

The Expression of the Man of Sin

Characteristics of the final Antichristian Kingdom

If we want to know what the final Antichristian kingdom looks like, then the last thing we do is go to obscure OT prophecies and speculate what might happen. That has no authority at all because it rests upon our subjective interpretation of obscure passages. But this is what book after book has done for centuries.

Premillennial authors especially fail in this regard and book after book contains teaching that is contrary to the one that went before. This is why Premillennialism has so many deviations and divisions: Historical Premillennialism (the most conservative and useful); Dispensational Premillennialism (the most radical and erroneous), which is divided into Pre-Tribulationism, Mid-Tribulationism and Post-Tribulationism. There are also the forms Classical Dispensationalism, Hyper Dispensationalism, Ultra Dispensationalism, Neo Dispensationalism and Progressive Dispensationalism. All of these disagree with each other. This subjectivity is not the way forward.

The truth is going to be found by establishing certain Biblical protocols and principles and then expounding them. The first protocol is to have a clear understanding of the Bible's teaching about the end, established upon solid, literal, didactic passages (not obscure figurative prophecies). I have written about this many times and it need not be repeated here. In my view (and the chief historical view of the church) is that the Amillennial system is the closest to Biblical teaching, and thus the first protocol is the format of this type of eschatology.

Having this as a skeleton of what is going to happen, we then must determine the protocol of purpose. This means establishing what God's purpose in creation and salvation is, but also what the devil's purposes are in opposition to God. Many have lost their way by getting both of these things wrong. We will look at these shortly which I have expounded in my paper, The Satanic Purpose.

When we have established these two protocols and have a rough skeleton of facts about the end and God's purpose, then we can start to determine certain principles that flow from these. It is these principles which allow us to make speculations about the character of the final world kingdom that are both logical and Biblical.

The purpose behind doing all this is so that Christians can understand what is going on, what is really going on, in these dark times. As a result of this they can do good works that have relevance and meaning. So many works done by Christians today are utterly pointless because they fly in the face of what God is actually doing, and so they work against God's plan.

For example: I have had contact with Christians whose sole purpose in life is to lobby, protest, march, shout and leaflet about the downgrade in society, chiefly Gay issues that are becoming legalised. They feel that it is their duty to try to fight to change society to be what it used to be, which they think will be a Christian victory. What they have forgotten is that the world is not our home and that we do not fight to change this world to be a better place. That is not God's purpose at all. Jesus came to bring division not peace (Matt 10:34). If God's plan is that society gets worse and worse to be the expression of the old nature in fulness, then protesting and marching to make the world morally better is actually to work against God's plan. They have failed to understand what God is doing in the world and actively work against him. Their job is to preach the Gospel, edify the saints and glorify God in the church, doing what good they can to their neighbours.

If we do not understand the end times then we will fail to act appropriately in them. This is why there is so much teaching on eschatology in the NT. Of the 27 NT books, 24 have references to the Second Coming. Of 270 chapters, 216 refer to it. One verse in every 25 refers to it (7975 verses, 319 references). God intends that we should understand the end times properly and be prepared so that we can watch and pray effectively. This paper is being written to help you do that.

The essential principle to be grasped

I just mentioned that Christians can actually fight against God's will through ignorance. This is far more common than you may think. The vast majority of Christians have no clue about what is really going on in the world and therefore find themselves working at odds with God, even working with his enemy. The devil is laughing his metaphysical socks off at the antics of most church people.

Now, if we are in a period in or near the end-time (as most will accept) then there are some things that need to be understood.

The more enlightened believer understands that the end-time will be ruled by an antichristian, global kingdom that is the final expression of Satan through the man of sin; mankind in all its wicked fulness. Whether this reign of outright sin is years, decades or a hundred years away, most Christians believe that the plans are underway to get us to this point. In fact they have been underway for over a hundred years.<sup>1</sup>

Since the global evil empire takes time to develop, it stands to reason that governments (and the powers that pull their strings) are working towards this right now. Your government is planning and working towards building this antichristian empire right now. Strategies are being put into operation that facilitate this future evil empire.

Aside: This means that the idea of a true Christian national leader is nonsense. Satan and his cohorts will not let a man get in their way to build this global totalitarian state by stealth. There have been multiple claims that a president / Prime Minister was a Christian (e.g. Tony Blair or GW Bush Jr.). In fact these were very wicked rulers whose reigns were iniquitous and who face serious allegations of wickedness in their personal life. Yet many Christians voted for them or even defended them. National leaders are picked from secret societies or are nurtured by them for their purpose. Their main task is to take the attention from the men really pulling the strings. Democracy is all illusion.

This is why so many bad things are not only happening before our eyes, but are being legislated for. For instance the legislation of Gay marriage or the ordination of women Anglican bishops are not isolated bad events but are part of a plan to affect society in a certain way.

So, the strategies and actions of national governments are already working to a demonic plan to introduce a global antichristian empire in due course.

The root of governmental planning is an antichristian strategy right now. It is not doing what it should be doing. It is not representing the people. It is not a democracy. It is representing Satan by drip-feeding wicked social changes.

Now if you do not realise this you will end up supporting the devil's work.

Now I have had arguments with brethren on certain matters regarding state policies and the evil they cause, such as austerity measures that deliberately target the poor and disabled and have created 4 million hungry people. Yet Christians have defended this government on these issues; indeed some Christian leaders are actively involved in the government as advisors working to bring them about.

Now at the moral level these wicked policies are ungodly and unrighteous because the government's first task is to protect the needy, help the poor, comfort the sick and care for the orphans and widows; in short to look after the poor and vulnerable. The current wicked British government has caused much needless death and suffering by benefit cuts; policies that have manifestly saved no money at all (the debt is worse). This is bad enough.

But worse than that simple moral issue, the government is using these (and other) measures to actually bring about the path to a world antichristian government. Its policies are demonic and evil. Therefore, any support of this government is actually a sin because it is working against God's will and supporting God's enemy.

If you do not see this, as well as being blind, you will become completely ineffective.

This principle: that national governments are already well underway in paving the path to a global, wicked, antichristian empire, is fundamental to understanding the expression of the man of sin at the end.

ASIDE: What about the red-herring of 1 Tim 2:1-4? This does not mean blind submission to kings and earthly laws. We are told to pray for rulers so that we should have a quiet and peaceful life in order to evangelise. It is easier to preach the Gospel in a peaceful, liberal society than in a violent, repressive society. There is no indication here that we must submit to, and respect, wicked rulers and their antichristian policies. I have seen Christians use this passage to vehemently defend people like Tony Blair or GW Bush. Then time passed and the fulness of their wickedness became clearer and these Christians were left embarrassed. Yet the fact of their wickedness was well known beforehand.

Expressions of the end

Principle: The social world is normal.

As the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. Matt 24:37-39

As in the prelude to both Sodom and the flood, social life is normal. The end is not a post apocalyptic world like the Terminator films; everything carries on just as it always has.

Now the media works full tilt, through books, movies, television dramas, radio plays and so forth, to show that the end of the world is dystopian. This dystopia is portrayed in many ways: the massive worldwide destruction and control by machines as in the Terminator films; the proliferation of zombies; attacks by alien spacecraft; the earth hit by a comet; the sun burning up the earth; the regression of society to become stone age; and many more.

The reason for this is to mollify people and deceive them that society today is nothing like this and is thus fairly safe; that the end of the world is far away waiting for some catastrophic event. Meanwhile, those really in power are already fully occupied progressing the final expression of Satan in a global empire that will control the world's population right now.

The end is not a world ruled by zombies or destroyed by a comet; it continues with all the normal societal patterns functioning as before. Indeed, the final kingdom is a very successful mercantile empire that is riddled with hedonism, luxury and opulence. The book of Revelation makes very clear that the Babylonian kingdom of the end gives luxury and self-gratification to all that serve her.

We are already in a situation where the preparation for the end-time fascist government is well underway. The fair face of national governments (not that there is much of this) is hiding the fact that the essential root of the government is a satanic plan for the end. Your politicians are mostly working to a wicked end.<sup>2</sup>

Principle: non-Christians support a despotic antichristian kingdom.

Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me, 'Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication.' Rev 17:1-2

The populace supports the evil developments of the antichristian government. This government will bring a relative peace and economic development. If you are not a Christian, you will flourish. The relationship of supportive non-believers to the state is equivalent to being drunk; it is a mindless, dumbed-down acceptance of what the state imposes so long as they can lead their normal pointless lives.

Not only will economic stability make nations rich, but spare cash will enable people to concentrate upon frivolous entertainment, superficial employment and sinful lusts. The world system is compared to a harlot with whom leaders fornicate and with whom the populace becomes drunk. The world gorges itself on the sinful opportunities provided by a time of peace and security. At the end, most of the population of nations will be drunk; they are in too much of a stupor from their hedonism to be any threat to the power elite.<sup>3</sup>

With a docile and fearful population, the antichristian kingdom can do what it wants and introduce any policy. Thus when it legislates to kill all Christians, the population does

<sup>2</sup> There are still a few maverick honest MPs, but very few. These usually hold no ministerial power. Tom Watson, Simon Danczuk and Zac Goldsmith come to mind. I know nothing of their personal life but they have acted with independent integrity in the House, causing problems for the government.

<sup>3</sup> Note, for example, the current easy, free availability of porn to anyone with a computer. This has never happened before in history; hard-core porn was very difficult to access. This availability is characterised as liberty by many; in fact it is a drug used to stupefy the masses and disrupt family life.

nothing to stop it. Note: this happened before during the ten periods of Roman Imperial Christian persecutions. Thousands of believers were killed in single events; tens of thousands were killed overall.<sup>4</sup>

The end is not a time of mass revolution against the empire; the secular population supports it.

Principle: the secular world experiences affluence through a mercantile empire

Supporters of the totalitarian end-time state will enjoy unlimited hedonism and wealth.

'Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come.' And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore: merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet, every kind of citron wood, every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object of most precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble; and cinnamon and incense, fragrant oil and frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and souls of men. The fruit that your soul longed for has gone from you, and all the things which are rich and splendid have gone from you, and you shall find them no more at all. The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls! For in one hour such great riches came to nothing.' Every shipmaster, all who travel by ship, sailors, and as many as trade on the sea, stood at a distance and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like this great city?' They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city, in which all who had ships on the sea became rich by her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.' Rev 18:10-19

When the Lord returns and Babylon is judged, the scene is not one of famine, poverty, war, or nuclear destruction; it is one of mercantile success and wealth. The scene at the end is one of great riches, with every luxury imaginable.

This requires an economic reset from where we are today where the west is built on an empire of worthless paper money, banker fraud, government lies and the dollar is teetering on the edge of a fiscal cliff.

The coming change from the dollar to the Yuan, from the west to the east, from fiat-money to a new gold standard,<sup>5</sup> may or may not be the beginning of this antichristian empire, but it will be a new world order.

However, the key point here is that at the end there is an abundance of riches, luxury and affluence based on trade.

<sup>4</sup> There is a work of art showing a Persian ruler (under orders from the Roman emperor) killing 10,000 Christians in one offensive using a variety of means.

Principle: Satan works particularly in the power bases of the elite, international structures, corporate high command and national governments.

Satan has always worked from the top down in society, first dominating an emperor and then infiltrating the elite commanders and politicians in the empire. The political structure of the empire becomes totally infiltrated with satanic purposes and attitudes. Thus policies are enforced which may go completely against the majority of the population that has not been twisted into accepting satanic ideas. Therefore, the population is either controlled or crushed into submission.

This means that at any given time the elite strata of society, the movers and shakers, in business, politics and the media, will be more seriously affected by satanic principles than others lower down the scale.

The ordinary person is then controlled by the elite in a number of ways.

- They can be crushed by force of arms into submission and enslaved (as the Israelites in Egypt).
- They can be controlled by fear into subservience (as in the Soviet Socialist Republic under Stalin or East Germany under the Stasis).
- They can be brainwashed by clever manipulation of the facts to believe lies (as many today).
- They can be dumbed-down by education, social manipulation, media-manipulation, drugs and other factors, into not caring about what is going on around them (as is common in many western countries today). When the Hippie movement in America became a real threat to the stability of the American government, the CIA introduced LSD, via trusted infiltrators, amongst them and the stoned Hippies ceased being a real threat in political terms.<sup>6</sup>

The high command of the globalist agenda (or 'New World Order') has many nicknames (the 'Illuminati' for example) and it comprises of the really powerful men that control the world. These are chiefly bankers that have a stranglehold on countries, and CEOs of multinational corporations, particularly military contractors, plus high ranking secret society leaders (including various royals).<sup>7</sup>

These then work through a series of networks down a pyramidal structure. At the top are a number of powerful secret societies and peer groups<sup>8</sup> from which potential assets are recruited to be politicians, presidents, media spokesmen etc.

Below these are the public face of global change agent organisations, such as the United Nations, the EU, the Council of Foreign Relations or NATO.

Below these are regional change agent organisations, which subvert nations from within and aid the globalist agenda, such as Common Purpose (see later).

Principle: Secret societies will be a keystone of changing nations to do what Satan wants.

Bringing about a world government led by a cartel of the super-rich will not be an open programme, but a stealth operation behind closed doors. In the same way the global elite have been manipulating governments, markets and ideology for over a century, provoking wars and causing economic crashes to gain more power step by step. This will continue until there is a world government.

Therefore, the powers that control events to achieve satanic domination of the world are hidden and secret. However, over time it is impossible to fully hide their work; thus instruments like the internet have shed some light on these hidden operations. While the world in general knows little about what goes on, more and more people are gaining access to information about these groups, though no one has the power to stop them.

Of course the Freemasons are the most well known and prevalent of these but there are many others. The members of these societies control national politics and put their stooges in national power. Thus western presidents and prime ministers are puppets that have their strings pulled by a supreme power elite based upon bankers, aristocracy, secret society leaders, military commanders and global commercial CEOs.<sup>9</sup>

Key secret societies and closed power groups

- The Freemasons: a supposedly ancient order but really only about 3-400 years old that is based upon principles of magic and Satanism;<sup>10</sup> however, its forbear was the Knights Templar. It has infiltrated every stratum of British power structures, being especially prevalent in the police force, the judiciary, the magistracy and Westminster. Royals dominate the higher levels. Many of the other power cabals are dominated by Freemasons.
- The Milner Group (aka: Milner's Kindergarten 1901-1910; The Round Table Group from 1910-1920; the Times Crowd; the Rhodes Crowd; the Chatham House Crowd; the All Souls Group; the Cliveden Set): established Cecil Rhodes in 1891. A secret society beginning with Lord Balfour, Lord Rothschild, Alfred Milner and Lord Grey as an inner 'Circle of Initiates'. Initial aim: the furtherance of the British Empire; bringing the world under British rule. In later times JP Morgan, the Rockefellers and the Whitneys were associated.<sup>11</sup> The Round Table Group incited WWI and spawned the Royal Institute of International Affairs (1919) and the Council on Foreign Relations (1921); these spawned the Bilderberger Group in 1954, which led to the Trilateral Commission in 1973. The RIIA changed its name to Chatham House in 2004.
- Committee of 300: originated from the East India Company council of 300.<sup>12</sup> Claims ownership of the Federal Reserve, global insurance companies, corporations, foundations and communication networks. Its front organisations include the Royal Institute for International Affairs, the Club of Rome, NATO, the UN, the Council on Foreign Relations etc. The current head is the Queen of England. 'Three hundred men, all

<sup>9</sup> Sometimes the politician is a willing co-conspirator, such as both Bush presidents or Tony Blair, sometimes he is controlled and blackmailed, such as Edward Heath.

<sup>10</sup> This is denied to new recruits but admitted by high-level officers. In fact the first three levels (up to Master Mason) are denied much vital information about the society and fed many lies. For details on this group see my paper 'Freemasonry'.

of whom know each other, direct the economic destiny of Europe and choose their successors from among themselves. These men have the means in their hands of putting an end to the form of State which they find unreasonable'.<sup>13</sup>

- The Club of the Isles: a European cartel centred in London and headed by the House of Windsor. This controls every aspect of the global economy, banks, insurance, big pharma, raw materials, factories etc.
- The Council on Foreign Relations: founded six years after the Federal Reserve, worked to promote the global agenda on behalf of the international banking elite. The Fed controlled the money; the CFR controlled the ideology. Its goal is a global empire run by the elite.
- The Trilateral Commission: Similar to the Council on Foreign Relations (which is American), but international in scope. It is a vehicle for multinational consolidation of the commercial and banking interests.
- The Bilderberg Group: This is Europe's version of the Council on Foreign Relations and acts on behalf of the Committee of 300, the Vatican and others. Co-founders were political advisor Joseph Retinger and Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands. Its object is to remove independence from all countries and allow the old aristocracies to rule despotically behind the consensus of the UN. It meets annually in secret with great security; attendance is strictly by invitation. No official membership but a collection of movers and shakers.
- The Club of Rome: this is an umbrella organisation comprising the Black Nobility dynasties (see later) and Anglo-American bankers. The goal is world government through manipulating economic recessions and depressions.

More minor societies

- The Knights of Malta: Roman Catholic lay religious chivalric order. Supposedly a charitable organisation; it includes many notable change agents.
- Pilgrim's Society: Aristocratic Anglo-American Club; formed to foster an alliance between the USA and British interests.
- Skull and Bones: a Yale university society founded in 1832, which uses Masonic rituals. Both Bush presidents were members.
- Rosicrucians: an esoteric mystical group; similar to Theosophy. A mixture of pagan occultism and Christianity.
- Ordo Templis Orientis: started as a similar organisation to Masonry but expanded by Aleister Crowley to become more satanic and Gnostic. Crowley also had significant influence with the intelligence services.
- Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn: created by Freemasons and believed to be the forerunner of the Ordo Templis Orientis. Based on a mixture of occult forms.
- Modern Knights Templar: a modern offshoot of Freemasonry and not tied to the original Knights Templar of the 12th century. Members are drawn from the Masons.
- Scientology: though claiming to be a religion, it is a controlling cult and a secret society. Though it was created to make money it is now in close connection with the global elite and particularly American interests. It is now in alliance with the American tax office and also mines personal data for the CIA.
- Ditchley Foundation: founded in 1957. The American branch is run by Cyrus Vance, former Sec. Of State and director of the Rockefeller Foundation; with Winston Lord, president of the Council on Foreign Relations and a Bilderberger. It is one of many conduits for instructions from the Tavistock Institute.

- Rockefeller Foundation: development of techniques to control world agriculture.

What must be realised is that all the various secret societies form rings within rings, or wheels within wheels, of people working for the goal of a global government. The real power lies in the inner circles of the various groups, which form the inner core of the global elite.

The real power in the world lies in the hands of a relatively few key people and the top echelons probably only comprise of no more than 5,000 people. However, the idea that 12 individuals (Illuminati) control everything is nonsense because there are too many things that can go wrong, and they do. At this point in time, the top elite figures try to control world events but things get very complicated as the manipulation passes down the pipe.

An illustration of the controlling power of a banking elite group, whose control gets threatened after things go wrong, is the Belgium television drama, 'Salamander'. This gives a real insight as to how powerful banking elites, working within a secret society, hold power over politicians and aristocrats.

Some specific names

- David Rockefeller: founder of the Trilateral Commission; chairman of the Chase Manhattan bank from 1969-1981; chairman of the Council on Foreign Relations from 1970-1985, now honorary chairman; member of the Bilderbergers; member of the Committee of 300.
- David Rothschild: member of the Committee of 300.
- George HW Bush: member of Skull and Crossbones; member of the Trilateral Commission; member of the Council on Foreign Relations; member of the Committee of 300.
- JP Morgan: member of the Committee of 300.
- Dick Cheney: member of the Trilateral Commission; member of the Council on Foreign Relations.
- Alan Greenspan (former Federal Reserve chairman), member of the Trilateral Commission; member of the Bilderbergers.
- Henry Kissinger: member of the Trilateral Commission; member of the Bilderbergers; member of the Committee of 300.
- Caspar Weinberger: (former Secretary of Defence under Reagan) member of the Trilateral Commission.
- Prince Charles: member of the Bilderbergers; member of the Committee of 300.
- Bill Clinton: member of the Bilderberger Group; member of the Trilateral Commission; member of the Council on Foreign Relations.
- Donald Rumsfeld: member of the Council on Foreign Relations; member of the Bilderbergers.
- Rupert Murdoch: member of the Bilderbergers.

David Cameron, Nick Clegg and Ed Milliband are members of the Committee of 300. Thus any national agenda for Britain is going to be subservient to the global elite agenda. This is why David Cameron announced both increased Scottish powers and more regional English powers in September 2014 (after the Scottish Referendum) without any discussion in Cabinet, any manifesto pledge, or any representation from his own back benchers or the population. Breaking Britain into regions with little global power is an aim of the global elite.

Strategies used

- Manipulating the economy of the US in particular and the world in general. Causing bubbles and crashes to suit its agendas. This produces billions of dollars for the elite.
- Manipulation of the whole banking system based on fiat-money stemming from the 1913 Federal Reserve Act. This produces billions of dollars for the elite.
- Placing its puppets into power of national governments, especially in the US.
- Running the world's drug operations to finance black ops in particular but also undergirding national currencies. America is particularly dependent upon the heroin trade.<sup>14</sup> It is alleged that the Committee of 300 is the power behind the drug networks, and that this dates back to the Opium trade of the British Empire. This produces billions of dollars for the elite.
- Running Big Pharma with a host of subsidiary projects, such as getting people hooked on various drugs for fake syndromes or false vaccination programmes. This produces billions of dollars for the elite.
- Supervising continually encroaching limitation of civil liberties through fake scaremongering (e.g. the war on terror). Note the US Patriot Act after 9/11. Note increase of email, phone data mining by the US and Britain (Eschelon). Note CCTV increases.
- Eugenics.
- Population controls. Using pestilence and epidemics to kill off large numbers.

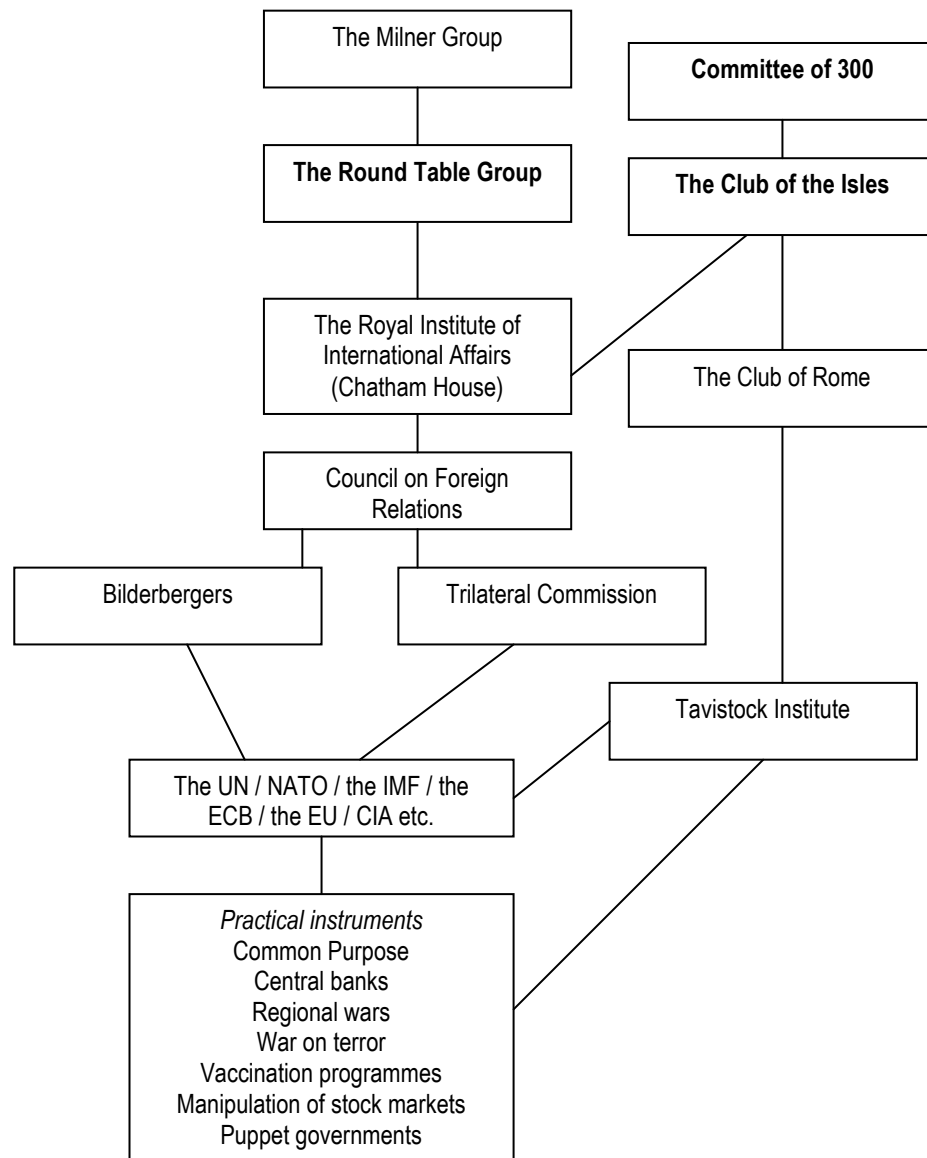

These are just a sample of the strategies used by elites to consolidate power in a central base.

Essentially, the global elite see themselves as the rulers of the world (in submission to Satan) and see ordinary people as fodder for wars and serfs to produce food and the economy.

<sup>14</sup> Note, for example, that the production of heroin stopped when the Taliban burned all the poppy fields in Afghanistan. When NATO went in, the first thing that the Americans did was to get poppy production back on line. Soon the heroin trade was back in place.

Summary

Some notable regional change agent organisations

- Common Purpose: is a globalist change agent. It has over 80,000 trainees in over 36 cities yet is unknown to the public. Trainees are cherry picked to be placed into significant elitist jobs with loyalty to CP aims (inc. the EU), not national sovereignty. They then subvert the department they are placed in, such as schools or the NHS. CP trainees are being prepared to be the nation's leaders when the EU takes over in what they call 'the post democratic society'. CP also oversees corruption and fraud between government and council departments by embezzling public assets. For example: Cressida Dick is the CP senior police officer who authorised the 'Shoot to kill' policy without reference to Parliament, the law or the British Constitution. It works much like a secret society where illegal activities are covered-up by CP police, CP judges and CP media moguls. Taxpayer's money is used to pay for training with no public accountability; e.g. the DWP spent £240k and the Ministry of Defence spent £308,525 on Common Purpose between 2002 and 2007. There is a mystical side to CP, which is evidenced in the behaviour and personality changes noticed in trainees. The idea for Common Purpose originally came from the Tavistock Institute; another nefarious organisation committed to mind control and globalism.

- The Tavistock Institute: formed in 1947 and based in London, it is a think-tank to combine research in the social sciences with professional practice. It deals with problems in organisational development, institution building and change in all public sectors. It pioneers work in behavioural science to control people; i.e. brainwashing techniques and crowd control methods using psychology. The CIA has always worked on guidelines set up by the Tavistock Institute. Tavistock Institute has developed such power in the US that no one achieves prominence in any field unless he has been trained in behavioural science at Tavistock or one of its subsidiaries. The drug revolution (LSD) was a Tavistock programme run by the CIA. Today the Tavistock Institute operates a $6 billion a year network of foundations in the US funded by taxpayers. Ten major institutions are under its control, with 400 subsidiaries, and 3000 study groups, which originate many programs to increase control over the American people. For example: the Stanford Research Institute, adjoining the Hoover Institution, is a $150 million a year operation with 3300 employees. It carries on program surveillance for Bechtel, Kaiser, and 400 other companies, and extensive intelligence operations for the CIA. It is the largest institution on the West Coast promoting mind control and the behavioural sciences. Another Tavistock subsidiary is the Ditchley Foundation, founded in 1957. The American branch of the Ditchley Foundation is run by Cyrus Vance, former Secretary of State, and director of the Rockefeller Foundation, and Winston Lord, president of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Summary

This does not pretend to be a full explanation of all the secret societies in operation in service to the global agenda. It is a simple summary of key factors. Neither do I intend to go into a deep analysis and description of these societies; I am not sure that this does any good. We just need to be aware of the basic facts so that we are warned. There are Christian sources that spend huge amounts of space talking about these groups, but the danger is that they end up chasing their own tails. We must not be diverted from our prime occupation of focusing upon Christ and working for the glory of God.

Principle: bankers and the super-rich are the real power behind secret societies.

Key names

There are key family dynasties of powerful people based upon royal lines and banking organisations. These work in tandem with, or controlling, the previously mentioned societies. The sorts of names that crop up repeatedly are:

- Rothschild: only five countries do not have a Rothschild controlled central bank (Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Cuba, Libya). Estimated worth $400, trillion. They control the Bank of England, the Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank, the IMF, the World Bank and the Bank of International Settlements.
- Rockefeller: estimated worth $11 quadrillion.
- The House of Windsor. The Queen theoretically owns whole countries and directly owns much land. She is worth about $28 quadrillion. She is the richest person on earth. The Windsor family is part of an elite called 'the Venetian Black Nobility', which includes ancient royal bloodlines of Europe.<sup>15</sup> It is alleged that the British royals control

- Li (Chinese).

At the dawn of the 20th century, some sixty ultra-rich families, through dynastic intermarriage and corporate, interconnected shareholdings, had gained control of American industry and banking institutions. ... that manipulated, bribed, and bullied it's way to control the destiny of the United States.<sup>17</sup>

Their purpose

The financing of key wars and revolutions

Wars and revolutions are a means to agreed ends dominated by the global elite. A war will generally go in the direction of where the most funding is for arms and supplies. Examples of the funding of these include:

- The Rothschilds financed the Crimean War, as well as the Mexican War and the American Civil War.<sup>18</sup>
- The House of Morgan financed the British Boer War.<sup>19</sup>
- The House of Morgan financed the Franco-Prussian War.<sup>20</sup>
- The Rothschilds and others financed the Russian Revolution. 'In the Bolshevik revolution we have some of the world's richest and most powerful men financing a movement which claims its very existence is based on the concept of stripping of their wealth, men like the Rothschilds, Rockefellers, Schiffs, Warburgs, Morgans, Harrimans and Milners. But obviously these men have no fear of international Communism. It is only logical to assume that if they financed it and do not fear it, it must be because they control it'.<sup>21</sup>
- The House of Morgan financed half of the US WWII war effort.<sup>22</sup>

There is a special breed of international financiers whose success typically is built upon certain character traits. Those include cold objectivity, immunity to patriotism, and indifference to the human condition. That profile is the basis for proposing a theoretical strategy, called the Rothschild formula, which motivates such men to propel governments into war for the profits they yield ... As long as the mechanism of central banking exists, it will be to such men an irresistible temptation to convert debt into perpetual war, and war into perpetual debt.<sup>23</sup>

Manipulation of bubbles and crashes

The Depression (1929) was not accidental. It was a carefully contrived occurrence. The international bankers sought to bring about a condition of despair here (USA) so that they might emerge as rulers of us all.<sup>24</sup>

Manipulation of everything

The bankers control the world's major corporations, media, intelligence agencies, think tanks, foundations and universities.<sup>25</sup>

The British royal family rules the world, but they do not rule it alone. There are at least three other actors: central banks, the legacy of Cecil Rhodes, and the immense financial power of the biggest international banking family, the Rothschilds.<sup>26</sup>

The Rothschild, Rockefeller and Warburg banking combines control Big Oil.<sup>27</sup>

A current example

One of the tactics used by the elite is to terrify the nation so that they are supportive of, and submissive to, the government. Scared people will trust the government in a crisis. Thus there is the constant manufacturing of a bogeyman to wage war on, whether it be Hitler, Stalin, Saddam Hussein or whoever.

Sometimes false flag operations are used to instigate a new fear tactics; thus 9/11 was a put-up job involving American Neocons working with Mossad. This was to lead the nation to accept draconian policies (such as the Patriot Act), the war in Iraq and the war in Afghanistan – none of which would have occurred without 9/11.

The current bogeyman is IS (ISIS, ISIL etc). In fact this group is a direct product of American training, military supplies and finance (just as Al-Qaeda was). Its funding was then continued by allies, especially Saudi Arabia. IS would not have existed but for the US and its allies. On top of this, the complete mess that the US and NATO made of both Iraq and Afghanistan (against popular opinion) led to the new development of terrorism that feeds IS.

The current escalation being proposed today (24 September 2014), with Britain possibly entering into war to fight bad people that behead innocents, is stupid. IS cannot be controlled by bombing operations but by boots on the ground – that means arming, funding and training the Kurds and others. Ironically, the west is in an alliance with Saudi Arabia that has been beheading people every day for the last three months but no one mentions this.

The power elite in the world has been funding and fomenting global calamities for 200 years. Patriotic men and women have given their lives in service of conflicts that were pointless, foolish and only served the purposes of the elite. Often these purposes involve oil production, gas pipelines, and military power bases. This is why certain conflicts were supposedly a ‘moral war’ (such as the Iraq War) while other equal (or worse) calamities were ignored by the west (such as the Rwanda genocide). This is why some dictators are engaged in war while others are ignored. Saddam Hussein (once a friend and ally of the US when he was killing Iranians) needed to be removed to secure American interests but Robert Mugabe, an equally despicable dictator who did far more harm to his country, was completely ignored.

Their goal

A global government under the control of the rich elite.

There are various subsets to this goal, such as: eugenics, seriously reducing the world population, paedophilia, Satanism, permanent state of war, promotion of terror, control of the media, and so forth.

Principle: Everything will be the opposite of Gods kingdom.

The final antichristian world empire will be the reflection of Satan in mankind and will represent the complete opposite of everything God commands. We can observe just a few items.

Children

Jesus said that the kingdom belonged to such; God cares about children. The opposite is that children will be exploited and killed. Paedophilia will be rampant and condoned by authorities, as will slavery and child poverty.

As the higher echelons of society and the establishment are more closely in affinity with the satanic purpose (that is what Satan controls pre-eminently; the masses do what they are told) we will see the fulness of satanic wickedness in these elite levels. As wickedness begets more wickedness so we see the sins of the ruling elite increase. Thus paedophilia will be rampant amongst the higher levels of the establishment.

Indeed, this is already the case. The truth about paedophilia is being hidden from the masses. Even the gross wickedness of Jimmy Savile was protected by the establishment until he had died in order to prevent him from spilling the beans and incriminating high level people.<sup>28</sup> The fact is that paedophilia is rampant amongst politicians, aristocracy, the judiciary, the police force and other establishment levels. Members of the Royal family and a Prime Minister have been openly accused of paedophilia, and even murder, by credible whistle-blowers<sup>29</sup> but no main-line media stream will run with this. Members of the police force that threaten to blow the gaffe are hounded out of the service.<sup>30</sup>

Both paedophilia and Satanism are closely connected to the power elite. Indeed, paedophilia and Satanism are themselves interrelated in many cases.

The family unit

One of the foundational principles of Communism was the breakdown of the family unit and forcing people to become dependent upon the state instead of their relatives. Prime loyalty was to the state above all others. In Eastern Germany under the Stasis, loyalty to the state was evidenced in the fact that family members reported their close relatives to the

<sup>30</sup> I have spoken personally to one Manchester policewoman who told me details on this and how her life was made a misery until she accepted medical retirement.

Stasis for state crimes. No one trusted anyone. For the state to have complete control, no social unit can be allowed to have any maverick priority above the state; not even mother and father.

Of course, this is nothing but the reversal of the divine prerogative to honour your father and mother, and to be committed to the needs of your own blood.

The final world government will break up families and ensure that individual loyalty is to the state alone.

Independent small farmers

The independent farmer is a threat to the global elite because he produces food for himself and his local community and his produce can be converted into capital. This gives him, and his local community, a certain independence from higher power structures. This is unacceptable to the elite.

In the Soviet revolution the government sought to totally control farmers and absorb them into the wider administrative collective machine, run by state mandarins. However, the Kulaks maintained their independence and became a thorn in Stalin's side. As a result the OGPU<sup>31</sup> seized Kulak produce and animals and starved them out. In 1935, 6 million Kulaks died in a politically induced famine. This was a political party supposed to be run by peasants, and for peasants, exterminating peasants. Of course, the Communist revolution was controlled by higher totalitarian powers and had nothing to do with moral principles about the poor at all.

In earlier history, the French Revolution was directed against local farmers who refused to turn over their grain to revolutionary tribunals.

Similarly, the EU's Common Agriculture Policy has ruined many British local farmers, formed mega-agriculture, and decimated the fishing industry. In America the same war against small farmers is being waged by agri-business corporations and Genetically Modified food businesses.

The elite currently wage war on farmers by high taxation and manipulating interest rates, which bankrupts many. The elite want local farmers to become slaves to giant agricultural corporations run by their cohorts.

Creation opposed by evolution

Note BBC policy already where evolution is promoted as undeniable scientific fact and the balancing truths are never given any airplay at all. Note BBC documentary films, which have even been made into movies, regarding the life of dinosaurs. Hardly any of this has any provenance in truth at all, yet they are promoted as scientific education.

For instance, no one knows what the skin of dinosaurs was like or what colours they were. Neither can they be sure of their habitat, diet or characteristics. They have not learned from past mistakes. For many years iguanodons were pictured and described as walking on two legs like a T-Rex, but now it is accepted that they predominantly walked on four legs.

Even such a ferocious beast as a Tyrannosaurus Rex cannot be certainly described as a meat-eater. If you were to see the skull of a camel for the first time, it would appear to be a ferocious carnivore, and yet it is a domesticated beast of burden. The Indian elephant would appear to someone seeing it for the first time to be a ferocious, dangerous, giant beast and yet it also is a beast of burden often living in close peaceful proximity to humans.

<sup>31</sup> OGPU is an organisation for investigating and combating counter-revolutionary activities in the former Soviet Union, existing from 1922 (1922–3 as the GPU) to 1934 and replacing the Cheka. It was absorbed into the NKVD (later KGB) in 1934.

Instead of caution, BBC films have described every aspect of the lifestyle of many dinosaurs with not the slightest bit of hard evidence for their depictions. Even the statements about their time periods flies in the face of actual facts. Tyrannosaurus Rex, supposedly from the late Cretaceous period,<sup>32</sup> were supposed to have died out millions of years before man appeared; and yet there are many examples of footprints of both together in rock formations around the world. No one mentions this. Neither do they mention that the soft tissues and haemoglobin, found inside some dinosaur bones (including T Rex), certainly mean that the sample is less than 10,000 years old.

In the end time, facts are no hindrance to the insistence that evolution is correct, contrary to God's word.

The authority of the Bible

This reversal is already well underway. It has not been difficult to undermine the authority of the Bible to unbelievers in the last 100 years. This is easily done by emphasising rationalism, secularism, liberalism and so on. The honouring of the Bible by the secular world (especially during Victorian times) was only ever going to be temporary. The twentieth century is a history of undermining the Bible through false academics, propaganda, dumbing down, blatant lies, and ridicule.

However, the bigger problem was to undermine the authority of the Bible in the church. This has been going on since the Charismatic Movement began in about 1960. At today's date this process is reaching maturity and the Bible is becoming less and less relevant to mainstream churches, and especially Charismatic churches. Few people take a Bible to church anymore; even less study it assiduously. In many Charismatic circles foolish prophecies carry more weight than Scripture while erroneous doctrines sweep away Biblical commandments with hardly a care being expressed by churchgoers. Some church leaders openly deride the Bible as unnecessary, dusty, dead and out-of-date.

Real honouring of the Bible is now hard to find in Christian circles and is really confined to small conservative works here and there.

We have gone from Queen Victoria announcing that the Bible undergirded the British Empire to the fact that the Bible now hardly undergirds most churches. This is a grievous reversal.

Righteousness

All that stands for righteousness will be removed and iniquity will replace it. We are currently in the early process of this being played out in British society.

The start of this is to produce generations of children so brainwashed by the education system that they have no sense of responsibility and right and wrong. I am appalled by my contact with young teenagers, who do not have a strong moral anchor from their parents, to find that they are clueless regarding what is right. They are dominated by selfishness and their supposed rights. Their goals are selfish and base. They are dumbed-down to the point of being near automatons – which is what the elite want. On top of that they are avid consumers, which is also what the elite wants. Their lives are dominated by their mobile

'phones, without which they cannot function. Woe betides the world that they grow up to run.

All the media outlets promote unrighteousness day and night. Unsurprisingly, the people that listen to and watch all this become programmed to see it as normal. Television, of course, is a prime factor in this but other outlets are now nearly as mind-changing (computer media for example).

The government is a key mover in the promotion of unrighteousness, particularly in the laws it passes. Slowly, as time goes on, more and more legislation is passed to promote what is wrong. Eventually, people champion (with great moral certainty) what was previously illegal – such as homosexuality, abortion, reduction of the age of consent, or witchcraft.

Justice

A significant part of the government's promotion of unrighteousness is the devaluing of justice and the development of injustice in judgments. Victims are persecuted and harassed while criminals get light treatment or let off. Historic cases include the light sentences given to predatory paedophiles. This subject requires a book all on its own.

A good example is the case of a burglar attempting to burgle a suburban house by breaking in the garden and climbing on the conservatory. When the roof collapsed he was caught. On being injured in the fall, he claimed against the homeowner and the judge awarded him thousands of pounds in compensation.

We could also consider fast-tracked courts, restriction of legal aid, and the cases where juries have been abolished. In America some elite operations are above the law. For example, Big Pharma has legal protection for certain drugs. Vaccinations can kill or harm your children but you cannot sue the pharmaceutical company as they have indemnity.

Gradually, like a frog in a saucepan, the nation comes to accept what is continually drip fed to them and the mores of the country turn from righteousness to iniquity – and this is considered normal.

Sexual propriety

The global power elite has no morals. Those recruited to serve them are brainwashed in various programmes run by Tavistock so that their character is changed. Thus even formerly moral recruits are reprogrammed to be amoral. It is alleged that many elite figures are Satanists and there is growing evidence that many are paedophiles. It should come as no surprise, therefore, that their agenda includes a reversal of godly sexual activity.

The Gay agenda is but a small part of this plan, which is so obvious that we need not discuss it here.

The sexualisation of children and even infants is a big part of their agenda and many adults have no clue about this. I have covered this before so we need not spend too much time on it, but councils committed to the elite agenda (through pipelines such as Common Purpose) have been sexually educating very young children for many years. This is by talks and comics, which give explicit pictures of oral sex, anal sex, contraception and masturbation, encouraging children to be free to explore their sexuality. This is why we are seeing sex-crimes being committed by ten year-olds as well as teenage pregnancies. I am informed by schoolkids that it is becoming common that frustrated teenagers who can't get girlfriends are committing bestiality. It is now a right of passage for young teenagers to post on social networks explicit photographs of them having sex with girls / boys. I have heard of young teenagers that watch pornography all night into the early hours, every day, being completely obsessed. Young men are made to feel inadequate unless they have had a threesome. Stag parties today, of necessity, involve men going to Eastern Europe on sex binges while hen parties involve male strippers that commit sex acts on female partygoers.

This is enough. The sexualisation of children and young people is now almost complete; and all this has happened in forty years.

Lies prevail

The devil is the 'father of lies' (Jn 8:44). As the final world government grows in the image of the devil, so every aspect of this government will be filled with lies and lying. Governments, as stooges of Satan, have always lied, but the finale expression of the antichristian government will be the fulfilment and epitome of lies.

As society in general, and governments in particular, are already growing in stages to be part of the final expression of antichristian government, we will see more, and more and more lies. The amount of deception in the world is beyond belief; almost nothing is as it seems.

Indeed, the last two British governments<sup>33</sup> have been dominated by a new high-level in political lying so that books have been written on the subject.<sup>34</sup> The capacity of politicians to tell barefaced lies knows no bounds. When David Cameron stated that the NHS would not be broken up, privatised and sold off in parcels, or that the NHS would be ring fenced and not reduced in budgets – he told barefaced lies. Upon being elected he immediately started implementing the very opposite policies. This is not subtle lying, it is brash, barefaced lying. They seem to think that they are above morality and can do what they like, treating the electorate with derision. This is typical of satanic government and it will increase.

But it is not just governments that lie. The media will be full of lies, and indeed this is already the case. But satanic lying is a complex web that is woven through society and sometimes it is hard to identify. Thus the many social commentators that supposedly fight for the truth to expose government and corporate lies, are often themselves filled with lies and misinformation. Unless you know the source of their principles and finances it can be difficult to assess what is the truth about anything.

The point of lying is to manipulate people to trust you. Lies are used to make people do something they would not normally do or accept something they would normally fight against. Lies will dominate all of society at the end in increasing measures.

Thus the supposed church will be full of lies, and again we are seeing this begin to happen today where the modern institutional churches are filled with false doctrines and practices. But this will worsen.

The lies are not with the left alone, or the right alone; both the left and the right are full of deceit. The global elite cares nothing about opposing politics; they use whomever they will to fulfil their agendas.

For example: it is common to find heroes used to spur a new generation of freedom fighters. Heroes are very useful to generate new movements or pass on certain truths. One of the greatest heroes of the last 40 years has been Che Guevara, whose image is the most copied in the world, adorning tee-shirts and posters on millions of student walls (it is always helpful if the hero is attractive).

This selfless doctor, supposedly forced by socialist principles to champion the poor, who helped fight the Cuban revolution and whose writings inspired several generations, is lauded by almost all. Christopher Hitchens, a man noted for his integrity, rationality and fight for truth, saw Che as a champion. Nelson Mandela also praised Che's battles for freedom. The truth is far different.

Che's diaries were re-worked and re-written by Castro's underlings because the truth is shocking. Che was a deeply disturbed person who, from childhood, loved torturing animals. He was from a wealthy background, who not only raped servants but once did so, in the middle of a dinner with friends, on the dining table, only to dismiss the servant girl and continue eating as if nothing had happened.

He was not only a fornicator but also a sadist. In his Cuban campaigns he fought few, if any battles, but ran a terror campaign where he mercilessly killed thousands of people. He personally killed men and children and stated to a friend that he loved the act of killing. Even his compatriots thought that he was deranged.

In addition to his sadism and serial killing, he was so useless at running the economy that he crippled Cuba, once as prosperous as America, in less time than Mao crippled the economy of China. So bad was the economy that Russia, keeping Cuba afloat with finance packages, demanded that Castro get rid of Che.

Che was a thoroughly nasty man, and one of the worst terrorists ever, and yet the world has been brought up to believe he was a caring, self-sacrificing freedom fighter; the subject of many adoring books, articles, dramas and a major Hollywood movie. This is how deceit operates.

Summary

These are just a sample of the expressions of the power elite and the end time world government. In reality there are hundreds of policies and strategies that would require a separate book. For more examples, see my paper, 'The reality of the satanic agenda'.

Principle: the Christian church will be persecuted.

Although the totalitarian world empire will seek to suppress dissent and rule by fascism, its real perceived enemy is the genuine Christian church. Remember that the global state is the delegated material power structure of Satan to be his final complete expression in man. Thus the prime enemy of Satan, the church, will be attacked ferociously. By oppressing the body of Christ, Satan seeks to pretend to have power over his archenemy, the Lord Jesus Christ.

The purpose of this persecution is genocide: the complete extinction on earth of all genuine Christians. The severe persecutions of the past were but a run-through in preparation for the end-time suffering known as the 'Great Tribulation' (Matt 24:9, 21; Rev 7:14).<sup>35</sup> The persecution will continue until the superpower believes that all Christians are dead; the world celebrates this achievement (Rev 11:10). However, the church, long driven underground and meeting in homes, will not be extinct but is very close to extinction (Matt 24:22). Before all believers are killed from the earth, the Lord returns to be marvelled at in his remaining saints on earth, and to terrify the world of unbelievers, who even wish for mountains to cover them from the glory of Christ in wrath (Rev 6:15-17).

<sup>35</sup> There is a sense in which the whole Gospel age, being filled with various persecutions, can be termed the 'Great Tribulation'; but it particularly applies to the end.

Conclusion

Most sound Biblical scholars agree that, at the end, a global fascist state rules the world establishing an antichristian system. Some think that there is a single king over this called 'Antichrist'; others believe that the system itself, that is mankind, is antichrist corporately. Either way, there is a global totalitarian state that is antichristian.

This does not arise overnight since there has to be a change in society whereby most of mankind supports the policies of this antichristian state and enjoys the luxury it provides. Therefore, there has to be a slow changing of society from a superficial Christian state in Victorian times to a secular, paganised antichristian state at the end.

This slow change in society is, in my view, well underway right now and has been going on for the last 100 years or so. Certain aspects are nearly fully mature.

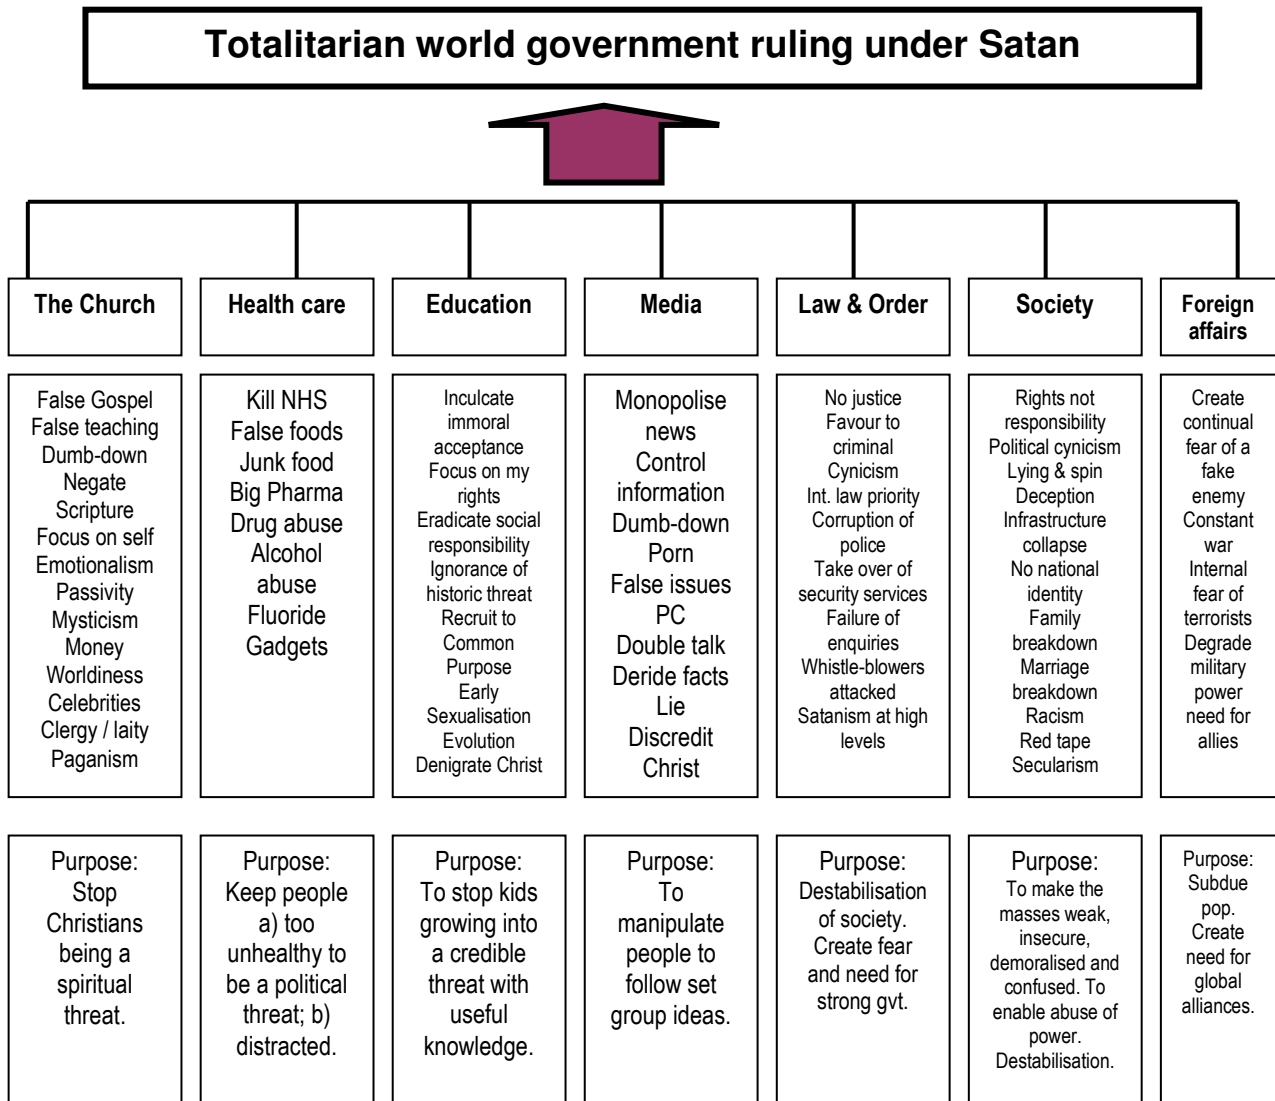

Thus we can paint a picture of the expression of the final man(kind) of sin along the lines that I propose in this paper. We need to understand this in order to live lives that avoid the workings of Satan in political and social history underway right now.

There has never been a time when Christians need to have as much wisdom as they do right now. Be warned.

Regarding the response that all this is so negative, what is important is the truth. Jesus did not shy away from giving very stern and frightening warnings about the future. However, by observing some of these the Christians in Jerusalem managed to escape the evils which the Jews suffered in 70 AD, by fleeing the city. Paul also gave severe warnings about the end. Christianity has always been a threatened religion; it just so happens that Britain in the last two hundred years has largely escaped this, and this is unusual in history. It has made many complacent. Listening only to positive nice things will not stop the events that will unfold. Being warned and prepared, however, may make a big difference to you.

What follows is a summary of some of the features of the rise of this antichristian world state.

Template of the rise of the antichristian world government

Note that all these things are going on right now; many aspects have been in train for decades.

Note the accuracy of Orwell’s book ‘1984’. This is required reading.

Soviet style

Note the comparison with the protocols of the Soviet communist system.<sup>36</sup> All three major UK political parties are either using these protocols or are committed to them.

Note the importance of the work and influence of Saul Alinsky.<sup>37</sup>

<sup>37</sup> Particularly in his book ‘Rules for Radicals’; Random House (1971); note chapter seven, ‘Tactics’. His book was dedicated to Lucifer and he stated that he preferred to go to hell than heaven. Alinsky (1909-1972) was an American / Russian Jewish writer and radical community / political organiser. He was essentially a Marxist subversive to bring about societal change from the grass roots, taking over society by small incremental steps. Time wrote, ‘American democracy is being altered by Alinsky’s ideas’. Alinsky’s principles

Note the influence of DEMOS, the Fabian Society and politicians committed to variants of Marxist philosophy (such as the Millibands). Despite its superficial hatred of Communism, the US in recent decades has adopted more and more Soviet repressive principles. Blair's governmental style was Soviet / Stasi administrative principles (layers of bureaucrats chasing targets). Many of the Coalition's policies are Soviet in style.

Church notes

- False Gospel: most church members have no real clue what the true Gospel is. Most church leaders cannot preach a true Gospel. The result is churches filled with false believers (hence their many continual problems). Alpha Courses are a big evil in this regard. Nicky Gumbel is hand-in-hand with the power elite (friend of Blair).<sup>38</sup> His course has little of the real Gospel and is a front to make people succumb to mysticism and demonic communication. Note the published testimonies, which do not mention conviction of sin, repentance, submission to Christ's Lordship etc. Note also its official adoption by Roman Catholics.
- False teaching: the church is riddled with every heresy known to history all at once. Due to Biblical ignorance, church members accept every false doctrine they hear. There are two key movements that are Trojan horses of error: the first is the Charismatic Movement the second is the Jewish Root or Messianic Christianity Movement. The CM is mostly postmillennial triumphalism and has introduced many pagan occult doctrines and practices into the church; it is the modern equivalent of Gnosticism. The Jewish Root Movement is premillennial and is the modern equivalent of Judaising and Ebionism; some extremists have also introduced Kabbalism and Jewish mysticism. Both have many forms of sacramentalism. The purpose of these is to ruin true Christianity focused upon Christ. The CM focuses upon the self and celebrities; the Jewish Root Movement focuses upon Jews and Israel. Between the two, which are polar opposites, most of the church is captured to follow a satanic plot. In addition, Jewish Root activists have been directly linked to Mossad,<sup>39</sup> which makes it a political, earthly subversion as well; as a spiritual error.
- Dumbing-down is a result of ignoring the Bible and Biblical doctrine. Dogma is seen as a dirty word; hence people are clueless about what to do in their spiritual life. Church is seen more as a social entertainment centre. It is often no more than a religious club.
- Selfism: hence meetings as entertainment, teaching on self-esteem, strategies based on magic to get what you want, name it and claim it theology etc.
- Emotionalism, passivity, and mysticism: the paganising of the church to embrace more and more of the occult. Most of the policies of the Charismatic Movement and historic Pentecostalism are pagan in origin and come from either heathen practices or occult teachings. For example: Charismatic tongues are pagan (many religions and cults have them) because they are gibberish and not known languages, which is what Biblical tongues were (though unlearned by the speaker). The visualisation techniques of Word Faith and Yonggi Cho are straight out of Soka Gakkai Buddhism and based on precepts of magic (spells). The behavioural phenomena of the Toronto Blessing were copies of Kundalini yoga and developed in the same way through passivity, suggestibility and mysticism. Charismatic worship is false, being based on instrumental music (not in the on action have been accepted by Barak Obama, the Tea Party, the Republicans, the Conservatives, the Lib Dems, and many others.

<sup>38</sup> One eminent alternative media activist and commentator [who personally affirms moderate Christianity] publicly accuses both of being Satanists.

<sup>39</sup> Activists that have attacked critics of the Jewish Root Movement online, such as victimising the critic Stephen Sizer, using libel and vitriolic abuse, have had their emails traced to an ISP that is linked to a Mossad server. JR preachers also urge support for the politically repressive and illegal activities of the Israeli government. People who follow JR doctrines are being conned into supporting a fleshly political campaign.

New Covenant) and emotionalism, leading to passivity and suggestibility by repetitive choruses. The result is that Charismaticism becomes pagan shamanism.

- Worldiness, celebrity, clergy-laity split: almost everything in the modern church is based on worldly ideas, from the meeting place, to the structure of meetings to the structure of leadership. These are fundamentally demonic ideas. For example: the hierarchical structure of leadership is totally contrary to Biblical teaching, which is that churches are led by a team of equal elders and no one else. The modern hierarchy is similar to that found in worldly structures, such as commercial organisations or the military, being pyramidal. This structure is according to the orders of demons in submission to Satan and is the model of earthly leadership patterns. Celebrities rule the churches; people travel miles to hear a celebrity preacher. This is the opposite of Biblical doctrine and ruins mutual edification and submission to one another. The whole basis of elevated leadership (clergy) is anathema to Christ's kingdom.
- The purpose of all this is to stop people being effective spiritual warriors that will confront the enemy and do good in the world. These strategies end up with the church becoming pagan.

Health care notes

- NHS: The coalition government lies repeatedly by saying it will protect the NHS when it is actively promoting its selling off and destruction.<sup>40</sup> The Tories wrote books on the need to destroy the NHS before the election, including one by Jeremy Hunt (Sec. Of State for Health!). Beneficiaries of the sell off have been Tory activists and sponsors. Over £20 billion has been starved from the NHS under the Coalition, while several billions have been sold off to private companies. Already private companies are screwing up sold off operations (such as cataracts), making mistakes and causing complications, then the NHS has to fix it and pay compensation. In other cases sold off Hospitals and services immediately slash the salaries of nurses, doctors and administrators. The plasma blood service has been sold off to an American dodgy Hedge Fund. Many UK residents are now without a GP while 98 surgeries are at high risk of closure due to cutbacks.
- False foods: false foods have been promoted for decades to weaken the population to make it less able to rise in insurrection and keep the population as fodder for production. Lies are told as medical facts, such as that saturated fat is bad. Healthy fatty foods (such as beefsteaks or butter) are replaced with much worse junk foods that are filled with high fructose corn syrup (all supposedly 'health food' removes the good fat and replaces it with sugar). This creates addictions, obesity, heart disease and causes cancer.
- Big Pharma: a book could be written on the evils of big Pharma (and have been). The drug companies are devoted to making money and keeping people sick, not curing them (or they would stop making money). This includes inventing new syndromes and illnesses to sell more pills. Many drugs have killed literally thousands of people before they were removed. Big Pharma, at worst, just gets a relatively small fine. Vaccines are used to make money for Pharma companies and governments that have no use whatsoever (such as flu vaccines) or cause sickness and even death. The plan is to keep people weak and sick (compare modern people with ordinary folk in old films or old photographs; they were slim and fit. Today obesity is an epidemic).
- Drug & alcohol abuse: all the addiction polices of recent decades and all the drug Tsars have done nothing to stop the expansion of addiction and abuse. This is because the government does not want it to stop but uses it as a means of keeping people in subjection and eradicating weak people it doesn't have a use for. In fact, many governments (especially the CIA) use drug addiction as a means of generating funds for covert operations. Without the CIA the drug supply to the west would dry up (note that this happened when the Taliban were in power in Afghanistan; the supply began again when the US war started).

- Fluoride: this is a toxin and a waste-product of the aluminium industry. US companies get rid of their waste by putting it in the water supply. The government uses this as a control because it destroys brain cells and impairs cognitive function.
- Gadgets: i.e. mobile 'phones, video games, interactive web pursuits etc. These cause all manner of medical conditions. Games are addictive and stop young people learning and becoming politicised or activists – these are the biggest potential threat to the elite. Mobiles cause all manner of cancers, especially brain tumours, but are also addictive and keep young people focused on trivia (texting, emails, instagram, Tweets etc.). The purpose is distraction and making money. Keep the population focused on the latest technology.

Education notes

- Inculcate immoral acceptance: get kids to accept moral permissiveness and toleration of wickedness. E.g. teach that homosexuality is normal and that any contradiction of this is a hate crime.
- Focus on my rights: everything gets submitted to selfishness and a focus upon the self. This stops people developing a social conscience that could lead to politicisation and activism.
- Eradicate social responsibility: the selfishness results in a lack of social responsibility or the rights of others. People that have no sense of social responsibility do not become political activists.
- Ignorance of historic threat: stop teaching all the subjects in history that show how ordinary people can overthrow oppressive governments. Don't focus upon moral heroes that stood against the tide. Dumb-down.
- Recruit to Common Purpose: this means what it says. Look up Common Purpose as a training ground for elite systems.
- Early sexualisation: this does a number of things. First it sexualises kids so that they are more open to sexual encounters to satisfy the many paedophiles in the elite structures. Second, it breeds kids to be porn users. Porn is a drug that leads to greater and greater addiction; this is a great distraction that stops a kid becoming a useful opponent. If you keep feeding a kid free porn on the Internet, you have a lifelong abuser who is no threat. Thus free porn is vital in the New World Order; this is why governments have not used existing filters to switch it off.
- Evolution: deny creationism at all costs as this leads to concentration on a sovereign God, the very thing that Satan wants to hide.
- Denigrate Christ: the real fight in the end is spiritual and is opposed to Christ. Teach kids that Christ is a myth or just like any other god with no power.

Media

- Monopolise news: the more the news is monopolised the easier it can be controlled. A multiplicity of news channels is very hard to control. Media moguls are recruited to the power elite at a high level.
- Control information: information is not given out as it arrives as news; it is edited and manipulated under strict protocols. For example: the harsh police treatment of the miners in the 80s miner's strike did not suit the establishment, so the news was manipulated to reverse the story. In one case the news showed the miners charging police, who then responded with severe force. In actual fact, the truth was that the police charged with severe force first, even attacking pregnant women with batons or with horses, to which the miners responded by attacking the police to defend the women. Often information will be completely ignored if it does not suit the establishment.

- Dumb-down: avoid serious reporting based on simple facts. Get the people used to dumbed-down reportage, such as by using many images and film footage rather than accurate journalism and critique.
- Porn: make hard-core porn freely available to all ages (via computers, smart-phones, tablets); Fill mainstream media with soft-core porn to sexualise people (TV, newspapers, posters, adverts, and song videos). Provide sexual temptation in every avenue. These act like a drug to make addicts of weak minded people, which stops them being a threat to the elite. It is also a key expression of satanic iniquity.
- False issues: many news stories are simply fake. Other stories are just superficial.
- PC: focus upon political correctness so that people are slowly brainwashed to accept these ideas.
- Double talk: by using this technique you can avoid giving people any information at all. Many people will just accept waffle, as long as it is entertaining and presented by a pretty woman.
- Deride and deny facts: if facts get in the way, deny them and deride them. For instance if a news item denies evolution, deny it and ridicule it as myth. In this way skull fragments that have been discovered have been said to establish evolutionary theory when later study showed the very opposite. The postulations of evolutionists were reported as fact; the later discovery that denied this was not reported at all.
- Lie: the news is full of lies; some sources are worse than others.
- Discredit Christ: most news outlets will strive to avoid abusing a faith but in the case of Christianity blasphemy and abuse is openly tolerated. At best Christianity is treated as a comparative religion with no unique features. Many BBC documentaries go out of their way to discredit Christianity, using multiple lies to do so; this includes history programmes, nature programmes and science programmes.

Law and order

- No justice: judges give nonsensical judgments. Sense of grievance grows in population but leads to frustration and impotence. People give up.
- Favour to criminals: victims become victimised as the criminal gets better treatment. This is especially true of cases of paedophilia and rape.
- Cynicism: population ceases to have any trust in the British justice system. Open to change; even in foreign courts.
- International law priority: globalism is enhanced when international treaties give a greater prominence to international law; British law and British Common Law undermined.
- Corruption of police and other security services, such as British Intelligence: this corruption enables abuses of power in the elite and establishment to continue unabated. For example: the paedophilia that exists at a high level in the establishment has gone unchecked for decades despite being known by many people and even exposed in alternative media.

- Take over of security services: all the security services (police, MI5, MI6 etc.) have been taken over by the global elite agenda. People are murdered by these services if they become a threat (such as Princess Diana and David Kelly). These services use paedophilia to entrap politicians, judges, policemen and businessmen to make them do their bidding. Some sources state that the security intelligence services have long been taken over by German agents to push the global agenda.
- Failure of enquiries: judicial enquires just become one whitewash after another. No ability to expose and punish establishment figures or governments for abuses and illegal activities, or even illegal wars.
- Whistle-blowers attacked: those brave souls that spill the beans, such as in the intelligence community, just get hounded, persecuted and imprisoned for decades. This is despite various whistleblower charters.
- Satanism at high levels: the ruling elite is taken from the secret cabals that really rule the world through money and influence. These are infected with Satanism, thus national establishment rulers are also affected by Satanism. One side effect of Satanism is paedophilia, which explains why so many establishment figures are paedophiles.

Society

- Rights not responsibility: from school to mass media the promotion of rights is lauded and the need for being a responsible citizen is ignored. People become selfish.
- Political cynicism: people become so cynical about politicians and the political process that they completely give up on Parliament altogether. This means that no one is able to stop the political parties continuing their charade. There is also a determination to put bent MPs into positions of power; paedophiles in particular. This enables them to be controlled by the Secret Services holding evidence of their crimes.
- Lying & spin & deception: these become endemic in all aspects of society from the local police to the Prime Minister. Policies are promulgated but the very opposite of the policy is actually brought into practice. For example: Cameron swore to defend the NHS and repeatedly affirmed his protection of it, even in budgetary terms. In fact it has been starved of cash for five years leaving it billions in deficit while, at the same time it is being sold off piece by piece to right wing supporters. Lies and spin are used to discredit even decent hospitals.
- Infrastructure collapse: when the local infrastructure breaks down people are left powerless and more dependent upon the state. Thus the plan to remove public libraries, wreck local care homes, remove local services (such as lollipop ladies), sell off playing fields, make councils cut important services due to cash restrictions etc.
- No national identity: see racism. The more the nation is filled with immigrants and the more close contact with the EU is enforced, the more Britishness fades away. Note, for example, the lack of schools in the north where English is the predominant language or nurses and doctors that can hardly speak English.
- Family breakdown & marriage breakdown: this is a fundamental to enable state control. Break up families and redistribute the people. One of the ways to affect this is to push the Gay agenda. The more homosexuals there are, the more families and the marriage institution are destabilised. The governmental push for Gay rights and law is not to promote tolerance of homosexuals in a libertarian revolution; it is to discredit and destabilise the marriage bond and to cause rifts in families. Homosexuals only ever form 1-2% of a normal population but their current influence in society (especially the media) is way above that. The Gay agenda works hand-in-hand with the paedophile agenda where kids in care become fodder for sexual deviation.

- Racism and immigration problems: the best way to destabilise a society is to fill it with large numbers of foreign immigrants that take jobs from indigenous people and wreck local infrastructures that cannot cope. This has been done deliberately for the last ten years. What results is racism based on insecurity. This further destabilises society reducing it to tribalism. Multiculturalism leads to people attacking each other on the basis of tribes. The establishment wants to create divisions in society and distract the population to attack each other rather than rebel against the state.
- Red tape: increase the feeling of frustration and powerlessness by increasing administrative restrictions and confusion. Thus the protocols of customer service actually become a means of making customer service impossible. People eventually give up. Everything becomes regulated as the state controls everything we do.

Foreign affairs

- Create continual fear of a fake enemy: if there is an enemy threatening the gates of society, then the population will place all its confidence in the state to defend society. This fear will even allow the state to introduce draconian laws to control the population (note The US Patriot Act).
- Constant war: this allows the people that run the world to make masses of money since many are in the military supply business (note Halliburton's billions of profits from the Iraq War). War also creates patriotism and this assists the establishment.
- Internal fear of terrorists: this further destabilises society and creates even more fear. Again it allows the establishment to enact draconian policies supposedly directed at terrorists but really intended for population control. For example: CCTV; Britain is more heavily monitored than any other country; the secret surveillance and recording of emails, 'phone calls, texts and messages.
- Degrade military power, need for allies: by downgrading British military services the nation becomes unable to defend itself or wage war and this necessitates working in alliance with a European military power, such as France. Hence Britain has entered into a fifty-year military alliance with France. This further enables the build up of globalism.

The purpose of all this is:

- To control the population.
- To eradicate or control dissent.
- To weaken the population.
- To make the population insecure, fearful, suppliant and needy.
- To distract the population.
- To destabilise the population.
- To dumb-down the population.
- To make the population ignorant, especially about political truths.
- To enhance globalism.
- To force the hand of dissidents.

All of these then make the establishment and power elite more secure, stable and powerful to control the masses. It is the opposite of democracy reigning in western supposed 'democracies'.

Those dissidents and political activists that have managed to avoid the manipulation of the state are eventually pushed into action in protests, riots, and actions. This is deliberate since they can then be arrested, imprisoned, identified and controlled. Riots can then be used as an excuse for further draconian policies. Step by step the population is oppressed and repressed.

The real purpose is to be the preparation for the final antichristian, fascist, global state.

Threats to the preparation of the antichristian world power

- Free speech.
- Free thinking.
- Information.
- Alternative media.
- People with social responsibility.
- Honest political activists.
- Biblical Christians who see the truth.
- Biblical local churches.
- An open Internet.
- Means to communicate with others without surveillance (new secure web systems are about to become available from a Scottish firm).
- Financial regulation.
- Probing of banking activities.
- Money outside the control of banks (e.g. BitCoin etc.).
- Honest politicians, police, teachers, judges, etc.
- Proper justice.
- The principles of Common Law.

Further methods employed to bring about change in the rise of the antichristian world government

Constant change

- Multiple change agent quangos (NGOs); there are 6,000 of these in operation.
- 171,000 charities with a budget of £44 billion (but no change to poverty and hunger) which fulfil United Nations strategies. Charities are being used as advisors for government policy without the representation of people.
- 1,300 government departments; top-heavy state (despite Tory rule).
- These have a creeping agenda for change and are unaccountable.

Breakdown of infrastructure

- Transport doesn't work; jams and road works are normal.
- Hospitals are failing; ambulance service can't operate properly.
- Schools are failing; kids leave with qualifications that mean nothing; kids enter university with poor numeracy, literacy and communication skills.
- Defence systems are being cut to the bone.
- Civil service slashed.
- Poverty.
- Pubs closing down (pubs are a hub for social interaction and exchange of ideas).

- Postal service diminished. Post Offices closing in rural areas.
- Rural area services closing down.
- Councils' funds slashed so that they cannot run local services.
- No stability, increasing sense of breakdown.

Behaviour and thinking modification

Neuro-Linguistic Programming. This drifts programming directly into people's minds without attending seminar sessions. It is a form of hypnotism.

The government has admitted using applied behavioural modification (e.g. Mindscape). This changes people's ideas about issues without them even knowing they have changed. If they realise that something has changed, they don't know how they changed. Cameron colluded with French scientists to oversee changed thinking in the British public.

Common Purpose (CP) has been fundamental in changing views through their training programmes then putting their trained agents (stakeholders) into positions of power. CP cherry picks bright kids and promising executives for free training and fast-tacking.

CP has 48-hour training courses, which change people very quickly, affecting their morality and attitudes.

The UN does exactly the same and insists (by an oath) that their operatives give their allegiance to the UN alone and not home countries.

Paedophile rings and sexualisation of infants

Recent cases and growing evidence have demonstrated that governments are running paedophile networks for the pleasure of high level elite figures.<sup>41</sup> Thousands of children are taken from care homes and trafficked by rings in parliament and elsewhere with the collusion of the police, judges, civil service, security services and councils. The number of government cover-ups is immense.<sup>42</sup> Paedophile rings are operating within various police forces, councils, VIP circles and Westminster. Jimmy Savile is but one example of a paedophile networker that was protected from child abuse for fifty years by his contacts in the establishment, including royals. He got rich from supplying kids from care and hospitals.

To aid paedophilia the UN, national governments and local councils have been sexualising children, teaching them that sex is open to them. Children as young as five are being told about oral and anal sex. This is why schoolkids are now engaging in all sorts of sexual pursuits with the resultant pregnancies and STDs. We have even heard of ten-year olds raping babies, as they are so highly sexualised.

The global elite uses paedophilia as a tool because it is a prime means of blackmailing prominent people to do exactly what they want. Whistleblowers have explained that the security services have files on many politicians exposing their paedophilia so that they can

<sup>42</sup> For example: there is still not proper enquiry regarding elite figures involved in the Kincora boy's home paedophile scandal. In the 90s, alternative media exposed some and affirmed that the Secret Service was using this home as a sting operation to trap powerful people into being blackmailed, so that they would then be compliant to globalist agendas (and the British Northern Ireland agenda at the time). These journals were laughed at. Recently, however, three whistleblowers have verified this. One is a former secret service agent, one is a former member of military intelligence and one is a retired army officer that had access to classified information. Despite the whistleblowers' testimony, nothing has been done and the elite paedophiles are still being protected.

control them. Former Prime Minister Edward Heath was a good example of a homosexual paedophile that was controlled by the secret services and used to get Britain into the Common Market.

Globalism

All the above are tools for the change to globalism run by top level bankers, secret society leaders and military CEOs. The effects of breakdown within single nations are to ruin the infrastructure and cause complete breakdown so that the global agenda can be achieved. Nation states will be eradicated and the ruling global elite will be able to establish an international government.

A country that is wrecked with nothing working is much more easily capable of being overrun.

Question 1

For anyone who doubts this agenda and the methods used, consider answering this question. If the government has sufficient money to do its job properly (and it has), and if its mandate is to effect the will of the people, why is everything breaking down? Why is the NHS being wrecked? Why are four million people suddenly starving? Why has child poverty gone through the roof?

The NHS was established when the country was flat broke after the war with a war debt that was not paid off until recently. As well as bringing in a free hospital service, and as well as establishing more schools, our broke country also built tens of thousands of new homes throughout the fifties and early sixties, getting rid of slums entirely. All this was done with no money.

Britain is now in the top ten of global GDP ranks. It is in a much better position than the Attlee or Macmillan governments. Why is everything being wrecked?<sup>43</sup>

Answer; society is breaking down because there are people planning and overseeing this breakdown. The wrecking is being caused by people in power. It is deliberate. The people in power are working to a satanic agenda.

Question 2

Why is it that people that have tried very hard to help the community, such as by providing training programmes for impoverished kids or to solve the power supply problem, have been threatened, harassed, persecuted, had their contracts terminated, their capital taken away, their properties ruined by administrative actions, their families threatened and their lives threatened.<sup>44</sup>

The answer is that the ruling powers do not want society fixed they want it to be wrecked. Individuals who can actually bring a great deal of good to the local community have to be stopped, unless their actions suit the establishment agenda.

<sup>43</sup> We have four million people in food poverty and more than a million people needing homes. Our schools are 29th in the world tables in certain subjects; we used to be top. The Care Home situation is in chaos; mental health services are officially not fit for purpose (with growing numbers of sick young people); GP surgeries are closing down and thousands of people have no doctor; 98 surgeries are in danger of closing right now due to lack of funding. A&E departments are threatened with closing; even in central London (Charing Cross).

For example, more than one inventor, and several companies, have developed prototype engines that work on almost free systems, such as water, aluminium batteries or magnetism. There are cases where these companies have been hounded to destruction because they threaten the international power balance based on oil.

Imagine the change in world politics if oil became unnecessary to drive cars? Peace could break out everywhere and power bases changed overnight. The global elite will not allow this to happen; especially as their revenues partly derive from oil.
