

Pervasive lying

Introduction

As the world becomes more dominated by the end time degenerative plans of Satan, so the world assumes the characteristics of Satan. Indeed, this is his purpose to pervert the world into his image. In his seeking to become God, he cannot create a new world or even create a new type of life over which he could claim to be the creator. So he takes God's creation and seeks to thoroughly pervert everything in it, particularly man, so that it is corrupted beyond measure. In this strategy the world is twisted in form to spite God but built to mimic the defective personality of Satan.

Now Satan is a liar and builds his strategies on deception. Perhaps his chief characteristic is lying.

You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it. Jn 8:44

The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 2 Thess 2:9-10

So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world. Rev 12:9

He laid hold of the dragon, that serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years; and he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, so that he should deceive the nations no more. Rev 20:2-3

The devil, who deceived them. Rev 20:10

So it is not surprising that we are currently seeing a massive sweep of lying from all sorts of authorities, governments, media outlets, NGOs, education systems, medical bodies and so on. The scope of lying in the modern world is off the scale. Everyday, people are surrounded by lies – usually to deceive them and force them into some form of compliance. Worse still, governments are bringing forth legislation to be the arbiter of truth and sanction any dissent when it is provable that the establishment narrative, on many issues, is based on lies. When truth is denied, society has no foundation.

A full study of this modern tsunami of lies would occupy many volumes and would require teams of researchers. Here I will simply identify some important lies that are determining the way we live. In general the lies are contributing to a policy of establishing a command and control authoritarian global government; a Socialist world control system.

Net zero Green policies

Having written on this subject many times, I will simply itemise some facts.

- Carbon dioxide is not a menace. It is a highly beneficial molecule that promotes plant growth and this oxygenates the world. Demonising CO₂ is based on lies.
- Global average temperatures are not rising but have flatlined for seven years. In fact a slight warming stopped around 1990 with a couple of minor increases and falls due to normal climatic conditions. There were many years between 1880 and 1990 that were hotter than today. Claims that the world is burning (a la Prince William) are lies.
- In epochal terms we are currently in a comparatively cold period.
- All the popular indicators of panic are lies: polar bears are not dying out. Polar ice is not unusually shrinking. Coral reefs are not dying out from global warming. Hurricanes are not increasing in severity. Spring is not lengthening. Wildfires are at a century low. The Maldives are not sinking. And so on.
- ‘Sustainable’ Green energy is not sustainable. Wind farms give poor returns for investment but kill birds, bats and insects. Wind turbine manufacture is really bad for the environment. Biomass pellets destroy ancient trees in Virginia. Solar power is useless with no sun and its manufacture is environmentally unfriendly. Nations that have heavily invested in alternative energy have experienced power outages in cold weather. Modern nuclear power stations are greener than wind turbines and solar panels and provide sustainable cheap energy.
- Electric cars have a far worse effect on the environment than petrol cars. One electric car battery exploded while being transported on a cargo ship containing thousands of cars, including Bentleys and Porsches, which sank in the Atlantic in March 2022 when the ship caught fire as a result.
- The demonisation of ‘fossil fuels’ (oil / gas) is based on a lie. Oil and gas do not come from fossils.
- Statements by the BBC, NASA and others regarding warming temperatures are lies. Their figures were deliberately inflated by 14% in one case and 30% in others.

Examples

Panorama

A BBC Panorama documentary, ‘Wild Weather’ led by the BBC editor on environmental issues (Justin Rowlatt), was deemed to have lied about key statements made in the programme. This was a propaganda piece timed to connect to the COP26 conference in Scotland and gave a one-sided presentation to boost Green policies with misrepresentation of facts.¹ It claimed that global deaths were rising due to extreme weather caused by climate change – in fact the opposite is true. It also claimed that Madagascar was facing its first famine caused by climate change – in fact it is due to other factors. Complaints resulted in an investigation by the BBC’s Editorial Complaints Unit, which upheld the complaints. However, the programme remains in the BBC’s web archive unedited with only a minor guideline added. Previously Rowlatt received complaints (upheld) when he described offshore wind as ‘virtually subsidy-free’.

The Meteorological Office

The Meteorological Office was found to have misrepresented facts about global temperatures, inflating them by 14%. This was based on HadCRUT data which revised its monthly mean global surface temperature anomalies for 1850-2020. Earlier data

(HadCRUT4) showed a lower temperature trend which was revised upwards by depressing earlier temperatures and elevating later temperatures to steepen the curve.² This contradicts the accurate satellite UAH version 6.

The Met Office has been repeatedly castigated for its false figures on global temperature; some of these complaints have actually been admitted (e.g. the HadCRUT audit by John McLean, October 2018).

Inconvenient Truth

A court found that the film by Al Gore, 'Inconvenient Truth', to promote Global Warming fears, had made specific errors of fact and required a guidance warning.³ Despite this the film was shown in schools, colleges and universities, was broadcast globally to universal acclaim and then won an Academy Award.

This film is filled with errors of fact, misrepresentation, exaggeration (the latter admitted by Gore) and propaganda. For example, the film shows footage from Hurricane Katrina claiming it was a Category 5 at landfall when it was a Category 3 hurricane. Gore claimed that there are increased numbers of Atlantic storms (cyclones). This is false; there is no evidence that warming has produced more storms.⁴ Gore got the relationship between CO₂ and climate change the wrong way round: 'There is general agreement that the famous blanket picture of the greenhouse effect that Gore likes to present is, in fact, misleadingly wrong'.⁵

We could go on. The whole presentation was not only flawed but filled with lies; yet governments around the world showed it to schoolchildren as fact.

Implications

The implications for the future of society if net zero CO₂ is implemented are truly shocking. Life will be utterly dystopian.

A report produced by Oxford University and Imperial College for the government⁶ has suggested these plans:

- Petrol/diesel engines to be banned by 2029. Any new vehicle from now on must be compatible with Absolute Zero.
- Between 2030 and 2049 all new vehicles must be electric and the average size reduced to 1,000kg.
- Transport will become much more expensive.
- All airports to be closed down, except Heathrow, Glasgow and Belfast, by 2029. Transfers must be made by rail.
- By 2029 national consumption of beef and lamb must drop by 50% along with a reduction in frozen ready meals. By 2049 beef and lamb to be eradicated.
- Construction of new buildings must cease by 2050.

⁶ UK Fires, 'Absolute Zero', November 2019.

However, the dates may be advanced because the UK government made a new target in law in April 2021 to slash emissions by 78% by 2035.

Note that four months after this report the government introduced lockdowns which included cancelling all flights and travel, as part of a conditioning exercise to get people used to changes in their lifestyle.

Now all these policies are based on lies. There is no threat from CO₂. This has nothing to do with science or saving the planet. It is really about changing society and bringing about more social control.

Covid lies

I have outlined the huge numbers of lies parroted during the Covid crisis in multiple papers; here I will just list a few of the main mendacious statements.

- Covid can be spread asymptotically. This lie drove the whole fear propaganda. It was known to be false from the beginning of the epidemic.
- Social distancing was a complete lie. Viruses travel miles.
- Transmission from surfaces requiring PPE and multiple cleansings. This is a lie; there is no fomite transmission of Covid. This was known from early on.
- Facemasks have no effect on inhibiting a respiratory virus. However, they do cause massive medical harms, which include bacterial pneumonia, bacterial diseases, hypoxia, cancer and much more. Even 15 minutes of mask wearing massively multiplies CO₂ levels breathed in.
- Lockdowns are useless in trying to limit a respiratory epidemic. However, the collateral damage caused by lockdowns is immense. They certainly killed more people than the virus but they also wrecked the economy, destroyed businesses, ruined kid's education, caused massive mental damage, stopped patients getting necessary treatment, scans and diagnoses and so on. Lockdowns disproportionately hurt the poorest, the elderly and the most frail (the very people that the elite want rid of).
- PCR tests diagnose Covid. No they don't; they cannot. They take a viral fragment, which may even be dead, and multiply thousands of times to give false positive results. PCR tests must never be used alone to diagnose anything. Thus a cold you had six months ago could give a positive result. PCR tested items bore positive results from fruit, sterile water, dirty water, Coca-Cola and many more. The whole PCR test producing cases scenario was an utter lie.
- The vaccines were useless in stopping the virus and resulted in massive adverse reactions, which include: death, heart attacks, liver disease, strokes, blindness, deafness, thrombosis, abortions and stillbirths and much more. The vaccines have killed far more people than the virus and these deaths are continuing because the vaccines destroy the immune system.

The whole Covid crisis was packed with lies from start to finish. It is most egregious piece of mendacity that has ever been thrust upon the planet.

Human biology

This is an area above the level of daily egregious lies; it seeks to actually pervert absolute facts of God's creation. The essential idea is that human sex is determined by individual choice. Thus a person determined to be male, by the 'arbitrary' statement of a doctor at birth, can claim to be female and this must be accepted as fact, whether there is any surgery or hormone treatment involved or not.

Having established this fact of individual choice to determine sex the Woke establishment then demanded that society accept that there are scores of different sexes where people identify as multiple characters with unique pronouns. This nonsense has been so ingrained that people are losing their jobs for using wrong pronouns. The police are being schooled with leaflets showing how to identify 40 different 'gender' types. Politicians have been unable to define what a woman is.

By the way, the common use of the word 'gender' in this debate is not accurate. 'Gender' is primarily used in the context of grammar to identify whether nouns and pronouns are masculine, feminine, common or neuter. The word 'gender' has been used since the 14th century primarily as a grammatical term. Grammatical gender is only very loosely associated with natural distinctions of sex. Only in a secondary sense is 'gender' a mass noun identifying the state of being male or female and usually with reference to social and cultural differences rather than biological ones. 'Sex' tends to refer to biological differences, while 'gender' tends to refer to cultural or social ones. So the constant use of 'gender' in this discussion is wrong.

The fact is that sex is determined by chromosomes and physiology. A woman has XX sex chromosomes while a male has XY chromosomes. A woman has a uterus and ova that can effect reproduction after stimulation by a male gamete. A woman has mammary glands that can feed a baby. A woman has a different type of muscular system. No amount of human choice, surgery or medical treatment can make a woman with XX chromosomes into a man, or vice versa.

Thus any person seeking to change their sex is a victim of a mental disease; not a physical disease. Rather than undergo surgery to give the appearance of a sex change, they need medical help regarding their mental state.

People need to understand that because transgenderism is an unnatural process, victims of sex changes repent in later life. As high as 80% change their mind when it is too late and of that figure 30% commit suicide because the changes cannot be undone.

Worse still, foisting this nonsense on to children as young as five is child abuse. Parents that encourage their child to assign themselves a different sex are child abusers.

The whole transgenderism fad is a lie.

The Ukraine conflict

The level of lies being pushed daily is off the scale. Almost everything in the mainstream media is a lie, and particularly the statements of lying politicians like Liz Truss and Ben Wallace. Again I will just itemise a few of the issues.

Russia was fully justified in initiating the conflict.

The West has destroyed countries for far less.

- NATO encroached upon Russia's border, contrary to previous diplomatic agreements, with military bases and bioweapons labs, NATO troops (advisors) and military trainers (e.g. SAS) that are present in Ukraine in large numbers. Arms had been given by the West to arm Ukraine.

- Ukraine had been bombarding the Russian-speaking areas of the Donbass after they were recognised by the UN as a separate republic in 2014. 14,000 people had been killed in constant shelling. Russia had tried to stop this diplomatically for eight years to no avail.
- Ukrainian Nazi militants have been torturing, raping and murdering Russian-speaking civilians constantly since 2014. There have been thousands of victims, some of which were disposed of by crushing in an industrial car crusher.
- Ukraine planned and prepared for genocide of the Donbass in later March, moving 60,000 troops in readiness. They openly spoke of genocide. Putin moved his troops in to stop this genocide.

In historical terms it is Ukraine that has been the aggressor and the initiator of war. It began shelling the Donbass in 2014, and has killed Russian-speakers daily. Russia only entered into seeking to terminate this conflict after eight years of patience.

The War crimes

The claims of war crimes and brutality have really been committed by the Ukraine military, particularly the Nazi battalions, such as Azov, Aidar and others. Bucha is a classic case. It can be proved that this atrocity was not committed by the Russians. Why would they shoot their own people that they came to save? Survivors of various massacres have spoken about the criminal Ukraine Nazis that perpetrated the crimes. Videos have emerged of Nazi military committing war crimes, such as knee-capping Russian POWs; crucifying POWs, castrating and shooting POWs and so on.

Nazis

The West is supporting pure Nazis that worship Third Reich collaborators like Stepan Bandera; that wear Waffen SS insignias, swastikas and other Nazi paraphernalia; that commemorate Nazis with public holidays and statues; and that openly state their intention to kill all Russian Ukrainians, starting with the children.

The Azov movement (plus others) is centred in the military (half of the Ukraine military is far right ultra-nationalists, over 100,000 men)⁷ and is also a minority political party. However, it also controls the National Guard, which acts as a Stasi-like police force in Ukraine. Azov is able to dominate the president and has even publicly threatened to murder Zelensky if he does not comply with their wishes.

It is the Azov Nazis that are pressing for genocide of Russian people based on historic angst (e.g. the Holodomor) and vitriolic hatred. This hatred is expressed in the multiple war crimes being perpetrated against civilians and the brutal war crimes against captured Russian POWs. These crimes include torture, public castration, crucifixion, knee-capping and murder. Many of these events have been filmed and published online. There are multiple testimonies of civilians being shot in the back trying to escape Mariupol; of women being raped and murdered; and using hospitals and apartment blocks as military bases (human shields).

It is the Nazi battalions, not the regular Ukraine military, that is perpetrating brutal war crimes. Zelensky has also openly supported the Nazis in public and has posted Nazi insignia on Instagram.

The goal of the West

The West's intention is to bleed Russia to bring ruin to the country and destroy Putin. The elite hate his Christian resistance to their plans. They will do this until the death of the last Ukrainian soldier. Thus the West's efforts to pour arms, money and mercenaries into Ukraine to keep the war going, a war that Ukraine cannot win since Russia destroyed its command and control structure, its air force and key infrastructure in the first few days.

This is why Zelensky terminated two peace talks where Russia sought to bring an end to the conflict. On both occasions the EU (plus the US and UK) intervened and promised Zelensky millions in aid and military supplies as long as he continued the fighting. The EU isn't interested in peace or stopping the human suffering; it is only interested in continuing the war to bleed out Russia.

Zelensky

Zelensky is a mere puppet. He is a corrupt criminal with assets of over a billion including a mansion in Miami. He has no ability whatsoever as a statesman. He is controlled by the Jewish oligarch Ihor Kolomoysky to serve the global elite's interest, which is why Ukraine is the centre of money laundering, human trafficking, weapons trafficking, drug trafficking and so on. He is also dominated by the Nazi elements in the military and politics and has openly affirmed this on social media.

Key points:

- The Ukraine is a puppet of the US elite. In 2014 the democratically elected president was removed (who was favourable to Russia) and Victoria Nuland and the CIA placed Petro Poroshenko in charge as a US puppet. This initiated government aggression against Russian speakers and other minorities (Hungarians, Lithuanians, Greeks, Romanians).
- Who started the aggression? The Ukraine. It began the war in 2014 contrary to a UN resolution and the Minsk agreements of 2014/15. Ukraine started a continual bombing and artillery campaign against the independent Donbass (DPR and LPR).
- Crimea was declared an autonomous independent after a referendum in 1991 before Ukraine was officially independent. This was denied by the Ukraine government. Again in 2014 Crimea (which mostly consists of Russians) held another referendum and declared independence after the termination of the Russian language (and others) by the new Ukraine puppet government. This was recognised by Russia, which was able to enforce this second attempt due to the naval barracks at Sevastopol whereby 25,000 Russian troops policed the area. Russia never aggressively annexed Crimea.
- Contrary to Western media, Russia has already won this war. It destroyed all the command and control centres, air force and key infrastructure in the first few days. It then encircled the key military positions in the south (which had mobilised to attack the Donbass and Crimea). Thus Kiev was encircled and not destroyed. Unlike NATO it is not interested in obliterating whole cities with cruise missiles but is holding the Ukraine military in check so that it cannot mobilise and is advancing slowly over open ground where it chooses. Russia knows that a Ukrainian military will be vital when the conflict ends and Russia has no hatred for Ukrainians. The Western aid is useless. Western military aid is being captured (the DPR has many American Javelins) or blown up before it gets to the front lines. In one missile strike, 600 mercenaries were killed and £40m of munitions destroyed. Mariupol is captured. 70% of the Western mercenaries have returned home in disgust about what is going on saying that they have been cannon fodder. Large numbers are being held awaiting trial where they face 15 years in prison or execution. They are being treated properly (unlike Russian POWs) and many have made videos explaining that the Western narrative is a lie.

For a one-stop military summary of the whole matter, see The Delingpod interview with the Swiss Military Intelligence Colonel, Jacques Baud. This long interview will give you far more accurate information than any Western politician or reporter. He corroborates everything I've been saying for weeks. Also check out the reports from the former US military intelligence marine and former UN weapons inspector, Scott Ritter. Ritter's assessment agrees with Baud's.

The group-think take-over

Western governments are bringing in statutory instruments to determine what is allowed to be spoken, written and thought. Under the new Online Safety Bill going through Parliament, it would be illegal to tell a joke in your own house if it doesn't fit in with government guidelines. Biden appointed a woman as the new disinformation Czar to police what is acceptable on line (though this collapsed in weeks due to blatant hypocrisy). The plan is to rid the Internet of anything that does not comply with government propaganda. This is being done under the auspices of saving children from online predators but is really about total censorship and the termination of free speech.

Throughout the Covid crisis, institutions, fact-checkers and silicone valley technocrats shut down all dissent from the official narrative. Anyone speaking against the vaccines, lockdowns, facemasks and so on were silenced. In the course of the next 18 months, it turned out that vast numbers of people were actually correct in what they were saying: facemasks don't work, lockdowns kill more people than the virus, vaccines have deadly adverse reactions, vaccines were causing myocarditis in children, the Covid origin was likely to be from a laboratory and so on. So the official censorship was false and the dissenters were correct. This shows the dangers of legalising establishment narratives as the only facts.

The Online Safety Bill is subjective in its approach when it states that content will be removed, even if lawful, if it is considered (by whom) 'harmful' (what does that mean?). Providers will be forced to remove content that will have 'a significant adverse ... psychological impact on an adult of ordinary sensibilities'. 'Ordinary sensibilities' is not defined. This is so vague as to include every over-sensitive person who reacts to trifles. It gives authorities scope to censor everything. The government also referred to outlawing 'hate speech'; but who decides what that is? Stating that a woman is 'an adult human female' has already been defined as hate speech.⁸ This is a lie; it is a statement of fact.

These are extraordinarily worrying times when the basic foundations of human society are being threatened by state overreach.

The war narratives

All the narratives surrounding the wars of the last century have been riddled with lies. It is common that war produces propaganda from both sides, but the level of lies told by the establishment regarding all wars since the Napoleonic Wars have been off the scale. These lies continue to be told so that there is a parallel narrative: what really occurred and what is written in history.

⁸ Even though it is the historical Oxford definition. Posey Parker was attacked for this.

To analyse this would take many volumes and some authors have tried to explain certain wars, usually to great opprobrium.⁹ I have a paper called 'The lies of history' focusing on WWII, that I will release one day. I will merely give some examples.

The Boer War

The Boer War was completely unnecessary. The Boers were demonised for no reason, apart from British expansionism. Boers¹⁰ were Calvinist farmers of Dutch and Huguenot extraction that had purchased lands from the indigenous tribesmen in the late 17th century. They were also portrayed as backward and an easy target but they held off the British Army for years with their superior abilities and guerrilla tactics (they could shoot a rifle accurately while riding on horseback; a typical British soldier's standing marksmanship was poor). The treatment of the combatants by the British in the first concentration camps was shocking. Boers were routinely tortured and executed by bloodthirsty British Army officers.

The Anglo-Zulu War (1879)

The Anglo-Zulu War was also unnecessary. Despite treaties assuring the Zulus of no interference, the greed for natural resources (chiefly diamonds) promoted British excursions into Zululand to provoke a war so that Britain could annexe the area. Frontier incidents provided opportunities, and the British High Commissioner ordered the disbandment of the Zulu army within 30 days. However, King Cetshwayo (also Cetewayo) did not comply (why would he), and war began on 11 January 1879. Again the hubris of British Officers, like Lord Chelmsford, treated the natives as primitives to be dismissed. That was until Cetshwayo inflicted a massacre of 900 British troops at Isandhlwana on 22 January. It was only with reinforcements that Ulundi, the Zulu capital, was burned and Cetshwayo captured. The war ceased on 1 September.

We remember, justly, the heroic British deflection of superior numbers (4,000) of Zulu impis¹¹ by just over 150 men at Rorke's Drift. But this has been blown up, especially by so many VCs awarded (11), to distract from the terrible strategies of earlier disasters, such as Isandhlwana, the worst defeat ever inflicted on the British Army by mere tribesmen with hide shields and assagai short spears.

The First World War

The First World War was completely unnecessary but was engineered by powerful Jewish bankers and elite figures. It was part of a long-planned elite strategy to remove monarchical dynasties,¹² destroy Russia, destroy Germany and begin the strategy to develop a Jewish homeland (which began with the Balfour Declaration written to Lord Rothschild in 1917). The demonisation of Kaiser Wilhelm was both ridiculous and foolish; he was also a cousin to the British Royal Family. Stories of German soldiers bayoneting babies were utter lies. There was also no military honour involved in sending thousands of soldiers to their immediate death on a daily basis in trench warfare.

The American involvement in 1917 was engineered by Winston Churchill and Woodrow Wilson by the sinking of the Lusitania in 1915 – which the Germans were tipped off was filled with illegal munitions and thus a rational military target. The resulting anger regarding 1,000 lost lives pushed Americans into a war that Wilson promised would not

¹⁰ Dutch for 'farmer'.

¹¹ Footsoldiers.

¹² E.g. Austro-Hungarian Empire, Ottoman Empire, German Empire.

occur. Campaigns like Gallipoli were shockingly stupid and an utter predictable waste of thousands of lives.

The Second World War

The Second World War was also engineered and unnecessary. The same bankers and elite figures that prospered from funding both sides of WWI did the same in WWII. The goals were similar: destroy Germany, establish a homeland for Jews in Palestine; promote the Cold War by resourcing the USSR, destroy the Japanese monarchy; destroy the Italian hegemony. Almost everything you think you know about this war is a lie, as I have explained elsewhere. For example:

- Hitler did not want to rule the world. He did not even want war with Britain; in fact he admired Britain. He sought to restore German honour and finances ruined by the Treaty of Versailles (1919) and take back German lands stolen.
- Hitler was part Jewish and had many Jewish people in the army and high Wehrmacht positions. His doctor was Jewish. In fact, Hitler was the illegitimate grandson of a Rothschild corporatist.¹³
- The American entry into the war was engineered. American sanctions on Japan forced it into retaliation. The approaching Japanese fleet was well known and the Pearl Harbour attack could have been avoided. Roosevelt allowed it to occur to push the American people into desiring a war he promised would not happen.
- The bombing of civilian cities was initiated by Churchill not Hitler and the first case killed about a dozen children. Hitler wrote to Churchill five times pleading for civilian bombing to stop or he would retaliate. Churchill ignored these letters and hence the Blitz.
- The Dresden carpet bombing raids was one of the worst war crimes in world history. It was not a military target but was filled with refugees and British prisoners of war. The fires were so horrific that people melted into the roads or were turned into fat in basements. Churchill sanctioned this.
- The worst brutality of the war was conducted by the advancing Soviet non-professional troops. These inflicted the most terrible and horrific war crimes, mostly against girls and women, as they advanced from the East. Millions were tortured, maimed and killed in barbaric ways.
- Eisenhower killed a million and a half German prisoners of war (including civilians) after the war ended. This was by horrific detention in the open air with hardly any food, shelter or water. People died of infection and starvation.
- Churchill sent six million German prisoners to their deaths and imprisonment in Soviet gulags after the war ended.
- At the end of the war, General George Patton declared that the wrong side had won. He was subsequently assassinated (it was no accident) when he promised to spill the beans on what went on.
- Jewish bankers funded both sides. Elite American corporations supplied all sorts of goods and services to Germany, including Prescott Bush. Ford provided the trucks for the Reich and was honoured by Hitler. IBM provided the data analysis for administering the concentration camps. Many American firms provided vital equipment to the German war machine.
- Scores of key Nazi scientists and professionals (many war criminals) were secreted out of Germany after the war in Operation Paperclip and sent to the USA where they, for example, established NASA or worked in the CIA.

¹³ Note the outcry when Sergie Lavrov stated this but not a whimper when articles in the Israeli press reported on this years ago.

The Iraq War

This needs little comment since most people are now aware of what happened. Some of us were castigated at the time when we warned that this war was based on lies even before the invasion started.

The real cause of the war was that Saddam Hussein was rebelling against the elite banking cartel. He was resisting a Rothschild central bank and declared that he would start accepting Euros for oil payments thus threatening the Petro-Dollar hegemony. The elite also wanted to establish US military bases in that strategic area and steal the massive supplies of oil (all of which occurred). It was also part of the long-term Jewish Yinon Plan to establish a Greater Israel that occupied large parts of Iraq.

So the various lies were put forward as reasons for an illegal invasion to topple a sovereign country and change the regime. The dossier that Tony Blair gave to Parliament was known at the time to be full of lies. The statements of UN weapons inspectors, such as Scott Ritter and Hans Blix were completely ignored. When David Kelly (UN inspector) formally stated to Parliament that the evidence was wrong he was murdered (yes, it was not suicide).¹⁴

There were no weapons of mass destruction. Britain was never under a 45-minute threat. The 'Yellow Cake' claim was proved to be false. The Niger tubes (to be used in nuclear devices) was also a fabrication. CIA agent whistleblower Valerie Plame had her life ruined (and her assets killed) in a smear campaign led by the White House. See the movie 'Fair Game' for a summary of this.

On the basis on known lies, Britain and America killed over a million innocent civilians and ruined Iraq, establishing Islamic blowback for decades. There are multiple examples of American soldiers torturing, raping, brutalising, and murdering men, women and children. Snipers have boasted about being able to shoot a baby being held in the mother's arms from a long distance. This is to say nothing of the effects of depleted uranium causing horrific birth defects.

The Iraq War was pure evil.

We could go on an on, with Yugoslavia, Libya, Syria, Yemen, Somalia, Afghanistan, Pakistan and more. The narrative is always filled with lies.

Food and health

These interconnected areas are fields of vast amounts of false information. I have written other papers on these topics in detail but here I will just make some simple points.

We are told that beef is bad for you and gives you cancer. In fact, good quality, organic grass fed beef is highly nutritious and does not give you cancer. The famous cattle drives of the American west show the vast amount of beef that was consumed by people that were far healthier than today where cancer was rare. You can see movies showing plates filled with huge steaks and hardly any vegetables that was a standard diet. Modern processed poorly-farmed beef will kill you, and that is what is mostly available in supermarkets. It is filled with toxins and hormones and then sealed in nitrate to preserve it.

¹⁴ He supposedly cut his wrists at the base of a tree but the paramedics found no blood at the scene.

We are told that fresh, organic, untreated milk is dangerous; in fact it is highly nutritious. It is filled with vitamins and minerals and even has antibiotic features. Pasteurised milk burns away all the goodness in natural milk and the processed feed and shots given to cows contain all sorts of chemicals, hormones for growth, synthetic antibiotics and these pass into the milk. In the BSE crisis cows were fed the crushed carcasses of sheep which led to prions and toxins in their feed, which resulted in Mad Cow Disease which in turn killed a certain number of people.

Modern farming processes ensure that all non-organic products are filled with toxins. These include: GMOs, pesticides, herbicides, insecticides, hormones, chemical fertilisers, and so forth. You cannot eradicate these. For example, modern non-organic apples are filled with toxins in their pulp and no amount of washing can get rid of the poison. The goodness of the apple is overwhelmed by the toxins present.

All processed food is harmful – all of it. There are multiple processes which turn the food into toxins, such as heat treatment, added salt, GMOs, E numbers, added sugar (High Fructose Corn Syrup) and hydrogenation. Some products, such as crisps, are processed chemicals, which are then heat-treated resulting in literally poison and no food content.

Hydrogenated fat is formed when an unsaturated oil is bombarded with high pressure hydrogen. This is how vegetable oil is turned into solid margarine. The economic advantage is that these have a longer shelf life and they are cheap to produce; but it is toxic.

Polyunsaturated oils are also bad for you. The lie about polyunsaturated fats developed after the false scaremongering about saturated fat and meat following Ancel Keys' false claims.¹⁵ This caused a massive change in social customs whereby people stopped eating healthy butter (one of the healthiest foods) and started eating what is essentially a type of plastic. This is because it is made with Hydrogenated fat. So natural organic butter or dripping is good for you not bad, while the supposedly healthy alternatives are bad for you and even cause cancer.

Transfats are the worst type of oils; yet they are commonly found in all sorts of fast food and processed food items. Yet saturated fats, as in red meat, are good for you. In fact your brain is made up of water, saturated fat and cholesterol.

The fear of cholesterol is a myth based on lies. Cholesterol is made from the liver to act as a repair system for damaged blood vessels and cells. If you have a high level it is not because you ate too much fat but because you have inflammation somewhere, possibly caused by insulin resistance. The answer is not to take statins, (which is shooting the messenger) but to stop the inflammation (usually a poor diet, such as processed food). Statins do no good but damage the liver, muscles and many other tissues – but they make over $12.5 bn a year.

All vegetable oils are dangerous and you should never cook with them – yet the lie is spread that these are healthy to use in cooking. Seed oils oxidise very quickly and especially when heated. This results in inflammation and oxidative stress. You should only cook with coconut oil, butter or animal fat – the very things you are told to avoid.

¹⁵ Keys [1904-2004] published his study 'The Biology of Human Starvation' in 1950 and his 'Seven Countries Study' in 1978 which hypothesised that replacing dietary fat with polyunsaturated fat reduced cardiovascular disease. This led to the lie about cholesterol. He said that full-fat milk and meat are bad while vegetable oils were great; the very opposite of the truth. It also led to the adoption of low-fat products replaced with High Fructose Corn Syrup products that cause disease. Later examinations of his data showed that he cherry-picked and presented fraudulent conclusions but the establishment (UN) supported his views.

Fruit juices should be avoided; they are unhealthy. Most fruit juices are processed and contain little actual fruit. Many orange juices only appear orange in colour because carrots are added to them. Most contain high levels of sugar. But fruit is already full of fructose and too much of this natural sugar is bad for you. Drinking constant smoothies of fruit or juices will cause health issues.

Processed breakfast cereals are almost universally bad for you. Most of these are forms of carbohydrate that is heat-treated and added to salts, sugars and chemicals. You are far better off having eggs, fruit, toast, organic cereals and home-baked goods.

This is just a fraction of a very large subject. Almost everything you are told is a lie and you need to do research to eat healthy and naturally.

Do not believe product information. Very often products that are stated to be healthy are the very worst items. Avoid anything saying 'fat-free' because that means that added sugar is used instead. Some products are even stated to be 'organic' when they contain GMO ingredients.

You have to wonder why the establishment has pushed certain agendas for 70 years that have resulted in creating bad health for consumers. Good natural products are demonised, such as organic eggs, which are very healthy, while processed stuff is promoted. Investigations have resulted in some areas being highlighted, such as the dangers of processed fast food, but nothing is done to stop consumers eating their way into disease.

The government has known about the dangers of microwaves since 1935. These evil things take healthy food and turn it into prions. The very worst and most dangerous type of food is to take a processed ready meal and microwave it. Yet hospitals, prisons, caterers and many individuals utilise such stuff every day.

It is almost as if the elite want to kill a lot of people through their food!

Medical issues

Studies have shown that doctors in America are the third highest cause of death. Doctors kill more people than accidents. Uncomfortable as it seems, it is a simple statistical fact. Multiple studies have corroborated this data.¹⁶ The New England Journal of Medicine showed that there were over 40,000 medical mistakes made EVERY Day in the US!¹⁷ Medicare patients' records from 2007 through 2009, showed that 1 in 9 patients developed a hospital-acquired infection. A study in the Archives of Internal Medicine in 2011, showed that sepsis and pneumonia caused by hospital-acquired infections killed 48,000 patients in 2006 alone. A June 2010 report in the Journal of General Internal Medicine said that in 62 million death certificates (1976 to 2006), almost a quarter-million deaths were coded as having occurred in a hospital setting due to medication errors. An estimated 450,000 preventable medication-related adverse events occur in the U.S. every year.

¹⁶ A JAMA article by Dr. Barbara Starfield, from Johns Hopkins School of public health, came to the conclusion that doctors (or the conventional medical system) were the third leading cause of death. Four years later Gary Null published a report which confirmed this. See: Dr G Null, book: Death by medicine, (2011).

In any other professional service, such a high level of casualties would be investigated but hospitals and doctors usually get away Scott free. Only in rare instances are hospitals subjects of public enquires, usually when many people have died in a short time frame.

I have repeatedly confronted doctors and specialists because they were wrong. In more than one case they have apologised to me and admitted it. I have caught doctors out giving wrong prescriptions several times. I demanded that one patient in a high dependency unit must not be given statins. The specialist ignored me and prescribed them. Within 24-hours the patient started to have liver damage and they were then removed. No apology.

The real problem today is that, due to the take-over of medicine by the Rockefeller Foundation after 1901, doctors are no longer focused on your well being but on prescribing a Big Pharma pill for your possible condition. All pills have side effects and all pills react with one another in unknown manners. Not even a chemistry professor can truly know the details of what occurs in the body but doctors certainly have little idea.

Why would doctors prescribe statins that damage the liver (and more)? Because they were told to by Big Pharma and were trained at Med school to trust Big Pharma. This is despite the provable track record of Big Pharma companies being the biggest crooks in world history. They have all been fined billions for multiple crimes; including killing people. Why would any intelligent person trust known criminals that lie with someone's life?

Cancer

We are constantly told that there is no cure for cancer and that it is the Holy Grail that requires constant charitable funding. This is a lie. Ordinarily cancer begins as a result of poor diet or environmental issues; therefore, the first defence is a robust immune system. Immune killer cells are constantly dealing with cancer cells that appear. But even when there is a major cancer issue, there have been multiple known healing products that get rid of cancer completely. These include Essiac (herbs), Vitamin B17 (apricot kernels), enzymes, sodium bicarbonate, Vitamin C, GCMaff (a type of protein) and many more. The problem is that these make no money for Big Pharma and are therefore outlawed for cancer treatment.

Instead we have medical oncology. By its own admission (the Journal of Oncology) the success rate of chemotherapy is less than 3%. Now if you need your car fixed you would not take it to a mechanic whose failure rate was over 97%, but people are happy to do this with their own lives. It is insane.

Medicine

Everybody trusts doctors know what they are prescribing; this is not the case. In many instances doctors prescribe medicines to people and they have no idea what the chemical processes are involved and what effect they will have; especially in combinations. Wrongful prescriptions kill hundreds of thousands of people every year. Not only that but doctors have no clue what is in vaccines, yet they give them to children. Vaccines routinely include carcinogens, aborted baby tissue (cell lines), and toxins like mercury (thimerosal), Polysorbate 80, formaldehyde, aluminium etc.

During the Covid crisis doctors were told to give patients Remdesivir and Midazolam. These drugs killed people, especially elderly people.

Remdesivir is an experimental antiviral that has dubious authenticity, not full authorisation. It causes a depletion of iron in the blood, which is the very thing that patients with hypoxia vitally need. It also causes kidney damage, liver damage and affects other organs. Treating elderly people with this was utterly stupid (but it is still being done). It must be given slowly over time and with constant blood tests to check for liver damage (was this done with the old?). If there is no observable improvement after two days the treatment should be stopped (was this done?).

Midazolam is a powerful sedative that is one of the ingredients used in US executions. The dose that was given to patients was ten times the normal dose and this was enough to kill certain people on its own. Midazolam can slow or stop you breathing, which is one of the key problems with Covid – so it will worsen the condition.

Patients on Midazolam must be watched carefully in a hospital setting to make sure that there are no side effects. Yet patients in hospital were left on their own for long periods, and often not even given water.

We could give lists of drugs that were once widely prescribed but ended up killing thousands of people, like Vioxx. Doctors prescribed these because they were lied to by Big Pharma and did no research.

In the 30s and 40s it was doctors that told the world population that smoking tobacco was not only safe but it was healthy. These doctors lied because they were paid by Big Tobacco. Doctors lied and millions died. This is not an isolated incident.

Why would hospitals and doctors demand that people wear facemasks? The science is now unequivocal; masks offer no material benefit to stopping a respiratory virus; none at all. However, they do cause a great deal of medical harm within minutes of wearing them. This decision is not based on science or good medical practice but on something else, such as fear or politics. Why make patients suffer CO₂ build up and bacterial build up if they are doctors?

Now doctors working in trauma and surgery do great jobs (usually) and this is an area that generally works well. What does not work well is the majority of doctors that work in dealing with chronic illnesses. The reliance on Big Pharma drugs in this field is one of the biggest problems in life today. Instead of treating the whole body and prescribing natural products like vitamins, minerals, exercise and such like (which do no harm), instead modern doctors simply prescribe a pill or multiple pills (which do active harm). It is this lie of allopathic medicine that is becoming a scourge in human society today.

Political lies

I doubt that this subject needs much proof. Politicians lie constantly.

Now there may be politicians with integrity that do not lie but these are rare animals. It used to be a convention that if an MP lied to Parliament he must resign, yet it can be proved that this happens all the time. Peter Osborne wrote a book¹⁸ about the massive rise of lying in the Blair governments. Nobody resigned over this.

In recent months it can be categorically proven that Boris Johnson lied on multiple occasions. If the Prime Minister can lie without sanctions, how much more a backbench MP?

It would be tedious to list examples of MPs lying and serve little point. Everybody is sick of politicians lying.

The Covid crisis provides a long list of specific lies told to the British people to keep them in fear over a flu or cold virus (see that section). To serve a globalist agenda, with ruinous social and economic consequences, politicians lied over and over again. We now know that both Left and Right wing politicians knew they were lying because the party-gate scandals showed that they did not believe that there was ever any serious threat to their health. The Health Minister broke his own rules with an illegal liaison. The PM's chief advisor broke the law regarding travel. The chief Imperial College modeller that initiated lockdown policies also broke the coronavirus laws on meeting other people. Various others were also caught out. Yet they imposed sanctions on ordinary people visiting their dying relatives.

Then we have the Ukraine conflict. Again, to serve a higher agenda, the PM and others have constantly lied about what is going on. The daily statements are absolutely sickening for those that have dug deeper into the facts. It is lie upon lie upon lie.

Then we have statements by Biden and other leaders blaming inflation upon Putin. A complete lie. Inflation was predicted due to the massive printing of money since 2008 and the massive waste of government spending to empty the coffers in the last two years. You cannot pay people not to work, print money to pay for it and not get inflation. The situation is worsened by supply chain problems that were caused by lockdown policies. The cessation of wheat and fertiliser exports from Russia and Ukraine have worsened the situation – but it has not created the problem. Added to this are the net zero Green initiatives which have increased energy prices and taxes.

Politics is based upon expediency and propaganda; and these require lying.

Economics

Politicians and central banks lie all the time about the economy. Their track record proves this to be a fact; yet no one holds them to account. Just check the track record of the Bank of England regarding inflation and projected growth; it has constantly been in error for years. It underestimates projected inflation and overestimates projected growth. Policies are based on these false conclusions. In every case independent economists predicted the correct figures because the laws of economics are well understood.

At this point in time establishment economists and political leaders are lying about the current inflation to hide the fact that they have caused this massive collapse that is raising the cost of living. Not only is British inflation actually much higher than the stated 7% (it is really closer to 15% or more)¹⁹ but the causes of inflation are not what is claimed. The real causes are these.

¹⁸ The Rise of Political Lying.

¹⁹ A couple of weeks later it rose to 9% and caused panic.

Wheat

Most of the blame for inflation is placed upon Vladimir Putin and the Ukraine War. Now the rise in the price of wheat is partially caused by this conflict because at least a third of global wheat is exported through Ukraine. As a result of this supply drying up other nations that normally export some wheat (e.g. India, Hungary) have stopped in order to protect themselves. So wheat prices have risen. Apparently the world has only ten weeks supply of wheat left; yet wheat forms 20% of global calories. But this is not the whole story.

Britain has contributed to a shortage of wheat by stupid political decisions based on Green agendas. [Farming is seen as a major cause of CO2 emissions; especially dairy farms. Thus the government's stupid commitment to net zero means discouraging farmers from continuing to farm.]

The first is the policy to discourage farmers from farming. The government gives farmers £100,000 to give up farming. Many struggling farmers have taken this up and therefore there is a corresponding reduction in wheat production.

The second is the government's incentive to rewild larger areas of Britain. Farmer's get subsidies to stop growing wheat and give that land over to wild flowers. While I would welcome rewilding where sensible, reducing food production when we were already only 60% self-sufficient is stupid.²⁰ As a result of this the Farmer's Union reckons that already Britain this year has lost 100 million tons of wheat production – just when we need more wheat than normal. Eventually this year bread will be a luxury item and then the food riots will begin. The lack of wheat and its high price will take us back to the suffering under the Corn Laws.²¹

Sanctions

The Russian sanctions are extremely stupid; they only strengthen Russia's resolve and severely weaken European economies.

Much of the world either opposes the sanctions or is neutral. These nations include large economies like India, Brazil and China, but also many smaller nations. Russia can increase its trading with partners and friendly nations to cover much of its shortfall in the loss of European markets.

The rouble initially dropped but quickly regained its place and is growing steadily. Now that it is competing with the Petro-Dollar for energy payments it is the dollar that is facing collapse not the rouble. Russia and China have also generated their own version of SWIFT and so are not affected by exclusion from it.

Oil is the big issue. Britain and the EU are trying to wean themselves off Russian oil/gas imports but this will take years, yet they are cutting back on Russian imports. At the moment they are dependent on Russia to a lesser or greater degree. Some EU nations are 100% dependent. Russia can sell more oil/gas to friendly nations but Europe cannot get these from anywhere else in sufficient supply. Biden tried to get Saudi Arabia to pump more oil but the crown prince refused to even take his call. Rising prices suit the Saudis; why would they increase supply?

²⁰ Vegan food is only 20% self-sufficient. Most Vegan products are imported.

²¹ Corn Laws: a series of 19th-century laws introduced to protect British farmers from foreign competition by allowing grain to be imported only after the price of home-grown wheat had risen above a certain level. They had the unintended effect of forcing up bread prices and were eventually repealed in 1846. [Oxford Dict.]

So the sanctions are causing rising energy prices in Europe which increases inflation of everything else. Russia is self-sufficient in these things (a litre of petrol is 35p), the nation is stable, Putin's popularity is rising and there is peace in Russian society. The sanctions are only hurting Europe; and they are hurting very badly.

All the hype about sanctions damaging Russia are utter lies. Politicians are pursuing a pointless political agenda that is self-defeating – yet they continue like idiots to damage their own people.

Quantitative Easing

This is the real cause of inflation. You cannot print tons of money without creating inflation. The West has printed trillions and now it is catching up in economic terms.

But added to the ordinary excessive printing of money was the effect of lockdowns of society; again an utterly pointless and stupid thing to do. To cover things like PPE spending, vaccine purchases and furlough schemes even more money was printed – and this has made inflation even worse.

So the main cause of inflation is government policy that is contrary to sound economic policy. It is the government that is the problem; not Vladimir Putin. Yet no one is explaining this in Parliament or in mainstream media. Instead lie after lie is being spouted to pass the buck.

Social upheaval agendas

Such would include: Extinction Rebellion, Insulate Britain, Black Lives Matter, Intersectionalism, White supremacy and colonialism revisionism, and Woke ideas.

Fully detailing these would take too much space here and I have covered them many times elsewhere. The point is that they are all based on lies. I will merely give some examples.

Protestors have tried to remove the statue of David Livingstone in Scotland claiming that he was tied to the slave trade. This is just preposterous. He was an ardent abolitionist and gave his life to serve Black people in Africa. He was so beloved by these tribesmen that they carried his body hundreds of miles to a British station.

Britain is attacked for its complicity in slavery. Every nation on Earth has engaged or profited from slavery for millennia. Slavery was a fact of life – that is until Britain abolished it and set about stopping slave trading internationally.

Slavery is focused upon Black slaves but White slaves have been much more common for centuries. In fact the word 'Slav' derives from 'slave' because so many millions of slaves were captured from the Balkans.

BLM is based on lies. It is an avowed Marxist movement that has resulted in more Black people dying in America due to reduced police activities and riots. It is not about freedom but violence and murder. The leadership is unable to account for $6m in donations but the leaders have purchased multiple mansions in predominantly White areas of the US. Also BLM paid $1.8m to companies owned by the founder's relatives.

Insulate Britain and Extinction Rebellion claim to care about saving the planet; by this they include caring about natural life. Yet their actions have constantly put people's lives in danger and some people have died as a result of their actions. This has occurred when ambulances were stopped from getting to a patient or getting to a hospital.

One can only conclude that people ardently supporting these movements are ignorant, dull, or plain evil. Their contribution to society is negative and dangerous. They do not love but delight in activism to give them purpose. This is shallow.

I have explained the lies behind the factionalism created by the social activists. It is part of a global elite plan to divide society into warring factions and create chaos; from which the elite can restructure society.

Scientism

Formally, scientism is excessive belief in the power of scientific knowledge and techniques. It is where science is considered to be the answer for everything (which is unscientific). In reality, it is the modern idolatry where the thoughts of men are taken to be authoritative in the place of God. It is rejection of the divine in order to place trust in what is called 'science'.

The problem is that science is never settled; there is no such thing as 'the science' which is a fixed, authoritative position (cf. 'follow the science'). Things that were historically considered to be settled science were often later proven to be wrong. True science is like water; it flows in a direction towards the truth but is ever moving and self correcting. Thus observation, experimentation, measurements, analysis and so on are all a part of science. Hypotheses are made and then tested to destruction. What is observably true are kept and what fail the test are discarded. Thus after the Reformation it was God-fearing theists that became the driving force of scientific exploration in search of truth. It was seeking to discover the laws of nature established by a divine lawgiver.

The problem today is that scientism reigns and this often results in bad science – but human pride and financial assets hinge on no one questioning them (which is what science is). The result is societal trust in lies because people demanded that it be seen as science. If the lie is stated by an expert, then it is axiomatic and cannot be challenged.

Here are some examples of lies purported to be science.

- Lie: The universe began with a Big Bang explosion. Q: There is no evidence for this at all. What matter was there to explode? Where did the space come from that it exploded into? Where did the energy come from to make the explosion? Why did it form ordered structures (e.g. solar systems) instead of random disorder? Why do some objects orbit in a different direction? Why does this theory require multiple phenomena that have no evidence (inflation, dark matter etc.).
- Lie: Life began on Earth when amino acids began to form spontaneously in a primordial chemical soup, leading to the creation of DNA. Q: DNA requires an intelligent designer; it is a language code. DNA requires protein but proteins require DNA. There is no known process whereby proteins can form out of nothing.
- Lie: Life develops by evolutionary processes, beginning with the simple and developing into the complex. Q: No life form is simple; even single-celled life-forms are irreducibly complex and show signs of intelligent design. There is no evidence of one animal species changing into another either in history or the fossil record. There is no known genetic process that would enable this species change; mutations are a deletion of genetic information. There is no evidence of any life-form adding information to its genome. If some vague kind of simple animal evolved from cellular creatures, what did the first animal eat and with whom did it mate? Ferns have a larger genome than man; are we all evolving into ferns? Where do insects come from? How did sexual reproduction evolve since it requires two types of physical genitalia to evolve at the same time?

- Lie: The Earth is 4.5 billion years old. Q: There is not a shred of evidence for this other than circular reasoning. There is much evidence that the Earth is only thousands of years old. Why are comets still observed? A uniform rate of salination, presumed by uniformitarianism, would make the ocean only 7,000 years old. Why is it that we only see less than 300 supernovas; there should be millions of them if the cosmos is billions of years old. The Earth's magnetic field can only be a few thousand years old. If Earth is billions of years old there should be meteoritic dust 182 feet thick. If the earth is 5 billion years old, the moon should be much further away due to recession of the moon.
- Lie: Dinosaurs lived millions of years before man appeared. Q: Historical records reveal many descriptions of dinosaurs in every country. There are many examples of human and dinosaur footprints (e.g. Hadrosaur or T-Rex) in the same rock. Fossilised dinosaur bones have been found to have collagen and blood tissue inside. Such things cannot survive for more than a few thousand years [T-Rex is supposed to be 65 million years old.].
- Lie: Lizards evolved into birds. Q: How did lizards evolve into birds when all their physiological systems are very different? A creature changing its structures would have died since it was neither one nor the other. [The blood system, bone structure, eyes, reproductive organs, heart, body structure are very different. For instance, changing a lizard skeleton to a bird's hollowed out bone structure would have led that lizard to break every bone in his body and be unable to feed.]
- Lie: There was no Biblical global flood. Q: Fossilisation rarely takes place in nature, so why are there millions of fossils? Surely this points to a catastrophic global flood? Every culture has historical references to a global flood (e.g. the Gilgamesh²² epic poem).
- Lie: Eohippus²³ evolved into the modern horse. Q: This has been proved to be false. In fact, the eohippus has more complex feet than a horse, thus reversing the principles of evolution.
- Lie: Recapitulation theory: Ernst Haeckel's claims that embryology reveals a former evolution. Q: This was based upon lies and imagination. Haeckel was prosecuted for fraud by his own university and his drawings of foetuses are falsified. Yet his teaching persist in school textbooks.

There is no shortage of blatant lies that are claimed to be 'science'.

Institutions

The Devil's practice of choice is deception. This is lying that is covered by a cloak pretending to be something else. The cloak enables the underlying lie to gain acceptance when it would be dismissed if it were in the open.

Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness. 2 Cor 11:14-15

Paul tells us that the ministers of Satan do exactly the same thing; they pretend to be one thing but in reality they are lying and are something evil. Therefore, one should not be surprised that the chief institutions in the world today are lying and are really about something evil.

²² Gilgamesh: A legendary king of the Sumerian city-state of Uruk in southern Mesopotamia. The Epic of Gilgamesh, one of the best-known works of ancient literature, was written in cuneiform on twelve clay tablets in c.2000 bc, and discovered among the ruins of Nineveh. The epic contains an account of a great flood that has close parallels with the Biblical story of Noah. [Oxford World Encyclopaedia.]

For a Christian this is not a conspiracy theory but Biblical logic. The Devil seeks to control the world by proxy. He is gathering world leaders under his strategic plans for world domination. Therefore, the institutions that have power in the world are satanic and only pretend to be beneficial. The systems of the world follow Satan.

All the world marvelled and followed the beast [Satan's global political system]. So they worshiped the dragon [Satan] who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast. Rev 13:3-4

Thus a full examination of major institutions would prove that their goals and practices are indeed satanic and full of lies. These are all globalist organisations because the Devil's goal is global control. Individual nation states must diminish and global entities assume planetary control. A few examples:

The World Economic Forum (WEF)

The WEF appears to have overtaken the Bilderberger Group (which has not met for three years) in terms of being a collection of the political and corporate leaders of the world planning to set out the future of mankind. It is a Socialist organisation seeking to establish a collectivist set of policies covering politics, medicine, corporatism, research and so on. It does this by a form of hybrid political/corporatist governance (stakeholders).

Its strategies include: eugenics, the Fourth Industrial Revolution (digital domination of society), technocracy, the Great Reset (the New World Order = Agenda 2030); domination of medicine (chiefly vaccine programmes) and the reconstruction of society into a communist hive full of serfs.

Its leaders have ties to German Nazis²⁴ and most Western nations are submitted to its objectives.

GOAL: GLOBAL CORPORATE CONTROL.

The World Health Organisation (WHO)

The WHO is a fully corrupt organisation that is certainly not bent on promoting medical health. It is run (now in a second term) by a former corrupt terrorist with no medical qualifications. It is also funded significantly by Bill Gates who uses this influence to promote his eugenic goals; chiefly through toxic vaccine programmes which have already killed and maimed tens of thousands of African and Indian poor women and children.

At this very moment the WHO is seeking, by treaty, to gain sovereignty over every nation in the world with regard to epidemics and pandemics (which only it decides upon). It intends to overrule national policies and demand that a sovereign nation follow its directions to curb disease, such as by enforcing lockdowns and facemasks (neither of which are any use in inhibiting a viral epidemic). It is really about establishing medical control over every human being. In time this will lead to mandatory vaccines (which is already being avidly discussed).

²⁴ George Soros was a Nazi collaborator that betrayed his fellow Jews in WWII. Klaus Schwab's father, Eugen, was a German Nazi collaborator involved in trying to develop an atomic bomb.

During the Covid crisis statements made by the WHO were flat out lies and policy decisions made the epidemic worse. It continues to lie to achieve its goals.

GOAL: GLOBAL MEDICAL CONTROL.

The United Nations (UN)

The UN seeks to have power over all nations and works to get nation states to submit its sovereign institutions to globalist UN controlled mechanisms.

Its goals are set out in Agenda 21 and Agenda 2030. This plan is a Socialist take-over of the world through globalism. Its deception is the Green, sustainable cover story. In reality it seeks to centre human populations into large, digital-driven urban societies and rewild the countryside – which only the rich can access. Society becomes a hive full of worker drones living in dystopian conditions – a mixture of Orwell’s 1984 combined with Huxley’s Brave New World.

Everywhere that the UN has had a certain jurisdiction, for example during and after the wars in Bosnia and Kosovo, the UN presided over deep corruption which included failing to stop massacres and trafficking women as sex slaves. As an example of the latter see the Rachel Weisz movie ‘The Whistleblower’.

The benevolent role of the UN is a massive lie.

GOAL: GLOBAL POLITICAL CONTROL.

The Central Banks

Central banks are in most countries of the world and are privately owned by shareholders with a controlling interest by the usual suspects. Even the Federal Reserve is a private entity and is not a federal institution. In fact it is an illegal construct under the US constitution, set up by a conspiracy in 1913.

The central banks run a system of Fiat-money (money from thin air) based on debt, which ever grows. It essentially bleeds nations by interest payments for the benefit of printing currency. The people that control the money supply control the government. The whole system is based on fraud, corruption and lies.

Eventually the elite plan is to destroy the global economy and out of the ashes create a new single, global currency controlled by the central banks (almost certainly digital) that will arise to enable the control of the world.

GOAL: GLOBAL MONETARY CONTROL THROUGH A GLOBAL CURRENCY.

Church lies

This is a huge subject because there are so many lies. Most of these would be the basis of various heresies, but there are lies of practice outside of doctrinal heresies. The average Christian is subjected to an encyclopaedia of lies and it is difficult to wade through them all over the years, unless he has a good teacher.

To list these lies would require many books and my readers are familiar with many of them through my previous papers. Here are a few:

- Lie: A person must have a mystical experience called the ‘baptism in the Spirit’ in order to become a special type of Christian with access to supernatural grace gifts. Truth: All believers in Christ are equal and have equal access to grace. There are no second class citizens of the kingdom. Rm 16:24, ‘The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all’.
- Lie: Church comprises two different groups: there is the clergy; a class of superior leaders closer to God than others, and then there is the laity: who are ordinary believers subservient to the clergy. Truth: the priesthood of all believers. 1 Pt 2:9, ‘you [plural] are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people’.
- Lie: There is a class of church leaders above all others that are designated apostles and prophets. Their word must be obeyed. Truth: The apostles of the Lamb with special grace were the 12, which includes Paul²⁵ (Rev 21:14, ‘the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb’). The apostles of the churches are essentially missionaries who plant churches (2 Cor 8:23, ‘they are messengers [apostolos] of the churches’). They have no special authority in their home church. The formal office of prophet ceased with John the Baptist (Matt 11:13, ‘all the prophets and the law prophesied until John’). New Covenant prophets are those who speak the words of God to edify the church.
- Lie: We receive salvation after we make a decision for Christ from our own free will. Truth: God is sovereign in salvation and draws those he chooses from eternity. Rm 9:15-16, ‘For He says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion." So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy’.
- Lie: Once a person is converted they can behave how they want and will still be saved. Truth: True believers will do good works and bear witness to Christ. Anyone not walking in repentance and following Christ was never saved in the first place (Gal 5:19-21, ‘Now the works of the flesh are evident ... those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God’). Only true believers will be preserved. Col 1:10, ‘that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work’.
- Lie: A secret rapture, when Christ returns to Earth secretly as opposed to openly, will rescue Christians from the Great Tribulation. Truth: There is no secret rapture mentioned in Scripture. The word ‘rapture’ does not appear in most versions of the Bible. Christ only returns to Earth once, in glory. Titus 2:13, ‘looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ’. The various words used (appearing, coming, revelation) refer to the same event.
- Lie: Speaking in gibberish is the gift of angelic tongues. Truth: Angels are not human or materialistic and don’t have a spoken language.²⁶ They are spiritual beings. The gift of tongues was speaking human languages, foreign to the speaker’s knowledge, glorifying God as a testimony to foreigners. It soon passed away in the early church after doing its job of testifying to the authenticity of the Gospel. Acts 2:6-8, ‘And when this sound occurred, the multitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language. Then they were all amazed and marvelled,

²⁵ I take the view that Matthias was a mistake. He was chosen before the Spirit had been received and he is never mentioned again. There are only 12 apostles of the Lamb and Paul clearly states that he was one of these.

²⁶ 1 Cor 13:1, ‘Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels’, is figurative poetic language and not referring to fact.

saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each in our own language in which we were born?"

- Lie: Christians should give 10% of their money to charity or the church. Truth: Christians should give everything they have to God because it originated as a gift from him in the first place. Thus they should freely give their time, money, love, counsel, assistance etc, whenever God tells them to. In terms of money, Christians should give what their heart tells them to, large or small, as God directs. 2 Cor 9:7, 'So let each one give as he purposes in his heart'.
- Lie: A church is a dedicated building given over to worship. Truth: The church is a company of local people given over to fellowship, mutual edification and worship. Acts 17:24, '[God] does not dwell in temples made with hands'. Col 1:18, 'He is the head of the body, the church'. 1 Cor 11:18, 'when you come together as a church'.

We could go on. The Devil seeks to pervert the truths of Christianity and this is done by lies.

Social lies

Lies are now endemic in British culture. It is hard to find anyone that is completely focused on the truth; instead people see lying as a normal part of life.

Thus CVs (American, 'resumes') have become pointless. Employers pay little attention to them. This is because exaggeration of qualifications and experience, and just plain lies, fill the pages of CVs. Employers pay more attention to job interviews than anything else.

Children are brought up with the lie that Father Christmas exists and parents wonder why they lose trust when a child finds out that he is a myth. Then there is the myth of the tooth fairy and teeth that mysteriously turn into money overnight. Why do children need such nonsense?

Kids are brought up on all sorts of fables. They are told that good things happen to good people and bad things happen only to bad people. Thus when a good kid goes through a crisis he begins to doubt himself and develop mental issues. They are told that a university education will guarantee them a good job; only to find university graduates stacking shelves in Tesco.

People grow up believing that a 'white lie' is acceptable. At what point does a white lie become grey or black? No one is comforted by a lie, no matter what the colour.

Most people believe in situation ethics; that is, that it is acceptable to lie about a matter if the goal is righteous. But no lie ever established something righteous.

So as a child grows he realises that he was fed with lies as an infant. His parents lied to him on multiple occasions. His friends lie. He learns that politicians lie all the time. His teachers at school lie all the time, such as in evolutionary theory or climate change teachings. He finds out that the media is a pack of lies. He then finds out that the history he was taught is a lie [History is a pack of lies, William Stubbs]. He learns that celebrities lie all the time. He realises that the established church lies. And so it goes on; culture is rammed full of lies.

Only God's word and Christ are truth and only those walking in Christ's Spirit can live in truth. This is why Christians are a threat in modern society. The truth cannot be allowed to be expressed in a culture that is riven from top to bottom with lies. The truth shines in the darkness and exposes it. Thus truth must be silenced with censorship and deletion.

Truth exists, only lies are invented.
Georges Braque.

Oh what a tangled web we weave when first we practice to deceive.
Sir Walter Scott, 'Marmion: A tale of Flodden Field'.

Examples

The Buffalo shooting

The Buffalo shooter isn't a Lone Wolf; he's a mainstream Republican.
Rolling Stone magazine, 15 May 2022.

This is a complete lie. In fact the shooter's manifesto showed that he hated FOX News and castigated Right Wing journalists. He demonstrated Left Wing sympathies and, oddly, supported the Ukrainian Nazi Azov battalion and Green nationalism. He described himself as 'mild-moderate authoritarian left category'.

The massive mainstream media hype of this event shows how disproportionate their bias is. At the same time there were hundreds of shootings and murders all over America, especially in Chicago, many of which were perpetrated by Black people. Instead of a proportionate reporting of facts, the media did a huge spread on this in order to add weight to the denigration of White on Black killings.

The Azovstal siege

This siege in Mariupol ended with the surrender of the Azov battalion troops, other militants, mercenaries and some civilians. They walked out with a white flag and surrendered to the Russians – who treated them well and took them to detention centres for processing.

This could not be tolerated by the UK media which had whipped up emotional support for these Nazis treating them as heroic die-hards. So the media never used the term 'surrender' but instead said that the Azovstal plant was 'evacuated'.

Covid vaccines

Covid vaccines are safe and effective.
Scientific American, 17 February 2021.

The coronavirus vaccines are safe and effective. They give you the best protection against Covid-19.
NHS, 'Coronavirus vaccine'.

Vaccine booster jabs are safe and effective.
The Telegraph, 9 September 2021.

In fact the vaccines are neither safe nor effective and this was known even during the Pfizer trials. The data on this is conclusive and continues to roll in. It is overwhelming. Every country shows the same story. I will summarise the position based on data from the ONS, VAERS, UKHSA, and MHRA.

- The vaccines achieve a negative effectiveness state in the hundreds of minus percentage points at various time intervals in different age groups.

- The vaccines gradually destroy the immune system, chiefly by damaging N-cells and other mechanisms.
- The knowledge of this was known in the Pfizer trials where more people died in the vaccinated group. The results were exaggerated and falsified to get licensing.
- Pfizer performed a trial of adverse reactions between December 2020 and February 2021. It showed 1200 deaths and thousands of adverse effects. The results were kept confidential but the FDA, health authorities and governments knew this. 1200 deaths was sufficient to terminate the rollout. Pfizer could possibly have claimed involuntary manslaughter at that point. But since everyone pursued the rollout while knowing the effects, that is murder. A number of people²⁷ are pursuing murder charges against Bill Gates, President Biden, the vaccine manufacturer CEOs and others around the world. This is the biggest scandal in world history.
- Currently, most of the people in hospital with Covid in many countries are vaccinated, especially Israel (where 90% in hospital are vaccinated). You are much more likely to get Covid and suffer if you are vaccinated. You are more likely to be hospitalised. You are more likely to die. Excess mortality figures that were normal in the 'pandemic' of 2020 have risen steeply since the rollout of the vaccines.
- The side effects are truly horrific and include: death, heart attack, myocarditis, blindness, deafness, thrombosis, lung disease, liver damage, stroke, auto-immune disease and much more.
- Official UK MHRA figures show that over 2000 people have died from the vaccine and over a million and a half British people have had an adverse reaction. The MHRA admits that this is only a fraction of the true figures, The UKHSA stated that 92% of all the pandemic-related deaths in England in March were among the vaccinated. 70,000 have died in America, UK, the EU combined. In reality we can multiply this by 100. Subsequently, the ONS published figures showing that 69,466 people in England died within 28 days of a Covid vaccine and 178,874 died within 60 days between January 2021 and March 2022.²⁸

Climate

An intense heatwave is sweeping through northern India with temperatures hitting a record 49.2C in parts of the capital, Delhi. ... India is now recording more intensive, frequent heatwaves.

BBC, World News, India.

Utter lies. Temperature data going back to 1973 shows that there has only been one day since 2000 when temperatures reached 46C in New Delhi in contrast to the 1940s and 1990s.

The BBC is using figures generated by weather recordings close to heat sources like airports, which give exaggerated figures.

Russia's economy

Russia's economy is collapsing.

The Times, 3 March 2022.

This was part of the anti-Russian Ukraine conflict propaganda, which constantly reversed the truth.

²⁷ E.g. Dr David E Martin and co. in Utah, a woman lawyer in India and Reiner Fuellmich in Germany.

²⁸ ONS, 'Number of deaths within 28 days of Covid-19 vaccination in England'.

In fact, the rouble rose against the pound and the dollar after this date. The Russian economy was stable, gasoline was cheap, there was no social unrest, support for Putin grew and there was no major inflation. In Britain, inflation went through the roof to 'apocalyptic' levels; growth was stagnating, the NHS was collapsing, the care system was in complete collapse, taxes increased, petrol was at all time high prices, some petrol stations ran out of supplies and there were calls for government intervention to assist the poor.

Conclusion

This is merely scratching the surface. The modern world is almost entirely based upon lying and deception. This is why there is such an attack on the truth and truth-sayers. All over the Internet people that stand for the truth are censored, banned, deleted, smeared and even attacked. Doctors that speak out against modern practices are struck off by the GMC. Good journalists lose their jobs. Truthful professors are de-platformed. Good YouTube channels are deleted.

Only those practising deception need to fear alternative views. Therefore, those people that encourage the censorship of other views are clearly the one's to avoid for true information because they fear the truth.
