

The Satanic Plan: introductory principles

This paper is the introduction to my paper, 'Money and power for satanic destruction'.

None of these principles are denied by sound Bible scholars and, indeed, most believers.

The devil hates God and all the things of God

The devil hates God's attributes and is the reverse of those attributes. Thus the devil is a liar when God is the truth;<sup>1</sup> the devil is the 'evil one' while God is holy;<sup>2</sup> the devil brings death whereas God brings life;<sup>3</sup> and so on.

The devil hates the offspring of God

Thus Satan makes war on the saints and is our perpetual enemy.<sup>4</sup> He is the enemy of the faith, the accuser of the brethren, and the roaring lion seeking someone to devour.<sup>5</sup>

The devil is consumed with hatred for believers because they are the true sons of God in Christ and have been given authority to judge angels,<sup>6</sup> which is what Satan is. For the created spirit being, Satan, who aspired to rule heaven and rebelled against God, to be placed under men formed from dust, is for him the most monstrous of insults.

Driven mad by his rage, Satan actually thinks that he has a chance of winning against God and so pursues his strategy against God's children on earth with ferocity.

The devil will consume and destroy everything in order to achieve his goal

Since he is insane, he will stop at nothing to try to overthrow all that God has created. He needs the world in order to have a habitation, having been thrown out of heaven long ago.<sup>7</sup> He needs men in order to express himself since he is an immaterial spirit. Indeed, he wants to usurp man, made in the image of God, and turn mankind into the image of himself.

So, with these provisos (he needs the world and he needs men) he is prepared to ruin anything necessary to achieve these goals of sovereignty over man's creations, of the natural world and mankind.

This means that he cares little about destroying most of the natural world or even most of mankind. If he can end up with an impoverished world inhabited by a few million people who are all submitted to him and the church is fully destroyed, he will be happy. That is his goal, a world fully submitted to him and not God with all traces of the church destroyed. If this results in the deaths of billions of people and the destruction of much of the world's habitat, he cares nothing at all.

The devil has been restricted for centuries

Satan's aims are so evil and destructive that God restrained him from going too far for centuries.<sup>8</sup> He tried to establish his world order through a variety of world empires (really regional empires) from time to time. Examples would be the Assyrian Empire, the Persian Empire, the Greek Empire and the Roman Empire (which are highlighted by Scripture). There were also many smaller empires in the last 5,000 years: various empire dynasties in China, Mongolia, Egypt, the Near East,<sup>9</sup> Babylonia, Eastern Europe, Africa, the Americas and so on. Shaka Zulu had a bigger empire in Zululand in the 19th century than Alexander the Great.

Every time the influence of Satan became too great in these empires, God put the brakes on and they suddenly faded away, either by war or internal decay. Each time Satan had to start again and by being restrained was unable to create a world empire under his sovereignty.

At the end the restraint is loosed

In the timing and sovereignty of God, there comes a time when the restraint on Satan is withdrawn and he is allowed to gather his global totalitarian empire under the proxy of a man, or a system of men.<sup>10</sup>

When this occurs, the rage of Satan is intense since he knows that his time is short.<sup>11</sup> He knows this because he understands the Scriptures even though he seeks to overthrow them.<sup>12</sup>

The divine purpose of this loosening

Satan thinks that his time has come, but in reality God is allowing the sinfulness of man to reach its peak under the control of the being that started man's sinful decline in the first place. Mankind comes to the fulness of its sin, Satan comes to the fulness of his rebellion, and then God will bring the harvest of judgment and reap all sinners for condemnation.

The purpose of God is then fulfilled by gathering the elect from all corners of the earth and from all time periods to settle them back on a restored and renewed earth where heaven and earth meet in harmony.<sup>13</sup> God will then dwell with men through Christ for eternity.<sup>14</sup>

Satan, and all his human followers who ignored the truth of the Gospel, are sentenced to the Lake of Fire, which is an eternal hell full of condemnation and torment.<sup>15</sup>

The satanic working in the time of loosening

As a spirit being, Satan has to work through men to change things on the earth; thus Satan has always had agents that work for him to achieve his goals. While Satan can lead all types of men through temptation and lusts, there are always those who give themselves over to serve Satan in a fuller capacity. Some of these are servants in a religious sense, Satanists and devil worshippers (through one system or another);<sup>16</sup> but many others are fully paid up servants of Satan who are not religious at all. These are politicians and commercial controllers who serve Satan through their machinations, but are less worshippers of Satan than seekers after power and money.

Thus the Bible gives us many descriptions of the time at the end when certain characteristics reign in society.

Key events in this time of loosening

Without long discussion, I will simply list items.

The gathering of humanity into a single, global world empire under Satan.

The control of this empire is under the man of sin, the man of lawlessness.<sup>17</sup> We can debate whether this is a single individual (the Antichrist) or mankind as a corporate entity (man considered as the temple of God indwelt by Satan).

There is a secular rule of this empire under a despotic system of control and also a religious arm presided over by a false prophet.<sup>18</sup>

The empire will provide stability after a time of upheaval<sup>19</sup> followed by unrestrained hedonism, affluence, greed and wickedness. It is a time of great commercial activity.<sup>20</sup>

In the early part of the loosening, the church finally succeeds in preaching the Gospel to all mankind. Every part of the world has a Gospel witness in some form.<sup>21</sup>

Yet, at the same time, the church is plagued by a massive injection of deception and many fall away. As the devil rises in his expression in the world, the church apostatises on an unprecedented level.<sup>22</sup>

Also during the early part of this loosening, ungodliness in society in general reaches a climax.<sup>23</sup> Moral factors long considered as fundamental ethical issues are overturned in a formal way by governments.

The true church is then ruthlessly persecuted while a formal false church is sponsored by the world government.<sup>24</sup> Over time, the false church is coerced into worshipping Satan through deception.<sup>25</sup>

When is this loosening?

Now many think that the period of development towards a global government is rapid and that its control lasts for only a few years, some say seven others say 3½, but there is no scriptural warrant for this. Indeed, the Dispensational form of this is recent, having only existed since around 1830 onwards and this has become the majority Protestant view through the activity of Satan by human proxies.<sup>26</sup>

Scripture does not affirm this rapidity at all; in fact, it emphasises that the principles of the Antichrist were already existent in the time of the apostles. I have made the case that the time of loosening is seen from when its fruits are evidenced in the world, and a good case can be made that this occurred in the mid-19th century.<sup>27</sup> It was after this that technology accelerated rapidly, world wars began, global developments were initiated and the church began to be savagely attacked by Liberalism, Modernism, Secularism, Humanism and a multitude of false teachings, followed by massive sectarianism and a falling away.

I personally have no doubt that we have been in the time of loosening, and its massive degeneration of society and the church, for over a hundred years.

The upshot

If this is true, then we should have been seeing all sorts of confirmation of the satanising of the church and the world for decades. I maintain that we are seeing exactly this, and it gets worse every day.

The reason for the apostasy in the church, the decline of Christian principles in western society, the legalisation of sin, the corruption of ethics, the breakdown of institutions like marriage, the evil global manipulation of commerce, politics and the media, is all due to the increasing influence of Satan during his period of loosening.

Christians need to understand this and study the Biblical teaching on this subject so that they can be prepared for the future. This is only the beginning.
