the miraculous entry into the Promised Land under Joshua (a type of Christ), the people immediately degenerated into heathenish idolatry and disobedience. God's judgment of being ruled over by the very pagans they sought to copy shocked them for a while and various judges led them to overcome these intruders. Every time Israel fell back into idolatry.

Then, despite the corrective ministry of the prophet Samuel, Israel demanded a king, again to be like heathen nations. First there was Saul who was a type of the old nature. Then followed David, a man after God's heart. [Note again God's order of the rejection of the first and acceptance of the second; cf. Jacob and Esau.] Despite a good start, Solomon was corrupted by heathen wives and concubines and fell into idolatry. After him the nation split into two. Every northern king was an idolater; most southern kings were. In the end Judah was worse than Samaria and was judged by God and sent into exile. In this period the Jews repeatedly killed and imprisoned their own prophets in great rebellion against God.

After the return there was initial joy but soon complacency set in and the reconstruction, especially of the temple, was halted. Two prophets were necessary to get the people working again followed by another who warned of the curse (Mal 4:6) – recalling the warning of Moses in Deuteronomy to obey the law.

In the period of Biblical silence Israel did not obey the law.

Two religious, fleshly sects arose, each with their own false philosophies. The Pharisees thought that they were above all people being the chosen from the loins of Abraham. They were deeply influenced by their stay in Babylon where many Jews remained after the exile. It became a centre for Pharisaic teaching. Babylonian occultic hubris became the centre of the Talmud (see later).

The other, the Sadducees, were influenced by Greek cultural heathenism which then developed into the Hellenistic influence that was prevalent in Israel during the Roman occupation. Houses took on Grecian styles, as did clothes, and all aspects of culture. The posh Jews were Hellenistic. The Sadducees even denied the resurrection, preferring Grecian rational concepts.

There were other minor sects, such as the Essenes who were more mystical and elitist, but the Pharisees and the Sadducees were the most important and both represented departing from the law and failing to understand the spiritual truths that Israel was supposed to focus on.

Eventually this hubris and disobedience led to the murder of the Messiah by the very people that should have welcomed him. In this action Israel fulfilled its purpose of representing total depravity. Despite every possible blessing given by God, including great miracles and powerful prophets, Israel's disobedience grew and grew until they killed the Son of God. The chief sins of total depravity were clear in Israel: pride, hubris, rebellion, idolatry and essentially following Satan.

Thus Israel/Judah in general represented total depravity: unrepented sin, spiritual inability, lack of faith, pride, deception and following Satan.

Summary of why Israel typified total depravity

- Israel/Judah continually rebelled against God.
- Israel/Judah continually chose idolatry.
- Israel/Judah added to the law (oral traditions of men).
- Israel/Judah disobeyed the law.
- Israel/Judah was full of pride.
- Israel/Judah killed the prophets.
- Israel/Judah murdered the Messiah.
- Israel/Judah followed the deceptions of Satan.

The remnant

God's elective purposes were always centred in the remnant of faith within Israel in every age, such as the 7,000 (plus Elijah) that had not bowed the knee to Baal. This was the spiritual Israel, the real children of promise, those with faith looking forward to the coming deliverer and prophet.

These represent the elect. They stood apart from the general disobedient nation that acted superficially, trusting in the flesh. The real children of God were the remnant.

Summary

In terms of the typology of Israel to point to the Gospel we have:

- The calling of God in elect Abraham. Points to unconditional election.
- The giving of faith resulting in a covenant of grace with God. Points to the gift of faith to the elect.
- The fruitfulness and blessing of God's covenant people, e.g. in Abraham. Points to the blessedness of the faithful elect
- The giving of the law. Points to the law of Christ, which fulfilled the Moral Law and internalised it. Grace always incorporates law as a consequence – obedience to God's commandments by a faithful people.
- The inability to obey the law. Points to total depravity.
- The manifestation of total depravity in Israel – inability to obey God. Points to human moral inability even if surrounded by God's testimony.

- Judgment from God for disobedience. Points to final judgment.
- The blessing of grace given to the remnant (elect) of faith. Points to God's grace and blessing being only given to the elect, not to religious people en masse.

Modern Jews

If the Biblical Jews were destroyed by God, where did modern Jews come from?

The Khazarian line

Though this is disputed by some Jews (especially those controlling Wikipedia), the matter is really settled now, even by Jewish historians such as Shlomo Sands and by DNA testing by Jews like Eran Elhaik.

Ashkenazi Jews form the majority group within modern Judaism. These people did not originate in Middle Eastern clans but from the Khazarian Empire in the region of Ukraine and southern Russia. This was a Turkic-Mongol people that established a commercial empire (khanate) in the late 6th century. I have explained many times that this kingdom converted en masse to Judaism around the 9th century. When it was overrun by the Kievan Rus these proselytes migrated into Eastern Europe and then throughout all Europe, especially Germany. This was the origin of the Ashkenazi ('Russian Jews').

The majority of the Israeli population is Ashkenazi Jews who persecute Sephardic Jews and other minorities. Netanyahu is a Polish/Lithuanian Ashkenazi Jew. They are not even Semites.

The Sephardim line

The largest minority Jewish group is the Sephardim ('Spanish Jews').

These are claimed to be originally Middle Eastern in origin where the majority migrated to Spain over time. However, even Jewish encyclopaedias explain that the root of these people is the incursion of Idumeans into Judea after the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in 70 AD. The Idumeans had previously converted to Judaism and took the opportunity to settle into the vacated land of Judea¹ (the Romans either killed or enslaved the vast majority of Judeans in fulfilment of Jesus' prophecy).²

So the people that we would call Israelites, who stemmed from the Conquest of Canaan by Joshua, had been eradicated. Jesus warned that their line would become desolate and that the nation would be crushed to powder. The original Hebrews had been destroyed by God according to the curse of Deuteronomy and the word of Jesus. Their continual sins and rebellions had culminated in murdering their own divinely sent Messiah.

So the Jews in the post Roman-Jewish War left in Judea were Idumeans, not Hebrews. We should note that Idumeans (Edomites) are under the curse of God.³

'Edom', (1971), Vol 6, p378. The Jewish Encyclopaedia, 'They [Edomites] were then incorporated with the Jewish nation', (1904) Vol 5, p41. The New Standard Jewish Encyclopaedia, 'From then on they [Edomites] constituted a part of the Jewish people, Herod being one of their descendants', (1977), p589. Flavius Josephus, The Antiquities of the Jews, 'They [Edomites] were hereafter no other than Jews', Book XIII, chapter IX, verse 1, p279.

² See appendix.

³ Isa 34:4, 'For My sword shall be bathed in heaven; Indeed it shall come down on Edom, And on the people of My curse, for judgment'.

Because Jewishness is not racial but religious, the Idumeans are fully accepted as Jewish and those that settled later in Spain are called the Sephardim.

Miscellaneous Jewish lines

There are many other sub-sets of Jews in various minority groupings. These would include: the Karaites (Torah Jews), the Mizrahi (Eastern/Oriental Jews), Eritrean Jews, Yemeni Jews, Ethiopian Jews, many other nationalities and individual proselyte Jews in multiple nations. Very many modern Jews are irreligious being liberal or secular Jews. Many of these sub-groups either rejected the Talmud or never grew up with it and so they are persecuted by Talmudic Jews.

At the time of the destruction of Judean Jews by the Romans, there were many Jews in various Mediterranean nations. Some were Middle Eastern Jews dispersed abroad but most were proselytes. Very many of these intermarried to survive and the purity of the Jews was effectively lost. Genetic studies have demonstrated that most Jewish blood is mixed.

When God cursed the original Judean Jews for killing their own Messiah, he ensured that there would be no major settling of Hebrews in Palestine to reconstitute a Jewish nation. There was no incentive for prosperous Jews in Mediterranean countries to go to Judea and live in poverty where Jerusalem had been utterly destroyed. Jews of various types that settled in Palestine after 70 AD were later destroyed by military action under the Roman Emperor Hadrian.

So Jews of many types continued in Europe for centuries. In much later periods (after the late 19th century) Zionists encouraged Jews to buy land in Palestine to start a Jewish community and Jews maintained a small proportion of the population where many behaved like wicked landlords oppressing Arab workers.

Jews that focus on the Torah

Minorities

There are Jewish minorities that do not accept the Talmud as sacred scriptures. Some of these never knew about the Talmud, such as Eritrean or Ethiopian Jews. Others reject the Talmud, rabbinic writings and Zionism, such as the Karaites. These deserve respect because they revere a portion of God's word (the OT; especially the Torah) and can be conceived as people seeking the Messiah.

The Karaites

Karaites only recognise the authority of the Tanakh (Old Testament).⁴ The law for mankind is written in the Torah (five books of Moses) and oral traditions carry no weight at all. There are about 30,000 worldwide.

Torah Jews

In the West there are a group of Orthodox Jews calling themselves 'Torah Jews'. These do not reject the Talmud but follow the Halakha (summary of Jewish religious law) and the Talmud; however, they fully oppose Zionism and the creation of the State of Israel. In fact there are many Jewish organisations that fight for justice for the Palestinian people, whom they see as victims of a rogue, illegal state.

⁴ The Hebrew Bible comprising of the Torah, the Nevi'im (prophets) and the Ketuvim (writings)

Torah Jews believe that the Jews were dispersed in the Diaspora by the decree of God. Only by a new decree from God, coinciding with the appearance of the messiah, can that dispersion be lifted. Zionism and the State of Israel are thus illegal.

So Torah Orthodox Jews focus on the Torah yet also accept rabbinic teachings but are chiefly centred on opposing Israel.

Conclusion

The only Jews that really focus solely upon the Torah as their spiritual authority are Karaites and those Jews from nations that never grew up with the Talmud.

Implications of this for Palestine

Modern Zionists claim that Palestine belongs to them by historical right. This is a lie.

The Ashkenazi have no claim to Palestine whatsoever, being from southern Russia. The Idumeans have some claim perhaps but they chose en masse to migrate to Spain and originally came from Edom. They stem from Esau and are not people of the promise. So not much historical claim and no religious claim (not stemming from Jacob).

The original Hebrews (Israelites) did not even have a strong claim on the land other than God's conditional covenant (which they broke). They held the land for several centuries and the United Monarchy (under David and Solomon) held the land for less. Other nations held the land for much longer: Canaanites for over a millennium, several empires for a few centuries and Muslim tribes for over 1400 years.

The Palestinian Arabs have held the land for over a millennium and these comprise of Muslims and Christians (35%). Clearly no modern Jew has a better legal claim to Palestine than the Palestinians.

Zionism

Zionism is a political movement, not a religious one (though it co-opts religious themes when it wants to).

Zionism is to be completely condemned as a cynical, brutal, criminal, satanic enterprise that for generations has been intent on stealing the whole land of Palestine and getting rid of the Arabs by any means possible. Zionist documents have openly stated this for decades and the modern Israeli leadership is daily confirming this. The purpose of Zionism was always genocide and ethnic cleansing.

Many Jews condemn Zionism openly. There are religious groups, such as Torah Jews, who utterly condemn Zionism and the State of Israel as cursed and ungodly. Secular, liberal Jews condemn the treatment of the Palestinians and have no political ties to Zionist policies. There are several Jewish organisations devoted to the human rights of Palestinians.

The main support for Zionism is in the West and particularly America, where deluded Christian Zionists support the Israeli murder of Palestinian Christians. Zionists seized control over Western politics long ago, such as the US Neocons that initiated illegal wars, e.g. against Iraq, or revolutions, such as in Syria. US congressmen are obliged to sign an oath supporting Israel but not America. Israel continues as a result of US aid packages of billions every year.

Condemning Zionism is not opposing Jews but opposing a criminal, racist cartel. One can loathe Zionism but support individual Jews.

The State of Israel

The culmination of Zionist hopes was the inauguration of the State of Israel in 1948, chiefly by British and American support. Britain had no legal right to support an Israeli state in Palestine, as affirmed in the Balfour Declaration (1917); neither did the UN have any right to steal part of the Palestinian land and give it to a people with no right to it.

No one but Palestinians had rights over Palestine and no one else could give the land away. European Jews had no claim to Palestine whatsoever. The actions of Britain, America and the UN in settling Zionists into Palestine was completely illegal.

The usual claim is that the horrors of the Holocaust was reason enough to give European Jews someone else's land. Whatever the truth or lies about the Holocaust, the Jewish one was small compared to others (Russians, Germans). But even if 50 million Jews died in WWII that is still no reason to kill Palestinians, destroy their villages and steal their farms – which is what Israel immediately did. (In fact they had been killing Palestinians and even Western politicians during the British mandate.)

Consequently, Israel is an illegal nation.

But its actions since 1948 have confirmed it as an incredibly brutal, genocidal nation. I have explained this in my paper, History of Palestine. Palestinian children are killed for throwing stones or being too near a fence. Farmers and teenagers have both arms broken. Men and women are shot in the genitals. Arabs are taken prisoner and have their organs stolen (this is currently happening on a large scale). Pregnant women have had their foetus ripped out. Very young children are frequently shot without any remorse.

Gaza has been under an embargo in an open air prison for 17 years; food, water, energy and medical supplies are restricted and sometimes stopped. After a supposed Hamas terrorist attack (often a false flag) the response is air strikes and bombing runs destroying residential tower blocks, hospitals, schools and whole areas.

Entire villages have been massacred, all men, women and children, and the land stolen. For example, the Irgun and The Stern Gang attacked and massacred over 250 men, women and children in the village of Deir Yassin on 9 April 1948. This attack was led by Menachem Begin, who, as President later, openly declared this a necessary victory.

Since 1948 Israel has illegally stolen Palestinian homes, farms, villages and whole tracts of land and then occupied them as Israeli territory. Only the West Bank and the Gaza Strip remain under Palestinian authority – but both of these are now being destroyed ready for the complete annexation of all Palestine by Israel; the original Zionist goal.

Modern Israel is not the fulfilment of OT prophecy

It must be affirmed that the State of Israel is not the fulfilment of Old Covenant promises to Hebrews. These original Hebrews in Judea were wiped out in God's judgment and the New Covenant affirms the fulfilment of OT promises in Christ, not in a human people. The destruction of the temple in 70 AD is proof that Old Covenant Judaism is finished. Pharisaic Jews in Babylon sought to revive Judaism with rabbinic Judaism based on the Talmud in opposition to the Law of Moses and the words of Christ. The oral traditions of the Pharisees (cursed additions to the law) are identified as the enemy of God by Jesus.

The Seed (singular) of Abraham is Christ (Gal 3:16), not modern Jews (where the majority have no connection to Abraham by race at all). Christians, being in Christ, are also the seed of Abraham (Gal 3:29). Thus the children of God now are not modern Jews but Christians (1 Pt 2:9).

All the descriptions of OT Israel as God's covenant people are now applied to the church. The church in Christ is the fulfilment of all God's promises to Abraham. For example:

- The calling of God: 2 Tim 1:9.
- The temple of God: 1 Cor 3:17.
- The people of God: Titus 2:14; 1 Pt 2:9-10.
- The children of God: Phil 2:15.
- Accepted by God: Eph 1:6.
- The light of God: Eph 5:8.
- The kingdom of God: Col 1:13.
- A chosen generation: 1 Pt 2:9.
- A holy nation: 1 Pt 2:9.
- God's special people: 1 Pt 2:9.
- God's vine: Jn 15:5.
- God's sheep: Heb 13:20; 1 Pt 2:25.

It is impossible to deny this.

Salvation comes to individual Jews through the Gospel in the same way as everyone else. Thus the church comprises Jews and Gentiles (1 Cor 12:13; Gal 3:28). There is no blessing of God on the flesh; race means nothing. The only blessing is in Christ. Jews that seek salvation must look to Christ, not the Law of Moses (Jn 1:17) or the Talmud.

Anti-Semitism

Anti-Semitism is used as a trick from Zionists to shut down and condemn all dissent from the prevailing Zionist view. This is openly admitted by Jews.

The majority of Jews are not Semites at all but stem from the Khazars. In the Israel v Palestine issue the Israeli leadership, and majority of the population, are Khazarians and therefore not Semites – but the Palestinians are Semites descended from Ishmael.

Sephardim are Semitic but not of the promised line. They stem from Esau not Jacob and are under God's curse.

It is logically wrong to prevent criticism of a group of people by using such a trope. Criticism of everybody should be allowed if we believe in free speech. In the case of a rogue nation like Israel it is even more important to condemn illegal and wicked actions without being threatened with anti-Semitism, which can result in jail in some countries.

Talmudism

The Pharisees

The Pharisees were the enemies of Jesus. That alone tells us that they had no spirituality, no faith and no understanding of the law because they did not believe in the Torah, ‘If you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me’ (Jn 5:46). But it is worse than that.

Having arisen under the influence of Babylonian occultism and idolatry, the Pharisees were steeped in heathen ideas and occultism. Many Pharisees lived and stayed in Babylonia, and after the Roman war it became a key centre for Judaic academics. The main rabbinic centre was in Babylon, such as at Nehardea, Pumpeditha and Sura under the Parthians and Persians. This is why the most authoritative Talmud is the Babylonian Talmud (there is also a lesser Jerusalem / Palestinian Talmud). The Talmud exalts Babylon as ‘the centre of religion and learning’ (Kethuboth 11, 1a). In fact it states that Babylon is superior to the land of Israel.

But even in the time of Jesus’ ministry the Pharisees demonstrated that they were indeed satanic. Far from really teaching the law of Moses, they focused on their oral traditions which were based on hubris and satanic principles.

Fundamental to the Pharisees was that the Mosaic Laws (Pentateuch) were considered as a summary of Jewish principles and general laws but the oral traditions were what Moses transmitted by word of mouth to select people that fully explained the written law.⁵ This oral law completed what Moses taught and was longer than his written words. The first part of the Talmud (see later) is called the Mishna (or Mishnah; ‘second law’, lit. ‘repetition’)⁶ which contains these oral laws.

Over time, these oral traditions became more important than the words of Moses and holding these traditions enabled the Pharisees to garner respect because only they knew them properly. Eventually (200 AD) the Mishna came to be esteemed far above the written words of Moses, hence the Talmud is the supreme authority for modern Jews.

Jesus’ condemnation of them is complete:

You judge according to the flesh. Jn 8:15

You will ... die in your sin. Jn 8:21

When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am He, and that I do nothing of Myself; but as My Father taught Me, I speak these things. And He who sent Me is with Me. Jn 8:28-29 [Note: This refers to the crucifixion of Jesus. They were (with others) responsible for killing Jesus. When they crucified him they would know that Jesus was the Messiah sent from God. At that point they could have repented and sought God’s mercy but they doubled-down on attacking Jesus’ followers even though they knew that he was the Messiah. This complies with Jesus’ parable about killing the son of the owner of the vineyard.]

You seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. Jn 8:37 [They did not know the truth, therefore, they were filled with lies and deception.]

Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word. Jn 8:43

You do what you have seen with your father. ... You do the deeds of your father. ... You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it. Jn 8:38, 41, 44 [So the Pharisees are liars, murderers and Satanists.]

He who is of God hears God's words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God. Jn 8:47

You dishonour Me. Jn 8:49

You say that He is your God. Yet you have not known Him. Jn8:54-55

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. Matt 23:27-28

Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers' guilt. Serpents, brood of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation of hell? Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. Assuredly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation. Matt 23:31-36

But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments. They love the best places at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.' Matt 23:5-7

Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces. Lk 11:43

Summary of the characteristics of the Pharisees

- They judged according to the flesh; they had no spiritual discernment.
- They died in their sins.
- They knew that Jesus was the Messiah when they crucified him.
- Christ's word had no place in them.
- They could not listen to Christ.
- Their father was the Devil and they did his works and desires.
- They were not of God and could not hear God's words.
- They dishonoured Christ.
- They did not know God.
- They were hypocrites.

- They were like whitewashed tombs: inwardly unclean.
- They were lawless.
- They were murderers.
- They were liars.
- They were proud.
- They were serpents.
- They were destined for Hell.

Understand this, these characteristics are transferred to the Talmud, which was written by Pharisees. This is why it is the most wicked document on Earth. It is satanic and has nothing to do with God.

People that support rabbis, and others committed to the Talmud, place themselves in danger. They will be tarnished by their bad company ('bad company ruins good morals').

Israel is based upon Talmudic law; this has been openly stated. Thus Israel is equally satanic and is opposed to God and righteousness. No Christian should have anything to do with either Israel or the Talmud. The apologetics of Christian Zionism, Messianic Christianity and Jewish Roots are lies and heresy.

The Talmud: the authority for modern Judaism

The Pharisees were the originators of modern Judaism:

The Jewish religion as it is today traces its descent, without a break, through all the centuries, from the Pharisees. Their leading ideas and methods found expression in a literature of enormous extent, of which a very great deal is still in existence. The Talmud is the largest and most important single piece of that literature. ... and the study of it is essential for any real understanding of Pharisaism.⁷

With the destruction of the Temple (70AD) the Sadducees [the priestly sect] disappeared altogether, leaving the regulation of all Jewish affairs in the hands of the Pharisees. Henceforth, Jewish life was regulated by the Pharisees; the whole history of Judaism was reconstructed from the Pharisaic point of view, and a new aspect was given to the Sanhedrin of the past. A new chain of tradition supplanted the older priestly tradition (Abot 1:1). Pharisaism shaped the character of Judaism and the life and thought of the Jew for all the future.⁸

Pharisaism became Talmudism ... the spirit of the ancient Pharisee survives unaltered.⁹

Jewish authorities assert that the prevailing authority for religious Jews is the Babylonian Talmud. Only Torah Jews would disagree with this. Modern Judaism is Talmudism.

*He who occupies himself with Scripture gains merit that is no merit. ... He who occupies himself with Talmud – there is no source of merit greater than this.*¹⁰

That formulation of the theology of Rabbinic Judaism, which is to say, of the Torah, therefore constitutes the Talmud's representation of the Torah ... No prior document spells out that way ... as does the Talmud.¹¹

Down to the present day Judaism has remained essentially Talmudical both in its theory and in its practice. ... Orthodox Judaism ... distinctly admits the absolute binding force of the oral law.¹²

The Talmud is to this day the circulating heart's blood of the Jewish religion. Whatever laws, customs or ceremonies we observe – whether we are Orthodox, Conservative, Reform or merely spasmodic sentimentalists – we follow the Talmud. It is our common law.¹³

Judaism is Rabbinic Judaism, and the Talmud of Babylonia is the authoritative statement of the Torah that Judaism embodies. The Talmud is the prism, receiving, refracting all light. ... upon it all conclusions ultimately rest. ... Study of the Torah begins, as a matter of simple, ubiquitous fact, in the Talmud. ... The Talmud formed the starting point and the ending point, the alpha and omega of truth. ... Scripture rightly reaches Israel in the Talmud; sound exegesis conforms to the facts of the Talmud.¹⁴

The Talmud is a set of volumes giving rabbinic teachings under various groupings called tractates. This represents the doctrines of the Pharisees based on oral tradition – the group condemned by Jesus. The first part of the Talmud is called the Mishna (or Mishnah; 'second law', lit. 'repetition')¹⁵ which contains oral laws. The second part is the Gemara (legal commentaries).¹⁶

Since the Talmud is too complex and unwieldy for legal disputations, a more manageable codification of Talmudic laws was required. These were compiled by successive generations of rabbis. This is the Halakha [aka Halacha, Halakah, Halakhah, lit. 'law']. This is the legal system of classical Judaism practised by all Jews from the 9th century to the end of the 18th century. It is maintained today in Orthodox Judaism and is primarily based on the Babylonian Talmud.

The Talmud contains 63 books, divided into six divisions (sing. 'Seder'; plur. 'Sedarim' or 'orders'). These are: Seder Zeraim ('seeds'); Seder Moed ('festivals'); Seder Nashim ('women'); Seder Nezikin ('damages'); Seder Kodashim ('sacrifices'); Seder Tohoroth ('cleanness').

The total of all the volumes is over 6,000 pages. All the books have Mishnah (laws) but some lack a Gemara. The laws are named after the rabbi that wrote them, e.g. the Mishnah of

The Talmud reverses all the ethical teaching of the Torah; it is the essence of satanic morality. It endorses all sorts of sins including: theft of Gentile property; killing of Gentiles; paedophilia; usury; lying; perjury; bestiality; incest and more. Its contents prove that it is an immoral, lawless, Satanic document.

Modern Judaism keeps the Babylonian calendar,¹⁷ keeps Babylonian festivals and the Fast of Tammuz,¹⁸ copies its immorality and allegedly ritual sacrifice of children to Molech, necromancy, magic and fortune telling.

Most insidious are the statements about Jesus. The Talmud contains the foulest blasphemies against the Lord in all human history.

The Kabbalah

Like the Talmud, the Kabbalah is claimed, by rabbis, to have originated in the oral traditions of the elders that were part of the secret teaching given to Moses at Sinai (cursed additions to the sacred text). Thus these two streams, the Talmud and the Kabbalah together form the fundamental basis of Judaism. In actual fact, much of Kabbalistic ideas emanated from Babylonia after the exile. Hasidic Jews afford the Zohar (the chief book of the Kabbalah) equal status with the Talmud and some parts were used liturgically.

Kabbalists claimed that their tradition had originally been given to Moses at Sinai ... The influence of Kabbalah on exoteric Judaism was widespread, presenting Jews with a powerful set of mystical symbols ... influencing Halakha and giving magical practices respectability.²³

Scholarly researchers have made clear the centrality of Kabbalah to the whole of Jewish religious consciousness.²⁴

The Zohar [the central book of the Kabbalah] was studied with reverence, awe and intensity by Jews in the most diverse communities.²⁵

The Kabbalah is the mystical / occult wing of Judaism which carries a huge amount of influence amongst Talmudic Jews.

For the three-hundred-year period roughly from 1500 to 1800 the Kabbalah was widely considered to be the true Jewish theology ... Through the Diaspora, the number of folk customs whose origins were kabbalistic was enormous.²⁶

This penetration of kabbalistic customs and belief, which left no corner of Jewish life untouched, is especially well-documented in ... Isaiah Horowitz's Shenei Luhot ha-berit and the anonymous Hemdat Yamim.²⁷

It utilises Gematria, identifying numerical values in letters and words, which have occult significance. Such symbolism is commonly found in modern plans and schemes of the global Elite. It focuses on magic, astrology, numerology (an occult discipline), Gnosticism, Hermetism, Neoplatonism and demonology. There is also a connection between Kabbalistic symbolism and Freemasonry.

It describes all sorts of fables, myths, legendary cosmogony, spells, charms, fetishes and rituals necessary to rectify God's imperfect creation. Creation needs rectifying because it is not perfect. It requires the intervention and ability of redemption by the Jewish person – also removing the evil caused by the existence of Gentiles.

The root of the Kabbalah is Satanism pure and simple. The serpent is worshipped along with other idolatries.

[Rabbi] Gaon of Vilna ... taught of the Kabbalah's doctrine that inside Judaism's vaunted Tree of Life there resides a great and sacred serpent whose masculine name is Leviathan and whose feminine name is Malkut. It is this sacred serpent, the Kabbalah teaches, that in the coming messianic age shall rise from the abyss to conquer the Gentiles. ... the one who will supernaturally possess the bodies of the world's Jews and lead them to global domination and glory.

Texe Marrs, article, 'The Holy Serpent of the Jews'.

It also teaches that Jews are their own messiah (egregore). The messianic age is when Jews rule the world and all Gentiles are their slaves. Jews are sons of God but Gentiles are sub-human, like cattle.

A Jew, by the fact that he belongs to the chosen people and is circumcised, possesses so great a dignity that no one, not even an angel, can share equality with him. In fact he is considered almost the equal of God.

Pranaitis, IB, The Talmud Unmasked, Imperial Academy of Sciences, (1892), p60.

The Jewish people constitutes a species of their own ... a special, separate act of Creation by the Almighty. The thought of creating the Jewish People preceded every other thought of the Almighty when creating the universe according to the teaching of Rabbi Samuel bar Isaac.

- Kabbala: The demonic powers should be given a portion, occupying and assuaging them, so that they will not disturb Israel's intimacy with God. [Zohar 4:14.]

- Kabbala: Extermination of the Christians is a necessary sacrifice. [Zohar, Shemoth.]²⁸

Example of a Kabbalistic rabbi

Rabbi Simeon ben Yohai [2nd century] was a chief Kabbalah teacher who specialised in Black Magic. Some attribute the authorship of the Zohar to him – though this is widely denied (the author is likely Moses de Leon in the 13th century). Numerous legends are associated with his life story, such as trees springing up followed by springs gushing out to aid him, daylight being extended and exorcisms.

The Jewish Encyclopaedia describes him as the pre-eminent anti-Gentile teacher.

Sample quotes:

The best among the gentiles deserves to be killed.

The most pious of women is prone to sorcery.²⁹

I am beyond the jurisdiction of any angel or judge in heaven.³⁰

Killing Gentiles, especially Christians

Encouragement to murder

- Kabbala: Extermination of the Christians is a necessary sacrifice. [Zohar, Shemoth.]³¹
- Halakha: It is a religious duty, however, to eradicate Jewish traitors, minim (Christians) and apikorsim (apostate) and to cause them to descend to the pit of destruction. [Maimonides, Mishnah Torah, chapter 10, p184.]
- Talmud: Even the best of the Goyim should all be killed. [Soferim 15, rule 10.]
- Talmud: Permissible murders include: to seal up a neighbour in an airtight alabaster chamber; bind a neighbour and starve him; bind him and subject him to sunstroke; bind him and subject him to hypothermia; bind him and set a lion on him; death by mosquitoes; throwing him into a pit; shoot him with an arrow. [Sanhedrin 77a-77b.]
- Talmud: If a Jew murders a goy there will be no death penalty. [Sanhedrin 57a.]
- Talmud: If a Jew killed a goy he is not responsible. [Aboda Zara, VIII, 5.]
- Halakha: Kill the Goyim by any means possible. [Choszen Hamiszpat, 425, 50.]
- Halakha: Everyone who sheds the blood of the impious (non-Jews) is as acceptable to God as he who offers a sacrifice to God. [Yalkut, 245c.]

It is a duty to exterminate them with one's own hands. ... Such as Jesus of Nazareth and his pupils ... may the name of the wicked rot.³²

Example

Just one of hundreds of ruthless actions is the massacre of Palestinians civilians, including children, by the Israeli Army officer Baruch Goldstein on 25 February 1994 (Purim). He killed 40 people while they knelt in prayer in a mosque in Hebron. The 25 Palestinians who protested the massacre were immediately shot to death by Israeli troops under the orders of Ehud Barak. The Israeli government honoured his action and rabbis eulogised him.

Multiple rabbis have conditioned army troops and officers to kill non-Jews. E.g. Rabbi Moshe Neriya commanded Jews to, 'shoot Arabs left and right without thinking and without hesitating'.³³

Genocide of White people

Our most important and ambitious program. One that will finally and totally remove from existence the impediments of our absolute control of this earth. I speak of the death of the white race. The complete removal of all means of reproduction of the so-called Aryan race, Men, we now control the destiny of this race. It is now time to make sure the white race becomes extinct through miscegenation and having a virtually zero birth rate. ... It is worth any price to annihilate the next generation of White children. We want every White father to feel the sting of having their children marry coloured mates and produce biracial children. ... We will deal with the less co-operative Goyim by murder and imprisonment. Finally, we will see the end of the White race. Impressionable White children will have their minds moulded into the agents of their own destruction.³⁴

The key to solving the social problems of our age is to abolish the white race.³⁵

The non-Europeanisation of America is heartening news of an almost transcendent quality.³⁶

The future of European Jewry is dependent on our ability to shape a multicultural, pluralistic and diverse society.³⁷

Ritual sacrifices

God himself condemns Jews for this terrible crime repeatedly in the OT, where Jews killed children ritually in worship to Molech. Archaeology has also confirmed this crime.

Jews have been charged with ritual murder for magical purposes since the 1st century. Despite the continual Jewish denials, the charges continued to be made every century, with some Jews being charged and executed. One example is that of Mendel Beilis was accused of this in 1912 in Russia. American Christians lobbied the Russian government denying that such a crime existed.

Overall there have been at least 122 ritual trials, 39 in the 19th century. If there is no basis to this crime, why have there been so many legal accusations in so many different countries? Why have eminent, sensible men, like Martin Luther, accused Jews of this crime?

Throughout history bodies have been found (since Jewish rites forbid burial of the dead body of an 'animal', which is what Gentile children are called) and Jews have been expelled from cities and nations for this crime. One body was that of St Hugh in Lincoln in 1255, found in a well. A Jew named Copinns was executed by King Henry III for the crime and the story was told by Chaucer in, 'The Prioress' Tale'. Tourists are now told that the story is a legend and it is interesting that Chaucer's book was removed from the school curriculum. Another victim was St Simon of Trent in 1472; the perpetrators were executed on the wheel and their synagogue burned.³⁸

- Kabbala: There is a commandment pertaining to the killing of strangers, who are like beasts. This killing has to be done in the lawful method. Those who do not ascribe themselves to the Jewish religious law must be offered up as sacrifices to the High God. [Thikunne Zohar, Berdiwetsch ed. 88b.]
- Talmud: Human blood is used in Talmudic black magic rituals. [Jewish Encyclopaedia, art. 'Popes'.]

Abin said: Our Mishna is in accordance with the view that Molech worship is not idolatry.* [Sanhedrin 64a.] Footnote 21 adds: 'Giving one's seed to Molech is not idolatry.'

[Regarding the idea] that Jews sometimes kidnapped small Christian children in order to drain their blood for use in various magic rituals, especially in connection with the Purim religious holiday. One of my more shocking discoveries ... is that there is a fairly strong likelihood that these seemingly impossible beliefs were actually true. ... One of the world's foremost scholars in that field is Ariel Toaff, professor of Jewish Renaissance and Medieval Studies at Bar-Ilan University near Tel Aviv, [a son of a rabbi] ... In 2007 he published ... Blood Passovers, based on many years of diligent research ... Toaff made a quite persuasive case. It appears that a considerable number of Ashkenazi Jews traditionally regarded Christian blood as having powerful magical properties.³⁹

Jews [are] addicted to magical practices ... one knows the position that blood always occupies in the operation of sorcery. In Chaldean magic it had very great importance ... Now it is very probably, even certain, that Jewish magicians must have sacrificed children.⁴⁰

Talmudic Judaism is Satanic

Christ's warning in Revelation

[Church at Smyrna] I know your works, tribulation, and poverty (but you are rich); and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. Rev 2:9

[Church at Philadelphia] Indeed I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie -- indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. Rev 3:9

This forms part of the letters to the churches representing warnings and instructions to the churches throughout history.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants -- things which must shortly take place. Rev 1:1

Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near. Rev 1:3

Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after this. Rev 1:19

I will show you things which must take place after this. Rev 4:1

Within these warnings we are twice warned about Jews who are really an assembly of Satan.

⁴⁰ Bernard Lazare [a Jew] 'Anti-Semitism', 1934, Vol 2, p215.

First point

Jesus tells us categorically that there are people who claim to be Jews that are not Jews but are a gathering of Satan. There are satanic people that claim to be Jews who hide amongst churches.

These claimed Jews are not loved by God, do not know God; they lie and they commit blasphemies.

So this is a fact to be aware of; there are supposed Jews that are really Satanists.

Therefore all Jews who seek fellowship with churches need to be judged to see what they actually are. This is demanded by these verses.

Second point

The Satanism practised by these Jews must be hidden and not open or it would be obvious to all. There is something within the practices of this type of Judaism that stems from Satan.

Usually the best way to hide such things is to call them by different names. Thus these Jews could call their religion Judaism, but which includes Satanic principles found within the Talmud and the Kabbalah.

Third point

These texts imply that these Satanic Jews have inveigled themselves into churches by various means. There are Jews that practice deceit to get their Satanism into churches to corrupt it from within.

The last 100 years has seen exactly this, a continual perversion of the churches through acceptance of false teachings and practices, many of which stem from Jewish sources (such as Dispensationalism, Christian Zionism, Messianic Christianity, Jewish Roots etc.).

Conclusion

So Jesus warned us through these visions that there is a corrupt people who call themselves Jews who are actually servants of Satan that get involved with churches causing corruption.

This plainly describes Talmudic / Kabbalah Jews.

Pharisaic Satanism in the Talmud

First we have the doctrines of the Pharisees codified in the Talmud and amplified in the Halakha, which Christ said was satanic lies. This is undeniable: the Pharisees were Satanic, thus the Talmud is Satanic.

The core of Judaism, like the core of Gnosticism and Egyptian Hermetism, is magic, the manipulation of the universe.⁴¹

The Talmud has multiple allowances to sacrifice to Satan through various intermediaries, such as Molech. Bible believers understand that worshipping Molech is actually worshipping Satan under the guise of an idol. Thus the Talmud's allowances are Satan worship.

⁴¹ Michael A Hoffman, 'Judaism's Strange Gods', p87.

- Talmud: to be qualified for appointment to the Sanhedrin (the Jewish religious court) a man must be a practitioner of sorcery. [Sanhedrin 17a.]

Gentile Satanism in the Kabbalah

To this is added the later teachings of the Kabbalah which is clearly Judaism plus Hermetism, Gnosticism, Neo-Platonism, Alchemy, some Zoroastrianism and occultism; in other words, forms of Satanism.

[There is] in practical Kabbalah ... a good deal of 'black' magic – that is, magic ... of various dark, demonic powers ... Such black magic embraced a wide realm of demonology and various forms of sorcery that were designed to disrupt the natural order of things.⁴²

One set of demons are known in the Kabbala as shedim Yehuda'im. Scholem says that they are subject to the Talmud.⁴³ Supposedly good demons can be made to do favours for men. This makes rabbis nothing more than a shaman in an animistic religion.

Jewish authorities affirm that Judaism is based upon both the Talmud and The Kabbalah. 50% of modern Jews openly treat the Kabbalah as sacred. Yet this text teaches serpent worship, tree worship,⁴⁴ moon worship,⁴⁵ sun worship,⁴⁶ magic, divination, demonology, wickedness and many other blasphemies including Tammuz⁴⁷ worship.⁴⁸

The Star of David

The emblem of Israel is the hexagram, called 'the Star of David', but there is not a shred of evidence that David used this symbol, in the Bible or in archaeology. Furthermore David would not have used a star as an emblem since this was already a pagan religious symbol.

You also carried Sikkuth your king and Chiun, your idols, the star of your gods, which you made for yourselves. Amos 5:26

'Sikkuth' is melek, meaning 'king' but also translated 'Moloch' which is what the LXX translates the word as. Some manuscripts have 'sikkuth' meaning either a tent or a Babylonian god. Since 'tent' cannot fit the context' this has to represent a Babylonian God by the name of Sikkuth or Moloch; in effect both mean the same thing. Either way it is an idol.

'Chiun' can mean an image or pillar and probably refers to a statue of the Assyrian-Babylonian god of the planet Saturn. 'Chiun' occurs only here. The LXX. translated the word by Rhephan, which became corrupted into Remphan, as used by Stephen (Acts 7:43). Probably the planet Saturn is intended by the name. Astrologers represented this planet as Rabbi Joshua Trachtenberg in Universal Jewish Encyclopaedia (1943), art. 'Superstition, Jewish'.

⁴⁶ The Talmud teaches a ceremony called 'Blessing the Sun' which occurs every 28 years.

baleful in its influences, and hence the Phoenicians offered human sacrifices to it, especially children.

The star was the symbol of the pagan gods representing light, the sun or a bright planet or star such as Sirius. All these astronomical objects were worshipped by pagans going back to old Babylonia and later Assyria. The five-pointed star (pentagram, pentacle) was also an ancient magical symbol going back to Babylon and frequently used in the occult, Hermetism and Black Magic today. The hexagram came to Judaism via Hermetism (occultism) and Kabbalism. The Star of David is an occult, pagan symbol describing sexual union.

The Kingdom of Israel fell ... due, among other causes, to its worshipping the host of heaven. But the Kingdom of Judah ... seems to have outdone the Northern Kingdom in star worship.⁴⁹

Conclusion

Talmudic Judaism is devil-worship.

Most Jews do not like to admit it, but our god is Lucifer ... and we are his chosen people. Lucifer is very much alive'. ... You and we have a different god.⁵⁰

Sabbateanism

Sabbateanism is the mystical and licentious form of Kabbalism pursued by followers of Rabbi Sabbatai Zevi and Jacob Frank.

Sabbatai Zevi [1626-1676] was born in Smyrna in modern Turkey. His name meant the planet Saturn, which was linked to the messiah's appearance. He was a Sephardic ordained rabbi and Kabbalist who claimed to be the messiah. Despite preaching nonsense he gained a million supporters.

As well as licentiousness, Zevi removed much of Judaism's ritualism saying it wasn't necessary in the messianic age and also changed festivals. This is huge since Talmudism is centred on ritualism.

His teaching is essentially Satanism being summarised as 'praised be he who permits the forbidden'; in other words Satanism's 'do what thou wilt'. Sin is a virtue and obeying the Torah is a sin. Doing good only slows down the appearance of the messiah, who will come when chaos reigns. The Kabbalah is a reversal of the Torah.

His followers formed the Sabbatean division of Judaism, which many in the global elite belong to; the teachings of practising evil appealed to many in positions of power.

Sabbateanism was revitalised by Zevi's follower Jacob Frank [1726-1791] who continued the movement, claimed to be the embodiment of Zevi and this later spawned the Illuminati, being called 'Sabbatean-Frankism'. When Weishaupt's Illuminati was established Rothschild set Frank up in Frankfurt as the new head. Frank later 'converted' to Catholicism in Poland in order to subvert it from within and was initially supported by the King of Poland; however, he was discovered and imprisoned.

Modern Sabbateans believe that the full messianic age will only come when evil fills the world and so devotees are encouraged to practice as much evil as possible to hasten this Jewish millennium, corporate Jewry ruling the world. [This explains much of what is going on today.]

It is important to understand Rabbi Zevi and Sabbateanism since so many Jews in positions of power and influence today are followers of his wicked theology. For example, Sigmund Freud was a Sabbatean Kabbalistic Jew who used his fabricated psychoanalysis method to make money, calling his patients 'suckers'.

Why did modern Christians start supporting Jews and Israel?

For centuries Christians understood that God had judged Jews for killing their Messiah. This wrath is plainly stated in the NT:

For you, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus. For you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, just as they did from the Judeans, who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God and are contrary to all men, forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, so as always to fill up the measure of their sins; but wrath has come upon them to the uttermost. 1 Thess 2:14-16

Wrath to the uttermost is a fearful thing.

As a result of this wrath, and due to the constant persecution of the church by Jews, Paul states, 'Concerning the gospel they are enemies', (Rm 11:28).

Christians sought to evangelise individual Jews and there were missions to Palestine where some Jews (Sephardim) later settled. But Christians recognised that Jews were under God's judgment and did not support Judaism. In fact, for many centuries Jews were exiled from multiple nations due to the sins of Jews such as: usury, perjury, creating sedition and worse. The Talmud bore fruit in anti-social behaviour at best and criminality at worst.

This all changed around the turn of the 19th-20th century.

This was due to the rise of Dispensationalism, which was heavily promoted by Jewish bankers and Zionists.

Around the 1820s there was a revival of interest on OT prophecy, especially as there were millennial expectations regarding the future change of centuries. One important centre for this was the prophecy conferences established by Lady Powerscourt. Certain strands of ideas began to coalesce, especially regarding Jews and a possible future Israeli homeland. Two Jesuits were also precursors of Dispensational doctrines, Cardinal Ribera and Manuel Lacunza (published by Irving).

The prime mover in developing the basics of Dispensationalism was a magazine called The Morning Watch which was associated with Edward Irving who had established the Catholic Apostolic Church in London in 1833. This magazine was filled with heterodox ideas such as support for the Kabbalah and ideas regarding the prophetic qualities of the Zodiac.

Though Dispensationalism today is fragmented into multiple variations, the essential foundations appearing in the 19th century were:

- Two comings of Christ. One an appearing for the saints in the air, the other a return with the saints. A period of 7 years separates these comings. In this time of tribulation, the Gospel is preached by a remnant of believing Jews and Christians not spiritual enough to be raptured.
- A secret rapture of some saints before the period of tribulation when the antichrist will arise. This is the key distinctive called the Pre-Tribulation Rapture, (henceforth: Pretrib.). This is imminent and could happen at any time.
- A dichotomy between the church and Israel. Jews are God's true covenant people who will inherit the literal covenant promises, the church is God's stop-gap operation which benefits from Jewish promises. This distinction is seen as the most important Dispensational tenet by Dispensationalists Charles Ryrie and John Walvoord.
- A rigid literal approach to interpretation, especially of prophetic books. This divides the Bible into that which refers to the Kingdom (Israel) and that which speaks of the Church.
- History is divided into specific dispensations where God deals with men in a certain way. Each of these time periods ends in failure and judgment.

The most important aspects in evaluating the origin are: the pretrib. rapture and the dichotomy of Israel/Church.

The idea of the secret rapture did not appear until 1830. The first person to speak about a pretrib. rapture was sick, young girl named Margaret Macdonald from Port Glasgow (15 miles from Glasgow) who was familiar with The Morning Watch and Edward Irving. The vehicle of this idea was a vision which was written down and read by Irving and others. Her insight came in a lengthy vision after prolonged sickness which required bed-rest for 18 months. This was written down and passed to ministers, including Irving at a time when he was very susceptible to such charismatic revelation. Margaret had also only been a Christian for a year and was uneducated. It was probably these facts which led to the origin being obscured and publicised by more educated men.

Margaret was also involved in the occult and her best friend was a medium, but this was covered up. Brethren academic and Bible translator S. P. Tregelles could say that the vision was the ramblings of a demonised person. Shortly after her vision Margaret began to speak in tongues.

So the secret rapture emanated from the delusions of an occult-inspired, young, sick, new convert and the basics of Dispensationalism originated with the Irvingites (later scandalised and discredited for Charismatic extremism and abuse).

Writers, especially William Kelly, tried to ascribe the beginnings of Dispensationalism to Brethren leader JN Darby. Several Brethren leaders affirmed this to be false stating that it emerged in Irvingism (SP Tregelles, JP Lange, Thomas Croskery, Edward Miller (Irvingite historian), William Reid, George Stokes and JS Teulon). Darby's writings show signs of misrepresentation and plagiarism from the Morning Watch.

Subsequent to receiving a copy of Margaret's vision, The Morning Watch went into overdrive in explaining their modification of eschatology. The caught up of 1 Thess 4 is now separated from the gather of Matt 24. Thus there were now two second comings; a secret one and an open one.

For more details see my paper, 'The Origins of Dispensationalism'.

Darby cemented the principles of Dispensationalism and became the most popular advocate of it. Multiple tracts and books promoted the new ideas of a doctrine which had never appeared in history before 1830.

Darby then promoted this heresy in America being sponsored by a banker to lead five preaching tours of America at a time when only the rich and aristocrats could afford even one tour. We should also remember that Darby was a member of the Elite cabal's East India Company.

Despite the growth of Dispensationalism more was needed. So American Jewish bankers gave money, resources and lodgings in a private club to the criminal charlatan CI Scofield to produce a Study Bible where the notes twisted Scripture to affirm Dispensational tenets. This was then published by the Elite controlled Oxford University Press and advertising ensured that this Bible version became a best-seller for many years.

The prime tenet of Dispensationalism was the dichotomy between Israel and the church. God's purposes are really with Jews and the church is a mere stopgap temporary institution. Thus began the focus upon fleshly Jews as the real people of God. To be blessed one must bless them (twisting prophecy regarding Abraham).⁵¹ This also fuelled the fortunes of Zionism that had grown up in the late 19th century. Prophecies regarding fulfilment in Christ were attributed to fleshly Jews.

In time, Dispensationalism ensured the support of the US moral majority and Christian churches for Israel; despite her criminality and hatred of Jesus.

So Jewish bankers were critical in the development and publishing of Dispensationalism, which was used to create Christian support for Zionism and favouring Jews to steal Palestine. We thus had the ugly irony that American Christians supported Jews that mercilessly killed Palestinian men, women and children, 35% of which were Christian who had lived there 1,000 years.

The reason why Christians changed their position on Jews is a conspiracy by Jewish bankers to push a new heretical theology.

Jewish control

Jews openly state that they rule the world. Gentiles do not need to affirm this, they openly admit it.

Halakha: That the Jewish nation is the only nation selected by God, while all the remaining ones are contemptible and hateful. That all property of other nations belongs to the Jewish nation, which consequently is entitled to seize upon it without any scruples.

Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamiszpat, 348.

The smartest people are Jewish. ... Its time to fess up and tell the truth: we Jews do run the world.

⁵¹ Gen 12:3, 'I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed'. At this point Abraham was a Mesopotamian. However, this was a typical common blessing, Gen 27:29, even amongst heathens, Num 24:9.

We control governments. We have created dissension among our enemies and made them kill each other. We gave effectively silenced criticism of our affairs and we are the richest race of men on this earth.

We are the super government of the world ... We are the most powerful international body of people in the world. ... We can destroy any country's economy without their even being aware of it.

The Harold Wallace Rosenthal interview.

Research of the controlling powers in all sorts of human activity indeed show that Jews control most of the leadership positions of power.

A few Jews control all the world's media (press, TV news, movies, social media, journals, magazines etc.). Jews control search engines, Google, Amazon, etc. Jews control central banks and financial institutions. Jews (principally the Rothschilds – Ashkenazi Jews) control the trade in gold, silver, precious metals, diamonds and the exchanges dealing with these.

The world today, however, provides a spectacle of a great concentration of Jewish power. In New York there is a concentration of Jewish financial power dominating the entire world in its material affairs, and side by side with its greatest physical concentration of the Jews ever recorded.

Big Pharma is owned by Jews. Jews (Rockefellers – Sephardic Jews) founded allopathic medicine and outlawed naturopathic treatments. The education system was taken over by Jews (under Rockefeller) since 1908.

Jews control most political institutions, especially the UN (run by the Rockefellers). They control US politics (e.g. Neocons) and dominate the federal system. They control the secret services such as the CIA. Jews control most NGOs (e.g. The Club of Rome) and foundations (e.g. Rockefeller Foundation, Open Society (Soros)).

Jews control the narratives that drive Western society, such as Climate Alarmism or pandemics (both planned by the Rockefellers in 1956).

For decades Jews have controlled large areas of crime, such as drug dealing, organ trafficking, sex trafficking, money laundering etc. In the heyday of the American mob, the ruling power was Jewish with Meyer Lansky (Murder Incorporated) being the chief leader. Most famous gangsters were Jewish (e.g. Dutch Schultz, Mickey Cohen, Bugsy Siegel). Sicilian control was later allowed as a sub-division.

The question to be asked is how such a small group of people (2.4% of American society for example) could have risen to almost total power over the Gentile majority within 130 years?

The Illuminati

The Illuminati was a historic subversive group in Bavaria in 1776 led by Adam Weishaupt under the control of the Rothschilds.

When the aims of this conspiracy (control of the world) became known it was hounded, but only to change its name and leadership and re-appear differently in various countries (e.g. as the Carbonari in Italy or the Jacobins in France). It allied with, and then took over, many Freemason groups and continued to subvert nations globally.

The Illuminati continues today under the guise of various institutions. It has the same goal of a new world order.

Current Jewish subversion

Goal: world control

Like it or not, Talmudic and Kabbalistic Jews are involved in many layers of subversion in global politics in order to bring about their messianic age whereby Jews rule the world and Gentiles are enslaved. This goal is openly and proudly stated in religious and political sources.

Goyim were born only to serve us. Without that, they have no place in the world; only to serve the people of Israel. ... Why are Gentiles needed? They will work; they will plough; they will reap. We will sit like an effendi¹ and eat.

Rabbi Ovadia Yosef, chief Sephardic Jew. Middle East Monitor, 'Sephardi leader Yosef: Non-Jews exist to serve Jews', 20 February 2014.

[It is] the duty [of a Jew] to keep a Gentile slave enslaved forever. 'We are commanded to possess those for our service'. ... Servitude is the 'natural' lot of Gentiles.

'The Book of Education' (textbook for beginners, subsidised by the Israeli government) quoted in Shahak, Jewish Religion, chapter five.

Our race is the master race. We are divine gods on this planet. We are as different from the inferior races as they are from insects. In fact, compared to our race, other races are beasts and animals, cattle at best. Other races are considered as human excrement, Our destiny is to rule over the inferior races. Our earthly kingdom will be ruled by our leader with a rod of iron. The masses will lick our feet and serve us as our slaves.

Former Israeli Prime Minister (1977-1983) and terrorist Menachem Begin. [http://antimatrix.org/Convert/Books/ZioNazi_Quotes/Zionism.html]

This is why the motto of the Mossad is, 'By deception wage war'. Israel heavily uses deception to create propaganda which vilifies its opponents (wrongly), for doing the heinous crimes that it commits.

Violent subversion

In the 7 October 2023 Hamas attack on Israel (which was allowed to happen) the majority of Israel deaths were actually caused by the IDF. For example, Israeli witnesses (such as Yasmin Porat) at Kibbutz Be'en testified on Israeli State radio that the Hamas militants were nice to her and the other hostages, but it was IDF soldiers that shot and killed Israelis.⁵² The Be'en death toll was 112, killed by the IDF. Israel stated that the deaths were caused by Hamas. The burnt babies story was not caused by Hamas putting them in ovens (where would they find a big enough oven?) but by incendiary bombs and missiles fired by Israel which caused collateral damage.

It is thus impossible to know when Israel is telling the truth because its policy is to constantly lie and deceive in order to achieve state objectives.

Thus many atrocities in recent history were caused by Israeli subversion and not by the claimed terrorists. The classic example is that many researchers have alleged (with evidence) that it was Mossad, working with American agents, that caused the 9/11 tragedy. Certainly Mossad agents were filming the collapse of the towers and rejoicing with dancing, from New Jersey. These 'dancing Israelis' were arrested but later released by senior American-Jewish officials.

Would Israel attack America, its greatest ally and supporter. Yes; it has many times. The most obvious proven example is the terrible attack on 8 June 1967 on the USS Liberty when Israel aircraft bombed and strafed this intelligence gathering ship, even firing on survivors in the water. Thirty-four American sailors were killed and 172 wounded in the attack.

US intelligence claimed that it was a deliberate false flag attack ordered by General Moshe Dyan to blame Egypt. This was confirmed by former Secretary of State Dean Rusk and former Joint Chief of Staff Admiral Thomas Moorer.

The American president, (LBJ) covered this up. No recriminations were issued against Israel and the surviving crew were not honoured or recognised.

Other examples of terror include the assassination of Count Folke Bernadotte of Sweden in 1948. He was sent by the UN to mediate a partition of land for Jews and Palestinians. Stern Gang Zionists assassinated him and his driver in Jerusalem. In 1946 Zionists (the Irgun, Haganah and the Jewish Agency) blew up the King David Hotel in Jerusalem killing 91 people, injuring over 200 people. It was planned by Menachem Begin who was later awarded a Nobel Peace Prize. There are literally hundreds of such terror attacks which most of the world has no clue about; certainly not Messianic Christians who blindly support Israel.

Cultural subversion

Many people are aware of the slow attack by stealth upon the cultural institutions of the West to destroy society from within ('the long march through the institutions'). The prime cause of this is the work of Cultural Marxists and the chief root of this is the work of the Frankfurt School since the 1930s.

It is a simple fact that the vast majority of these archetype cultural Marxists were Jews, such as Theodor Adorno (born Theodor Wiesengrund), Saul D Alinsky, Max Horkheimer, Herbert Marcuse, Georg Lukács, Carl Grünberg, Erich Fromm, Leo Lowenthal, Felix Weil or Willi Münzenberg. The determination to destroy the foundational Christian principles of society was planned by Jews.

These Cultural Marxists now control vast swathes of Western education systems, academia, politicians, health care, the judiciary, the police forces, the secret services, the regulators and so on. This is why society is being destroyed.

Marxism: Communism and Socialism (Communism-lite)

Marxism seeks to overturn western capitalist societies and replace them with state control, central economic planning, and Collectivism. It supposedly wants to remove the rich merchants and elevate the working class (in fact it seeks to create a global Jewish hegemony). It also seeks to destroy the family unit and put children under the control of the state.

The basic principles of Communism parallel those of the original Illuminati of Weishaupt. They are:

- Abolition of all governments.
- Abolition of inheritance.
- Abolition of Capitalism.
- Abolition of private property.
- Abolition of patriotism.
- Abolition of family.
- Abolition of religion.

Needless to say, wherever this has been tried it was a catastrophic failure and usually led to genocide of millions.

It is fully the product of Jews.

Marx and Engels were both Jews and their principles were drawn from the Talmud. Marx was the son of a rabbi.

In the first Communist experiment in Soviet Russia, most of the Bolshevik leaders were Jews or half-Jews. The funding for the Bolshevik revolution was by Jewish bankers led by the Rothschilds and managed by Jacob Schiff. There were 556 top people in the Bolshevik party in 1918; 457 were Jews; that is 82%. The Cheka was 85% Jewish. One of the first actions was to outlaw anti-Semitism on pain of death. No synagogues were harmed but thousands of churches, priests, clergy, nuns, and choirboys were tortured and murdered.

All over the world rabbis celebrated Soviet Communism claiming that this was Judaism in practice. Rabbi S Wiseman (or Rabbi Stephen 'Wise') stated, 'Some call it Marxism; I call it Judaism'.⁵³ The Jewish Chronicle stated that, 'the ideals of Bolshevism are consonant with the finest ideals of Judaism'.⁵⁴ The Jewish Voice affirmed that 'Anti-Communism is anti-Semitism'.⁵⁵

Moses Mordecai Marx Levi, was not only a Jew but was also a Satanist and a member of the League of the Just, which was a part of the Illuminati. The elite assigned Marx to construct the 'Communist Manifesto' to outline plans for world domination. Baruch Levy wrote to Marx in 1879 explaining that the Jews would attain world domination by dissolving all other races and annihilating monarchies. Jews would then furnish all the world's leaders and all national governments would collapse. Jews would then abolish private property and become their own messiah having all the property in the world as the Talmud promised.⁵⁶ Communism was a means to that Jewish messianic end.

The Jews have gone to great lengths to disguise the fact that Communism is really a Jewish movement. 'One of the greatest difficulties of the Talmudic Pharisees has been that of bringing communism into power while trying to conceal its Talmudic origin'.⁵⁷

Key points

Modern Christians are hopelessly confused about Jews and who the people of God are. They need to understand these key points.

- Modern Jews are not the same people as the Israelites of the OT.
- Biblical Israelites were destroyed by God in 70 AD for continual disobedience, killing the prophets and finally for killing their own Messiah. The nation was ground to powder and left desolate, fulfilling the words of Jesus.
- Idumeans (Edomites) flooded into Palestine, which was vacated. These proselytes became the Sephardim branch of Judaism.
- Middle Eastern Jews in the Diaspora gradually assimilated with the Gentiles, especially by mixed marriages, in order to prosper. Current Jewish blood is mixed.
- The majority of modern Jews are the Ashkenazi. These originated in the conversion of the Khazarians around the 9th century. After being conquered by the Kievan Rus (Varangians) these dispersed amongst the European nations, especially Germany, where they prospered. The Ashkenazi are not Semites. They have no claim to Palestine. Binyamin Netanyahu is Polish/Lithuanian Ashkenazi.
- Jews that follow the Torah are a small minority, such as Karaites.
- Most Jews, especially Orthodox Jews, have the Babylonian Talmud and also the Kabbalah as their authority.
- The Talmud is a collection of rabbinic sayings. It is the most wicked, evil, blasphemous set of documents in the world. It is the worst enemy of Christianity. Essentially, the Talmud is satanic. It originated with the equally satanic Pharisees.
- The Talmud is the authorised legal basis of modern Israel.

- The Kabbalah is essentially a series of lectures upon occultism, magic, divination, spiritualism and various pagan religious tenets (e.g. Hermetism).
- Christians support Israel because they have been deluded by the teachings of heretical Dispensationalism, which emerged after 1830 in scandalous circumstances. It did not originate in Brethrenism. It was sponsored by Jewish bankers to promote the emerging Zionism.
- Many of the powers that be, the cabal that rules over national governments, are Talmudic, Kabbalistic, Sabbatean, Zionist Jews (e.g. the Rothschilds are Ashkenazi Jews, the Rockefellers are Sephardic Jews).

Conclusion

I have no problem with ordinary Jews, people who identify as Jewish but who probably have little understanding of the Talmudic, Zionist Jewish hegemony controlling the world. Ordinary Jews are people just like anyone else.

The problem is with Talmudic Zionists and Kabbalists who want to take over the world.

Appendix One

Jesus prophecy of the destruction of the Jews (Hebrews)

'And the vine-dressers took his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them. Then last of all he sent his son to them, saying, "They will respect my son." But when the vine-dressers saw the son, they said among themselves, "This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance." So they took him and cast him out of the vineyard and killed him.

'Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vine-dressers?' They said to Him, 'He will destroy those wicked men [Jews] miserably, and lease his vineyard to other vine-dressers who will render to him the fruits in their seasons.' Matt 21:35-41

Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the Scriptures: "The stone which the builders rejected Has become the chief cornerstone. This was the LORD's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?" Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it. And whoever falls on this stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder.' Now when the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they perceived that He was speaking of them. But when they sought to lay hands on Him, they feared the multitudes, because they took Him for a prophet. Matt 21:42-46

The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who arranged a marriage for his son, and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding; and they were not willing to come. Again, he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "See, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fatted cattle are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding." ' But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his business. And the rest seized his servants, treated them spitefully, and killed them. But when the king heard about it, he was furious. And he sent out his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy'. Matt 22:2-8

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous, and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.' Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers' guilt. Serpents, brood of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation of hell? Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. Assuredly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing! See! Your house is left to you desolate. Matt 23:27-38

The Chief Priests (Sadducees) and Pharisees, representing the people, recognised that Jesus' parables were concerning them.

- They were the ones that had persecuted and killed God's prophets and led the people astray.
- They had contradicted the Torah (the Law of Moses) replacing it with the tradition of the elders (oral law).
- The kingdom of God is taken from Jews and given to Gentiles.
- The Jews who fall on the stumbling stone of Jesus will be broken.
- The stone will fall on them and crush them to powder.
- For rejecting the bridegroom, Jesus, God sends his armies to destroy those who murdered Jesus and burn their city (fulfilled 70AD).
- For her sins against God over generations, culminating in the rejection of the Messiah, the house of Israel ('Jerusalem') is left desolate (eremos, 'solitary, lonely, desolate, uninhabited; used of a desert, wilderness, deserted places, lonely regions; used of a flock deserted by the shepherd or a women neglected by her husband').

Summary

- Israel is rejected by God for constant rebellion, culminating in killing Jesus. 'Let it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by Him this man stands here before you whole. "This is the stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone"'. (Acts 4:10-11). 'Therefore, to you who believe, He is precious; but to those who are disobedient, "The stone which the builders rejected Has become the chief cornerstone, and a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence." They stumble, being disobedient to the word, to which they also were appointed'. (1 Pt 2:7-8).
- The blood of Jesus is upon the nation: 'And all the people answered and said, "His blood be on us and on our children."' (Matt 27:25). 'Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold the coming of the Just One, of whom you now have become the betrayers and murderers' (Acts 7:52).
- The kingdom of God is removed from Israel and given to the Gentiles.
- The nation is ground to powder. 'The Judaeans, who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God and are contrary to all men, forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, so as always to fill up the measure of their sins; but wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.' 1 Thess 2:14-16
- The nation is left desolate.
- Jerusalem is to be burned.

Conclusion

Modern Jews cannot claim any of the Biblical promises or covenants because the Hebrews were finally rejected and judged. But most modern Jews are not of that ethnic stock anyway (Ashkenazi and Sephardim). Modern Jews have no claim to the land of Palestine whatsoever.
